SCHEDULE 1

SCHEDULE 3

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on the Minister of Labour and Home Affairs by section 57 of the Apprenticeship and Industrial Training Act, the following Regulations are hereby made.

Citation	1. These Regulations may be cited as the Apprenticeship and Industrial Training Regulations, 1993.
Trades for apprentices	2. The trades listed in Schedule 1 shall be designated trades within the terms of section 14 of the Act.
Duration of apprenticeship	3. (1) An apprenticeship shall, unless the apprentice fails to meet the required standards, be for a period of four years. (2) The duration of an apprenticeship in the trades of chef and waiter in the hotel and tourism industry shall be for 3 years, with the first year being a common year: Provided that the Board may vary the period for both trades from time to time. (3) Every candidate for an apprenticeship shall have passed Junior Certificate or Standard VII education standards with Trade Test "C" (T+P) certificates.
Training standards	4. Training standards for apprentices shall be laid down by the Board, on the advice of the relevant Trade Advisory Committee, and may be varied from time to time.
Pass marks	5. (1) In all theoretical and practical tests for apprentices, at all levels and in all subjects, minimum pass marks shall be 50%. (2) In order for an apprentice to qualify it shall be necessary for him to pass the technology and the practical tests, and any two subjects out of the remaining three related theoretical subjects.
Margins for successful completion of apprenticeship	6. (1) An apprentice may be permitted to immediately re-sit a maximum of two academic subjects, and a failure to pass those subjects a second time shall be sufficient reason for requiring him to repeat the whole of that academic year, and, if he should again be unsuccessful, his contract of apprenticeship may thereafter be terminated. (2) An apprentice who is unsuccessful in the practical assessment or the final test shall be required to repeat the whole year of practical training, and if he is again unsuccessful in the test, his contract of apprenticeship may be terminated.
Salary increments, when due	7. (1) An apprentice shall be entitled to receive an annual increment upon successful completion of the industrial and institutional annual assessment tests at the beginning of the apprenticeship year. (2) Where an apprentice fails to complete his annual examination at the end of an academic year, due to his own negligence, but does so at a later date, he shall be entitled to receive his increment as from such later date. (3) The employer of an apprentice shall inform the Director of his reasons for withholding an apprentice's increment. (4) After examining the reasons for the withholding of an apprentice's increment, the Director may, if he is not satisfied that the reasons therefor are adequate, order the employer concerned to pay the increment from such date as he may specify in the order.
Absence from place of work	8. (1) An apprentice shall not be entitled to be paid any salary for any period during which he is absent from his place of institutional or industrial training during working hours, unless he has been granted paid leave by his employer, or the institution, as the case may be, or he is incapacitated by illness or injury and subsequently produces a certificate from a qualified medical practitioner to prove that he was so incapacitated.

(2) An apprentice who is absent for 2 weeks from institutional training, or who fails to complete 30 weeks practical training at his employer's workplace, will be required to repeat the whole year's training.

9. (1) Apprentices who have successfully passed the first assessment test, or its equivalent trade test "C" (C+P), or the second assessment test or its equivalent trade test 'B', may be enrolled as an apprentice for a correspondingly reduced period of apprenticeship.

Reduced contractual period

(2) Apprentices who have passed an assessment test will not, in addition, be entitled to the issue of an equivalent trade test certificate, or vice-versa, without passing the appropriate test as provided in regulation 12.

10. (1) A contract of apprenticeship shall be in the form set out in Schedule 2 hereto.

Forms

(2) The forms set out in Schedule 3 hereto shall be the forms to be used for the purposes stated —

- (a) Form 1 - National Craft Certificate (NCC)
- (b) Form 2 - Trade Test Certificate; "C"(T+P)
- (c) Form 3 - Trade Test Certificate - 'B' grade
- (d) Form 4 - Practical Competency Certificate "C"(P)
- (e) Form 5 - Certificate of Appointment of an Industrial Training Officer.

11. National trade test standards for the designated trades specified in Schedule 1 shall be established to ascertain whether the applicant, after a prescribed period of employment and/or training in the trade, has acquired the necessary range of skills and related knowledge to enable him to perform work of the quality and standard required by industry. The national trade test standards shall be in the form and subject to the conditions prescribed by the National Advisory Board for Apprenticeship and Industrial Training.

Trade test standards

12. (1) An application to take a trade test shall be made by the applicant on the prescribed form to the Director, and before writing the trade test the applicant shall be required to fulfill the appropriate requirements as detailed in subregulations (2) and (3).

Application for trade test

(2) In case of an applicant for a grade 'C'(T+P) trade test he shall have completed at least 3 years employment and/or acceptable training in the trade, and have also satisfactorily completed any skills improvement courses at this level, or another approved 2 years course conducted in industry or in a training institution approved by the Director.

(3) In the case of an applicant for a grade "B" trade test, after passing grade "C"(T+P) he shall have completed 2 years employment and/or institutional training including approved institutional training and any necessary skills improvement courses, or one year full time institutional training approved by the Director.

13. An applicant wishing to take a trade test shall submit, in the application form, written evidence from his employer or employers showing the period during which he was employed in the trade and evidence of any periods of approved institutional training.

Employer's certificate

14. (1) Applicants who have insufficient academic levels will be able to attend a practical skills improvement course based on 'C' grade practical testing standards in the respective trade. At the end of the course, the candidates will be required to obtain at least 50% marks in the practical examination to be entitled to a "Practical Competency Certificate" or 'C'(P).

Practical competency certificate "C" (P)

(2) An applicant for a Practical Competency Certificate should have a minimum of 3 years practical experience in the trade.

- Exemption from parts of tests
- Exemption from NCC examination
- Tools of trade
- Trade tests
- All parts to be passed
- Training courses
- Requirements for writing final NCC test
- Repeat of tests
- Results of tests
15. Applicants who have considerable experience in a trade and who have satisfactorily completed an approved course of industrial training may, with the permission of the Director take a trade test other than 'C' in that trade.
16. The Director may, if satisfied of a candidate's qualifications and experience obtained within the country or from abroad, exempt a candidate from writing the national craft certificate examination and issue him with a national craft certificate in the respective designated trade.
17. An applicant undergoing a trade test shall provide his own trade hand tools.
18. (1) A trade test shall consist of a theoretical and a practical test at C(T+P) and B grade levels.
(2) The theoretical test shall be a written test in English and will comprise of trade theory, associated studies and other related subjects determined by the trade advisory committee concerned.
(3) In the practical test an applicant shall be expected to complete a test piece or job, or a series of test pieces or jobs within a given time.
(4) In all tests at all levels and in all subjects minimum pass marks will be 50%, and in all practical tests pass marks will also be 50% .
19. (1) An applicant shall be required to pass both the theoretical and the practical tests. An applicant who fails to obtain a pass in the theoretical or the practical test may subsequently, within the next 18 months, re-sit the test in which he failed. If the candidate does not within that period successfully pass the failed test, he shall be required to resit the whole test both in the theoretical and practical subjects.
(2) It shall be compulsory to pass the technology and the practical test and any two subjects out of the remaining three related theoretical subjects to pass the test as a whole.
20. Persons who have not entered into a contract of apprenticeship may work towards, and be tested for, the first or the second assessment tests by following a full time approved course of training at an approved training institution.
21. An applicant for the NCC examination who holds a trade 'B' certificate and also has 2 years experience, will be required to pass an aptitude test equal to the 2nd assessment test and then attend two blocks of thirteen weeks institutional training leading to the 3rd assessment test and then the final NCC test respectively. A candidate who holds the trade test 'A' certificate will be required to pass an aptitude test equal to the 3rd assessment test and then to attend one block of thirteen weeks of institutional training leading to the final NCC examination.
22. (1) If an applicant fails in the practical part of the trade test he shall not be eligible to repeat the test for a period of six months thereafter, but if he fails in the theoretical subjects he may resit them after a period of 2 months. If an applicant fails a second or further time he shall not be eligible to re-sit the test for a period of twelve months thereafter.
(2) A candidate who has failed in a test shall be obliged to reapply for permission to resit the examination.
23. An applicant shall be informed in writing of his results as soon as possible, and in any case not later than 60 days after the date of trade test.

24. An applicant shall be awarded a trade test certificate in Form 2, Form 3 or Form 4 of Schedule 3 not later than 30 days after the declaration of the result. Award of certificate
25. The Director shall cause a register or registers to be kept in the appropriate form of trade test certificates and national craft certificates issued by him. Register of certificates
26. If a trade test certificate or national craft certificate is lost, damaged or destroyed, the Director may issue a duplicate certificate marked "duplicate" against a fee prescribed by the Board and upon production of evidence of such loss, damage or destruction. Replacement of certificates
27. The Director may designate qualified and experienced persons to act as part-time trade testing officers to carry out trade tests and assessment tests in a particular specialised trade on the recommendations of the trade advisory committee concerned. Part-time testing officers
28. Any person who — Offences
- (a) makes use of a trade test certificate to which he is not entitled under these Regulations;
- (b) being entitled to a trade test certificate under these Regulations, parts with possession of it to a person not so entitled, for use by that person as his own trade test certificate;
- (c) alters or defaces a trade test certificate issued under these Regulations, or makes any model, likeness or facsimile of such certificate with intent to deceive or defraud shall be guilty of an offence and be liable to the penalties prescribed under section 56 of the Act.
29. The Board may, at its discretion, determine fees for trade tests. Fees
30. The Director of Apprenticeship and Industrial Training is authorized to use his discretion in matters of an urgent nature, or in respect of matters not fully covered under these Regulations: Director's discretion
- Provided that the exercise of such discretion shall not in any way conflict with the provisions of the Act or these Regulations.
