GHANA CIVIL SERVICE

GRADUATE ENTRY COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION, 1970

The Public Services Commission announces that in compliance with the Mills-Odoi Commission recommendations which have been accepted by Government, it has been decided that as from 1970, University graduates wishing to take up appointment in certain sectors of the Civil Service will be required to take a Competitive Entrance Examination. Categories of candidates affected are: (a) local University candidates sitting for their final degree examinations in May/June this year, (b) local external degree finalists, (c) Ghanaian graduates overseas. Graduates in the professional fields, such as Agriculture, Engineering, Architecture, Surveys and Law will however, be exempted from this type of Examination. Similarly, graduates wishing to take up teaching appointments will also be exempted from the Examination.

2. Areas of Employment.—The Examination will embrace all graduates wishing to take up appointments in the following fields in the Civil Service:—

The Administrative Service
Ministry of External Affairs
Ministry of Finance and Economic Planning
Central Revenue Department
Auditor-General's Department
Social Welfare and Community Development
Central Bureau of Statistics
Customs and Excise Department
Co-operatives
Ministry of Trade and Industries
Labour
Ministry of Information.

3. The Examination will comprise the following papers:—

(i) English Language—2½ hours.—This will include essay writing, precis and comprehension designed to test the candidate's power of appreciation and analysis of complex issues, ability to make right deductions from stated facts and to reproduce the essence of given themes in a concise, coherent and simple form.

(ii) General Paper I—2½ hours.—This will be aimed at testing the candidate's awareness of current affairs mainly in the social, cultural, economic and political fields. A liberal choice of questions will be given and candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of both African and world affairs.

(iii) General Paper II.—This will be in two parts as follows:—

(a) Part I: Intelligence Test—1 hour.—It will comprise two sets of typical intelligence tests.

(b) Part II: Special Paper—1½ hours.—This is an objective paper related to specialised fields and aimed at identifying the personal bias of candidates for the specialised functional areas, viz. (1) General Administration, (2) Financial Administration, (3) Social Administration and (4) Foreign Service.

4. Date of Examination.—The Examination is scheduled to take place on 19th and 20th June, 1970.

5. Centres.—Two centres, one at the University of Ghana, Legon, and the other at the Kumasi University of Science and Technology are provided for all local candidates. Separate arrangements will be made for overseas candidates.

6. Examination Fees.—An examination fee of N¢10 per head will be paid. Candidates who do not pay will be ineligible to sit the examination.

7. Method of Application.—All local University candidates must obtain application forms from their Registrars, complete them in duplicate, and forward them to reach the Public Services Commission, together with the examination fee enclosed in postal orders not later than Wednesday, 15th April, 1970. External candidates (local) must collect application forms direct from the Office of the Public Services Commission. Candidates in overseas Universities should direct their applications to the Director of Recruitment (Overseas), Ghana High Commission, Office of the Director of Recruitment, 38 Queen's Gate, London, S.W. 7, England, or to the nearest Ghana Mission.

8. Interview.—Candidates who are successful in the examination will be required to appear before a Selection Board organised by the Public Services Commission for their final selection and allocation.
