H C BELFIELD,

*GovernorCIRCULAR

1 The question of the diet ordinarily issued to native labourers in the Protectorate and its effect on their general health has been engaging the attention of Government

2 It is generally recognised that sickness or ill-being is liable to follow the consumption of imperfectly cooked food and that monotony of diet re-acts prejudicially on the individual

3 Employers are, therefore, recommended to take precautions to ensure that the rations issued to those who work for them are properly cooked by the latter before they are consumed. Where large numbers are employed, they ought to be divided into gangs and a member from each detailed as cook for his party and provided with the necessary utensils. It is also of importance to introduce variety in the food given and to issue a ration of a composite character

OBITUARY.

His Excellency the Governor regrets to announce the death of Sir Clement Lloyd Hill, KCB, KCMG, MP, Superintendent of East African Protectorates under the Foreign Office from 1900-1905

Sir Clement Hill was intimately associated with the early history of British East Africa and always took the keenest interest in questions affecting it. He was also a member of the Uganda Railway Committee from 1896. Officers who served under him will feel the loss of a sympathizer and a friend. As a member of the House of Commons he was a close student of events in this country and his experience entitled him to speak with weight on such subjects. His name will always be bound up with the development of the Protectorate, in promoting which many of the best years of his life were spent

OBITUARY.

His Excellency the Governor announces with regret the death of Mr D J Wilson, late Director of Government Transport, Principal Immigration Officer, and Coast Agent for the Uganda Protectorate, which took place at Mombasa on Sunday the 6th inst

Mr Wilson first came to East Africa in 1889 as Superintendent of Telegraphs in the Imperial British East Africa Company's Service. When the Protectorate was formed in 1895 he joined the administration and subsequently held the offices enumerated above eventually retiring in 1911. His work brought him into contact with practically all the members of the services of both Protectorates and his unfailing kindness and courtesy, particularly to new comers, endeared him to all those with whom he had to deal. He will be sincerely mourned by a wide circle of friends and there are few who have served in East Africa to whom the news of his death will not bring a sense of personal loss
