UGANDA PROTECTORATE.

AN ORDINANCE

Enacted by His Britannic Majesty's Commissioner for the Uganda Protectorate.

Entebbe,
16th October, 1906.

H. HESKETH BELL
His Majesty's Commissioner.

No. 9 of 1906.

Game.

Short Title.

Interpretation.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Uganda Game Ordinance, 1906."

2. In this Ordinance "The Protectorate" means the Uganda Protectorate.

"Hunt, kill or capture" means hunting, killing, or capturing by any method, and includes every attempt to kill or capture.

"Hunting" includes molesting.

"Animal" save as herein expressly provided, means mammals, and birds other than domesticated, but does not include reptiles, amphibia, fishes and invertebrate animals.

"Game" means any animal mentioned in any of the Schedules.

"Public Officer" means a European Officer in the public service of the Uganda or East Africa or Zanzibar Protectorates, or on the Superior Establishment of the Uganda Railway, or an Officer of one of His Majesty's ships on the East Africa station or a European Officer in the public service of the Sudan Government.

"Native" means any native of Africa, not being of European or American race or parentage.

"Settler" means a person for the time being resident in the Protectorate not being a public officer or a native.

"Sportsman" means a person who visits the Protectorate wholly or partly for sporting purposes, not being a public officer, settler or a native.

"Collector" means the principal Civil Officer in charge of a district of the Protectorate.

"Schedule" and "Schedules" refer to the Schedules annexed to this Ordinance.

General Provisions.

Animals not to be hunted etc. without special license.

3. (1) No person, unless he is authorized by a special license in that behalf, shall hunt, kill, or capture any of the animals mentioned in the First Schedule.

(2) No person, unless he is authorized by a special license under this Ordinance, shall hunt, kill, or capture any animal of the kinds mentioned in the Second Schedule if the animal be (a) immature or (b) a female accompanied by its young.

Animals not to be hunted without a license.

4. No person, unless he is authorized under this Ordinance, shall hunt, kill, or capture any animal mentioned in the Third Schedule.

5. The Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, by Proclamation, remove any animal from any of the Schedules, or declare that the name of any species, variety, or sex of animal, whether beast or bird not mentioned in any Schedule hereto, shall be added to a particular Schedule, or that the name of any species or variety of animal mentioned or included in one Schedule shall be transferred to another Schedule, and, if he thinks fit, apply such Proclamation to the whole of the Protectorate, or to any Province, District or other area.

6. (1) Save as hereinafter provided no person shall export from the Protectorate for sale or shall within the Protectorate sell, or purchase, or offer or expose for sale any head, horn, bone, skin, feather, flesh, or any other part of any animal mentioned in any of the Schedules, unless such animal has been kept in a domesticated state.

(2) Save as hereinafter provided no person shall collect, export from the Protectorate for sale, or shall within the Protectorate sell, or purchase, or offer or expose for sale any ostrich egg unless the ostrich has been kept in a domesticated state.

(3) No person shall knowingly store, pack, convey, or export any animal or any part of any animal or any ostrich egg which he has reason to believe has been obtained in contravention of this Ordinance.

(4) Ostrich eggs, or any animal or any heads, horns, tusks, skins, feathers or other remains of any animals mentioned in any of the Schedules hereto shall be liable to forfeiture if they have been obtained in contravention of this Ordinance.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section any ostrich eggs or any heads, horns, tusks, skins, feathers or other remains of any animals mentioned in the Schedules may be sold in the following cases and under the following conditions:—

(a) If they form part of the estate of a deceased person, by the Administrator General or personal representative of such deceased person, with the consent of the Court granting probate or administration, and on payment of such fee as the Court directs, not exceeding 20 rupees.

(b) If they have been forfeited, by the order of the Commissioner or of the Court by which they have been declared to be forfeited.

(6) In any sale under sub-section 5 of this section purchasers shall in every case be given a certificate specifying the articles and declaring that they have been lawfully sold under the provisions of this Ordinance, and such certificate shall be evidence that the purchaser has not obtained the goods in contravention of this Ordinance.

(7) Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the sale, purchase, transfer or export of elephant ivory or hippopotamus tusks which have been obtained without a contravention of this Ordinance.

(8) When any animal mentioned in any of the Schedules hereto is killed by accident, or when the carcase or remains of any animal shall be found, the head, horns, tusks, and feathers of such animal shall belong to the Government; Provided that the Commissioner may waive these rights in any case as he may deem fit; and,

Provided that the Commissioner may direct the payment to any person or persons so killing or finding such compensation as shall cover the cost of transport of any ivory to the nearest station; and,

May direct rewards to be paid for the finding of ivory.

7. (1) Save as hereinafter provided any person found in possession of, or selling, transferring, or exporting, or attempting to sell, transfer or export any male elephant's tusk weighing less than eleven pounds or any female elephant's tusk, or any pieces of ivory which, in the opinion of any officer engaged in the civil administration of the Uganda Protectorate, formed part of a male elephant's tusk under eleven pounds in weight, or of a female elephant's tusk, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 1,000 rupees or two months' imprisonment of either kind, or to both, and the tusk or parts of a tusk shall be confiscated unless the Commissioner shall otherwise order.

(2) Provided that the Commissioner or any person authorised by the Commissioner in that behalf may possess, sell, or transfer within the Uganda Protectorate or may export from the Uganda Protectorate any ivory belonging reservation.

to the Government or confiscated under the provisions of this Ordinance or of any Regulation or Ordinance repealed by this Ordinance.

(3) All such ivory possessed, sold, transferred or exported under the provisions of the last preceding sub-section shall be distinctively marked with such mark and in such manner as the Commissioner by notice published in the Official Gazette may appoint.

Saving to purchasers.

(4) The purchaser or transferee of any ivory so sold or transferred under the provisions of sub-section 2 of this section shall lawfully possess such ivory and may lawfully export such ivory from the Uganda Protectorate.

Saving as to ivory already in possession.

(5) The provisions of sub-section 1 of this section shall not apply to any ivory lawfully possessed by any person at the date of the publication of this Ordinance provided that such ivory shall within three months of the publication of this Ordinance be produced or sent to the nearest Collector who shall mark such ivory with such mark and in such manner as the Commissioner may appoint.

Restriction on killing fish.

8. No person shall use any poison, or, without a special license, any dynamite or other explosive for the killing or taking of any fish.

Power to prohibit destructive methods of capture.

9. Where it appears to the Commissioner that any method used for killing or capturing animals or fish is unduly destructive, he may, by Proclamation, prohibit such method or prescribe the conditions under which any method may be used; and if any person uses any method so prohibited, or uses any method otherwise than according to the conditions so prescribed, he shall be liable to the same penalties as for a breach of this Ordinance.

Animals etc. which may be killed
without license.

10. Save as provided by this Ordinance, or by any Proclamation under this Ordinance, any person may hunt, kill, or capture any animal not mentioned in any of the Schedules, or any fish.

Game Reserve.

Game Reserves.

11. (1) The areas described in the Sixth Schedule hereto are hereby declared to be game reserves.

Power to declare
etc. game reserves.

The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of State, may by Proclamation declare any other portion of the Protectorate to be a game reserve, may define or alter the limits of any Game reserve, and this Ordinance shall apply to every such game reserve.

Prohibition on hunting etc.
within reserve.

(2) Save as provided in this Ordinance, any person who, hunts, kills, or captures any animal in a game reserve, or is found within a game reserve under circumstances showing that he was unlawfully in pursuit of any animal, shall be guilty of a breach of this Ordinance.

Power to exempt
from protection
in reserves.

(3) The Commissioner may by notice, to be published as directed by him, exempt from protection any animal in a game reserve.
