Bill No. 7 of 1983

BIRTHS AND DEATHS REGISTRATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1983

(Published on 4th March, 1983)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is proposed to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

2. Under the existing law, the Registrar of Births and Deaths is prohibited from issuing a death certificate in respect of a deceased person whose death is a subject of an inquiry under the Inquests Act (Cap. 07:01) or under the Mines, Quarries, Works and Machinery Act (Cap. 44:02) until such time as the inquiry is completed and a report is made to him stating the cause of death. An inquiry is required to be held in respect of any person who died a violent or other unnatural death. In some cases it takes weeks before an inquiry is completed. Protracted inquiry may cause a great deal of inconvenience to a bereaved family where the body is to be conveyed out of the country for burial.

3. The object of the Bill is therefore to amend section 25 of the Births and Deaths Registration Act to enable the Registrar of Births and Deaths to issue death certificates in cases where a medical practitioner has performed a post-mortem examination of the body or has examined the body and issued a certificate stating the cause of death.

Minister of Home Affairs.
