A copy of such petition together with a copy of such affidavit shall be served on the intended respondent, who shall be entitled to file an affidavit in reply within seven days from the date of service or such longer period as may be granted by the Deputy Registrar. The Deputy Registrar may permit further affidavits to be filed. The Deputy Registrar shall thereupon forward the application to the Registrar for directions.

The record.

15. (1) The Deputy Registrar shall be responsible for the preparation of the record and shall for this purpose give an opportunity to the parties or their advocates of appearing before him and being heard. The preparation of the record shall be subject to the supervision of the High Court which passed the decree appealed against and the parties may submit any disputed question arising in connection therewith to the decision of the High Court and the High Court shall give such directions thereon as the justice of the case may require.

(2) The Deputy Registrar as well as the parties and their advocates shall endeavour to exclude from the record all documents (more particularly such as are purely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the appeal, and, generally, to reduce the bulk of the record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied shall be enumerated in a list to be placed after the index or at the end of the record.

(3) Where in the course of the preparation of a record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, the record shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of and incidental to such document, indicate in the index of papers, or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to.

Pauper appellant.

17. If any appellant alleges that he is unable to pay the fees on appeal the Deputy Registrar, upon application being made for that purpose, shall inquire into the question of the poverty of the appellant, and, if he is satisfied that the allegation of poverty is true, he shall forward to the Court of Appeal with the record of appeal a declaration to that effect, and a statement of the proportion of the fees (if any) which the appellant is able to pay; and no fees other than the above shall be payable. If the Deputy Registrar is not satisfied as to the poverty of the appellant he shall forward the application to the Registrar with a report as to the appellant's means and shall take no other step in the appeal without orders from the Court of Appeal.

Report of Judge of trial.

18. The Registrar or a Deputy Registrar upon the filing of a memorandum of appeal or of any application relating to an appeal shall, when the decree is not accompanied by a copy of a written statement given by the Judge of the grounds of the decree, and in any other case when directed by the Court of Appeal so to do, request the Judge who passed the decree to furnish him with a report in writing, giving his opinion upon the case generally or upon any point thereof. The report of the Judge shall be made to the Court of Appeal and any party to the appeal shall be entitled to a copy thereof free of charge. When the Registrar shall request a Judge to furnish a report under these Rules, he shall send to such Judge a copy of the memorandum of appeal or of the application and any other document or information which he shall consider material or which the Court of Appeal at any time shall direct him to send, or with which such Judge may request to be furnished by the Registrar to enable such Judge to deal in his report with the case generally or with any point arising thereon.

19. In all proceedings before the Court of Appeal the parties may appear in person or be represented and appear by any advocate who is entitled to practice before any court from which an appeal lies to the Court of Appeal and in the case of parties resident outside the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeal by persons holding general powers of attorney from them.

Right of audience.

20. If on the hearing of an appeal or application the Court of Appeal is equally divided in opinion the appeal or application as the case may be shall be dismissed.

Where court equally divided in opinion.

21. If for any reason it appears right to adjourn an appeal or application, the Court of Appeal shall have full power to do so upon such terms and for such time as seem fit. The Court of Appeal may enlarge the time prescribed by these Rules for the doing of anything to which these Rules apply. Any additional evidence ordered by the Court of Appeal to be taken shall be either by affidavit or by oral examination in court before a High Court or before an examiner or commissioner.

Powers of the Court.

22. No interlocutory order or rule from which there has been no appeal shall operate so as to bar or prejudice the Court of Appeal from giving such decision upon the appeal as may be just.

Interlocutory order not to prejudice appeal.

23. The Registrar shall draw up and sign all decrees of the Court of Appeal and shall transmit any such decree together with a certified copy of the judgment to the court from which the appeal emanated.

Such application shall be made by summons supported by affidavit.

Reference from Registrar.

26. Service where required in these Rules shall be effected in the same manner as is prescribed for service of process of the High Court which passed the decree appealed against in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction, and the High Court may make such orders and give such directions as may be required.

Service.

III.—CIVIL.

27. In civil matters an appeal shall not operate as a stay of execution or of proceedings under the decree appealed from except so far as the High Court or the Court of Appeal may order; and no intermediate act or proceeding shall be invalidated except so far as the Court of Appeal may direct.

Stay of proceedings on appeal.

Interest.

28. Where an order has been made that pending the determination of an appeal execution of a decree which does not contain an order for the payment of interest upon the amount of the decree shall be stayed, then unless the order staying execution of the decree or the Court of Appeal at the hearing of the appeal orders otherwise, the Registrar shall compute interest upon the amount of the decree of the High Court upheld upon appeal at the rate of 6 per centum from the order staying execution up to the date of the decree of the Court of Appeal, and shall include the amount of such interest in the decree of that Court.

Costs in civil Appeals.

29. Where costs are allowed in a civil appeal they shall be taxable according to the rules for the taxation of costs for the time being in force in the Kenya Colony and Protectorate, but according to the scale in the second schedule hereto, provided that costs allowed in respect of proceedings prior to the institution of the appeal shall be taxable according to the rules for the taxation of costs for the time being in force in the High Court which passed the decree appealed against.

Where respondent seeks variation of decree.

30. It shall not in any circumstances be necessary for a respondent to file an appeal by way of cross appeal, but if a respondent intends, upon the hearing of the appeal, to contend that the decision of the court below should be varied he shall, within seven days after receiving notice of the appeal or within such further time as may be allowed by the Deputy Registrar, give notice of such intention to any parties who may be affected by such contention. The omission to give such notice shall not diminish the powers of the Court of Appeal. Such notice shall ordinarily be served through the Deputy Registrar.

IV.—CRIMINAL.

Judgment in criminal appeals.

31. In criminal appeals, the judgment of the Court of Appeal shall be pronounced by the Senior Judge of such Court or such other Judge as the Senior Judge may direct and no judgment with respect to the determination of any question shall be separately pronounced by any other Judge of such Court; provided that in any appeal involving a question of law the Senior Judge of the Court hearing the appeal may direct that separate judgments be pronounced by the Judges who heard the appeal.

Advocates and costs in criminal appeal.

32. (1) The President or Senior Judge of the Court of Appeal may at any time assign to a pauper appellant in a criminal appeal an advocate in an appeal in which it appears desirable in the interests of justice that the appellant should have legal aid.

(2) The expenses of any advocate assigned to an appellant under this Rule shall be defrayed out of the general revenue of the territory from which the appeal emanates. On the hearing and determination of a criminal appeal or any proceedings preliminary or incidental thereto, no costs shall be allowed on either side, unless the Court of Appeal shall for good cause otherwise order.

Right of appellant to be present.

33. An appellant, notwithstanding that he is in custody shall be entitled to be present, if he desires it, on the hearing of the appeal; provided that where the appeal is on some ground involving a question of law alone, he shall not be entitled to be present, except with the leave of the Court of Appeal. The right of an appellant who is in custody to be present at the hearing of the appeal shall be subject to his paying all expenses incidental to his transfer to and from the place where the Court of Appeal sits for the determination of the Appeal, provided that the Court of Appeal may direct that he be brought before the Court in any case where in the opinion of the Court of Appeal his presence is advisable for the due determination of the appeal, in which event such expenses shall be defrayed out of the general revenue of the territory from which the appeal emanates.

34. When the Court of Appeal has heard and dealt with any application or appeal in a criminal matter the Registrar shall (unless it appears to him unnecessary so to do in the case of any application) give to the appellant (if he is in custody and has not been present at the hearing of such application or appeal) notice of the decision of the Court in relation to the said application or appeal.
