GHANA CIVIL AVIATION AUTHORITY

SECURITY DIRECTIVES

SD/GEN/11/02

14TH JUNE, 2011

SUBJECT: SECURITY OF OPERATIONS AND AUDIT OF OPERATORS

Further to the powers conferred on the Director General by Section 9(2) of the Ghana Civil Aviation Act, 2004, ACT 678, the following Security Directives are hereby made this 14th day of June 2011.

A. Allocation of Responsibility by Appropriate Authority

1. Any person, assigned responsibility for a specific function or task by the Authority as contained in the National Civil Aviation Security Programme, and fails to carry out that function or task, to the standard specified therein commits an offence and may be liable to a penalty or upon conviction shall be liable to a term of imprisonment or a fine or to both a fine and imprisonment.

B. Provision of Information to the Appropriate Authority on the Security of Operations by Service Providers

2. A person who provides services to an aircraft operator and a person who provides a service related to the transportation of goods by air, shall provide to the Authority, on reasonable notice given by the Authority, written or electronic records or other information relevant to the security of the operations of the aircraft operator, including:

- (a) information concerning the method of implementing the security measures that apply to its operations; and
- (b) a description of the nature of the operations related to a particular flight and the services provided in respect of the flight.

C. Compliance Monitoring

3. The Director General may in writing require any entity or person who:

- (a) is required to hold an aviation security programme; or
- (b) operates, maintains, or services, or does any other act in respect of any aircraft, aeronautical product, aviation related service, air traffic service, or aeronautical procedure, to undergo inspections and audits and such monitoring as the Director General considers necessary in the interests of civil aviation security.

4. The Director General or his authorised representative may carry out such inspections, audits and monitoring as necessary in the interest of civil aviation security, in respect of any entity or person operating, maintaining, or servicing, or doing any other act related to any aircraft, aeronautical product, aviation related service, air traffic service, or aeronautical procedure.

5. For the purpose of any inspection, audit or monitoring carried out in respect of any entity or person operating, maintaining, or servicing, or doing any other act in respect of any aircraft, aeronautical product, aviation related service, air traffic service, or aeronautical procedure, the Director General may in writing require from such entity or person such information as is considered relevant to the inspection, audit or the monitoring.

D. Power of Investigation

6. The Director General may, in writing, require any operator to undergo an investigation conducted by the Authority if the Director General believes, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary in the interests of civil aviation security, or if the Director General:

- (a) has reasonable grounds to believe that the operator has failed to comply with any conditions of an aviation security requirement/procedures /measures; or
- (b) considers that the privileges or duties for which the security measures of the operator have been approved, are being carried out by the operator in a careless or incompetent manner.

E. Procedures for Investigation

7. If the Director General requires an operator to undergo an investigation, the Director General shall:

- (a) inform the operator, in writing, of the date on which the investigation will begin;
- (b) conduct and conclude the investigation as soon as practicable; and
- (c) inform the operator in writing of the results of the investigation including:
 - (i) any recommendations arising out of the investigation; and
 - (ii) the grounds for those recommendations.

F. Power to Suspend Operations

8. The Director General may suspend any operator or impose conditions in respect of any such operator if he considers such action necessary in the interest of security, and if he:

- (a) considers such action necessary to ensure compliance with these Directives;
- (b) is satisfied that the holder has failed to comply with any conditions of an aviation security requirement/procedures/measures; or
- (c) considers that the privileges or duties for which the security measures of the operators have been approved are being carried out by the operator in a careless or incompetent manner.

G. General Power of Entry

9. For the purpose of carrying out his functions, duties, or powers under these Directives, a security auditor or any person duly authorised by the Director General shall have right of access at any reasonable time to the following:

- (a) any aircraft, aerodrome, building, or place; and
- (b) any document or record concerning any aircraft, aeronautical product, or aviation related service.

10. Without limiting the power conferred by Director General, a security auditor or any person duly authorised by the Director General who has reasonable grounds to believe that:

- (a) any breach of these Directives or security measures is being or about to be committed;
- (b) a condition imposed under any civil aviation security programme is not being complied with; or
- (c) a situation exists or is about to exist that constitutes a danger to persons or property, may at any reasonable time enter any aircraft, aerodrome, building, or place, and carry out an inspection.

11. A Security auditor or any person who is authorised to have access to or to enter any aircraft, aerodrome, building, or place as authorised by the Director General:

- (a) may require any person who is in possession of an aviation security programme, or of any certificate, book, manual, record, list, notice, or other document that is required to be kept under these Directives, to produce or surrender it; and
- (b) must, if a document is surrendered, inform the relevant aviation document holders orally, as soon as practicable, and in writing that the document has been surrendered.

12. Every person exercising the power of entry conferred by the Director General shall carry a proof of identity and authority, issued by the Director General specifying:

- (a) the name and the office or offices held by the person; and
- (b) that the person is authorised by the Director General to exercise the power conferred on him or her to enter aircraft, aerodromes, buildings, and places, and to carry out such inspection.

13. Every person exercising the power of entry conferred on him or her by the Director General shall produce credentials or authorisation:

- (a) if practicable on first entering the aircraft, aerodrome, building, or place; and
- (b) whenever subsequently reasonably required to do so.

H. Notification of Audits

14. The Authority shall give at least six (6) weeks' notice to the facility operator or service provider that is the subject of a security audit.

15. When an aerodrome is to be audited, the Authority shall notify the appropriate airport authority accordingly.

16. When giving notice of an audit to the facility operator or service provider being audited, the Authority shall communicate a pre-audit questionnaire, for completion by the facility operator or service provider and a request for the following security documents;

- (a) the approved facility or service provider security programme (where applicable);
- (b) records, and results of any internal quality assurance audits undertaken;
- (c) results of any investigations conducted into security incidents since the date of the last audit; and
- (d) results of previous audits and/or inspections carried out by Authority's security auditors.

17. The completed questionnaire and the documents requested shall be submitted to the GCAA within four (4) weeks of receipt of the audit notification.

I. Failure to Comply with Inspection or Audit Request

18. Any person who, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with an audit or inspection request commits an offence and is liable:

- (a) In the case of an individual, a moderate to maximum civil penalty shall apply and, if the offence is a continuing one, to a further fine not exceeding 15 civil penalty units for every day or part of a day during which the offence is continued; or
- (b) In the case of a body corporate, a moderate to maximum civil penalty shall apply and, if the offence is a continuing one, to a further fine not exceeding 100 civil penalty units for every day or part of a day during which the offence is continued.

J. Obstruction of Authorized Persons

19. Any person who obstructs or impedes a security auditor or any person who is duly authorised by the Director General and acting in the performance or exercise of any functions, duties, or powers conferred on him or her by these Directives, commits an offence and is liable;

- (a) In the case of an individual, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a maximum civil penalty; or
- (b) In the case of a body corporate, a maximum civil penalty shall apply.

20. Imprisonment or maximum civil penalty shall apply only where the person obstructed or impeded produces evidence of his or her authority.

K. Facility Operator or Service Provider's Answer

21. Within two (2) months of the date of dispatch of an inspection or audit report, the facility operator or service provider shall submit in writing to the Authority an answer to the report which:

- (a) addresses the findings and recommendations;
- (b) provides an action plan, specifying actions, deadlines and persons responsible, to remedy any identified deficiencies.

L. Penalty Clause

22. Unless otherwise specified, any person or entity who contravenes any of these Directives commits an offence and upon conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Six Hundred penalty units or imprisonment not exceeding Two Years or to both a fine and imprisonment.

23. The term moderate and maximum Civil penalty when used in this directive shall connote the penalties as specified in the Range of Civil Penalties in L.I. 1824 1.5.1.2.1.8 (d).

Compliance with the above Directive takes effect from date of Publication

All Operators are to take note and comply accordingly.
