EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

AN ORDINANCE

No. 1 of 1908.

Title. To amend the Diseases of Animals Ordinance 1906.

Date. [31st January, 1908.]

Enactment. BE it enacted by the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof:—

Short title. 1. This Ordinance may be cited as “The Diseases of Animals Ordinance 1908” and shall be read as one with the Diseases of Animals Ordinance 1906 hereinafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

Persons offending against Diseases of Animals Ordinance may be arrested without warrant. 2. Where any person is seen or found committing, or is reasonably suspected of being engaged in committing an offence against the Principal Ordinance or a breach of any rule, proclamation, order or direction under the said Ordinance, a Veterinary Officer, an Inspector appointed under the said Ordinance, or a Police Officer may without warrant stop and detain him : and if his name and address be not known to the Officer stopping or detaining him, and he fails to give them to the satisfaction of such Officer, such Officer may, without warrant, apprehend him.

Penalty for obstructing officers in the execution of duty under Diseases of Animals Ordinance. 3. If any person obstructs or impedes or assists to obstruct or impede a Veterinary Officer, an Inspector appointed under the Principal Ordinance or a Police Officer in the execution of his duty under this Ordinance or under the Principal Ordinance, a Veterinary Officer, Inspector, or Police Officer may without warrant apprehend the offender : and such offender shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding 12 months or to a fine not exceeding 1,500 rupees or to both.

Persons arrested to be brought before Magistrate without delay. 4. A person apprehended under this Ordinance shall be taken with all practicable speed before a Magistrate and shall not be detained without a warrant longer than is necessary for the purpose.

Animals in respect of which offence committed may be seized. 5. (1) A Veterinary Officer, an Inspector appointed under the Principal Ordinance, or a Police Officer may seize any animal in respect of which he may have reason to suspect that an offence against the Principal Ordinance or a breach of any rule, proclamation, order or direction under the said Ordinance is being committed, and may remove such animal to any pound, enclosure or other place selected by a Veterinary Officer and there detain such animal subject to the orders of a Magistrate.

Every seizure to be reported to Magistrate. (2) Whenever any animal shall have been seized and detained under the provisions of the preceding Sub-section the Officer making such seizure shall with all practicable speed report the same to a Magistrate having jurisdiction within the district in which such animal has been so seized.

Animals may be forfeited. 6. (1) Whenever any person shall have been convicted of an offence against the Principal Ordinance or of a breach of any rule, proclamation, order or direction under the said Ordinance, the Court convicting such person may, in addition to or in lieu of imposing any other punishment authorised by law, order that the animal, or all or any of the animals in respect of which such offence or breach has been committed shall be forfeited. (2) Whenever it shall be reported to a Magistrate that any animal has been seized and detained under the provisions of Section 5 of this Ordinance but that the person who is alleged to have committed an offence or breach in respect of such animal is unknown or cannot be found, the Magistrate may if satisfied by evidence on oath that there is reason to believe that an offence against the Principal Ordinance or a breach of any rule, proclamation, order or direction under the said Ordinance has been committed in respect of such animal, order that such animal be forfeited. Provided however that no order shall be made under this Sub-section unless the owner (if his name and whereabouts be known) of such animal shall have had an opportunity of appearing before the Magistrate to show cause why such order shall not be made.

- (3) A Magistrate whenever he shall be satisfied that there is reason to believe that an offence or breach as aforesaid has been committed in respect of any animal seized and detained under the provisions of Section 5 of this Ordinance, may order that the owner of such animal shall pay to the Chief Veterinary Officer such sum as he may consider reasonable to cover the expenses connected with the removal of such animal to the place of detention and the keep of such animal during such detention and that unless such sum be paid within a time to be specified on such order that the animal be forfeited.

7. Whenever any animal is forfeited under the provisions of this Ordinance it shall be slaughtered sold or otherwise dealt with as the Governor by any general or special order may direct; and the proceeds of the sale of any animal forfeited under this Ordinance shall form part of the revenue of the Protectorate. And disposed of as the Governor shall order.

8. The Diseases of Animals Amendment Ordinance 1906 (No. 7 of 1906) Repeal. is hereby repealed.

NOTIFICATION.

Proclamation of Forest Area.

In exercise of the powers conferred on His Excellency the Governor by the East Africa Forestry Regulations, 1902, I hereby proclaim the undermentioned area to be a "Forest Area" within the meaning of the aforesaid Regulations.

The whole of the land within the limits defined below:—

Bounded on the NORTH by the land granted to Messrs. London, Bailey, Sargeant, Emley and Dr. Clarke; on the EAST by the land granted to Messrs. James Gibbon and Vigne; on the SOUTH by the caravan road as far as the South-East boundary of the land to be granted to Lord Delamere, thence following that boundary and the boundary of the Honourable R. B. Cole's land to the Railway, thence following the Railway to the boundary of the land granted to Messrs. Johnson and Co., thence following that boundary to the Eastern boundary of the Nakuru Township Reserve and following the Northern boundary of this Reserve to South-East boundary of the land mentioned above, granted to Mr. Vigne.

UGANDA PROTECTORATE.

NOTICE.

Until further notice the following Rules will be observed in relation to the purchase of supplies by tender for Government Departments, and all previous notices on this subject are hereby cancelled.

Entebbe,
January 14th, 1908.

GEORGE WILSON
Deputy Commissioner.

Rules for the local purchase of Supplies for Government Departments.

1. Supplies to be procured locally are to be contracted for after Public Tender to be invited by advertisement in the Official Gazette or from the Firms or Contractors whose names may be placed upon the Government List as hereinafter mentioned.

Tenders for Government Works are to be similarly advertised for.

2. Any person wishing to tender to the Government of the Uganda Protectorate for the supply of stores or other articles to any Government Department shall apply in writing to the Officer in charge of such Department to have his name entered upon a list to be kept by him, and hereinafter referred to as the Tender List, specifying what articles or class of articles the applicant is prepared to tender for, and if he does not reside in Entebbe, giving the name of an agent in Entebbe to whom communication can be sent.

3. On receipt of such application, the Officer as aforesaid shall enter the name of the applicant on the list of tenders. He may at any time erase any name from the list of tenders, provided that any person aggrieved by the action of such officer may submit a complaint to the Governor.

The Tender List shall be kept in the following form and shall be conspicuously placed in the Offices of the various Departments.

Tender List.

Department.
Name of Firm or Person.
Address.
Agent in Uganda.
Agent's Address.
Class of Article or Contract.

4. All supplies required to be purchased will as a rule be advertised in the Official Gazette.

5. When tenders are not invited by public advertisement, a notice will be sent to all persons whose names are on the Tender List inviting them to tender.

6. The persons to whom such notices shall be sent shall thereupon, if they so desire, send tenders on a printed Government Form in properly sealed envelopes marked on outside of envelope "Tender for....."

Forms may be had on application to the Head of the Department concerned.

7. All tenders will be submitted to a Board appointed by the Governor.

8. The decision of such Board will be forthwith published on the Notice Boards of the Department concerned and at the Collectorate, Entebbe.

NOTICE.

Tenders are invited for the supply of Fifty iron plates half an inch thick to be cut according to drawings which may be seen at the offices of the following:—

P. W. D. Entebbe.

P. W. D. Nairobi.

The Uganda Coast Agent, Mombasa.

Sealed tenders should reach the undersigned not later than 10th February 1908, marked "Tenders; iron loophole plates."

The lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

Entebbe, Uganda.
January 14th 1908.

P. O. G. USBORNE
Chief Engineer, Public Works Department.
