Bill No. 16 of 1992

DRUGS AND RELATED SUBSTANCES BILL, 1992

(Published on 12th June, 1992)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is proposed to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

The purpose of the Bill is to control and regulate the importation, manufacture, distribution and sale of drugs and other related substances used in the treatment of diseases and illnesses in Botswana. It will combine and replace the existing Drugs Act, 1991 and the Habit-Forming Drugs Act.

The provisions of the Bill will require any drug or related substance to be registered by the Director of Health Services, who will be subject to the advice of an advisory board established for the purpose. In addition, the importation, manufacture, distribution or sale of such drugs and related substances may only be effected by or through persons or establishments licensed for the purpose, and the issue of such licences will be subject to the recommendations of the Director. And where drugs and related substances are retailed, their sale shall, except in the case of certain drugs, be under the direct supervision of a pharmacist registered under the Medical, Dental and Pharmacy Act.

Control will also be extended to cover the advertisement of drugs and related substances, and to deal with the dissemination of misleading, false or deceptive information regarding their effect or properties.

Where habit-forming drugs are concerned, either on their own or in a preparation, for the diagnosis or treatment of illnesses, their import, export, manufacture or distribution will be controlled by the provisions of the Act in the same way as other drugs, but otherwise manufacturing, using, possessing, distributing or otherwise dealing in habit-forming drugs will be subject to severe penalties.

B.K. TEMANE,
Minister of Health.

Registration

3. (1) No drug shall be imported into or exported from Botswana, or manufactured, distributed or sold unless such drug has been and is registered by the Director of Health Services, hereinafter referred to as “the Director”:

Provided that the Minister may, in such special circumstances as he considers constitute justification for such action, by notice in the Gazette —

- (a) exempt any drug from the requirements of this section; or
- (b) declare any drug to be a banned drug, in which case it shall not be registered or registrable, or if already registered such registration shall be forthwith null and void.

(2) The Director shall keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, a register in which shall be recorded all drugs registered by him under this section.

(3) The register shall be open for inspection by the public at such times and places and on such terms as may be determined by the Director.

(4) Application for the registration of a drug shall be made to the Director in such form and accompanied by such further information as may be prescribed.

(5) The registration of a drug shall cease to be valid if any significant change has been made in the composition of the product, the dosage form or the conditions of its manufacture without the prior approval of the Director to such change.

Suspension

4. If, in the opinion of the Director, information not previously available indicates that a registered drug may not be safe and effective when used in the manner and for the purposes approved at the time of its registration, he may —

- (a) require such revisions in the composition of the drug, its packaging, labelling or advertising as he may consider necessary or desirable to ensure safety and efficacy;
- (b) suspend the registration for a specified period or pending compliance with any revisions required under paragraph (a); or
- (c) revoke the registration.

Advisory Board

5. (1) The Minister may establish a Drugs Advisory Board, the function of which shall be to advise the Director as to whether a drug should be registered or not, or as to the conditions subject to which it should be registered, or whether those conditions should be revised in accordance with section 4(a), or whether registration should be suspended or revoked.

(2) In establishing the Drugs Advisory Board, the Minister shall determine its composition and its terms of reference and make all necessary appointments thereto by notice published in the Gazette.

(3) Members of the Drugs Advisory Board shall hold office for three years but shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(3) The manufacture of drugs shall be under the control of a registered pharmacist.

(4) Where the Director is satisfied that the conditions of any licence, or of any approval by him, are not being observed, or that the manufacture is not being carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Act and in a satisfactory manner, he may withdraw his approval and give notice thereof to the manufacturer, whereupon any further such manufacture shall, unless or until the Director resumes his approval, constitute an offence under this Act.

7. (1) Drugs shall not be exported or imported, except by the Central Medical Stores or by a person duly licensed therefor in accordance with any written law requiring such licence, and with the written approval of the Director for such export or import.

Export,

(4) The distribution of drugs may only be made by establishments or persons approved by the Director for the sale or distribution of such drugs.

(1) All premises where drugs are stored, handled, dispensed, manufactured or sold shall be subject to periodical inspection by persons authorized by the Director in writing for the purpose, and such persons shall be given unhindered access to such premises with the right to take samples, without payment, of any drugs on the premises, and to carry out any investigations that he considers necessary or desirable. (Published on 12th June, 1992)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is proposed to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

The purpose of the Bill is to make certain amendments to the existing Act. The main amendment is to replace the whole of Part XII relating to the investigation of trade unions and federations of trade unions, in order to revert to the system and procedure prevailing under the Act which preceded the present Act.

The amendment to section 21 is meant to ensure that when an employee is dismissed he is still able to obtain the assistance of his trade union in challenging the dismissal. The amendment of section 22 is for the purpose of clarification.

The deletion of sections 24, 30 and 47(3) is intended to reduce the ways in which the Registrar and the Ministry may participate in the affairs of a trade union, and the amendment to section 32 is intended to preserve the confidentiality of the proceedings of executive committees of trade unions and federations of trade unions.

(2) Where, in relation to any registered trade union, it appears to the Minister that —

- (a) the affairs of the union are being conducted, or the powers of the officers thereof are being exercised in a manner oppressive to one or more members thereof, or in disregard of his or their proper interests as such member or members;
- (b) that any book or document which the trade union is required to send to him or to a person so authorized in accordance with subsection (1) does not disclose a full and fair statement of the matters to which it purports to relate; or

(c) that the affairs of the trade union are being conducted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the members thereof, he may, by notice published in the Gazette, call on the trade union to produce for his inspection, or the inspection of any person so authorized in the notice, all or any of the books and documents of the union, or to furnish in writing such information or explanation as may be specified in the notice.

(3) Where a notice is published in the Gazette under subsection (1) or subsection (2), the trade union concerned shall comply with the terms thereof within such time as may be specified in the notice, and all persons who are or have been officers of the union shall, so far as it lies within their power, produce such books or documents, or furnish such information or explanation.

- (2) The Minister may, on the recommendation of an investigator appointed under subsection (1), order the investigation of any other trade union or person which or who is, or has at any time been associated with the trade union under investigation, and the investigator shall thereafter investigate and report on the affairs of such other trade union so far as he considers that they are relevant to the investigation into the affairs of the trade union under investigation.
- (3) It shall be the duty of all officers and agents of any trade union or of any other person whose affairs are investigated under the provisions of the previous subsections, to produce to the investigator all books or documents of or relating to the trade union or other person, as the case may be, which are in their custody or power, and otherwise to give to the investigator all assistance in connexion with the investigation which they are reasonably able to give.
- (4) The investigator may examine on oath the officers or agents of the trade union concerned, or the other person concerned, as the case may be, in relation to the constitution of the union, its administration, affairs or activities, and may administer an oath accordingly.

(5) If an officer or agent of the trade union or other person concerned destroys or refuses to produce to the investigator any book or document which it is his duty to produce under this section, or who refuses to answer any question put to him by the investigator in respect of the constitution, administration, affairs or other activities of the trade union or other person, as the case may be, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of P1 000 and to imprisonment for one year.

(6)(a) If the investigator considers it necessary for the purposes of an investigation under this Act that a person whom he has no power to examine on oath should be so examined, he may apply to the High Court, and the High Court may thereupon order that person to attend before it and be examined on oath on any matter relevant to the investigation.

(b) On an examination under this subsection the investigator may take part therein, either personally or by an advocate, and any person examined shall answer all questions that are put or allowed to be put to him by the High Court.

(d) Notes of the examination and any explanations or qualifications made by the person examined shall be taken down in writing and shall be read over to and signed by him, and may thereafter be used in evidence against him.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6)(c), the High Court may allow the person examined such costs as it considers just in all the circumstances, and any such costs allowed shall be paid as part of the expenses of the investigation.

(8) The investigator shall, at the conclusion of the investigation, make a final report to the Minister, and the Minister, shall, unless in his opinion it is not in the public interest so to do, —

(d) cause a copy of the report to be published in the Gazette.

(9) A copy of the report as published in the Gazette shall be admissible, in any legal proceedings, as evidence of the opinion of the investigator in relation to any matter contained in the report.

Investigation of membership
of trade
union

53. (1) Where it appears to the Minister that there is good reason to investigate the membership of any trade union, he may himself carry out such investigation, or, by notice in the Gazette, appoint an investigator to carry out the investigation.

(2) The Minister or the investigator may require any person whom he has reasonable cause to believe to be or to have been a member of the trade union concerned, or to be or to have been interested in the affairs or activities of the trade union, or to act or to have acted as an agent or advisor of someone interested therein in relation to the affairs and activities of the trade union, to give him any information which such person has or could reasonably be expected to obtain as to the present and past activities or interests of the members of the trade union, and the names and addresses of any other persons interested, or of any persons who act or have acted on their behalf in relation to the membership, affairs or activities of the trade union.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to have an interest in the membership, affairs or activities of a trade union if he has done anything in relation to such membership, affairs or activities.

(4) Any person who refuses or fails to give any information required of him under this section, or who, in giving such information, makes any statement which is false in any material particular, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of P1 000 and to imprisonment for one year:

Provided that it shall be a defence to a charge of making a false statement if the person charged proves that when he made the statement he believed, on reasonable grounds, that the statement was true.

(5) Where it appears to the Minister that there is difficulty in finding out the relevant facts about any such membership, affairs or activities, and that the difficulty is due wholly or mainly to the unwillingness of the persons concerned, or any of them, to give accurate information as required by this section, the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, cancel the registration of the trade union, and the Registrar shall forthwith remove the name of the union from the register.

Part to feder-
