DEATH DUTIES (REPEAL) BILL, 1983

(Published on 24th June, 1983)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is proposed to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

2. The object of the Bill is to repeal the Death Duties Act (Cap. 53:04). It has not been an easy task implementing the provisions of the Act. Moreover some of the provisions of the Act especially those relating to succession duties appear to be discriminatory in that different rates of succession duties are exigible as regards the different degree of relationship between the deceased and the beneficiary. Furthermore in view of the proposal to introduce capital transfer tax, it is felt that there is no longer any need for the Death Duties Act.

3. Clause 2 of the Bill therefore proposes the repeal of the Death Duties Act.
