1. These Bye-Laws may be cited as the Ghanzi District Council (Markets) Bye-Laws, 1997. Citation

2. In these Bye-Laws, unless the context otherwise requires — Interpretation

“Council” means the Ghanzi District Council;

“market” means a market established by the Council;

“market master” means a person appointed by the Council to be a market master for the purposes of these Bye-Laws;

“stall-holder” means a person by whom a stall is hired under these Bye-Laws. Establishment and control of markets

3. (1) The Council may establish such markets within the Council area as it deems necessary or desirable.

(2) Every such market shall be under the control and supervision of a market master appointed by the Council.

(3) Any person who erects any building, tent, booth, shelter or other structure within a market without the written permission of the Council, and otherwise than in conformity with any directions given by the Council, shall be guilty of an offence.

Hiring of stalls
in markets

4. (1) A person wishing to hire a stall in a market shall make written application therefor to the Council, in the form set out in the First Schedule.

(2) The Council may approve, or may on good grounds reject, an application made to it under paragraph (1), and in particular may reject it -

(a) where every stall of the type for which application is made is already hired;

(b) if, in its opinion, the applicant is under 16 years of age; or

(c) if, in its opinion, to grant the application would not be in the public interest.

(3) Any person whose application has been rejected under paragraph (2) may appeal in writing against that decision to the Minister.

(4) Where an application under paragraph (1) is approved, the market master shall issue a permit substantially in the form set out in the Second Schedule, and specifying —

(2) The market master may refuse entry to a market to any person whom he suspects on reasonable grounds to be suffering from, or to be a carrier of, a communicable disease, or to be under the influence of drink or drugs, or to any person who in his presence does, in or in the immediate vicinity of the market, any act prescribed by paragraph (1).

(3) Any person who, on being required forthwith to leave a market under paragraph (1), refuses to do so or who, having left a market on being required to do so under that paragraph, or having been refused entry to a market under paragraph (2), enters or attempts to enter the market without the permission of the market master shall be guilty of an offence.

6. A stall-holder shall not sublet the stall hired to him under these Bye-Laws to any other person, and any stall-holder who does so sublet his stall shall be guilty of an offence, and in addition the Council may cancel the permit issued to him under bye-law 4 of these Bye-Laws.

Subletting of stalls

7. (1) Every stall-holder shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the stall let to him, and all utensils, machinery and equipment used therein, and all merchandise sold or displayed for sale therein, are, and are maintained, in a clean and hygienic condition, and that all persons engaged in the business of the stall are while so engaged in a proper state of cleanliness.

Cleanliness of stalls

(2) Where there is a contravention of any of the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) the stall-holder concerned shall be guilty of an offence, and in addition the Council may cancel the permit issued to him under bye-law 4 of these Bye-Laws.

Provided that the provisions of this bye-law shall not apply to poultry intended for sale by a stall holder within his stall.

9. (1) Every market may be opened for business on any day, and shall be opened and closed at such times between the hours of 06.00 a.m. and 18.30 p.m. as the Council shall determine.

Business days and hours

(2) Every market master shall exhibit, in a conspicuous place within and outside the market, where the public may readily read the same, a notice clearly stating the times at which the market shall be opened and closed.
