THE TOWNSHIPS ORDINANCE, 1903-1918.

RULES.

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon him by the Townships Ordinances, 1903-1918 and of all other powers him thereunto enabling, His Excellency the Acting Governor has been pleased to make the following rules:—

1. These rules may be cited as "The Eldoret Township (Dustbin, Pail, Closet and Building) Rules, 1921," and shall apply to the Township of Eldoret.

DUSTBINS.

2. Words and expressions in these Rules shall have and bear the same meaning as provided for the same respectively in "The Nairobi Township Rules of 1917" provided always that the expression "nuisance" herein shall include any accumulation or deposit of domestic refuse in breach of these Rules, whether the same shall be detrimental to health or not.

3. The occupier of any building or premises shall on being required to do so provide and maintain to the satisfaction of the Resident Commissioner or Medical Officer of Health a receptacle for ashes and other non-liquid domestic refuse of a sufficient size of a capacity not more in any case than 6 cubic feet, of an approved pattern and fitted with a good and efficient lid. Provided that in the case of any house occupied by more tenants than one, the owner shall be deemed to be the occupier for the purposes of these Rules.

4. The occupier of any building or premises shall daily cause to be placed within the dustbin provided in terms of the foregoing Rules the domestic refuse from the said building or premises in so far as dustbin shall be sufficient to contain the same, and not elsewhere and shall cause such dustbin to be placed and kept in an approved place on the plot or sub-plot upon which such building or premises stand and shall not cause or suffer the same to be placed or kept elsewhere and shall make and keep such dustbin accessible to the public sweepers during the whole period between 6 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Saturdays and between 6 a.m. and 5 p.m. on other days. For the purposes of this Rule premises not occupied for human habitation shall not be deemed to be occupied on any day in which they are not actually occupied after the hour of 4 p.m.

5. If any nuisance shall exist upon or near any premises, by reason of domestic refuse, the Resident Commissioner, or Medical Officer of Health, or person acting on his behalf shall serve upon the occupier of such premises a notice in writing requiring him to remove the nuisance within such period as may be specified in the notice, and to prevent its recurrence; and if after the expiry of the time specified in such notice as aforesaid such nuisance shall continue, or shall, by the act, default or sufferance of the person upon whom such notice shall have been served, recur, then in either of such cases such person shall be guilty of an offence and shall be punishable in accordance with Rule 13 hereof.

6. If there shall be any accumulation or deposit of any trade refuse upon or near any premises used or occupied by any person or used or occupied by any person for or on behalf of any such person as aforesaid for the purposes of any trade or business whatsoever, which shall, in the opinion of the Medical Officer of Health or his deputy, be or in the opinion of the Medical Officer of Health or his deputy is likely or calculated to be injurious to health, then and in any of such cases the Resident Commissioner or Medical Officer of Health or other person acting on his behalf shall serve upon the person using or occupying the said premises, or upon the person using or occupying the said premises for or on behalf of such person as aforesaid, a notice requiring him or them to remove the said accumulation or deposit within such period as may be specified in the notice, and to prevent the recurrence of such accumulation or deposit; and, if after the expiry of the time specified in the said notice as aforesaid, such accumulation or deposit shall not be removed or, by the act, default or sufferance of the person so using or occupying the said premises as aforesaid or of the person using or occupying the said premises on his behalf as aforesaid shall recur then in either of such cases, such person shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against these Regulations and shall be punishable in accordance with Rule 13 hereof.

PAIL CLOSETS.

7. Every owner of a house or building used as a dwelling or otherwise shall on being required to do so provide such house or building with proper and sufficient pail closets and pails to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health. Such pail closets and pails shall be kept in a proper state of repair and any owner who on notice in writing from the Medical Officer of Health shall fail to supply or to repair such pail closets or pails within the period prescribed in the notice shall be guilty of an offence. Provided that an earth closet inside a house or building shall not be deemed to be sufficient compliance with this rule.

8. Where in the opinion of the Medical Officer of Health any private closet, latrine, privy or urinal is, after the publication of these rules, in an insanitary condition, or is so located as to be a nuisance, the owner of the building shall on written notice from the Medical Officer of Health either have the same repaired or reconstructed according to a plan approved by the Medical Officer of Health within the time specified in the said notice, or have the same removed within the time specified in the said notice. If the said owner fails to comply with any of the terms of the said notice he shall be guilty of an offence.

9. Every person causing any house, building or work to be erected, altered or demolished shall, if so required by the Medical Officer of Health, forthwith erect in an approved position and thereafter maintain for such time as workmen are engaged thereon good and sufficient temporary latrine accommodation for such workmen, to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health, and every person who shall cause any such erection, alteration or demolition to be begun without having erected latrine accommodation as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence.

10. The occupier, or, if there is no occupier, the owner of any premises, who shall permit at any time any escape of nightsoil or urine from any latrine, closet or privy on such premises shall be guilty of an offence.

11. The Medical Officer of Health, Sanitary Inspector or any person duly authorised by such Medical Officer of Health, or Sanitary Inspector in that behalf may enter upon any premises for any purpose connected with the above rules.

BUILDINGS.

12. No building used or to be used in whole or in part as a dwelling shall be erected, added to or altered so that more than one half of the plot on which it stands or is to stand as the case may be shall be built over and no building or erection of any kind whatever shall be so erected, added to or altered upon any plot upon which a building used in whole or in part as a dwelling stands so that more than one half of such plot shall be built over.

Provided that notwithstanding anything contained in this rule any building erected prior to the promulgation of this rule and used in whole or in part as a dwelling and occupying more than one half of the plot on which it stands may be added to or altered provided that such addition or alteration shall not extend beyond the site occupied by such building on the date of the promulgation of these rules.

Where any person shall have erected, added to or altered any building in contravention of this rule the Resident Commissioner may serve a notice upon such person calling upon him to demolish, pull down or alter within a specified time any structure erected or altered in contravention of the terms of this rule.

13. Any person who shall contravene or fail to comply with any of the provisions of, or shall be guilty of an offence against, any of these rules shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding Fls. 200 and in default of payment to imprisonment of either kind for a period not exceeding two months.

14. Any person who shall fail to comply with the requisition of any notice served under Rules 7, 8, 9, 10 and 12 of the above rules within the time specified by such notice shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fls. 15 for every day in which he shall be in default, and in default of payment of such fine to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding two months.
