STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This amendment is required as consequential to the Corporal Punishments Bill.

An Ordinance to Amend the Criminal Procedure Ordinance, 1913.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "the Criminal Procedure (Amendment) (No. 2) Ordinance, 1925," and shall be read as one with the Criminal Procedure Ordinance, 1913 (hereinafter referred to as "the Principal Ordinance"), and all amendments thereto.

2. Section 18 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor:—

10 " 18. The Supreme Court and subordinate courts of the first and second class and Liwalis and Cadis courts may impose a sentence of whipping under the provisions of the Corporal Punishments Ordinance, 1925."

Short title.

Amendment and re-enactment of Section 18 of the Principal Ordinance.

THE CUSTODY OF CHILDREN ORDINANCE, 1925.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill gives the court power to refuse the production of a child if the parent has previously abandoned it.

One of the objects of the Bill is to give charitable societies power to recover the whole or a part of the cost incurred in bringing up a child and thus to limit the present all too frequent applications for custody of children when they reach a wage-earning age, by parents or guardians who have borne no part of the expense of bringing them up or educating them.

There are several charitable societies in this Colony which board and bring up children who are frequently removed to undesirable homes and surroundings before they are of an age to look after themselves.

Under existing law these societies can neither refuse the parent the custody, nor can they recover any part of the cost incurred in bringing up the child.

The court can also give directions as to the child's religious upbringing.

Where a person has been charged with or convicted of any offence of a brutal or anti-social nature in regard to a child, the court may take the child out of the custody of such person and arrange for its upbringing in good surroundings.

Similarly, where the court in any case is of opinion that a girl is being brought up in immorality it may take the girl away from parents, etc., and commit her to the care of some desirable person or institution.

An Ordinance Relating to the Custody of Children.

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "the Custody of Children Ordinance, 1925."

Definition of "parent."

2. For the purposes of this Ordinance the expression "parent" of a child includes any person at law liable to maintain such child or entitled to his custody, and the expression "child" means a person under, or appearing to the court to be under, the age of sixteen years.

Power of court as to production of child.

3. Where the parent of a child applies to the Supreme Court for a writ or order for the production of the child, and the court is of opinion that the parent has abandoned or deserted the child, or that he has otherwise so conducted himself that the court should refuse to enforce his right to the custody of the child, the court may in its discretion decline to issue the writ or make the order.

Power to court to order repayment of costs of bringing up child.

4. If at the time of the application for a writ or order for the production of the child the child is being brought up by another person, or is boarded by a charitable or provident institution or society, the Supreme Court may, in its discretion, if it orders the child to be given up to the parent, further order that the parent shall pay to such person or to the charitable or provident institution or society, the whole of the costs properly incurred in bringing up the child, or such portion thereof as shall seem to the court to be just and reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

Court in making order to have regard to conduct of parent.

5. Where a parent has :— 25

(a) Abandoned or deserted his child; or

(b) Allowed his child to be brought up by another person at that person's expense, or by a charitable or provident institution or society, for such a length of time and under such circumstances as to satisfy the court that the parent was unmindful of his parental duties : 30

the court shall not make an order for the delivery of the child to the parent, unless the parent has satisfied the court that, having regard to the welfare of the child, he is a fit person to have the custody of the child. 35

Power to court as to child's religious education.

6. Upon any application by the parent for the production or custody of a child, if the court is of opinion that the parent ought not to have the custody of the child, and that the child is being brought up in a different religion to that in which the parent has a legal right to require that the child should be brought up, the court shall have power to make such order as it may think fit to secure that the child be brought up in the religion in which the parent has a legal right to require that the child should be brought up. Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall interfere with or affect the power of the court to consult the wishes of the child in considering what order ought to be made, or diminish the right which any child now possesses to the exercise of its own free choice. 45

7. (1) Where a person having the custody or care of a child has been—

(2) If the child has a parent or legal guardian no order shall be made under this section unless the parent or legal guardian has been convicted of or committed for trial for the offence, or is under committal for trial for having been, or has been proved to the satisfaction of the court making the order to have been, party or privy to the offence, or cannot be found.

(3) Every order under this section shall be in writing, and any such order may be made by the court in the absence of the child; and the consent of any person to undertake the care of a child in pursuance of any such order shall be proved in such manner as the court may think sufficient to bind him.

(4) Where an order is made under this section in respect of a person who has been committed for trial, then, if that person is acquitted of the charge, or if the charge is dismissed for want of prosecution, the order shall forthwith be void, except with regard to anything that may have been lawfully done under it.

(5) The Governor may at any time in his discretion discharge a child from the care of any person to whose care he is committed in pursuance of this section, either absolutely or on such conditions as the Governor may approve.

(6) The Governor in any case where it appears to him to be for the benefit of a child who has been committed to the care of any person in pursuance of this section, may empower such person to procure the emigration of the child, but, except with such authority, no person to whose care a child is so committed shall procure his emigration.

8. Where on the trial of any offence it is proved to the satisfaction of the Supreme Court that the seduction or prostitution of a girl under the age of sixteen has been caused, encouraged or favoured by her father, mother, guardian, master or mistress, it shall be in the power of the court to divest such father, mother, guardian, master or mistress of all authority over her and to appoint any person willing to take charge of such girl to be her guardian until she has attained the age of twenty-one, or any age below this as the court may direct, and the Supreme Court shall have power from time to time to rescind or vary such order by the appointment of any other person as such guardian, or in any other respect.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH ORDINANCE, 1921.

REGULATIONS.

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon him by the Public Health Ordinance, 1921, His Excellency the Governor in Council on the advice of the Central Board of Health, has been pleased to make the following Regulations:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as “ the Public Health (Kisumu Density of Dwellings) Regulations, 1925.”

2. Throughout these Regulations the following words and expressions shall have the meanings hereinafter respectively assigned to them unless the context otherwise requires :

(1) “ Dwelling ” means any house, room, shed, hut, cave, tent, vehicle, vessel or boat or any other structure or place whatsoever, any portion whereof is used by any human being for sleeping or in which any human being dwells.

(2) “ Dwelling-house ” means a building or any part or portion of a building used or constructed, adapted or designed to be used for human habitation, as a separate tenancy, or by one family only, whether detached, semi-detached or separated by party walls or by floors from adjoining buildings, together with such outbuildings as are reasonably required to be used or enjoyed therewith.

(3) “ Old Bazaar ” shall mean and include that area of the Township bounded on the south-east and east by the Uganda Railway boundary, to its junction with Temple Road, thence along Temple Road to its junction with Junction Road, thence along this road to its junction with the Uganda Railway boundary.

(4) “ Plot ” means any area of land being the subject of a separate lease or conveyance from the Crown.

(5) “ Subplot ” means any portion of a plot, such portion being the subject of a separate registered conveyance, assignment or sublease, and shall also extend to and include any portion of a plot being the subject of a separate sublease or upon which any building is erected which is wholly in or is constructed or adapted to be wholly in, one occupation or is let or adapted to be let to a separate tenant.

3. No person shall erect a building or make any alteration or addition to a building on any plot or subplot where such plot or subplot or such building as aforesaid, or any building or part of a building on such plot or subplot, is intended to be used as a dwelling unless at least half of the said plot or subplot shall be left unbuilt upon or unless the said plot or subplot be so denuded of buildings that, after erecting such building or making such alterations or additions to a building as aforesaid, at least half of such plot or subplot shall be left unbuilt upon.

4. On and after the date of the publication of these Regulations no person shall use or, being the owner thereof, permit to be used any plot or subplot or any building or part of a building on any plot or subplot as a dwelling where, on the date of the publication of these Regulations, such plot or subplot or such building or part of a building as aforesaid was not being used as a dwelling unless at least half of the said plot or subplot has been left unbuilt upon or unless the said plot or subplot be so denuded of buildings that at least half of such plot or subplot shall be left unbuilt upon.

5. On and after the first day of April, 1929, no person shall use or, being the owner thereof, permit to be used as a dwelling any plot or subplot or any building or part of a building on any plot or subplot, in the Old Bazaar, unless at least half of the said plot or subplot has been left unbuilt upon or unless the said plot or subplot be so denuded of buildings that at least half of such plot or subplot shall be left unbuilt upon.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Regulations 3, 4 and 5 hereof, in the case of buildings appearing in the opinion of the Superintendent of Conservancy to be constructed, adapted or designed to be used entirely as hotels or residential clubs the proportion of the plot or subplot upon which such buildings stand or are to stand which shall be left unbuilt upon may be reduced to one-third.

7. No person shall so erect, add to or alter a building in such a manner that on the plot or subplot on which such building stands (such plot or subplot being not greater than one thirty-fifth of an acre), there shall be more than one dwelling-house, or so that there shall be any dwelling-house on any plot or subplot which is of less extent than one thirty-fifth of an acre, or so that the number of dwelling-houses over the whole area of such plot or sub-plot shall exceed the number yielded by a ratio of thirty-five dwelling-houses to one acre.

In coming to a determination as to the number of dwelling-houses which shall be permitted upon any plot or subplot in accordance with the foregoing provisions, no regard shall be had to any open spaces, streets or passages reserved or agreed to be reserved and abutting upon or in the vicinity of such plot or subplot.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to apply to any building which, in the opinion of the Superintendent of Conservancy, is constructed, adapted or designed to be used as a hotel or residential club and which in his opinion is unlikely, on account of the manner in which it may be used, to become a menace either to the health of the inhabitants thereof or of the community.

8. No person shall so erect, add to or alter a building intended, adapted or designed to be used wholly or partially for human habitation that any portion thereof which constitutes a dwelling-house shall be without separate and independent access to a street, such street not being a sanitary lane or a passage.

9. No person shall erect a building intended, adapted or designed to be used wholly or partially for human habitation on any plot or subplot which has not a frontage of at least fourteen feet upon a street, such street not being a sanitary lane or a passage.

10. The Superintendent of Conservancy shall have powers in every case to determine whether any street is a sanitary lane or a passage, and his decision shall be final, provided that no street measuring forty feet or more in width shall in any circumstances be deemed to be a sanitary lane or a passage.

11. Any person guilty of an offence against, or contravention of, or default in complying with, any provision of these Regulations shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred shillings, and if the offence, contravention or default is of a continuing nature, to a further fine not exceeding sixty shillings for each day during which he shall make default.

12. These Regulations shall apply to the Township of Kisumu.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor in Council.
