RULES.*The Forest Ordinance, 1911

Rules made by His Excellency the Governor under the Forest Ordinance, 1911

Nairobi,

C C BOWRING,

Dated this 11th day of January, 1913

*Deputy GovernorForest Ordinance Rubber Rules.

- 1 These Rules may be cited as “The Forest Ordinance Rubber Rules, 1913”
- 2 In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires —
  - (1) “Licence” means a licence granted under these rules to collect rubber
  - (2) “The Ordinance” means “The Forest Ordinance, 1911” and any Ordinance amending the same
  - (3) “Protected trees” means rubber-producing trees or vines on Crown Lands for the time being protected under Rules made under the powers conferred by Section 13 of the Ordinance
  - (4) “Tapping” means either the process of extracting the rubber-producing latex, or the single act of cutting trees for the purpose of such extraction, according as the context requires
  - (5) Other expressions shall have the same meanings as are given in the Ordinance
- 3 (1) Applications for licences to collect rubber in any forest area, or from protected trees shall be made to, and licences may be granted and issued by, the Conservator of Forests
  - (2) In the event of more than one applicant applying for a licence in respect of the same area, the Conservator of Forests may, by notice in the Gazette, invite tenders as to the minimum annual payments which will be made under the licence. Provided that no tender of less than Rs 100 shall be accepted
- 4 Subject to the provisions of these rules a licensee shall be entitled to collect rubber within the area specified in his licence
- 5 The Conservator of Forests may refuse any application for a licence or reject any tender under these rules, provided however, that an applicant may appeal to the Governor in the event of such refusal
- 6 Licences may be granted for any period not exceeding five years
- 7 Any applicant or any person who has tendered for a licence may be required to satisfy the Conservator of Forests that he has a competent knowledge of the proper method of tapping trees
- 8 No licence shall be issued until the payment prescribed by these Rules has been made
- 9 Licences shall be in the Form A appended hereto
- 10 The Conservator of Forests shall, upon issuing a licence, send the duplicate thereof to the Forest Officer in charge of the Register referred to in Rule 16, and such Officer shall retain the duplicate of such licence. Every duplicate received or retained by the Officer in charge of the Register shall be filed by him in his Office
- 11 No licence shall be transferred except with the consent in writing of the Governor
- 12 Every licence shall be produced by the licensee at the request of any Magistrate Justice of the Peace, or Police or Forest Officer

13 Rubber trees and vines shall be tapped only in such manner as shall be authorised by the Conservator of Forests and set forth on the back of the licence. Provided, however, that in collecting rubber from vines the vines may be cut down, the stem being severed by a clean cut flush with the ground, provided that no vines less than six inches in girth at two feet from the ground shall be cut.

14 The following payments shall be made by the licensee —

- (1) On the issue of every licence and at the commencement of each year during the currency of the licence Rs 100 or, if the licence shall have been offered for tender, such sum as may have been tendered by the person to whom the licence has been granted.
- (2) By way of Royalty

25 cents per pound of rubber collected

15 All rubber collected shall be shown to the Forest Officer of the District or the District Commissioner and shall remain Government property until a Royalty of 25 cents per pound has been paid in cash to the Forest Officer or District Commissioner for and on behalf of the Government.

Provided that the sum paid in respect of a licence for any one year may be deducted from the amount payable as Royalty in respect of that year and provided that in no case shall a less sum than Rs 100 or, if the licence shall have been offered for a tender, than the sum tendered by the licensee, be paid by a licensee in respect of any year.

16 The Forest Officer deputed in every district by the Conservator of Forests for the purpose shall keep a Register of all licences issued in the district. The Register, which shall be known as a Rubber Licence Register, may be in the Form B appended hereto, and may contain the particulars indicated in the said form.

17 If a licensee shall employ any person to assist him in collecting rubber under his licence, it shall be the duty of the licensee to supervise and direct such person so that no breach of these rules or of any rules for the time being in force under the Ordinance be committed by such employee. In the event of any employee of the licensee being convicted of an offence against the Ordinance or any Rule thereunder, the Conservator of Forests may cancel the licence.

18 Any person who shall commit a breach of Rules 12, 13 or 15 shall be liable on conviction to the penalties prescribed by the Ordinance for a breach or non-observance of a Rule made thereunder.

19 The Forest Ordinance Rubber Rules 1912 are hereby cancelled. Provided however that any licence issued under the said rules and in force at the date of these rules shall until the expiration of such licence continue subject to the said rules cancelled hereby as if the said rules still remained in force.

FORM A

Rubber Licence.

Permission is granted to .. to collect rubber in the Forests within the area more particularly defined in the Schedule attached hereto for a period of .. years from the date of issue of this licence.

The licence is issued subject to the Forest Ordinance Rubber Rules 1913 and the following conditions —

(1) The licensee shall pay to the Conservator of Forests for this licence at the time of the issue thereof and on the first day of each year during the currency of the licence the sum Rs ..

(2) All rubber collected under this licence shall be shown to the Forest Officer .. and shall remain Government property until a Royalty of 25 cents per pound has been paid in cash to the Forest Officer or District Commissioner. Provided that the said sum of Rs .. paid for this licence for any one year may be deducted by him from any sum payable as Royalty in respect of that year, and provided that in no case shall a less sum than Rs .. be paid by the licensee in any one year.

(3) The rubber trees and vines shall be tapped in a manner to be reported to and authorised by the Conservator of Forests.

(4) This licence does not guarantee exclusive rights, but as far as is practicable with an unsurveyed area, no other rubber rights will be granted for .. years in this area.

(5) This licence is liable to cancellation at any time should it appear that the trees or vines are being tapped in an unauthorised manner, or forest fires caused or any other forest offence committed.

(6) The holder of this licence is responsible for all acts of his employees within the forest and shall abide by all rules for the time being in force under the Forest Ordinance 1911.

(7) This licence is not transferable except with the consent in writing of the Governor.
