EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

NOTICE.

In exercise of the provisions of the East Africa Marriage Ordinance 1902, Section 6, I hereby give notice that I have licensed the School Chapel of the Church Missionary Society's Kenya Medical Mission near Fort Hall to be a place for the celebration of Marriages.

J. HAYES SADLER

February 21st, 1908.

Governor.

RULES RELATING TO PROSPECTING FOR MINERALS IN CLOSED DISTRICTS.

Rules issued by the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate under the East Africa Outlying Districts Ordinance 1902.

Nairobi,

Dated this 28th day of February, 1908.

F. J. JACKSON

Deputy Governor.

RULES.

1. The Commissioner of Mines may grant a licence to the holder of a prospecting licence authorising him to enter a closed district for the purpose of prospecting for minerals.

2. The Commissioner of Mines shall prescribe the conditions, which shall be endorsed upon the licence, upon which any particular licence shall be granted and may as a condition precedent to the grant of a licence, require the proposed licensee to furnish security either in cash or by bond for the observance of the conditions.

3. Every licence granted under these rules shall expire on the expiration of the prospecting licence held by the holder of the first mentioned licence, and may at any time be withdrawn by the Commissioner of Mines.

4. The Commissioner of Mines shall in every case before issuing a licence under these rules consult the Provincial Commissioner in whose Province the closed district is situate, as to the advisability of granting such licence and as to the conditions which should be attached to the same.

33. Police officers shall not exercise any authority, except the authority provided for a Police officer under this Ordinance or any other law or Ordinance from time to time in force conferring any powers, rights or duties upon all or any Police officers.

34. Notwithstanding any law or rule to the contrary, any Court inquiring into or trying any case may permit the prosecution to be conducted by a Police officer notwithstanding that he has taken part in the investigation into the offence with respect to which the accused is being prosecuted. Conduct of prosecution by police-officer.

35. Notwithstanding any law or rule to the contrary no fee or duty shall be chargeable upon bail bonds in criminal cases, recognisances to prosecute or give evidence, or recognisances for personal appearance or otherwise. No fee chargeable for bailbonds etc.

Enlistment, Discharge and Service.

36. All the provisions of this Ordinance, and of all rules, orders, or regulations that may at any time be made in pursuance thereof shall extend to all persons who at the commencement of this Ordinance shall be enrolled or serving in the Police, in like manner as if such persons had been appointed under this Ordinance, and to all persons who after the commencement of this Ordinance shall be serving or employed in the Police under the Inspector General or any Officer of the Police, as clerks, interpreters, or storekeepers, or in any other similar capacity. Application of Ordinance to existing Constabulary.

37. Every constable shall be enlisted for the first term of his engagement to serve for three years, or such less period as may from time to time be fixed by the Governor, the term to be reckoned from the day on which the recruit shall have been finally approved for service and taken on the strength of the force. First term of engagement.

38. (1) Any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable of good character who at any time has completed, or who is within three months of completing the term of his engagement, may, with the approval of the Inspector General, re-engage to serve for a further term of three years or less from the expiration of such term of engagement. Re-engagement and continuance in service.

(2) Any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable of good character who has completed at least twelve years' service may, with the approval of the Inspector General, re-engage for any period or periods until he shall complete a total period of twenty-one years' service reckoning from the time of his first enlistment.

(3) And upon completing such period of twenty-one years' service, he may, if he shall so desire, and with the approval of the Inspector General and of the Governor, continue in the force in the same manner in all respects as if his term of service were still unexpired, except that it shall be lawful for him to claim his discharge at the expiration of any period of three months after he has given notice to the Officer in charge of the Police at the place at which such Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable is stationed of his wish to be discharged.

39. (1). Any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable who, being entitled to his discharge at the end of his period of service, re-engages for further service, with the approval of the Inspector General, will be allowed to proceed on three months' furlough, and will receive during that period the half-pay of his rank. Conditions of re-engagement.

(2) If a Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable offers to re-enlist within three months after having received a certificate of discharge, he shall, if the Inspector General approves of his re-enlistment, be entitled to the advantages to which he was entitled, with regard to rank, grade or gratuity at the time of his discharge. If, however, a longer period than three months from the date of his discharge has elapsed, then it shall be discretionary with the Inspector General subject to the approval of the Governor to allow the service, or part of the service, of such person previous to the date of such re-enlistment to reckon towards gratuity; the question of the rank in which the Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable re-enlists shall be left to the discretion of the Inspector General.

40. Every man enlisting as aforesaid shall, previous to his being approved, make the following declaration by oath in his native language in such manner as he may declare to be most binding on his conscience:— Declaration on enlistment.

"I, A.B., do most solemnly and sincerely declare and promise that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King Edward VII, his heirs and successors, for a period of three years and for such other period or periods as I may re-engage to serve, and will obey all orders of His Majesty, and of the Officers placed over me, and subject myself to all Ordinances, Rules and Regulations relating to the Police now in force, or which may from time to time be in force, within the said period or periods. *And I hereby declare that I have not at any time served in any capacity in any of His Majesty's Forces or Police.

(Signature or mark of recruit.)

Declared at....., this.....day of.....190 .

“Before me,

“ (Signature of Magistrate)”

*In a case where a man has served as mentioned and is nevertheless enrolled, this paragraph to be deleted.

The declaration and oath shall be made before a Magistrate, and shall be preserved as part of the enlistment papers of every recruit.

Prolongation of service in case of war, etc.

41. Any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable whose period of service expires during a state of war, insurrection or hostilities, may be detained and his service prolonged for such further period, not exceeding twelve months, as the Governor may direct.

Discharge on completion of service.

42. Subject to the provisions of Section 38 and of the last preceding section, every Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable who has completed his period or periods of engagement of service, according to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be discharged by the Officer in charge of the Police at the place at which such Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable is stationed, unless at the expiration of any period he is undergoing punishment for, or stands charged with, the commission of any offence, and in case he is undergoing such punishment, or is charged with any such offence, his service shall be prolonged and his discharge deferred until such punishment shall have terminated, or until he has undergone his trial and any punishment awarded in respect of the offence with which he is charged.

Police officers subject to all regulations until formal discharge.

43. Every Non-Commissioned Officer and Constable shall, until he has received a certificate of discharge, remain subject to all the provisions of this Ordinance and to all the Rules and Regulations made in pursuance thereof.

Discharge when unfit for service or on being dismissed.

44. A Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable may be discharged by the Inspector General at any time during the currency of any term of engagement:—

- (a) When pronounced by a Medical Officer mentally or physically unfit for further service.
- (b) When sentenced to be dismissed from the force for misconduct.
- (c) If within 6 months of attestation the Inspector General shall consider that he is unlikely to become an efficient Constable.
- (d) On reduction of establishment.

Rules for reckoning service.

45. In reckoning the service of any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable for discharge, either in the case of limited engagement, or for the total period of twenty-one years' service, there shall be excluded therefrom all periods during which he has been absent from his duty for any of the following causes:—

- (a) Imprisonment for any cause save that of detention awaiting any trial which results in the acquittal or discharge of the prisoner.
- (b) Desertion for any period.
- (c) Absence without leave exceeding forty-eight hours.

Consequence of discharge or dismissal

46. Whenever any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable ceases to belong to the force, either by being dismissed therefrom or by being discharged on termination of his period of engagement, or as unfit for further service, or on reduction of establishment, all powers and authorities vested in him shall immediately cease and determine, and he shall, before a certificate of discharge is delivered to him, deliver over his arms, ammunition, accoutrements, uniform, and other appointments which are the property of the Government, to such person at such time and place as shall be directed by the Inspector General or officer in charge of the Police at the place at which such Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable is stationed at the time of ceasing to belong to the force.

47. (1) Gratuities at the following rates, in lieu of pension, shall be granted on discharge after a continuous good service extending to a period of twelve years, viz :—

To Sergeants Major	Rs. 200/-
To Sergeants	„ 100/-
To Corporals	„ 70/-
To Constables	„ 50/-

And at the following rates after a total continuous good service extending to twenty one years, viz ;—

To Sergeants Major	Rs. 300/-
To Sergeants	„ 150/-
To Corporals	„ 95/-
To Constables	„ 75/-

For the purpose of this sub-section the service of a man who has enlisted under section 39 (2) shall subject to the provisions of such sub-section, be deemed to be continuous.

- (2) No increased rates of gratuity shall be paid in respect of any period of service in excess of a total service of twenty-one years ; and no Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable, who has received a gratuity on discharge after twelve years' service shall, in the event of his afterwards re-enlisting, receive in respect of his service after such re-enlistment any higher gratuity, than may, together with such first gratuity, be equal to the gratuity which he would have earned by continuous service for twenty-one years.
- (3) When any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable is discharged as unfit for further service, or on account of reduction of establishment, before completing such continuous service of twelve years or twenty-one years as aforesaid, he may receive such proportion of the gratuity which he would have earned if he had completed the period of service he is then passing through as the Inspector General may in his discretion determine, and, in the event of the death of any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable, before receipt by him of such gratuity, it shall be lawful for the Governor to direct and cause the amount thereof to be paid to or for the benefit of the widow or widows, or child or children, or to any next-of-kin of the Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable so dying, on such conditions, and if to or for the benefit of more than one person, in such proportions as the Governor shall deem fit.

48. Any gratuity that would have been due and payable to any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable had he taken his discharge under the provisions of this Ordinance shall, in the event of his re-engaging for a further term and dying in the service before the completion of such term, be deemed for the purposes of this Ordinance to be his personal property in the charge of the Treasurer for the time being, and shall be paid out and distributed by the Treasurer or such other person as he may appoint in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

49. All articles of clothing, accoutrements, appointments, and other necessities which shall have been supplied to any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable for the execution of his duty are the property of the Government, and shall be returned by such Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable on his discharge. Provided that when the full period of wear has expired such Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable may be permitted to hold any such article of clothing in possession so long as he shall continue a Police officer, but no such article of clothing shall be sold, exchanged, pledged, lent or given or otherwise transferred to any other person save as hereinafter provided. Upon any such article of clothing being delivered up by any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable in manner aforesaid, the Inspector General may direct that it be destroyed or sold by auction. The purchasers at any such auction shall be limited to Police officers and the proceeds of such sale shall be handed over to such Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable taking his discharge or shall be otherwise dealt with as the Inspector General shall direct. No purchaser of such article of clothing may re-sell the same. Provided always that in the case of such purchaser taking his discharge or dying any article of clothing so purchased may be re-sold by auction in a similar manner and subject to the same conditions as hereinbefore provided, and the proceeds of such sale shall be handed over to such Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable taking his discharge or his personal representatives.

Failure to deliver up accoutrements on ceasing to be a police-officer.

50. Any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable having ceased to be a Police officer under this Ordinance, who shall not forthwith deliver up the clothing, accoutrements, appointments and other necessities which shall have been supplied to him for the execution of his duty, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding six months, or to both.

Discipline.

Law applicable to the Police.

51. The Police shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and to any rules made thereunder, be amenable to the ordinary course of law, provided that when they are called upon to serve with the regular troops, or when a declaration of a state of active service shall have been made under Section 189 (2) of the Army Act, the Police shall be subject to military law as enacted by "The King's African Rifles Ordinance, 1902," or other military law for the time being in force, and provided that any Police officer committing a breach of the Rules made by the Governor under Section 11 shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to such punishment as may be provided by the Rules.

Pay not to accrue during imprisonment under sentence.

52. No pay shall accrue or become due to any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable in respect of any period during which he is undergoing any sentence of imprisonment or is detained in prison awaiting any trial which results in his conviction either for any offence against discipline or for any other crime.

Fines to be recovered by stoppages.

53. (1) All fines imposed upon Non-Commissioned Officers and Constables for offences under this Ordinance or any Rules thereunder shall be recovered by stoppages from the offender's pay due at the time of committing such offence, or thereafter accruing due, and not from any other source or in any other manner.

Amount of stoppages.

(2). The amount of stoppages shall be in the discretion of the officer authorised to impose fines, in no case exceeding one-third of the daily pay of the offender; and, whenever more than one order of stoppage is enforced for any cause against the same person, so much only of his pay shall be stopped as shall leave him a residue of at least two thirds of his daily pay.

Accumulated stoppages.

(3). Where more than one order of stoppage is made upon the same person, the order or orders later in date shall, if necessary, be postponed as to their enforcement until the earlier orders are discharged.

Disposal of Fines.

54. (1). All fines recovered within the Protectorate from Non-Commissioned Officers and Constables shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the Protectorate, to be placed to the credit of a fund to be styled the "Police Rewards and Fines Fund."

(2) No payment shall be made from the Police Rewards and Fines Fund except upon the authority of the Governor.

(3) The Governor may, on the recommendation of the Inspector General, sanction payments from the Police Rewards and Fines Fund for any of the following purposes, that is to say:—

(a) Assistance to the wives or families of deceased Non-Commissioned Officers or Constables or to Non-Commissioned Officers or Constables discharged as invalids, who may be in immediate want.

(b) Contributions towards prizes to be given at athletic meetings, assaults-at-arms and similar events organised by or for the benefit of the Police.

(c) Purchase of ammunition for the encouragement of rifle shooting among the Police.

(d) Payments to Non-Commissioned Officers or Constables as rewards for special services when such payments cannot otherwise be met out of Protectorate funds.

(4) Annual statements of receipts and expenditure on account of the Police Rewards and Fines Fund shall be rendered by the Inspector General to the Governor who shall submit them to the Secretary of State.

55. The sentence on a Non-Commissioned Officer shall in no case include corporal punishment or imprisonment unless it also includes reduction of the offender to the rank of a Constable; but a Non-Commissioned Officer sentenced to corporal punishment or imprisonment shall be deemed to be reduced to the ranks, and in such case the sentence of reduction shall precede and be carried out before that of corporal punishment or imprisonment.

Restrictions as to punishment of Non-Commissioned Officers.

56. No sentence of corporal punishment shall be carried out until a period of twenty-four hours has elapsed, nor unless under the superintendence of a Medical Officer, or, in case no Medical Officer is available, of a European Officer of the Administration, nor until such Medical Officer or European Officer shall certify as to the physical fitness of the offender to undergo the same, and in relation thereto the said Medical Officer or European Officer may give and shall have carried out such orders for preventing injury to health as he may deem necessary and in case the said Medical Officer or European Officer shall order the punishment to be discontinued, it shall be discontinued immediately.

Restriction as to corporal punishment

57. (1) Upon reasonable suspicion that any person is a deserter from the Police, any Police officer or other person may apprehend him without warrant, and forthwith bring him before a Magistrate of the district wherein he was found.

Apprehension of Deserter.

(2) Upon it appearing by the testimony of one or more witnesses or by his own confession that the accused is a deserter, he shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to two years and shall be liable to fine not exceeding One hundred Rupees.

Punishment for Desertion.

58. Any Police officer who has forfeited any period of past service qualifying towards gratuity may have such service restored to him by the Governor on the recommendation of the Inspector General at any time as a reward for conspicuous gallantry in the field or other notable service, or when he has served with uninterrupted good conduct as shown by his having no entries in the defaulter's book for two years in case of a first conviction entailing loss of service, for five years in case of a second conviction of the same nature, and for seven years in case of a third conviction of the same nature or should circumstances of an aggravated character have attended the offence on account of which his service was forfeited. Such period of probation shall be reckoned from the release of the person convicted from imprisonment or other completion of the punishment, and his return to duty.

Restoration of forfeited service.

59. If any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable thinks himself wronged in any matter by any Officer of the Police, or by any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable, he may complain thereof to the Inspector General, and if he thinks himself wronged by the Inspector General, either in respect of his complaint not being redressed or in respect of any other matter, he may complain thereof to the Governor; and the Inspector General or Governor upon any complaint being made in pursuance of this section shall cause such complaint to be enquired into, and shall, if on enquiry he is satisfied of the justice of the complaint so made, take such steps as may be necessary for giving full redress to the complainant in respect of the matter complained of.

Mode of complaint by a police-officer.

60. Provided that nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to exempt any member of the Police from being proceeded against for any offence by the ordinary course of law, any Police officer who

(3) Provided always that no action shall in any case lie where such Police officer shall have been prosecuted criminally for the same act.

Plea that act was done under warrant.

73. (1) When any action or prosecution shall be brought or any proceedings held against any Police officer for any act done by him in such capacity, it shall be lawful for him to plead that such act was done by him under the authority of a warrant issued by a Magistrate.

- (2) Such plea shall be proved by the production of the warrant directing the act, and purporting to be signed by such Magistrate, and the defendant shall thereupon be entitled to a decree in his favour notwithstanding any defect of jurisdiction in such Magistrate. No proof of the signature of such Magistrate shall be necessary, unless the Court shall see reason to doubt its being genuine.
- (3) Provided always that any remedy which the party may have Proviso. against the authority issuing such warrant shall not be affected by anything contained in this Section.

Enforcement of Civil Contracts.

74. Any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable shall be liable to be taken out of the force only by process of execution on account of any criminal charge or on account of any original debt proved by affidavit of the plaintiff or of some one on his behalf, to the value of three hundred rupees at the least over and above all costs of suit, but not for any original debt not amounting to three hundred rupees, nor for breach of any covenant, agreement, or other engagement, nor for having left or deserted his employer or master, or his contract, work or labour, and all warrants or other process of personal execution on account of the matters for which it is herein declared that such Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable is not liable to be taken out of the said service shall be null and void. Police Officers not to be taken from service except for criminal charge or debt of 300 rupees or upwards.

75. Any plaintiff, upon notice of the cause of action first given in writing to the officer in charge of the Police at the station or district in which the defendant is serving at the date of service of the writ of summons, may proceed in any action or suit to judgment, and have execution other than against the body of any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable, or than (except as next after mentioned) against the pay due or accruing due to him. Plaintiff may have an execution other than personal.

76. The pay of any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable due or accruing to him at the date of any judgment, or afterwards, shall not be liable to be arrested upon any civil process except in respect of any debt or liability which he may have incurred within three years next before being appointed to the force, and for such debt or liability, when constituted by decree, his pay may be arrested to an extent not exceeding one-third thereof. Where an order for such arrestment is made, the Court making the order shall give notice thereof to the officer in charge of the Police in the station or district where the judgment debtor is serving, and thereupon the amount ordered shall be stopped out of the judgment debtor's pay until the amount of the decree is made good. Pay of Police officer not arrestable for debt: exception.

77. The Civil Officer in charge of the district shall, from time to time, cause public proclamation to be made that if the inhabitants suffer any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable to contract debts, such debts will not be recoverable from their pay or by arrest in execution. Public notice to be given as to recovery of debt from non-commissioned officers and constables.

Unclaimed Property.

78. It shall be the duty of every Police officer to take charge of all unclaimed property and to furnish an inventory thereof to the District Magistrate. Police officers shall be guided as to the disposal of such property by such orders as they shall receive from the District Magistrate. Police-officers to take charge of unclaimed property and be subject to District Magistrate's orders as to disposal.

79. (1) The District Magistrate may detain the property and issue a proclamation specifying the articles of which it consists, and requiring any person who has any claim thereto to appear and establish his right to the same within six months from the date of such proclamation. The District Magistrate may detain property and issue a proclamation.

(2) If the person entitled to the possession of such property is unknown or absent and the property is subject to speedy and natural decay, or the District Magistrate is of opinion that its sale would be for the benefit of the owner, the District Magistrate may at any time direct it to be sold. Property subject to decay may be sold.

80. (1) If no person shall within the period allowed claim such property, or the proceeds thereof, if sold, it may, if not already sold under Section 79 (2), be sold under the orders of the District Magistrate. If no claimant appears for property.

(2) The sale proceeds of property sold under the proceeding subsection and the proceeds of property sold under Section 79 (2) to which no claim has been established shall be at the disposal of the Governor.

Provisions for Additional or Special Police Officers.

Additional police officers employed at cost of individuals.

81. It shall be lawful for the Inspector General, subject to the direction of the Governor, on the application of any person showing the necessity thereof, to depute any additional number of Police officers to keep the peace at any place within the Protectorate, and for such time as shall be deemed proper. Such Police officers shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, be exclusively under the orders of the officer in charge of the Police in such place, and shall be at the expense of the person making the application :—

Proviso.

Provided that it shall be lawful for the person on whose application such deputation shall have been made, on giving one month's notice in writing to the Inspector General to require that the Police officers so deputed shall be withdrawn ; and such person shall be relieved from the charge of such additional Police officers from the expiration of such notice.

Appointment of additional force in the neighbourhood of railway and other works.

82. Whenever any railway, canal, or other public work, or any manufactory, or commercial concern shall be carried on or be in operation in any part of the Protectorate, and it shall appear to the Inspector General that the employment of an additional number of Police officers in such place is rendered necessary by the behaviour or reasonable apprehension of the behaviour of the persons employed upon such work, manufactory or concern, it shall be lawful for the Inspector General, upon the direction of the Governor, to depute such additional Police officers to such place, and to employ the same so long as such necessity shall continue, and to make orders, from time to time, upon the person having the control or custody of the funds used in carrying on such work, manufactory or concern, for the payment of the extra Police officers so rendered necessary, and such person shall thereupon cause payment to be made accordingly.

Quartering of additional police in disturbed or dangerous districts.

83. (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor, by proclamation to be notified in the "Official Gazette", and in such other manner as the Governor shall direct, to declare that any area in the Protectorate has been found to be in a disturbed or dangerous state, and that, from the conduct of the inhabitants of such area or of any class or section of them, it is expedient to increase the number of Police officers.
- (2) It shall thereupon be lawful for the Inspector General, upon the direction of the Governor, to employ any number of Police officers in addition to the ordinary fixed complement to be quartered in the area specified in such proclamation as aforesaid.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (5) of this section, the cost of such additional Police officers shall be borne by the inhabitants of such area described in the proclamation.
- (4) The District Magistrate, after such enquiry as he may deem necessary, shall, subject to the direction of the Governor, apportion such cost among the inhabitants who are, as aforesaid, liable to bear the same and who shall not have been exempted under the next succeeding sub-section. Such apportionment shall be made according to the District Magistrate's judgment of the respective means within such area of such inhabitants.
- (5) It shall be lawful for the District Magistrate, subject to the direction of the Governor, by order, to exempt any persons or class or section of such inhabitants from liability to bear any portion of such cost.
- (6) Every proclamation issued under sub-section (1) of this section shall state the period for which it is to remain in force, but it may be withdrawn at any time or continued from time to time for a further period or periods as the Governor may in each case think fit to direct.

Awarding compensation to sufferers from misconduct of inhabitants or persons interested in land.

84. (1) If, in any area in regard to which any proclamation notified under the last preceding section is in force, death or grievous hurt or loss of, or damage to, property has been caused by or has ensued from the misconduct of the inhabitants of such area or any class or section of them, it shall be lawful for any person, being an inhabitant of such area, who claims to have suffered injury from such misconduct, to make, within one month from the date of the injury or such shorter period as may be prescribed, an application for compensation to the District Magistrate within which such area is situated.

- (2) It shall thereupon be lawful for the District Magistrate, with the sanction of the Governor, after such enquiry as he may deem necessary, and whether any additional number of Police officers have or have not been quartered in such area under the last preceding section, to:—
- (a) declare the persons to whom injury has been caused by or has ensued from such misconduct ;
 - (b) fix the amount of compensation to be paid to such persons and the manner in which it is to be distributed among them ; and
 - (c) assess the proportion in which the same shall be paid by the inhabitants of such area other than the applicant who shall not have been exempted from liability to pay under the next succeeding sub-section. Provided that the District Magistrate shall not make any declaration or assessment under this sub-section, unless he is of opinion that such injury as aforesaid has risen from a riot or unlawful assembly within such area, and that the person who suffered the injury was himself free from blame in respect of the occurrences which led to such injury.
- (3) It shall be lawful for the District Magistrate subject to the direction of the Governor, by order, to exempt any persons or class or section of such inhabitants from liability to pay any portion of such compensation.
- (4) Every declaration or assessment made or order passed by the District Magistrate under sub-section (2) shall be subject to revision by the Governor, but save as aforesaid shall be final.
- (5) No civil suit shall be maintainable in respect of any injury for which compensation has been awarded under this section.

For the purposes of the two preceding sections "inhabitants" shall include persons who themselves or by their agents or servants occupy or hold land or other immoveable property within such area, and landlords who themselves or by their agents or servants collect rents direct from lessees or occupiers in such area, notwithstanding that they do not actually reside therein.

85. (1) All moneys payable under Sections 81, 82, 83 and 84 shall be recoverable by the District Magistrate in the manner provided by Sections 386 and 387 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, for the recovery of fines, or by suit in any competent Court. Recovery of moneys payable under sections 81 to 84 and disposal of the same when recovered.
- (2) All moneys paid or recovered under Sections 81, 82 and 83 shall be credited to the General Revenue Account of the Protectorate.
- (3) All moneys paid or recovered under section 84 shall be paid by the District Magistrate to the persons to whom and in the proportion in which the same are payable under that Section.

86. When it shall appear that any unlawful assembly, or riot or disturbance of the peace has taken place, or may be reasonably apprehended, and that the Police officers ordinarily employed for preserving the peace are not sufficient for its preservation and protection of the inhabitants and the security of property in the place where such unlawful assembly, or riot or disturbance of the peace has occurred, or is apprehended, it shall be lawful for any Officer of the Police or Inspector to apply to the nearest Magistrate to appoint so many of the residents of the neighbourhood as such Officer of the Police or Inspector may require to act as special Police officers for such time and within such limits as he shall deem necessary ; and the Magistrate to whom such application is made shall, unless he see cause to the contrary, comply with the application. 87. Every special Police officer so appointed shall have the same powers, privileges and protection, and shall be liable to perform the same duties and shall be amenable to the same penalties, and be subordinate to the same authorities, as the ordinary Police officers. Powers of special police officers.

88. If any person being appointed a special Police officer as aforesaid shall, without sufficient excuse, neglect or refuse to serve as such, or to obey such lawful order or direction as may be given to him for the performance of his duties, he shall be liable, upon conviction before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every such neglect, refusal or disobedience. Refusal to serve as special police officers.

89. (1) The Inspector General or a District Superintendent may, as occasion requires, direct the conduct of all assemblies and processions on the public roads, or in the public streets or thoroughfares, and prescribe the routes by which, and the times at which, such processions may pass. Regulation of public assemblies and processions, and licensing of same.

(2) He may also, on being satisfied that it is intended by any persons or class of persons to convene or collect an assembly in any such road, street or thoroughfare, or to form a procession which would, in the judgment of a Magistrate, or other Civil Officer in charge of a station or district, or, if no such Magistrate or other Civil Officer is present or available, in the judgment of the Inspector General or District Superintendent, if uncontrolled, be likely to cause a breach of the peace, require by general or special notice that the persons convening or collecting such assembly shall apply for a licence.

(3) On such application being made he may issue a licence specifying the names of the licensees and defining the conditions on which alone such assembly or such procession is to be permitted to take place and otherwise giving effect to the section. Provided that no fee shall be charged by the Inspector General or District Superintendent on the application for or grant of such licence.

Music in the streets.

Powers with regard to assemblies and processions violating conditions of licence.

(4) He may also regulate the extent to which music may be used in the streets on the occasion of festivals and ceremonies.

90. (1) Any Magistrate or Officer of the Police or Inspector may stop any procession which violates the conditions of a licence granted under the last foregoing section, and may order it or any assembly which violates any such conditions as aforesaid to disperse.

(2) Any procession or assembly which neglects or refuses to obey any order given under the last preceding sub-section shall be deemed to be an unlawful assembly.

Police to keep order in public roads etc.

91. It shall be the duty of the Police to keep order on the public roads, and in the public streets, thoroughfares, and landing places, and at other places of public resort, and to prevent obstructions on the occasions of assemblies and processions on the public roads and in the public streets, or in the neighbourhood of places of worship, during the time of public worship, and in any case when any road, street, thoroughfare or landing place may be thronged or may be liable to be obstructed.

Penalties for disobeying orders under last three sections, etc.

92. Every person opposing or not obeying the orders issued under the last three preceding sections, or violating the conditions of any licence granted for the use of music, or for the conduct of assemblies and processions, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees.

Saving of control District Magistrate or civil officer.

93. Nothing in the last four preceding sections shall be deemed to interfere with the control of the District Magistrate or civil officer in charge of the district or station over the matters referred to therein.

Punishment for certain offences on roads etc.

94. Any person who, on any road or in any open place or street or thoroughfare within the limits of any place declared to be a Township within the meaning of any Ordinance relating to townships, or within the limits of any place to which this section shall be specially extended by proclamation by the Governor, commits any of the following offences, to the obstruction, inconvenience, annoyance, risk, danger or damage of the residents or passengers, shall on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to imprisonment not exceeding eight days; and it shall be lawful for any police officer to take into custody, without a warrant, any person who within his view commits any of such offences namely:—

- (h) Any person who neglects to fence in or duly to protect, any well, tank or other dangerous place or structure. Dangerous structures to be fenced in.

95. Nothing contained in this Ordinance shall be construed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other Ordinance or Regulation for any offence made punishable by this Ordinance, or from being liable under any other Ordinance or Regulation to any other or higher penalty or punishment than is provided for such offence by this Ordinance. Power to prosecute under other law not affected.

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence. Proviso.

96. The provisions of the Indian Penal Code, and of the Code of Criminal Procedure, with respect to fines, shall apply to penalties and fines imposed under this Ordinance on conviction before a Magistrate. Recovery of penalties and fines imposed by Magistrates.

Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in section 65 of the first mentioned Code, any person sentenced to fine under section 94 of this Ordinance may be imprisoned in default of payment of such fine for any period not exceeding eight days. Proviso.

97. All rewards, forfeitures and penalties, which by law are payable to informers, shall, when the information is laid by a Police officer, be paid into the "Police Fines and Rewards Fund." Rewards to police and informers payable to general police fund.

Wills and distribution of property.

98. Every constable on enlistment shall declare the name of the person or persons to whom, in the event of his decease without having made a valid will, any money or personal property due or belonging to him should be paid or delivered, and the name of such person or persons shall be recorded at the headquarters of the Police. The record shall be verified periodically, and it shall be the duty of every Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable to report any alteration in the record which he wishes made. On enlistment constable to register name of person to whom estate to be paid in the event of his dying intestate and any alteration which is desired to be reported.

- (2) The paymaster or any officer of the Police or of the Treasury, or other public Department, having in his charge or control any pay, accumulations of pay, gratuity, or allowance, or any personal property or money belonging to any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable dying intestate who has complied with the above conditions, may pay or deliver the same to the person or persons whose name or names has or have been recorded by a Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable in the manner prescribed. Estate may be paid accordingly to person whose name is registered in manner prescribed.

99. (1) Any will made by a Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable shall be valid for disposing of any money or personal property which shall be due or belonging to him at his decease. Form of will.

- (a) If it is in writing, and signed or acknowledged by him in the presence of and in his presence attested by one witness, being an Officer of the Police or officer of the Administration; or
- (b) If it is executed with the formalities required by any law now or hereafter in force in the Protectorate, in the case of persons not being Police officers.

Such will shall be deemed well-made for the purpose of being admitted to probate, and the person taking out representation to the testator under such will shall exclusively be deemed the testator's representative with respect to the money or personal property thereby bequeathed.

- (2) The paymaster or any officer of the Police or of the Treasury, or other public Department, having in his charge or control any pay, accumulations of pay, gratuity, or other allowance, or any personal property or money belonging to such testator, not Accumulation of pay etc. if less 750 rupees may be paid without probate.

exceeding in the aggregate the value of 750 rupees, may pay or deliver the same to any person entitled thereto under the will or to the person entitled to procure probate of, or administration under, such will, although probate or administration may not have been taken out.

Probate to be taken if value exceeds 750 rupees.

If the value of the said money and the personal property exceeds the said sum of 750 rupees, the paymaster or other officer as aforesaid, having the same in his charge or control, shall require probate or administration to be taken out, and thereupon pay and deliver the said money and effects to the legal representative of the deceased.

Distribution in cases of intestacy.

100. In case any Non-Commissioned Officer or Constable dies without having complied with the requirements stated in Section 98 of this Ordinance, and without having made any valid will under this or any Law or Ordinance regulating wills for the time being in force, the Paymaster or other officer as aforesaid having in his charge or control money or personal property of the deceased as aforesaid may with the concurrence of the Governor, pay or deliver such money or personal property to any claimant showing herself or himself to the satisfaction of the Governor to be the widow of the deceased, or to be the child or any near relative of the deceased, according to the rules of kinship of the tribe to which the deceased belonged; and where there are more such claimants than one, then in such shares and proportions as the claimants would be entitled to receive under the rules of succession prevailing among such tribes, or as nearly as may be.

As to payment of debt.

101. Notwithstanding anything herein before contained, if in cases where probate of the will or administration to the estate of the deceased is not taken out, the Paymaster or other officer as aforesaid, before disposing of the money and personal property of the deceased in the manner aforesaid, has notice of any debt due by the deceased, he shall apply such money and property so far as remaining in his charge or control, or so much thereof as may be requisite, in or towards payment of such debt, subject to the following conditions:—

- (1) That the debt accrued within three years before the death;
- (2) That payment of it is claimed within one year after death;
- (3) That the claimant proves the debt to the satisfaction of the Governor.

Any person claiming to be a creditor of the deceased shall not be entitled to obtain payment of his debt out of any money that may be in the hands of the Paymaster or other officer as aforesaid, except by means of a claim on the Paymaster or the Inspector General, and proceeding thereon under and according to this Ordinance.

Property distributed subject to rights of creditors.

102. In all cases where the money or the personal property of the deceased or any part thereof is paid or delivered to any person as being interested therein by reason of his or her name having been recorded in accordance with section 98 of this Ordinance, or under the will of the deceased, or as his widow or child or near relative, or in any other manner under this Ordinance, any creditor of the deceased shall have the same rights and remedies against such person as if he or she had received the same as a legal personal representative of the deceased.

Money undisposed of applied to Police Fines and Rewards Fund.

Proviso.

103. If the money or personal property belonging to the deceased, or any part thereof (provided that it be less than seven hundred and fifty rupees) remains for one year undisposed of or unappropriated, and without any valid claim thereto having been made, the paymaster or other officer having the charge or control thereof shall apply and make over the same towards the "Police Fines and Rewards Fund." Provided that the application under this section of any such money or property, or part thereof, undisposed of or unappropriated as aforesaid, shall not be deemed to bar any claim of any person to the same, or any part thereof, that may be established at any time after such application.

Medals and decorations excepted.

104. Medals, uniforms, and decorations shall not be considered to be comprised in the personal estate of any deceased with reference to claims of creditors, or for any of the purposes of administration under this Ordinance or otherwise and the same shall be delivered to and held by the Inspector General and disposed of according to regulations made by the Governor.

105. In every case of desertion the money or the property of the deserter ^{Application of money etc., in case of desertion.} in the charge or control of the Paymaster, or of any other officer as aforesaid, shall be disposed of according to regulations made by the Governor.

Provided that in every such case the provisions of Section 99 of this Ordinance shall, mutatis mutandis, apply as nearly as may be.

106. The Indian Police Act, 1861 (No V of 1861) shall cease to be applied ^{Repeal} to the Protectorate The Uganda Armed Constabulary Ordinance, 1903, together with all rules made thereunder, is hereby repealed.
