Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that, under the Firearms Act which has recently been passed in this country, no one in Great Britain may purchase, have in his possession, use or carry any firearm or ammunition (other than a smoothbore shot-gun or air rifle or ammunition therefor) unless he holds a firearm certificate issued by the Police. A person arriving in Great Britain in possession of firearms or ammunition to which the Act applies should, immediately on taking up residence, apply to the nearest Police Station for a form of application for a firearm certificate.
