GOVERNMENT NOTICE No 38]

RULES

Under the Courts Emergency Powers Ordinance No 9 of 1915.

- (1) NOTICE of an application under section 2 (1) (a) for leave to proceed thereunder shall be given to the opposite party
- (2) Such notice may be given in any of the ways hereinafter set out —

(a) In an ordinary suit.

By a notice in writing attached to the writ in the action for service therewith in the following form —

“Take notice that in the event of Judgment being passed in plaintiff's favour he intends to apply to the Court at the time of judgment being passed for leave to proceed under section 2 (1) (a) of Ordinance No 9 of 1915”

(b) In suits under Chapter XXXIX of the Code of Civil Procedure

By a notice in writing attached to the writ in the action for service therewith in the following form —

“Take notice that if leave to defend this suit is not obtained the plaintiff will on the 10th day from the date of service hereof and if that be a holiday then on the first Court day thereafter apply to the Court (or in a High Court action to a Judge in Chambers) at 9-30 a.m. for leave to proceed under section 2 (1) (a) of Ordinance No 9 of 1915”

(c) After the suit has been filed but before Judgment

By a notice in writing, which notice shall be in the form prescribed in Sub-section (a) of this Rule and shall be served through the Court

(d) At the time of Judgment being passed.

By oral application in Court provided that the judgment debtor or his representative is there present

(e) After Judgment has been entered.

By a notice in writing which shall be by way of a Chamber summons in the following form —

“Take notice that on the _____ day of _____ at _____ application will be made to the Court (or in a High Court action to a Judge in Chambers) for leave to proceed under section 2 (1) (a) of Ordinance No 9 of 1915”

- (3) No fee shall be payable to the Court in respect of notices given under Rule (2) (a), (b) and (d)

The ordinary fees for service only shall be payable in respect of notices given under Rule 2 (c) and (e)

- (4) Where a judgment debtor desires to be heard on an application by a judgment creditor for leave to proceed under section 2 (1) (a) such hearing shall be in Chambers, and if the application of the judgment creditor has been made in Court the further hearing shall be adjourned to Chambers to such time as may be fixed when the Order for adjournment is made

- (5) A judgment debtor must be prepared at the hearing of the application with all books and papers necessary to show that he is unable immediately to make payment by reason of circumstances attributable directly or indirectly to the present war

If owing to his own negligence he is not so prepared, leave to proceed under section 2 (1) (a) of the Ordinance may be granted to the judgment creditor forthwith

- (6) If a judgment debtor fails to appear on the hearing of the application of which he has had notice without good and sufficient cause for his non appearance the Court may make an order ex parte granting the judgment creditor leave to proceed under section 2 (1) (a)

- (7) When such an ex parte order has been made, it shall not be set aside except by a like procedure to that on which an ex parte decree may be set aside under the Code of Civil Procedure

- (8) Where an Order has been made granting a judgment creditor leave to proceed under section 2 (1) (a) he shall be at liberty to pursue his remedy in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure governing the execution of decrees

- (9) The taxed costs of the judgment creditor on the hearing of an application in Chambers shall be borne in any event by the judgment debtor

- (10) Any person wishing to obtain the leave of the Court for any of the purposes mentioned in section 2 (1) (b) may either where there is an action pending in which an order may properly be made granting leave apply in the action, or where there is no such action pending apply by way of originating summons

- (11) Where such application is made in an action it may be made orally in Court in the presence of the opposite party or his representative or by written notice served on the opposite party

- (12) Where such application is made by way of originating summons it shall be supported by an affidavit of facts and a declaration of the remedy which the applicant proposes to pursue. It shall be served on all parties interested and made returnable for the earliest date convenient

- (13) Such originating summons shall be taken out in the Court which would have jurisdiction (1) in the place in which the right or remedy for the exercise of which the applicant asks leave would be enforced, and (2) over the subject matter of the application were it to be valued for the purposes of a suit, provided that in all matters which cannot be valued at a money value the summons with regard to them shall be taken out in the High Court

- (14) No fees shall be payable to the Court in respect of any application or summons under section 2 (1) (b) beyond such fees as are ordinarily payable for service

- (15) Rules 4—9 inclusive shall mutatis mutandis apply to the hearing of applications under section 2 (1) (b)

- (16) If the party against whom the applicant seeks to enforce a remedy under section 2 (1) (b) consents at any time before hearing to the order asked for no advocate's costs will be allowed as against him, but where he contests the application the applicant's taxed costs shall be borne by him in any event

- (17) Where these Rules provide for the giving of any notice or service of any summons, such notice shall be given and such summons shall be served in accordance with the Rules of practice and procedure governing the giving of notice and service of summons in the Court in which such notice is given or such summons is returnable

- (18) Where a party to whom a notice should be given or on whom a summons should be served in accordance with these Rules cannot be found, the Court may make any order that it could make under the Code of Civil Procedure were the party in question a defendant in a suit and the notice or summons a summons in an action

Postmaster

GENERAL NOTICE No 129]

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the undermentioned goods will be sold by public auction at the Mombasa Custom House on the 6th April, 1915, if not claimed before that date, and the proceeds will be applied first to the payment of freight and charges and next of duties

The surplus, if any, will be paid to the proprietor of the goods on his application in writing for the same within 12 months from the date of sale, but if on the expiration of that time no such application shall have been made the surplus will be forfeited and will be applied as if it had been originally paid as the duty due and payable

A quantity of duty-in-kind and confiscated goods will also be put up for auction
