THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 9 OF 1964

Parties:—

The Tobacco Workers' Union (Kenya)

and

East African Tobacco Company Limited

Issues in dispute:—

(a) Housing allowance for employees not living in Company housing.

(b) Increase in disturbance allowance payable to employees when permanently transferred.

(c) Revision of redundancy terms.

(d) Revision of grievance procedure.

1. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 7th and 9th October 1964 and the testimony of three witnesses was taken.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

2. The Tobacco Workers' Union (Kenya) shall be hereinafter referred to as the Union and the East African Tobacco Company Limited shall be hereinafter referred to as the Respondent.

A comprehensive agreement covering Rules of Employment constituting the Terms and Conditions of Service for Workers exists between the parties hereto as from 18th June 1959, a copy of which is attached to the Respondent's memorandum. From then on fairly harmonious relations have existed between them and it can be truly said that the Respondent is one of the leading employers of labour as far as wages and other benefits for the workers are concerned.

The aforesaid agreement came up for revision and discussions between the parties were held in June 1964. Eleven items were considered and agreement was reached on seven of these, leaving the four issues in dispute as detailed above. A dispute having been declared the matter was referred to the Ministry of Labour and Social Services for conciliation. A conciliator was appointed but the proceedings ended in deadlock and the matters were then referred to this Court.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE UNION

3. (a) Housing allowance.—On this issue the Union claims that those employees who at the moment are not residing in the housing provided by the Respondent should be paid a housing subsidy to enable them to meet part of the high rental they have to pay to other landlords, this the Union claims would be fair and equitable because the employees housed by the Respondent are paying an economical rent. The Union urges that this disparity is causing discontentment amongst the workers and further maintains that the employees should be helped to obtain decent accommodation as with their present wage they cannot afford more than a room or so and are living in great congestion and unhygienic conditions. The housing subsidy claimed is Sh. 50 in addition to the Statutory Housing Allowance.

(b) Disturbance allowance.—The Union claims that the 30 per cent of basic salary for three months being paid at the moment is inadequate and should be increased to 50 per cent to enable an employee to meet his increased expenditure resulting from a transfer which is imposed by the Respondent. The Union further states that the employees furniture and property is often damaged in transit and this coupled with the fact that the employee has to find his own housing makes the 30 per cent allowance much too low. The Union also demands travelling allowance under this heading.

(c) Revision of redundancy terms.—The Union claims that the existing terms under this item are not sufficient and that whenever an employee is declared redundant he should be paid one month's salary for every year of service to enable him and his family to live until another job is found. The Union considers that the one-third of a month's salary for every year of service is quite inadequate. The Union further wants three months' salary, in addition to the aforesaid demand of one month's salary for every year's service, to be paid under this heading, and states that the following factors should be considered when employees are dismissed due to redundancy:—

(i) Individual merit.

(ii) Principle of "last in first out" should apply.

(iii) Domestic responsibilities and private circumstances should be taken into account.

(iv) The Respondent should discuss with the Union the personal problems involved before dismissing the employee concerned.

(d) Revision of grievance that the basis of good indu management is the grievanc be one which is acceptable equitable. The present pro and gives the Respondent a unnecessarily. The Union s agreement on Recognition be amended to the followin

AWARD

5. The Court has considered very carefully the foregoing submissions and notes that the Respondent, like other employers, operates in a competitive labour market where rates of pay must be, to a great extent, determined by the market-going rates and that for the Union to be successful it has to be established that the Respondent's terms and conditions of employment are below the market rates.

The Court, therefore, makes the following award:—

(a) Housing allowance.—The Court is completely satisfied that when the minimum wage was negotiated between the parties on 5th September 1959 a housing element was taken into account. The relevant minute regarding housing is quoted below:—

"(a) Wages and increments

(iii) The rates agreed and as shown in Appendix "X" are inclusive of a housing element (stated by Management to be Sh. 30) and no other payment shall be made by the Company in respect of housing.

(b) House Rents.—It is agreed to maintain the "status quo" with regard to deductions for rent in cases where the employer leases housing facilities to its staff. The existing percentage deductions for rent, together with the minima and maxima at present in force, will remain unchanged.

The management stated that it is the Company's policy to move towards economic rents in the future, and that the concession now made with regard to maintaining the present rent structure did not imply that it was prepared to negotiate in future on rents.

Signed by:

A. J. J. SPENCE,
Chairman.

L. O. OBO,
for the Union.

K. R. MACLAREN,
for the Company."

The Court feels that the houses in Tobacco Village should be used to alleviate the condition of the lower-grade employees and therefore recommends that these houses should be allocated to workers earning less than Sh. 400 per month. Apart from this recommendation the Court makes no award under this heading.

(b) Disturbance allowance.—The Court finds justification for a slight increase and therefore awards an amendment to the Rules of Employment Constituting the Terms and Conditions of Service for workers, clause 15, subparagraph (b) as follows:—

Permanent.—In the event of a permanent transfer from one station to another, the Company will pay for a period of three months following the date of arrival at the new station, a disturbance allowance of 40 per centum (forty per centum) of basic salary. Thereafter the new place of work shall be deemed to be the employee's headquarters and disturbance allowance shall cease.

(c) Revision of redundancy terms.—The Court awards that the present entitlement of one-third of one month's basic wages or salary for each completed year of service with the Company, as contained in caluse 23, subparagraph (b) of the aforesaid Rules of Employment, shall be replaced by a new subparagraph as under:—

(b) payment of 15 days basic wages or salary for each completed year of service with the Company.

All the other subparagraphs of clause 23 shall remain as they are.

The following factors shall be taken into consideration when an employee is declared redundant and shall be in the order as stated:—

(i) Individual merit.

(ii) Length of service, that is, last in first out.

(iii) Domestic responsibilities and private circumstances.

Clause 23, subparagraph (f) of the Rules of Employment is amended accordingly.

(d) Grievance procedure.—The Court accepts the Respondent's offer to introduce a new subsection (e) but substitutes a period of one year in place of two in the last sentence. The new paragraph shall read as follows:—

"(e) Any written warning given to an employee as in (b) above shall be entered in the employee's employment record card and shall remain valid for a period of twelve months from the date of issue. If, within the twelve-month period, the employee commits a similar or any other offence which does not warrant dismissal, he will be further warned in writing in his employment record car shall remain valid for a period of date of the second warning. If, w period, the employee commits a fur not warrant dismissal, he will be is of warning, which will render him missal for any other offence that he A final letter of warning will remai one year from the date of issue. A c should be sent to the Union."

The existing subparagraph (e) shall Court awards accordingly.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 6 OF 1964

Parties:—

The Kenya Chemical Workers' Union

and

The Paint Manufacturers Group of the Federation of Kenya Employers

Issues in Dispute:—

(i) Was the offer of Sh. 31 wage increase made by the employers on the clear understanding that there would be no wage revision for 24 months from the effective date, and if this was not the intention would the offer have been less.

(ii) Are the parties bound to the negotiated Sh. 31 per month wage increase irrespective of the duration of the contract, and if they are not bound to this increase, then what increase, if any, should be awarded.

(iii) Is it necessary to incorporate in the Agreement a condition to the effect that there should be a wage standstill for 24 months.

1. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 4th September 1964, before which a ruling on the issues had been given by the President who framed the aforesaid three issues in this dispute at the request of the parties as they had failed to agree upon them.

The issues having been decided the parties were heard again on 12th October 1964 in support of their written submissions.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

The Kenya Chemical Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Union and the Paint Manufacturers Group as the Employers.

2. In this dispute the Union submitted a memorandum of demands to the Secretary of the Kenya Paint Manufacturers Group of the Federation of Kenya Employers on 30th September 1963 to amend all existing agreements with employers. The Negotiating Committee as provided in the Recognition Agreement had several meetings to discuss these demands, but no settlement was reached and the matter was reported to the Ministry of Labour as a dispute on the following items—

(a) acting allowance;

(b) increased annual leave;

(c) meal allowance;

(d) reduction in normal working hours per week, and

(e) increase in wages.

Conciliation proceedings were carried out by Mr. Kibachia and by Mr. J. C. Odaga of the Ministry of Labour, in turn, with some varying degree of success. The net result of this was that in all claims with the exception of wages and the grading system agreement was reached or the claims were withdrawn.

On the question of wages, at one stage, when agreement had been reached giving a Sh. 31 increase to employees, differences arose as to the duration of the contract. The Employers expressed a desire that in accordance with the Tripartite Agreement there should be incorporated in the Negotiated Agreement a condition to the effect that there would be a wage standstill for a period of 24 months. The Union, on the other hand, maintained that there was no need for this provision to be included in the Agreement as the Tripartite Agreement is in any case binding upon them and they have given repeated assurances of their intention to honour their obligations under the Agreement which includes the wage standstill clause. Beyond this the Union was not prepared to go. The Employers, for their part, having discharged their obligations under the Agreement, felt strongly that the Union should be pinned down in no uncertain terms to the 24-month wage standstill.

The Union maintains that it accepted a Sh. 31 wage increase without any agreement as to the duration of the contract subject nevertheless to the Tripartite Agreement. The Employers state that the offer of Sh. 31 was made by them on the express understanding that the 24-month wage standstill would be incorporated in the Agreement. This being the position, it is quite clear that—

(i) the Employers made an offer of Sh. 31 per month wage increase provided a 24-month wage standstill was written into the Agreement;

(ii) the Union was prepared to accept the Sh. 31 per month wage increase, but was not prepared to agree to the above proviso;

(iii) deadlock being reached on the duration of the Agreement, the Union declared its intention of reverting to its original wage demand.

That being the state of affairs, the matter came before the Court.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE UNION

3. (i) The Union states emphatically that the offer of Sh. 31 wage increase by the Employers was not made on the understanding that it would operate for a period of 24 months from the effective date. Throughout the negotiation no mention was made of the duration of the new wages negotiated. It was only when Sh. 31 wage increase was agreed that the Employers, for the first time, brought in the question of a 24-month wage standstill. This was mentioned due to the provisions of paragraph (i) of section (b) of the Tripartite Agreement. Therefore the wage increase of Sh. 31 was in no way related to a wage standstill for 24 months. Hence the question of the offer being less did not arise. The Union argues that it has all along expressed its intention and willingness to honour the obligations imposed on the Unions under the Tripartite Agreement and therefore it was superfluous for a specific period of 24 months wage standstill period being written into the new Agreement.

The Union further maintains that because this Agreement as and when concluded with the Employers would be an Agreement which had not been concluded before the Tripartite Agreement took effect, therefore it would be outside its scope. Neither would it be appropriate to consider this new Agreement as being one which was pending and alive when the Tripartite Agreement was signed and came into effect.

The Union contends that when the Employers belatedly introduced the new condition of 24-month wage standstill, it withdrew its acceptance of the Sh. 31 wage increase as the Union was not prepared to accept any wage increase with strings attached.

(ii) The Union maintains that in view of the aforesaid new condition which the Employers sought to introduce into the Agreement the Union is not bound to the negotiated Sh. 31 wage increase and it was perfectly justified in withdrawing its acceptance of Sh. 31 wage increase and in reverting to its original high demand which would give a minimum consolidated wage of Sh. 350 for Grade V as against the minimum of Sh. 251 which includes Sh. 31 wage increase. The Union in supporting its wage claim has quoted various agreements it has negotiated with various firms and states that this employer's salary is small indeed. The Union urges that an employee should have enough food every day to replenish the energy used in living and working; should have decent clothes and reasonable living accommodation; should have adequate means to meet the education expenses of his family and to ensure financial security. To meet all these the minimum salary needed was the one put forward by the Union.

(iii) The Union states that the question of incorporating a condition in the Agreement to the effect that there should be a wage standstill for 24 months does not arise as the Employers are demanding this under the Tripartite Agreement which the Union has repeatedly agreed is binding on it. The Union states that no figure of 24 months as such is mentioned in the Tripartite Agreement and therefore the Employers are not entitled to get a specific period of 24 months included in the Agreement. The Union in conclusion state that as the new Agreement will be on the basis of the decision of the Court, therefore paragraph (i) of section (c) of the Tripartite Agreement shall apply which, inter alia, states that the awards of the Industrial Court shall be final and binding during this period of 12 months. The Union submitted its demands in September 1963 and these are covered by the Tripartite Agreement, paragraph (iv) of section (d).

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE EMPLOYERS

4. (i) The Employers submit that they would not have agreed under conciliation to a wage increase of Sh. 31 unless they had been certain, in their own minds, of a 12-month normal agreement plus the 12-month wage standstill agreed with the Trade Unions under the provisions of the Tripartite Agreement for the relief of unemployment, paragraph (i) of section (b). During the negotiations it appeared to the Employers that the Union had no intention of honouring the Tripartite Agreement and therefore it was to cover this specific point that by letter dated 13th March 1964 they requested the insertion of an additional item to the dispute covering "Date and period of Agreement". The conciliation was successful and all matters were resolved except the period of the Agreement although it is correct to say that 1st January 1964 was agreed as the date of implementation and 12 months had been agreed as the basic duration. It was at this point that negotiations reached an impasse over the provisions of the Tripartite Agreement. The Employers state that the bulk of the 28,000 employees engaged under the 10 per cent scheme are taken on by private commerce and industry. The cost of the private sector's contribution is, in round figures, about £2¼ million over the period of the Agreement. This being so, it was only but natural that employers wish to tie down the Union specifically to discharge its part of the obligation under the Agreement.

(ii) The Employers submit that both parties are bound to the negotiated Sh. 31 per month wage increase agreed by both parties under conciliation. Both parties agreed to the terms of the dispute under conciliation and if either desired to make it a condition of the negotiations that a settlement on any single item would be subject to agreement on the whole then this fact should have been stated and made clear either prior to conciliation or when it became apparent that there was a breakdown on any particular item. Unless there is a clear understanding that agreements reached will be accepted and honoured there would be a grave danger of undermining all negotiations between Management and Unions. The Employers state that job classification has been carried out and it is submitted that the Court should award an increase of Sh. 31 to each grade. The Employers are prepared to remove a few anomalies that might exist between different companies in their group through a joint meeting between the parties.

(iii) The Employers state that the Union has never during the negotiations nor since conciliation given any indication that they would honour the Tripartite Agreement in so far as the wage standstill is concerned and the Employers submit that they are entitled to an assurance that the Agreement will be honoured in full. It is therefore suggested that under these circumstances it is necessary to state clearly that the Agreement is for a period of 12 months from a definite date plus, in so far as wages are concerned, the 12-month standstill as stated in the Tripartite Agreement.

AWARD

5. Before any decision is given on the three issues in dispute, it is essential that the interpretation and effect of the Tripartite Agreement should be considered at length to determine whether or not this particular Agreement between the parties hereto when finalized will be subject to the provisions of the Tripartite Agreement. Further, if there will be a wage standstill for a period of 12 months on the expiry of the duration of the present contract which the parties are agreed will be for 12 montths from 1st January 1964. This is a matter of considerable importance and all the aspects of this matter have been most carefully examined.

The Tripartite Agreement was made to create measures for the immediate relief of unemployment. The fundamental ingredients of this agreement between the Government, the Federation of Kenya Employers and the Kenya Federation of Labour are the freedom of action, sacrifices on the part of all sections of our community and the preference for the maintenance of democratic procedures as opposed to rigid Government control or regimentation through restrictive legislation. The Tripartite Agreement has been cited as yet another example of a constructive spirit and maturity in industrial relations which has come to be the praise of Kenya.

In the Preamble to this Agreement at paragraph (i) it states, inter alia, the unemployment problem has now become so serious as to constitue a national emergency. At paragraph (v) of the Preamble the Agreement stresses the need for sacrifices and the measures set out fundamentally involve a reduction of the unemployed population by employers in the private sector increasing their labour forces by 10 per cent. The Agreement also makes provisions for the Government and local government to increase their establishments by 15 per cent.

The Court notes that the bulk of the 28,000 employees engaged under the 10 per cent scheme were taken on by privatte commerce and industry. The cost of the private sector's contribution is, in round figures, about £2½ million over the period of the Agreement.

Paragraph (ii) of section (a) of the Agreement reads:—

"Private employers, other than employers of domestic servants (house servants), will increase the number of their employees as at 23rd January 1964 by 10 per cent."

The quid pro quo for this major contribution fell into two parts which are set out in section (b) of the Agreement which is quoted below:—

(b) On the Part of Employees

(i) Trade Unions agree to a 12-month wage standstill after the expiry of existing negotiated agreements and awards. Existing agreements will be respected and any revision will be carried out as provided in the Agreement, except for wages, which shall be subject to a standstill period of 12 months.

(ii) No strike or go-slow action will be called during the 12-month period and all disputes will be dealt with in accordance with the Industrial Relations Charter.

It should also be pointed out that the Kenya Chemical Workers' Union is an affiliate of the Kenya Federation of Labour which is a signatory to the Tripartite Agreement.

In section (d), paragraph (iv), it is provided that:—

"Any claim for a variation of terms and conditions of service submitted before 23rd January 1964 should be processed through the normal machinery of the Industrial Relations Charter but will not be the subject of strike or lock-out action. Reports of commissions or similar bodies, affecting civil servants, already under consideration by Government, will be subject to the normal industrial relations machinery."

It is obvious that employers were, in return for their contribution, granted a 12-month extension to the life of their agreements. This fact underlines the essence of the Agreement that it was an emergency measure and involved sacrifices which could only be remedied by a "gentleman's agreement". Paragraph (iv) of section (d), quoted above, deals with the problems of Union claims submitted before 23rd January 1964 This section makes it plain that claims already being processed on 23rd January 1964 must be resolved but only in the context of paragraph (i), section (b), already quoted, which provides for the revision to be subject to the standstill period of 12 months. Thus the Agreement ensures that the benefit conferred by the 12-month standstill is not confined to employers whose agreements were current on 23rd January 1964 and who therefore merely extended the life of their agreements by 12 months. There is no restriction on the negotiation of fringe benefits during the life of the Tripartite Agreement but wage clauses are governed so that one way or the other the employer benefits by the standstill. An employer with an agreement terminating during the course of 1964 is liable to negotiate fringe benefits but the sandstill would operate in respect of wages. An employer already negotiating on 23rd January 1964 likewise would be entitled to the wage clause being governed by the standstill otherwise this would lead to an unsatisfactory situation in that some parties, just because their agreements had not been finalized on 23rd January 1964, would escape the obligation imposed upon them under the Tripartite Agreement which certainly would be contrary to the spirit and letter of the Tripartite Agreement.

The Court therefore finds that the wage agreement which would be concluded between the parties hereto would be subject to a 12-month standstill on expiry.

6. This point having been disposed of, the Court finds as follows on the three issues:

(i) The wage offer of Sh. 31 was made on the clear understanding that there would be no wage revision for 12 months from the effective date of the offer. The parties also had in mind the Tripartite Agreement, the provisions of which would, in any case, apply without expressly stipulating a 24-month wage standstill.

(ii) The parties are bound to the negotiated increase of Sh. 31 per month irrespective of the duration of the contract because the Union withdrew its acceptance only when a specific period of 24 months was mentioned, which point has been disposed of hereinabove. The Courts finds nevertheless that the wage increase of Sh. 31 per month is generous.

(iii) In view of the Court's ruling on the provisions of the Tripartite Agreement and their effect, it is not necessary to incorporate a condition to the effect that there should be a wage standstill for 24 months.

The Court directs that if any anomalies exist in the job classification the parties should get together and resolve them. The Employers have intimated their willingness to do so.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3779

(WAT/FIN/1)

CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE GRANTING OF SUBSIDIES FOR UNSUCCESSFUL BOREHOLES DRILLED BY BOREHOLE CONTRACTORS

IT IS hereby notified for general information that, with the object of encouraging the development of the ground-water resources of Kenya for agricultural purposes of all kinds, including the domestic purposes of the farmer, the Government has approved of the terms and conditions set out in this notice for the purpose of governing the grant of subsidies in respect of unsuccessful boreholes, with effect from the date of publication of this notice.

1. For the purposes of these conditions—

"approved" means approved by the Director of Water Development;

"borehole" means a hole not less than 4 inches in diameter, lined or unlined, drilled in the crust of the earth by a mechanically operated appliance approved by the Director of Water Development;

"borehole contractor" means a person or firm licensed by the Water Apportionment Board as a borehole contractor in accordance with section 71 of the Water Act (Cap. 372).

"Director of Water Development" means the Director of Water Development of the Ministry of Natural Resources, or a person deputed by him, either generally or for a particular purpose;

"farmer" means any member (including a body corporate) of the community engaged in farming an agricultural holding of not less than eight acres, and in the absence from Kenya of such a person, his agent or representative; it also includes a mortgagee in possession.

2. (i) Applications for the approval of a borehole site and the subsequent granting of a subsidy in the event of the borehole proving unsuccessful may be submitted by farmers as defined in condition 1 above or by local government authorities. These applications should be submitted to the Director of Water Development on Form 245B.

(ii) Each application must be supported by a recommendation from the appropriate District Agricultural Committee constituted in accordance with Part III of the Agriculture Act (Cap. 318).

(iii) Each application shall be in respect of one borehole only and should be accompanied by the requisite fee of Sh. 100, which is not returnable.

3. Approval of a borehole site for subsidy shall be valid for one year from the date of approval. After expiration of one year the approval may be extended for further periods of one year at the discretion of the Director of Water Development, who may alter the conditions under which approval was previously given.

4. The number of boreholes approved for a subsidy which may be drilled on any one property shall be at the sole discretion of the Director of Water Development, after consultation, if he deems it necessary, with the District Agricultural Committee concerned and/or the Water Resources Authority.

5. Subject to the provisions of condition 11 below, a subsidy will be payable on completion of a borehole only if all the following conditions are complied with:—

(i) The site of the borehole has been approved by the Director of Water Development, who shall have power to imposed such conditions as he may think fit before approving such site prior to the commencement of drilling operations.

(ii) The borehole has been drilled by a borehole contractor as defined in condition 1 above.

(iii) The borehole has been carried down to the minimum depth specified by the Director of Water Development which shall in no case be less than 150 feet or where both a minimum and a maximum depth for subsidy has been specified by the Director of Water Development, the borehole has been carried down to the maximum depth or drilling abandoned at a depth equal to or greater than the minimum depth.

(iv) The borehole complies with any special conditions laid down by the Director of Water Development when the site was approved, including a permit from the Water Apportionment Board if required.

(v) The borehole qualifies for a subsidy on the basis of tested yield under condition 6.

6. (i) The maximum subsidy payable shall be £900 or 75 per cent of the cost of the borehole, whichever is the less.

(ii) The full subsidy under (i) above shall be payable if the tested yield in gallons per hour is equal to or less than the minimum yield (Y min.) as given in the formula—where d is the depth of the borehole to the nearest foot.

$$Y \text{ min.} = 70 + \frac{d}{5}$$

(iii) No subsidy will be payable if the tested yield in gallons per hour is equal to or greater than the limit yield (Y lim.) as given in the formula—

$$Y \text{ lim.} = 150 + \frac{d}{4}$$

(iv) Where the tested yel (Y) lies between the minimum and the limit yield as defined in (ii) and (iii) above, the percentage subsidy payable in lieu of 75 per cent under (i) shall be—

7. If a preliminary test shows that the yield of a borehole is such that a subsidy is payable under condition 6, the Director of Water Development must be given 48 hours' notice in order to arrange to be present at a final pump test, the results of which will be used as the basis of a subsidy. The cost of drilling carried out below the maximum subsidy depth shall not be included in the cost of the borehole when calculating the subsidy payable.

8. The test pumping in connexion with any application for a subsidy must be carried out if necessary after development by surging, with the cylinder fixed not more than 20 feet above the bottom of the borehole. Such test pumping shall, if the yield is less than the limit yield as defined in condition 6 (iii), be of not less than eight hours' continuous duration. The quantity of water delivered shall be measured volumetrically in receptacles of known capacity or by such other method as the Director of Water Development may approve. Tests by bailer shall not be accepted except at the discretion of the Director of Water Development.

9. In the event of the Director of Water Development not being present at the final pump test, a certificate of the result of the test pumping, on Form W.A.B. 28, shall be signed by the borehole contractor carrying out the drilling operations and shall be submitted to the Director of Water Development so as to reach him within 30 days of the date of completion of the boring operations.

10. (i) The Director of Water Development reserves the right to enter upon the land of an applicant for all or any of the following purposes:—

(a) Inspecting any borehole.

(b) Being present at the test-pumping operations.

(c) Taking a sample of the water.

(d) Carrying out a check test of the yield in respect of any borehole for which an application for a subsidy has been submitted.

(ii) Should the check test of the yield as made by the Director of Water Development and as approved personally by him exceed the tested yield as reported under condition 9 to an extent which would lower the amount of subsidy payable, the applicant shall refund any excess subsidy which may have been paid.

11. Although the yield or the depth of a borehole may be such as to prevent its qualifying for the granting of a subsidy in accordance with the provisions of condition 5 above, an application may nevertheless be submitted on the grounds that the quality of the water renders the borehole useless. In such a case the applicant shall submit, carriage paid, a sample of the water (not less than one-half gallon) in a suitable glass bottle or bottles, and shall furnish the Director of Water Development with full details of the steps taken to cut off the mineralized water. The sample or samples shall be clearly marked with the name of the applicant, the L.R. No. of the farm (or other description of the land on which the borehole is situated), and must reach the Director of Water Development at Nairobi within 30 days of the date of the test pumping and shall be accompanied by a fee of sixty shillings, which will be refunded if, in the sole opinion of the Director of Water Development, the quality of the water renders the borehole useless.

12. An existing borehole may be deepened and qualify for subsidy payment under the following conditions:—

(i) The tested yield prior to deepening must be less than the limit yield as defined in condition 6 (iii).

(ii) The deepening must be approved in advance by the Director of Water Development who may require a minimum depth of further drilling.

(iii) The subsidy will be paid on the same conditions as for a new borehole, but the cost will be limited to the cost of deepening.

13. Notwithstanding anything contained in conditions 5 and 11 above, the Director of Water Development shall have discretion to consider any application, the peculiar circumstances of which may, in his opinion warrant it.

14. For the purpose of deciding whether a subsidy shall be granted, the measured yield and the quality of the water shall be those approved by the Director of Water Development, and in this connexion the Director of Water Development may at his sole discretion take into consideration any circumstances of which he is aware in approving the yield of the borehole.

15. The application for the payment of a subsidy in respect of an unsuccessful borehole must be submitted to the Director of Water Development within 30 days of the completion of boring operations, in Form 246B correctly completed, supported by the original contract between the applicant and his borehole contractor, together with a certified copy of the account rendered by the contractor.

16. If the Director of Water Development is of the opinion that the cost of a borehole is excessive, he may, at his sole discretion, solely for the purpose of calculating the amount of subsidy, if any, payable, reduce the cost to an amount approved by him, and for this purpose he may deduct the cost of any casing left in a borehole.

17. Notwithstanding the fact that a borehole site may have been selected and/or approved by him, the Director of Water Development does not guarantee any successful result from boring operations. The boring shall, therefore, be entirely at the sole risk of the applicant.

18. The Director of Water Development accepts no responsibility whatever for any agreement made between the applicant and a borehole contractor, and will make no payment to such contractor nor become a party to any dispute. The undertaking, including the drilling, development and testing of the borehole, is entirely at the risk and expense of the applicant.

19. Notwithstanding that the yield of a borehole may decrease after the tested yield has been measured or that the quality of the water may deteriorate with time, no application for a subsidy, will be considered unless it reaches the Director of Water Development within sixty days of the completion of drilling operations.

20. Any borehole contractor aiding or abetting an attempt to obtain a subsidy by understating the result of a pumping test or by giving false information about a borehole will be reported to the Water Apportionment Board with a view to the cancellation of his licence.

21. These conditions shall be effective as from the date of publication of this notice and any subsidy payable under these conditions is conditional upon this notice remaining in force. If at any time it is the intention of the Government either to introduce less favourable terms than those contained in this notice, or to discontinue completely the payment of subsidies for unsuccessful boreholes, six months' notice of such intention will be given.

22. In the case of disputes arising out of the interpretation of these conditions the decision of the Director of Water Development shall be accepted as final.

23. Gazette Notice No. 1216 of 1959 is hereby cancelled.

Dated this 26th day of October 1964.

C. J. LANG,
Director of Water Development.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 3780

(WAT/FIN/1)

CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE GRANTING OF SUBSIDIES FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF STORAGE DAMS

IT IS hereby notified for general information that, with the object of encouraging the development of the water resources of Kenya for agricultural purposes of all kinds by the construction of storage dams, the Government has agreed that the terms and conditions set out in this notice shall govern the grant in all cases of subsidies for dam construction, with effect from the date of publication of this notice.

1. For the purposes of these conditions:—

"Approved" means approved by the Director of Water Development;

"assessed cost" means the total cost of construction of the dams as estimated by the Director of Water Development. The estimate shall be based on the experience of the Dam Construction Units and of Government works generally. It shall include the cost of site preparation and foundations provision of control sluices and spillway and other necessary ancillary works but not the provision of any pumping apparatus;

"Director of Water Development" means the Director of Water Development of the Ministry of Natural Resources, or a person deputed by him, either generally or for a particular purpose;

"dam" means a structure built across a depression, or a tank excavated below ground level, for impounding and storing surface water, and includes the ancillary works needed to dispose of flood water, and the conduits and controls necessary for the release of water;

"Dam Construction Unit" means a mechanical dam construction unit financed from public funds;

"farmer" means any member (including body corporate) of the community engaged in farming an agricultural holding of not less than eight acres, and in the absence from Kenya of such a person, his agent or representative; it also includes a mortgage in possession.

2. Farmers and local government authorities may apply for a subsidy for the construction of a dam intended for the conservation of water for agricultural purposes. Applications (which normally should be accompanied by an application for a water permit) shall be on Form M.O.W. 409 and should be submitted to the Water Bailiff of the area concerned. It should be noted that the procedure for the granting of water permits by the Water Apportionment Board usually takes not less than four months to complete but examination of the application for subsidy shall be undertaken concurrently.

3. Each application for subsidy shall be in respect of one dam only and shall be accompanied by a fee of Sh. 100 (which is not returnable) to cover, in part, the cost of the technical examination of the application, except in the case of a group application by one applicant under condition 4.

4. Where an individual applicant wishes to construct more than one dam in the same river, water course or depression and the works are to be undertaken as one continuous operation, then all the dams in the group are to be detailed on the application for subsidy and only one fee will be payable. The term "individual applicant" in this context will include a co-operative society wishing to construct dams paid for out of its own financial resources, but will not include a co-operative society acting as representative of a group of farmers who will pay for the dams themselves.

A single group application may be submitted by a group of farmers or local authorities, or by the authorized representative of such a group, for a scheme involving the construction of a group of dams in the same river, water-course or depression where at least one dam of the group is to be situated either wholly or partially on the holding of each party to the application. In the case of a group application, whether submitted by the group or by its authorized representative, the stipulated fee shall be payable in respect of each party to the application.

Where a group application has been made the provisions of clauses 5 to 18 of these conditions inclusive will be deemed to apply to a group of dams wherever "dam" is mentioned.

Group applications are designed expressly to encourage the development of holdings where for hydrological or other good reasons a system of dams which are individually too small to merit subsidy payments is to be preferred to one or more large dams. For this reason no group application will be considered where the assessed cost of more than one dam in the group exceeds £160 in low rainfall areas or £200 in high rainfall areas.

5. No subsidy is payable in the following cases:—

(a) Where no water permit or sanction has been granted for the construction of the dam.

(b) Where it is found that construction of a dam has commenced prior to the approval of the application for subsidy.

(c) Where the construction of the dam is to be financed, in whole or in part, by direct grant from Central Government or the Organization.

(d) Where the total assessed cost of the dam does not exceed £160 in low rainfall areas or £200 in high rainfall areas.

(e) Where an applicant has not discharged his liabilities to Government in respect of work carried out previously on his behalf by a Dam Construction Unit.

6. Before approving an application for subsidy, the Director of Water Development shall satisfy himself that—

(a) the appropriate District Agricultural Committee has certified that the dam is necessary for the full economic development of the agricultural holding to which the application relates, having regard to the existing water resources of that holding;

(b) the catchment area and runoff are adequate to fill the dam regularly;

(c) the design of the dam is sound and its capacity adequate;

(d) construction of the dam has been authorized in writing by the Water Apportionment Board;

(e) the provisions of the Water Act (Cap. 372) and all rules thereunder have been complied with.

7. If the Director of Water Development approves the application for subsidy, he shall inform the applicant of the amount of the subsidy to be paid, and the assessed cost on which it is based.

8. The approval of a subsidy shall be valid for a period of one year. An extension of the period of validity of the approval will normally be granted if works are still in progress, provided they proceed continuously to completion. If works have not commenced within the year of validity, a new application will have to be made.

9. The Director of Water Development may require certain additional works which, in his opinion, are necessary for the proper security of the dam to be done before payment of subsidy.

10. Payment of subsidy will be made only after the work has been completed to the satisfaction of the Director of Water Development who shall have the right to inspect the site at any time before, during and after construction in order to check the dimensions, workmanship or any other matter relative to the construction of the dam.

11. The subsidy payable on a completed dam shall be 40 per cent of the assessed cost of the dam in low rainfall zones where the probable annual rainfall is less than 30 inches or 25 per cent of the assessed cost of the dam in high rainfall zones where the probable annual rainfall is 30 inches or more:

Provided that—

(1) the amount of any subsidy shall be so adjusted as to ensure that the assessed cost of the dam less the subsidy shall not fall below £160 in the case of low rainfall areas, or £200 in the case of high rainfall areas;

(2) the subsidy payable shall not exceed the sum which would be paid if the actual final total cost of construction and not the assessed cost of the dam, were taken as the basis of calculation for subsidy;

(3) if during the course of the works increased costs or unforeseen difficulties occur, the subsidy payable may be increased at the discretion of the Director of Water Development.

The two zones of probable annual rainfall are delineated by the 30" isohyet on the "Mean Annual Rainfall Map of East Africa". Copies of this map are deposited with the Director of Water Development and all Water Bailiffs and no appeal against this zoning will be entertained.

12. The subsidy is subject to the following maxima:—

£1,900 in low rainfall zones.

£1,200 in high rainfall zones.

These maxima may be exceeded in special cases at the discretion of the Minister for Natural Resources to whom application may be made through the Director of Water Development.

13. The Director of Water Development may, as a condition of payment of a subsidy, require the applicant to permit the installation of a staff gauge and rain gauge at the dam and to take readings of rainfall and water levels at such intervals and over such period as may be directed by him. The gauges will be supplied and installed by the Director of Water Development free of charge. They will remain the property of the Government.

14. Where a Dam Construction Unit is used for the construction of the dam, the account shall show the full amount payable, and the subsidy, if any, shall be shown as a deduction, allowable only if the account is fully paid within three months. If payment is not made within three months or such other longer period as the appropriate Accounting Officer may in his absolute discretion specify, the cost of the dam shall be payable in full by the applicant, and no subsidy shall be payable or allowable by the Government.

15. Where a contractor is employed for the construction of the dam, he must be a licensed dam contractor under section 89 of the Water Act (Cap. 372).

16. No liability whatever shall attach to the Government or to any servant of the Government for any damage or loss of whatsoever nature arising out of or in any way attributable to the design or construction of any dam in respect of which an application for subsidy has been made, and the applicant for or the recipient of any subsidy shall at all times keep the Government and any servant of the Government effectually indemnified against all actions, claims, losses and expenses whatsoever arising out of or in any way attributable to anything done or omitted to be done by the Government or any servant of the Government in connexion with the design or construction of any such dam.

17. If any dispute or difference of any kind whatsoever shall arise in connexion with or out of these Conditions or the carrying out of any works in pursuance of these Conditions, it shall be settled by the Director of Water Development, whose decision shall be final and conclusive:

Provided that this rule shall not apply to matters relating to an application for an increased dam subsidy in accordance with clause 12, or any application for extension of payment period specified in clause 14 of these conditions.

18. Nothing in these Conditions shall bind the Government to approve the granting of a subsidy in any particular case.

19. Gazette Notice Nos. 2489 of 1959 and 3396 of 1960 are hereby cancelled.

Dated this 26th day of October 1964.

C. J. LANG,
Director of Water Development.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 4081

EAST AFRICAN RAILWAYS AND HARBOURS

REVISION OF TARIFF: TARIFF BOOK No. 4

THE East African Railways and Harbours gives notice that a revised tariff of charges for the carriage of passengers and goods will be introduced as from 1st January 1965. Concurrently with this revision a new Tariff Book, entitled Tariff Book No. 4, embodying changes approved by the Central Legislative Assembly, will be issued and will be available for sale to the public in December 1964, at a cost of Sh. 10 for Part I (giving the general conditions of carriage) and Sh. 15 for Part II (giving the charges for carriage and the revised classification of goods). The two Parts will generally be sold together at Sh. 25 since both are necessary for a full understanding and application of the tariff: additional copies of any one Part may, however, be had on application. Advance orders should be placed with the Chief Commercial Superintendent, P.O. Box 30006, Nairobi, accompanied by an appropriate remittance.

2. The main changes introduced by the new tariff are listed below:—

(A) Passengers

There will be no change in 1st and 3rd class fares, but the basis of 2nd class fares will be reduced from 16 cents per mile to 12 cents per mile.

(B) Luggage, Parcels and Livestock

There will be no change in the general level of rates, but charges per 100 lb. will be rounded off to 5 or 10 cents and the mileage zones will in some cases be altered. The minimum charge per consignment will be increased from Sh. 1 to Sh. 2 (or from 50 cents to Sh. 1 where 50 cents is at present the minimum).

(C) Goods—New Rating Provisions

The whole classification of goods and the basic rates scales have been recast. This was not designed to bring in more revenue overall, but to encourage greater efficiency by better use of the railways wagons. In this process certain goods will pay more than hitherto where charges have been increased to reflect more closely the costs incurred in their handling and carriage and certain minimum wagon load conditions have been increased. Other goods will enjoy reduced charges, when consigned in full wagon loads.

The revised classification of goods is designed specially to separate the charges made for small quantities and for wagon load lots. The following table shows the general relationship between the present Class Rates and the new Scales of Rates:—

Present Class Rate	New Scale Rate
	Small quantities	Wagon load lots
4 } 5 }	1	2
9	9	10
10	9	11
Spl. A	—	12
Spl. B	—	13
Spl. C	—	14
Spl. D	—	15

Within the new Scales of Rates the following main changes in the level of charges will be made:—

(i) Scales 1—6 (Present Classes 4—7).—The charges for small quantities of traffic, i.e. less than wagon loads, will be increased but there will be reductions in charges for all traffics now carried at Classes 4 to 7 rates when offered in wagon load lots. Normally "wagon load lots" will be considered as 18,000 lb. per short wagon and 36,000 lb. per bogie wagon, but in some instances different wagon load conditions will apply.

(ii) Scales 7—11 (Present Classes 8—10).—Generally, the charges for goods carried at these rates will not be altered but there will be some changes in classification:—

(a) commodities at present paying Class 8 rates without a wagon load condition will pay increased charges, broadly equivalent to the present Class 7 rate, for small quantities, with the present Class 8 rates maintained for wagon load lots;

(b) commodities moving in small quantities at present paying Class 9 or 10 rates will in future be carried at Scale 9 rates which are broadly equivalent to the present Class 8 rates. With few exceptions the minimum wagon load condition for traffic carried at Scale 10 (present Class 9) will be at least 18,000 lb. and for traffic carried at Scale 11 (present Class 10) 22,000 lb.

(iii) Scale 12 (Present Special Rate A).—This will remain virtually unchanged up to 200 miles: there will be incremental increases rising to Sh. 7/10 per ton at 800 miles. The wagon load condition will be 22,000 lb.

(iv) Scale 13 (Present Special Rate B).—This will remain virtually unchanged. The wagon load condition will be 28,000 lb. with the exception of timber and brans.

(v) Scale 14 (Present Special Rate C).—Because the existing rates fail to cover direct costs, this will be increased on average by 16.5 per cent. The wagon load condition will be 28,000 lb. with the exception of timber.

(vi) Scale 15 (Present Special Rate D).—Because the existing rates fail to cover direct costs, this will be increased by approximately 20 per cent. The wagon load condition will be 28,000 lb.

(vii) To reward customers for the better loading of wagons a rebate will be allowed on the charges payable for traffics carried at Scales 13 and 14 on the quantity loaded in excess of 56,000 lb. per bogie wagon. These rebates will absorb the increased revenue obtained from the higher charges under Scales 14 and 15.

(viii) When the sole use of wagon is required, or asked for, in the case of consignments paying small quantity rates (Scales 1, 3, 5, 7 and 9), the minimum weight on which charges are payable will be 9,000 lb. in the case of traffic carried at Scales 1, 3 and 5 rates, and 11,000 lb. in the case of traffic carried at Scales 7 and 9 rates.

(ix) All short distance rate scales up to 100 miles, will be slightly adjusted and the minimum charge per consignment will be Sh. 2.

(x) There will be an alteration to the mileage zones and all rates will be rounded off to multiples of 5 cents as a means of simplifying the scales of charges.

(D) Surcharge on Goods Traffic

Owing to the need to increase Railway revenue, certain small surcharges will be imposed on all goods traffics, except fertilizers, in varying degrees, with effect from 1st January 1965. For ease of calculation these surcharges will be embodied in the rates published in Tariff Book No. 4.

The following table shows the charges per 100 lb. for each of the new Scales of Rates (other than Bulk Oil Scales) at 15 miles, 50 miles, and thereafter at 50-mile intervals up to 1,000 miles:—

9. The grantee shall not subdivide the land.

10. The grantee shall not sell, transfer, sublet or charge the land or any part thereof except with the prior consent in writing of the President of the Eastern Regional Assembly; no application for such consent (except in respect of a loan required for building purposes) will be considered until Special Condition No. 2 has been performed.

11. The grantee shall not erect on the land any hoarding, placard, poster sign or advertisement except a notice advertising the presence and products of the grantee's business.

13. The grantee shall from time to time pay to the Commissioner of Lands on demand such proportion of the cost of maintaining all roads and drains serving or adjoining the land as the Commissioner may assess.

14. Should the Commissioner of Lands at any time require any road serving or adjoining the land to be constructed to a higher standard the grantee shall pay to the Commissioner on demand such proportion of the cost of such construction as the Commssioner may assess.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 4336

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 4 OF 1964

Parties:—

Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union

and

Kenya Meat Commission

Issues in dispute:—

(a) The basic minimum monthly wage on which job evaluations were based.

(b) Job evaluations.

(c) Leave travelling allowance for employees in Categories C and D.

1. The hearing lasted ten days and a total number of 16 witnesses were examined by the Court. In addition the Court visited the Kenya Meat Commission factories at Athi River and Mombasa and carried out detailed observations of all the jobs being performed therein.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

2. The Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union, the Claimant, shall hereinafter be called the Union and the Kenya Meat Commission, the Respondent, shall hereinafter be called the Commission.

A Central Negotiating Committee has been created by the parties hereto and is the last step in the negotiating machinery. On 14th May 1963, at a meeting of the Central Negotiating Committee agreement was reached on certain issues which included an increase of Sh. 20 per month to all employees. As this increase is of considerable importance in this dispute and reference has been made to it one way or the other continuously, it is important to lay it down in toto.

"After a lengthy discussion the following agreement was reached:—

Wages.—An increase of Sh. 20 per month to all employees covered by Union negotiations, with effect from 1st March 1963. The existing grading system to be reviewed, starting immediately, and any changes in wages of individuals or groups of employees resulting therefrom will be effective from 1st August 1963. Thereafter, no further changes in the wage structure will take place before 1st August 1964. The Union representatives agreed to co-operate on grading and redundancy."

This minute as it stood was confirmed as correct at the next meeting of the Central Negotiating Committee held on 22nd June 1963.

3. Unfortunately it cannot be said that harmonious relations have existed between the parties. There has been constant industrial unrest at the Commission's premises over the last few years. But for the purposes of this dispute under reference, a start can be made with the award of Mr. T. W. Tyrell made on 27th February 1964, as a result of arbitration proceedings. Even before Mr. Tyrell two fundamental differences existed—

(a) as to whether or not there had been acceptance of the result of job grading; and

(b) whether or not the basic minimum upon which the evaluation had been applied, had in fact been agreed.

Mr. Tyrell's award in brief was a certain number of recommendations with reference back to the Central Negotiating Committee. Mr. Tyrell did not, however, find any evidence that agreement had been reached on a new minimum wage.

It is most unfortunate that the aforementioned Arbitration Tribunal's findings did not help matters at all and the parties were left in the same state of antagonism as before.

4. Prior to Mr. Tyrell's arbitration a grading team consisting of Messrs. J. F. Small (Industrial Relations Officer), W. R. Dunnachie (Chief Accountant), the Works Study Officer J Smith, R. Douglas (a managerial trainee), and Mr. Guy Sinon (Representative nominated by the Union) commenced a review of the existing grading system on 20th May 1963. It is evident that this team closely examined all jobs covered by Union negotiations from the fact that this grading team's work lasted nearly five and a half months and it had visited the Commission's two factories, its branches and the Commission's head office.

As a first step this grading team allocated the jobs into the four categories which had already been agreed with the Union at the meeting of the Central Negotiating Committee on 15th May 1963, viz:—

Category "A".—Up to Sh. 300 per month.
Category "B".—Sh. 301 to Sh. 700 per month.
Category "C".—Sh. 701 to Sh. 1,200 per month.
Category "D".—Sh. 1,201 to Sh. 2,500 per month.

This allocation was done in consultation with Mr. Guy Sinon, the Union representative on the grading team. Thereafter the task of job evaluation was undertaken.

5. A basic minimum wage was fixed at Sh. 170 by this grading team. Having fixed the basic minimum wage the job evaluation exercise was undertaken by this grading team which proceeded to assess the value of every job covered by Union negotiations within the Commission. The team carried out a price-fixing within the terms of the country's economic standards, of the worth of labour in any and every operation within an industry without regard to person or sentiment.

The Union's representative, Mr. Guy Sinon, appears to have played an important part in the discussions which took place and acquiesced in the decisions reached. Whether Mr. Sinon consulted his superiors in the Union is a very moot point on which different versions have been given and to which reference is made in the award hereinafter.

The grading team added to the basic minimumg wage additional sums for such things as skill and experience required in the jobs, unpleasant duty, conditions of employment, supervision exercised, and noted any factors which appeared relevant.

6. The grading task was completed in October 1963, after various jobs had been visited several times. Draft copies of the document were handed to Mr. Guy Sinon for forwarding them to the President and the General Secretary of the Union on 18th October 1963, for final approval. On 22nd October 1963, Mr. Guy Sinon informed the Commission that the Union had approved the publication and implementation of the results achieved. The Union categorically rejects that either the President or the General Secretary agreed as stated. But Mr. Sinon having informed the Commission of the Union's approval, details were issued by the Commission on 23rd October 1963, to all concerned for implementation as agreed with effect from 1st August 1964.

7. On 29th October 1963, the Union informed the Commission that it did not agree to the job evaluations and their implementation. As a result of a meeting held on 1st November 1963, it was agreed to postpone the implementation pending consideration of any specific objections which the Union might raise. It was also agreed that a Union official from head office should be allowed to visit the factories, branches and head office of the Commission for the purpose of ascertaining details of any job which in the opinion of the Union had been incorrectly evaluated. The Union then carried out a job evaluation exercise and increased the rates for every job by amounts varying from Sh. 15 to Sh. 700 per month. In the Union's proposals there was no wage lower than Sh. 200. It is interesting to note that the Union completed this exercise in a few days compared with the five and a half months spent by the Commission's team.

The Commission totally rejected the Union's proposals and it was agreed to declare a trade dispute.

8. The Arbitration Tribunal to which reference has already been made hereinabove (Mr. Tyrell's Arbitration) was established and it published its award on 27th February 1964. This award did precisely nothing to resolve the dispute.

Further negotiations at the Central Negotiating Committee failed to find any solution. The Commission put forward various proposals in order to resolve the dispute but these proposals were rejected.

All channels for negotiation having been rejected the matter has come before the Industrial Court.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE UNION

9. (a) The Union submits that it asked for a minimum wage of Sh. 300 but eventually agreed to an interim overall increase of Sh. 20 to all employees, the Daw's grading produced by the Commission having been rejected on the grounds of it being based on a racial structure. The Union maintains that at no time did it agree to a basic minimum wage on which the job evaluation was based.

(b) The Union maintains that although it had asked the Commission to notify the Union and seek its approval before implementing the grades and their rates, as worked out by the team under Mr. Small, this was not done. Both the General Secretary and the President were extremely busy in October 1963 due to a strike in the D.A.T.A. group and therefore had no time to study in detail the document prepared by the grading team. The Commission should have relied on something more tangible than Mr. Guy Sinon's verbal assurance that the Union had agreed to the job evaluations carried out by the team. The Union further states that Mr. Sinon did not at any time consult or get a mandate from the Union before committing the Union on some very important points such as fixing a basic minimum wage before job evaluation was carried out. The Union suggests that Mr. Guy Sinon had let the Union down and had joined hands with the Commission with the result that the Union's point of view was never put forward. In support of this the Union had drawn the Court's attention to the fact that Mr. Guy Sinon was promoted from an Electrician to a Liaison Officer in the Industrial Relations Officer's Office a short time after the grading team completed its work. For these reasons the Union suspended Mr. Guy Sinon from his post of a shop steward.

The Union draws the Court's attention to numerous discrepancies and disparities in the job evaluation carried out by Mr. Small's team and suggests that there are no reasons for these. Although the jobs are the same at the Athi River and Mombasa factories they carry different wages. Mr. Muhanji pointed out in great detail these disparities in wages and the big gaps between artisans in various jobs and the improvers as they appear in Appendix A (F) attached to the Commission's Memorandum and suggests that attempt has been made to give very low salaries to Africans although they carry out the same sort of job as the others, mainly Seychellois workers. The Union further states that the value of the job appears to fall suddenly when it is Africanized. Moreover the grading team did not examine the certificates, testimonials and other documents of the various workers before the rates for their jobs were fixed. Furthermore the method adopted for job evaluation was faulty in that intelligence, skill, responsibility, physical exertion, working conditions, knowledge, experience and personality were not taken into account. The Union submits that its own counter proposals on job evaluations should be accepted although it is prepared to come down in accordance with the principle of give and take.

(c) The Union submits that as Categories "C" and "D" carry a wage of between Sh. 701 to Sh. 2,500 the leave travelling allowance should be commensurate with this high salary and suggests a figure of Sh. 400 which it claims is in line with the leave travelling allowance being paid in other industries.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSION

10. (a) The Commission submits that the basic minimum monthly wage of Sh. 170 on which job evaluation was based is a fair wage for the following reasons:—

(i) At that time basic minimum monthly wages within the Commission were as follows:—

	Sh.
Nairobi	160
Athi River	150
Mombasa	150
Nakuru and Eldoret	145
Kitale	140

To the above figures was added Sh. 20 all round as a result of an agreement reached on 15th May 1963.

(ii) It was considered desirable to have one basic wage for all employees of the Commission.

(iii) Approximately 90 per cent of the employees of the Commission are employed at Athi River and Mombasa where this basic minimum was already established.

(iv) Employees at Nakuru, Eldoret and Kitale would benefit as the wage of Sh. 170 was higher than the basic minimum wage previously established at these branches.

(v) Existing employees at Nairobi would not suffer since it has already been agreed that no employee would have his wage reduced as a result of the grading and job evaluation.

The Commission's representative, Mr. Small, drew the Court's attention to current basic minimum monthly wages being paid in other comparable industries like Kenya Co-operative Creameries Limited, Kenya Canners Limited and Uplands Bacon Factory (E.A.) Limited.

For these reasons the Commission submits that the basic minimum wage of Sh. 170 used as a basis for job evaluation within the Commission compares favourably with those current in other comparable industries.

The Commission has also drawn the Court's attention to the various fringe benefits being enjoyed by its employees, such as free housing or house allowance and at Athi River a daily meal plus Sh. 8 per month dirty tripe allowance and at Mombasa a daily meat ration. There are also incentive bonuses being paid to all employees in the production departments. Annual leave ranging from 18 working days to 26 working days is granted and a leave travelling allowance is also paid.

(b) On job evaluation the Commission submits that the price fixing which was carried out by Mr. Small's grading team in accordance with Mr. Tyrell's recommendation was done after full consultation and in accord with the Union representative on the grading team, Mr. Guy Sinon. The Commission submits that Mr. Sinon played an important part in the discussions which took place and was in full agreement with the decisions reached. The method employed by the Commission is set out in brief in the general background to this dispute hereinabove.

The Commission feels very strongly that as far as it is concerned Mr. Sinon had a full mandate from the Union to commit it on the rates for the grades and that the impression given throughout the five and a half months during which the grading team worked was that Mr. Sinon was in consultation with the Union's national officials. This being so, it is very wrong on the part of the Union to reject the rates for the grades produced and reduce to nothing the tremendous amount of hard work put in by the grading team.

The Commission submits that the Union's representative who carried out the job evaluation finished his work in about three days as against the five and a half months' work put in by the grading team and therefore the Union's rates for the grades are not realistic but merely inflated and retained all the apparent anomalies.

The Commission states that the rates for grades produced by the grading team are extremely fair and the Court should rule accordingly.

(c) The Commission submits on leave travelling allowance as follows:—

On 15th May 1963, at a meeting of the Central Negotiating Committee local leave and leave travelling allowances were agreed for Categories A and B at Sh. 75 per annum and Sh. 115 per annum. On Categories C and D no agreement could be reached on travelling allowances although local leave for these two categories was agreed at 26 working days.

The Commission has made various offers which are resting at Sh. 130 for Category C and Sh. 230 for Category D which the Commission submits are considerably in excess of the other comparable industries like Kenya Co-operative Creameries Limited, Kenya Canners Limited and E.A. Portland Cement Company Limited. For these reasons the Commission states that the Court should so award.

AWARD

11. The industrial unrest at the Commission is akin to a sore which has festered for a long time now and has naturally cast its unhealthy influence on relations between this Union and employers and due to publicity has affected industrial relations generally.

It is indeed a great pity that Mr. Tyrell's arbitration award proved of no use whatsoever to this long outstanding dispute.

Before any decision is made on the three issues it is imperative to examine the evidence of Mr. Guy Sinon at length because it is calimed by the Commission that he had a mandate from the Union to commit it on various points as they arose during the grading team's work. This is categorically denied by the Union.

Mr. Guy Sinon in brief states that he was a senior shop steward at the Athi River factory although the Union claims that there is no such post as a "senior shop steward". He was nominated to the grading team by the Union to work on rates for the grades. This work Mr. Sinon claims he did most conscientiously and fought for the workers' benefit to the best of his ability. On many occasions he persuaded Management to his point of view. He says that when the question of fixing a minimum basic wage arose he strove for a figure of Sh. 200 but eventually agreed to Sh. 170. He thought it was within his mandate to agree to this. He denies that he was having beer parties with the rest of the members of the grading team at the Commission's expense although he admits to consuming an occasional beer with Mr. Small once or twice. Mr. Sinon claims that he mentioned the progress of the team to other shop stewards, Branch Executive Committee and once even at a general meeting. On all occasions he was told to go on with the work and the whole matter would be reviewed when concluded. When the work of the grading team finished he was given three copies of the document to take to the Union Head Office. However, on arrival at the Union office he learned that all officials were at Solidarity Building where he found a meeting to be in progress in relation to the Distributive and Allied Trades Association strike and which was being addressed by Senator Lubembe who is General Secretary of K.F.L. and President of Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union. Mr. Muhanji was sitting next to him. Mr. Sinon gave two envelopes to Mr. Muhanji who told Mr. Sinon to see him after the strike. Subsequently Mr. Sinon 'phoned Senator Lubembe about the rate for the grades but was told that he was too busy at that time. Subsequently he had a hurried consultation with Mr. Muhanji outside a Court room. After this consultation Mr. Sinon thought he had received the necessary approval from the national official and accordingly told the Management who published the results of the grading team. After one week Mr. Sinon was suspended by the Union after a meeting of the employees at Athi River.

It is quite clear from the above that matters went seriously wrong in October when the Commission was anxious to implement the grading team's recommendations and the Union officials could not be consulted due to their preoccupation in Distributive and Allied Trades Association strike. In that Mr. Sinon acted most irresponsibly in informing the Commission that Senator Lubembe and Mr. Muhanji had approved the recommendations of the grading team, the Court has little doubt and finds that the one short, hurried consultation with Mr. Muhanji outside a Court room does not constitute an approval to such an important document. Further the Commission acted rather hastily in that they proceeded to publish the results without waiting for a more tangible proof of the Union's acceptance of the proposals. On the other hand, the Court feels that this whole episode clearly exposes a serious flaw in the internal organization of such an important Union in that no arrangements whatsoever were made to get interim reports from Mr. Sinon on the grading team's work and to advise him thereon. This has resulted in five and a half months' work being declared abortive and the perpetuation of this dispute.

It would not be out of place to comment on Mr. Sinon's promotion after his working on the grading team from an Electrician to Liaison Officer in the Industrial Relations Office. The Court is not prepared to go beyond the point of stating that in the circumstances it is not unnatural for the Union to draw adverse inference from Mr. Sinon's promotion.

Be that as it may, the parties eventually agreed to reopen the job evaluation and ultimately came to Court.

The Court finds after a most searching and intensive study of all the arguments supported by the Court's visits to the factories:—

(a) that the basic minimum monthly wage of Sh. 170 on which the grading team worked is low and awards that the basic minimum monthly wage should be Sh. 185 for the purpose of working out rates for the grades;

(b) that the rates for the grades as proposed by the grading team are not in many cases fair. There are obvious discrepancies and large disparities in salaries amongst clerks, artisans and labourers. The Court has reassessed all the rates for the grades and has followed the same sequence of jobs as agreed between the parties with new rates. The new rates awarded by the Court for the various classified jobs are shown in Schedule "A".

(c) Leave travelling allowance.—The Court awards a leave allowance to be paid to each employee when he proceeds on his annual leave; in accordance with his category:—

	Sh.
Category A	75
Category B	115
Category C	250
Category D	400

with the proviso that only those employees who do not enjoy overseas leave privileges shall be entitled to this allowance.

12. The Court rules that this award shall be effective in respect of each item in dispute from 1st January 1964.

Made in Nairobi this 24th day of November 1964.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 4337

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 12 OF 1964

Parties:—

The Oil Industry of Kenya

and

Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union

Issues in dispute;—

(i) The Oil Industry's intention to extend the life of the existing agreement on terms and conditions of service (fringe benefits) for a further period of one year ending 1st September 1965, as specified in paragraph 1 of the agreement.

(ii) The Union's claims for a revision of the terms of the agreement in accordance with their memorandum of demands.

1. The hearing of this dispute lasted four days and five witnesses were examined by the Court. The Oil Industry of Kenya shall hereinafter be referred to as the Oil Industry and the Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Union.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

2. A Joint Industrial Council of the Oil Industry exists having been created as a result of an agreement which was signed by the eight marketing companies and the BP/Shell Petroleum Development Company of Kenya Limited and the Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union on the 26th day of July 1962.

In accordance with clause 1 (c) of this agreement a further agreement between the aforesaid parties was concluded covering terms and conditions of all the unionisable employees in the Oil Industry. This agreement was signed on 12th October 1962, and was effective for a period of two years beginning 1st September 1962. This agreement is attached to the Oil Industry's memorandum as Appendix "A" and will hereinafter be referred to as such. Appendix "A" is divided into four parts as follows:—

(1) Part I—General.

(2) Part II contains those clauses which are applicable to operative employees of the marketing companies only.

(3) Part III contains those clauses which are applicable to staff employees of the marketing companies.

(4) Part IV contains clauses applicable to employees (staff and operatives) of BP/Shell Petroleum Development Company Limited (other than sea-going personnel).

In accordance with clause (1), Part I of Appendix "A" the Oil Industry exercised its right to apply for an extension of Appendix "A" for a further period of one year. The Union replied rejecting this proposal and suggested exhaustive amendments and asked for a meeting to take place. At the subsequent meetings which took place the Oil Industry's spokesman gave explanations for the suggested extension of the agreement for one year but the Union was adamant in its rejection of the Oil Industry's proposal. The final meeting between the parties after accusations and counter accusations regarding unwillingness to negotiate was held from 17th August to 19th August 1964. There are no agreed minutes of this meeting but both the joint secretaries have given their own versions of what took place at this meeting. The Union walked out of this meeting and served a strike notice on the Oil Industry. The Oil Industry then referred the dispute to the Ministry of Labour as a trade dispute under the terms of section 4 of the Trade Disputes Act. The matter was referred then to the Industrial Court, the Oil Industry being the Claimant and the Union the Respondent.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE OIL INDUSTRY

3. (a) The Oil Industry submits that the Union's contention that negotiations must lead to changes is a false premise in that it does not necessarily follow that negotiations should always result in increased benefits for the Union members.

The Oil Industry further states that the existing fringe benefits compare very favourably with the terms and conditions applied by other major employers in Kenya and in fact are far in advance of those enjoyed by the majority of the workers in Kenya. The Oil Industry is a capital-intensive rather than a labour-intensive industry, i.e. the number of men employed in relation to the units of capital involved is very much smaller than that in most industries. The Oil Industry claims to be amongst the three best employers in Kenya in all respects.

The Oil Industry maintains that to make changes in these already substantial fringe benefits would not only considerably embarrass other employers, bearing in mind the economic circumstances of the country, but would also create an even more enhanced state of privilege among its employees in relation to those of other employers including Government than is the case at the moment. This would have serious and adverse effects on the country's economy.

The Oil Industry contends that although the Union's proposals are within the letter of the Tripartite Agreement they are certainly outside the spirit of that Agreement as the employers have been given, in return for taking on 10 per cent additional employees, the benefit of containing labour costs not only by wage standstill but otherwise also. These increased fringe benefits are in disguise a wage increase. Further the Government has repeatedly stated that in the present economic circumstances in the country this is a period for consolidation and reassessment. Therefore any movement in the industry of the present conditions of employment would run directly contrary to the national interests at this stage of the country's development.

For these reasons the Oil Industry has asked for a status quo for a further period of one year.

(b) Without prejudice to the foregoing the Oil Industry submits that most of the demands put forward are not negotiable. Other items are a direct infringement of management's right and duty to arrange its affairs in the most efficient manner, bearing in mind its responsibilities to its shareholders, its employees and to the country in which it conducts its business. The items which can be negotiated are set down in Schedule "A" to the agreement on matters governing negotiations and grievance procedures through the medium of a Joint Industrial Council. There are 20 items and any new demand has to fall under these broad headings. These, the Oil Industry submits, are negotiable but they maintain that they should continue for at least one year as they are at present for reasons already enumerated hereinabove.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE UNION

4. (a) The Union states that the Oil Industry refused to carry out negotiations on fringe benefits and other demands left open by the Tripartite Agreement in the true spirit, and what it did was, at best, to process through the formal machinery, although reluctantly, the demands put forward by the Union who rejected the request from the Oil Industry to continue the existing agreement for one year. All along the Oil Industry had no intention of moving from its original stand.

The Union states that it cannot agree to let the fringe benefits remain where they are for another year because that would mean a status quo for three years. As it was, the workers were restless for the two years of the life of the contract which expired on 31st August 1964. It was the Union's duty to get increased benefits for the workers and that there was still a lot of scope for improvement as the final target was still a long way off.

The Union contends that the items listed in Schedule "A", mentioned hereinabove, are not conclusive and can by negotiation be varied and increased, as in fact had happened in the past in that in Appendix "A" various items have been negotiated which are not mentioned in Schedule "A".

The Union strongly resents the Oil Industry's current attitude which is rigid and negative in that however well justified the Union's demand may be it is always rejected and this is known to the Union even before the Joint Industrial Council meets. If the negotiating machinery is to be retained, the Oil Industry must adopt the collective bargaining spirit of "give and take". Because of the lack of this spirit the Industrial Court has been burdened with the task of revising the whole of Appendix "A", many items of which could have been negotiated at Joint Industrial Council level if the Oil Industry had shown any genuine intention of doing so.

The Union further submits that the Oil Industry does not state anywhere that it is not in a position to meet the Union demands because of financial difficulties. The Union is not prepared to accept the argument that because the fringe benefits being paid at present compare favourably with other industries the Union's demands should be rejected. The important question to be decided was whether the Oil Industry could meet these demands.

The Union maintains that the only part of profit from the Oil Industry which remains in this country is that which is paid to the employees in the form of wages and increased fringe benefits and therefore it was not fair to ask the Union to mark time while Kenya's economy was in the process of being consolidated which in any case would take many years. The Union points out that the country's economy was gaining and had shown a distinct improvement over the last two years.

The Union states that each trade union in Kenya frames its demands according to the economy and capability of that particular industry. Further, it should be noted that the improvement of terms of service depends to a great extent on the strength and how well a particular union is organized.

The Union further states that increases in fringe benefits will lead to increased purchasing power of the workers which in turn will stimulate the economy of the country. The Union strongly refutes the allegation that an increase in fringe benefits is in fact an increase in wages and that its members are a privileged class. The Union points out that the privileged class contains the 370 odd European employees in the oil industry who account for 50 per cent of the Industry's wage bill leaving the other 50 per cent for 2,448 African and Asian employees.

The Union further states that a number of its demands if met would not lead to any extra expense but instead would greatly improve industrial relations. These improvements were sought as a result of two years' experience and the discovery of certain loopholes.

(b) The Union has supported its case by various extracts from the Government Statistical Abstract, Economic and Statistical Review and Government Economic Survey. Further information has been obtained from the Ministry of Finance and Economic Planning.

Finally, the Union contends that Appendix "A" was the first contract and therefore could not have been a perfect document. The fact that it was to last only two years was an acceptance that if any shortcomings were noticed these would be remedied and improved upon at the time of the review. Furthermore, there is need for gradual and continuous improvement in terms and conditions of service. For these reasons the Union asks the Court to accept the Union's demands and award accordingly.

AWARD

5. Before Issue 2 can be discussed Issue 1 has to be disposed of. The Oil Industry has asked for Appendix "A" to be extended for another year without any amendments which are permissible under the Tripartite Agreement. The existing agreement Appendix "A" expired on 31st August 1964, after having been in force for a period of two years.

Part I, clause 1 reads as follows:—

"At any time after 1st July 1964, either party may give to the other two months' notice in writing expressing its wish for this Agreement to continue in force for a further period to be agreed upon or its intention to terminate the Agreement or alter any clause in the Agreement. In the latter event the parties will enter into negotiations on the terms and conditions of a new agreement and, until such time as this is finalized, the present Agreement will continue in force."

It is quite clear from the above that the agreement can be extended only if both parties agree which they do not. The Union has tabled detailed alterations and amendments to it. The Court finds that to continue the present agreement without reviewing the fringe benefits would not be fair to the workers. The Union has made out a case for revising at least some of the terms of this agreement. In the circumstances, the Court rejects the Oil Industry's request to extend Appendix "A" as it stands for a further period of 12 months from 1st September 1964, to 31st August 1965.

On Issue No. 2 it is quite obvious that the Oil Industry's stand at Joint Industrial Council level did not leave any room for negotiations in the spirit of give and take and therefore the purpose of having a Joint Industrial Council meeting was to comply with a formality in order to exhaust the existing machinery available for the settlement of disputes. This has resulted in casting the whole burden of reviewing and revising Appendix "A" on this Court. This sort of attitude is, to say the least, highly undesirable. In order to achieve harmonious industrial relations it is imperative that genuine efforts should be made to examine carefully the proposals put forward by either side. A perfunctory dismissal is the last thing that should be done in any industrial relationship matter.

The Court has revised the following items most carefully in the context of the arguments produced by both parties. Appendix "A" shall stand as it is subject to the following amendments and shall continue for a period of two years from 1st September 1964, with the exception of wages which are subject to a standstill. Wages are open to revision on the expiry of the period of the wage standstill. These amendments apply to Parts I to IV inclusive in Appendix "A".

Annual leave (Part I, clause 10)

In subparagraph (a) the period of 28 consecutive days is increased to 30 consecutive days. Subparagraphs (b) and (c) remain unchanged.

Termination of employment (Part I, clause 5)

The existing paragraph remains unaltered but is numbered (i) and a new subparagraph (ii) is added:—

(ii) In the event of an employee's service being terminated prematurely by the companies in pursuance of a policy of localization or Africanization the following benefits will be applied, subject to a maximum entitlement of 24 months' salary. This to be in addition to other benefits to which such employees may be entitled.

(a) Employee aged under 51.—Half a month's salary for each completed year of service before the 25th birthday, and one month's salary for each completed year of service after the 25th birthday but before 51st birthday (the year of service in which the employee attains the age of 25 shall be reckoned on the basis of one month's salary).

(b) Employees between 51 and 54 years of age.—

	Months pay per completed year of service
51st—52nd birthday excluded ..	2/3
52nd—53rd birthday excluded ..	1/2
53rd—54th birthday excluded ..	1/3

(c) Employees between the ages of 54 and 55.—Such employees will have the employer's interest in any Provident Fund augmented to bring it up to the amount to which they would have been entitled at the age of 55 had they continued in employment until the normal retirement age.

At the absolute discretion of management male staff leaving Kenya may be provided with assistance up to the value of £50 each in respect of three adult passages subject to the following conditions:—

That passages are used for the employee and his immediate dependants, a wife and his children under the age of 18 years.

Bookings will be made through the Company and requests for such bookings must be made within a period of 31 days of the date on which the employee was actively at work.

No cash equivalent will be paid in cases where the concession or part thereof is not used.

At the absolute discretion of management travel concessions in the form of single passages may also be extended to eligible single female staff.

And a new subparagraph (iii) is added:—

(iii) In the event of an employee being dismissed for any cause whatsoever and after consultation with the Union is reinstated he shall be reinstated without any loss of wages, benefits or privileges as from the time of his dismissal.

Grievance procedure (Part I, clause 20)

Stage I.—An employee desiring to raise any grievance shall in the first instance discuss the matter with his immediate superior, and if the employee so desires, in the presence of his shop steward.

All other stages remain unaltered.

Cessation of work (Part I, clause 2)

In subparagraph (b) (ii) (a) notice of 14 days is amended to notice of 21 days and the further subparagraph (b) (ii) (b) is deleted.

All other stages remain unaltered.

Sickness (Part I, clause 14)

The existing clause shall remain unaltered but shall be numbered (i) and the provisions (a) to (d) shall remain, thereafter shall be inserted a new clause (ii):—

(ii) The companies shall reimburse to an employee the cost of medical treatment upon the production of receipts and provided the employee goes to the medical officer or medical institution to which he is directed by the Company or in the absence of such direction to the medical practitioner of his own choice after consultation with the Company.

The right of the Company to demand examination of an employee is retained and becomes subclause (iii).

Religious holidays (Part I, clause 13)

Up to three days' leave per year may be given to an employee for appropriate religious holidays. Two of such days shall be paid leave and shall not affect his annual entitlement.

Letters of warning (Part I, clause 6)

The last sentence of this clause is amended to read:—

Should a second letter of warning be issued in the 12-month period a copy of this letter shall be sent to the General Secretary of the Union.

Unsatisfactory reports (Part I, clause 7)

The existing clause is amended by deleting the full-stop at the end of the sentence and substituting a comma and thereafter adding the following:—

by delivering a copy of such report to the employee concerned and every opportunity shall be given to the employee to answer any adverse comments or allegations made therein.

Vacancies (Part I, clause 18)

The existing clause is deleted and replaced by the new clause:—

Where vacancies exist for positions which lie within the area of Union representation the Companies will, in addition to advertising such vacancies through other channels, also display such vacancies on the Company Notice Board.

Leave allowance

Operatives (Part II, clause 12. Part IV (b), clause 12)

The allowance payable is increased to Sh. 110 per year.

Staff (Part III, clause 7. Part IV (a), clause 8)

The allowance payable is increased by Sh. 40 per year.

Probation

Operatives (Part II, clause 7. Part IV (b), clause 7)

Duration of probation remains unaltered but the period of notice to be given or received is increased to two weeks.

Staff (Part III, clause 3. Part IV (a), clause 4)

Duration of probation remains unaltered but the period of notice to be given or received is increased to one month.

Permanent transfer

Operatives (Part II, clause 15. Part IV, clause 16)

In subparagraph (b) of both parts the allowance payable is increased to two months' basic wage.

Staff (Part III, clause 10. Part IV, (a), clause 12)

In subparagraph (b) of both parts the period is increased to sixty days.

A further subparagraph (c) is added to Part II, clause 15; Part III, clause 10; Part IV (b), clause 16; and as (d) to Part IV (a), clause 12:—

(c), (d) Further if an employee is transferred to any place outside the boundaries of Kenya he shall not suffer any loss of any benefit.

Housing subsidy

Operatives (Part II, clause 4. Part IV (b), clause 4)

Operatives in grades 4 to 10 in receipt of housing subsidy are awarded Sh. 30 per month in addition to the Statutory Housing Allowance in force from time to time Part II, clause 5; and Part IV (b) clause 5.

Staff (Part III. Part IV (a)

In the absence of any definite evidence the Court presumes that an element for housing was taken into consideration when wages were negotiated and feels, therefore, that this matter will be properly discussed at any future wage revision.

Meal allowances

Operatives (Part II, clause 13. Part IV (b), clause 13)

Under the conditions laid down in these clauses the allowance is increased to:—

	Sh. cts.
Breakfast	3 50
Lunch	5 00
Dinner	7 50

Staff (Part III, clause 8. Part IV (a), clause 9)

Under the conditions laid down in these clauses the allowance is increased to:—

	Sh. cts,
Breakfast	4 00
Lunch	6 00
Dinner	8 00

Casual labour

Operatives (Part II, clause 17. Part IV (b), clause 20, excluding the proviso)

The Court's attention has been drawn to the fact that the Companies are not complying with the provisions of these clauses. The Court considers that the clauses are adequate in their existing provisions but urges the Companies most strongly to follow scrupulously the provisions agreed to and not give the Union any cause for complaint.

Redundancy (Part I, clause 8)

Subclause (b) is deleted and the following is substituted:—

(b) In the event of termination of service of an employee through reasons of redundancy the following payment will be made:

Up to three years' service—half a month's basic wage/salary per completed year of service.

Up to ten years' service—half a month's basic wage/salary for the first three years and three-quarters of a month's basic wage/salary for the remaining years up to ten.

Over ten years' service—half a month's basic wage/salary for the first three years, three-quarters of a month's basic wage/salary up to ten years and one month's basic wage/salary for all years thereafter.

Contracting of jobs

Where the companies decide to engage private contractors to do any job which was previously done by the Company then any employees who are discharged as a result of this shall be entitled to redundancy benefits as laid down in Part I, clause 8 (b).

The Court notes that the Union has added Part V to its submissions to coven the East African Oil Refinery, but as the refinery has, as yet, not been made a party to the agreement creating the Joint Industrial Council of the Oil Industry, it is not appropriate to consider this Part. The Court notes, however, that the admission of the refinery to the Joint Industrial Council is imminent and therefore expresses the hope that all the items will be successfully negotiated between the parties in the light of the foregoing award.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 4338

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 13 OF 1964

Parties:—

Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union

and

Distributive and Allied Trades Association

Issues in dispute:—

(1) Wages of clerical andd non-clerical workers.
(2) Working hours in Mombasa.
(3) Travelling allowance.
(4) Probationary period.
(5) Safari allowance.
(6) Set-off of employer's contribution to the Provident Fund against severance pay on redundancy.
(7) Sick leave.
(8) Maternity leave.
(9) Date and period of agreement.

1. The hearing lasted four days and the testimony of four witnesses was taken by the Court.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

2. The Distributive and Allied Trades Association (hereinafter called the Respondent Association) was registered on 1st February 1960 and its membership is open to persons, firms, companies or organizations who are employers engaged in the distributive and allied trades within Kenya. Following the formation of the Respondent Association steps were taken to set up joint machinery with the Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union (hereinafter called the Union) and a Recognition Agreement was signed on 21st July 1960. This agreement was revised and signed on 2nd March 1962. A total number of 33 firms have joined the Respondent Association.

3. It appears that the parties hereto have not been able to negotiate on any matters without resorting to arbitration and/or conciliation proceedings. This has resulted in the introduction of terms and conditions of service in piece-meal fashion at various times and in various ways. Mr. Clarke's conciliation was followed by Mr. Kaplan's award on 7th June 1962. After this, job classification of the workers appears to have been undertaken. This resulted in a lot of complications and confusion and deadlock was declared at a meeting of the Joint Industrial Council on 4th October 1963. Subsequently a strike took place and Mr. Rodger's Board of Inquiry was appointed. This Board published its report in December 1963 and recommended various rates of pay for different grades of clerical and non-clerical workers to be effective from 1st October 1963. The Respondent Association rejected the Rodger's recommendations. The Union wrote several letters to the Minister of Labour requesting him to impose the Rodger's recommendations on the Respondent Association by making it an award. The Minister did not accede to this request. The Respondent Association on the other hand was also in correspondence with the Minister. On 8th January 1964 the Respondent Association asked the Union for a meeting at Joint Industrial Council level in January 1964. The Union did not see fit to meet the Respondent Association as the latter had not accepted the Rodger's report. On 31st January 1964, the Respondent Association decided to implement arbitrary rates for the various clerical and non-clerical jobs with effect from 1st October 1963, in the case of non-clerical, and with effect from 1st January 1964, in the case of clerical staff. It is interesting to note that the Respondent Association accepted the clerical rates recommended by Rodger's Board but did not accept the recommended date of commencement and in case of non-clerical the Respondent Association accepted the recommended date but did not accept the rate for the grades.

4. From then on until late August 1964 there was an uneasy calm although meetings had been held in July and on 13th August 1964. On 28th August 1964 the President of the Respondent Association forwarded to the Union a draft of a comprehensive agreement covering all the terms and conditions relating to unionizable workers as undertaken at the meeting on 13th August 1964. The Union replied after studying the draft and the matter was then discussed at a Joint Industrial Council meeting on 18th September 1964, where it was decided in view of deadlock having arisen to bring the nine issues in dispute to the Industrial Court.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE UNION

5. (1) Wages of clerical and non-clerical workers.—The Union submits that its rates for the clerical grades ranging from Sh. 500 to Sh. 1,215 and for non-clerical ranging from Sh. 300 to Sh. 1,100 are fair and in line with wages being paid in other industries such as banks, docks, insurance, breweries, oil industry and so on. The Union has alleged that a young European was engaged as a clerk at Sh. 500 which proved that the lowest grade should carry this value as discriminatory practices had now been eliminated. The Union further states that if the salaries are not raised then Africans will not readily come for jobs with members of the Respondent Association and thus Africans will be denied the opportunities.

On the non-clerical grades the Union's contention is that an ordinary worker could not live a reasonable life at less than Sh. 10 per day. Food was expensive, taxes had to be paid and the workers in addition had to meet the school fees for their children out of this amount. The Union therefore asks for a minimum wage of Sh. 300 for non-clerical grades.

(2) Working hours in Mombasa.—The Union asks for working hours in Mombasa to be officially declared at between 36 to 38 hours per week so that any worker who worked more than this would be entitled to overtime. The reason advanced is the difficult climatic conditions under which the employees work.

(3) Travelling allowance.—The Union submits that the Kaplan award fixed the travelling allowance at Sh. 5 per month or Sh. 60 per year and that although some members of the Respondent Association were paying a higher travelling allowance the others were sticking to Sh. 60. The Union states that there is ample scope for improvement under this heading and asks for Sh. 125 per annum for manual and Sh. 600 to Sh. 800 for clerical workers.

(4) Probationary period.—The Union wants the probation period to be of one month during which time the contract may be terminated without notice. The Union feels that one month is enough within which to judge the capabilities of any worker and after this the worker should be confirmed. To keep a worker for three months on probation was exploitation.

(5) Safari allowance.—The Union asks for this allowance to be increased to Sh. 40 per day (a day to include an overnight period) instead of Sh. 20 as the latter amount was not enough to cover the legitimate expenses of a worker when he is out on safari.

(6) Set-off of employer's contribution to the Provident Fund against severance pay on redundancy.—The Union states that redundancy in an undertaking may be defined as a state of having an excess of manpower which may be the result of mechanization or a decrease in activity due to economic or other causes. Severance pay on redundancy should be calculated at the rate of two weeks' pay at the employee's current rate of pay for each completed year of service, provided that where an employee is a member of a Provident Fund Scheme he shall be paid one week for every year of service in addition to the Provident Fund benefits.

(7) Sick leave.—The Union submits that an employee who is unable to carry out his duties by reason of sickness shall be entitled in any period of 12 months to 21 days' sick leave at full pay and a further 21 days at half pay. This to be supported by a proper medical certificate.

(8) Maternity leave.—The Union claims leave under this heading for a period of six weeks prior and six weeks after childbirth with full pay.

(9) Date and period of agreement.—The Union states that any agreement negotiated with the Respondent Association should come into force as from 1st January 1964, and should remain in force for a period of one year as on expiry there would be a wage standstill for a further period of 12 months.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE RESPONDENT ASSOCIATION

6. (1) Wages for clerical and non-clerical workers.—The Respondent Association submits that the new wage rates proposed by it are generally equal to or above those currently being paid. In support of this the rates in the various industries have been quoted to the Court. Further, the Respondent Association states that the rates offered are not to be considered as a basis of negotiations but are the maximum which could be considered. It represented an increase of Sh. 30 on the minimum rate at present being paid. The Respondent Association does not propose any change in the rates of pay for the clerical grades which were introduced with effect from 1st January 1964, and are considered to be adequate and in line with those currently being paid.

(2) Working hours in Mombasa.—The Respondent Association states that there is no valid reason why working hours in Mombasa should be different to those in Nairobi. It is known that some members of the Respondent Association in Mombasa do work very short hours for historical reasons; this is considered as a concession to their employees who are paid as if they had worked the agreed 42½-hour week. Other members occasionally worked a 42½-hour week. The Respondent Association is strongly opposed to any reduction in hours of work.

(3) Travelling allowance.—The Respondent Association submits that it has never accepted the principle of the payment of travelling allowances when proceeding on leave as the vast majority of employees are now recruited from the area or town in which they work and how they spend their leave or where they go is their own personal affair. The Respondent Association asks for the Kaplan award of Sh. 60 to be incorporated in the monthly wage of employees at the rate of Sh. 5 per month so that this item would disappear from future negotiations.

(4) Probationary period.—The Respondent Association maintains that one month's probationary period would be unfair to employee and employer alike. One month would be a very short time for the new employee to demonstrate his full capabilities and suitability to his employer and he might find himself dismissed at the end of one month when in three months he would have conceivably have had time to prove himself a satisfactory employee.

(5) Safari allowance.—The Respondent Association accepts the principle that when an employee travels on employer's business he should never be out of pocket but submits Sh. 20 safari allowance for a day is adequate. Further, if an employee legitimately and reasonably incurs properly authenticated expense in excess of that minimum he should be reimbursed.

(6) Set-off of employer's contribution to the Provident Fund against severance pay on redundancy.—A number of the members of the Respondent Association do operate Provident Fund Schemes, but there are some who do not. It is the intention of those members of the Respondent Association who operate Provident Fund Schemes that an employee who is made redundant shall receive, in addition to his contributions to the Fund, that of his employer.

(7) Sick leave.—The Respondent Association, while submitting that negotiations in this item are barred under the Recognition Agreement, recognize the fact that the present-day practice among employers is to negotiate this item with the Union and has stated its willingness so to amend the Recognition Agreement. The Respondent Association has offered a paid sick leave period of 15 days on full pay and 15 days on half pay which it considers quite adequate.

(8) Maternity leave.—The Respondent Association since the job classification has recognized the principle of paying the rate for the job, irrespective of the sex of the person doing the job, and have accepted the principle of equal pay for equal work. In view of this and Maternity Protection Convention No. 103 of the International Labour Organization, the Respondent Association is opposed to paying any maternity leave.

(9) Date and period of agreement.—The Respondent Association states that owing to the lack of a current negotiated agreement with the Union, its members have been denied the benefit of the standstill on wages conferred by the Tripartite Agreement although they have employed the 10 per cent extra staff as required by the Agreement. Further revised wages have been implemented for non-clerical workers with effect from 1st October 1963 and those for clerical workers with effect from 1st January 1964. In view of this the Respondent Association submits that no back-dating of any new terms of service is justified and that any new agreement should come into force from the date of signature, and remain in force for a period of two years.

AWARD

7. After very careful consideration of all the points urged by the parties the Court awards as follows on the issues in dispute.

1. (a) Wages for non-clerical workers are as shown in the figures at Appendix "A".

(b) Wages for clerical employees are as shown in the figures at Appendix "B".

The dates of commencement of these rates of pay shall be 1st August 1964.

The wage rates in this award are subject to the proviso that only those employees whose salaries are less than the grade salary in which they are placed shall get the appropriate increment to bring their wages up to the grade rate. Those employees who are getting a higher wage than their grade warrants shall not get any increase and their salaries shall not be reduced either.

2. Working hours in Mombasa.—The Court is not prepared to reduce the number of working hours from 42½ per week, but endorses the current practice of employers in Mombasa of working less hours. The current practice should continue.

3. Travelling allowance.—Non-clerical. Those employees whose salaries are Sh. 300 or less shall get a leave allowance of Sh. 75 per annum when proceeding on leave and those employees whose salaries are above Sh. 300 shall get Sh. 100 per annum when proceeding on leave.

Clerical. Those employees whose salaries are Sh. 650 or less shall get Sh. 100 per annum when proceeding on leave, and those employees whose salaries are above Sh. 650 shall get Sh. 150 per annum when proceeding on leave.

4. Probationary period.—A period of three months is to be considered as the probation period.

5. Safari allowance.—A safari allowance shall be paid as follows to employees who travel on the employer's business:—

Breakfast	Sh. 3/50
Lunch	Sh. 5
Dinner	Sh. 7/50

If, in addition, an employee has to spend a night out, he shall get an extra Sh. 20. It is to be clearly understood that if an employee does not spend a night out then he shall be reimbursed only the cost of the meals, at the above rates, which he consumes whilst on duty.

6. Set-off of employer's contribution to the Provident Fund against severance pay on redundancy:—

(a) Where a Provident Fund Scheme does not operate, then an employee shall get severance pay on redundancy at the rate of two weeks' pay for any completed year of service.

(b) Where a Provident Fund Scheme is in operation then an employee, on redundancy, shall be entitled to the employer's contribution irrespective of the fact whether or not the employee is entitled to the employer's contribution: provided that if the total so arrived at is less than (a) then he shall be entitled to the difference as well so that the employee does not, in any case, get less than his entitlement under (a).

7. Sick leave.—An employee shall be entitled in any 12 months to 21 days' sick leave on full pay and to the next 21 days of sickness on half pay.

8. Maternity leave.—The Court rules that maternity leave shall be considered as sickness, and the female employees who are on the permanent establishment shall be entitled to the balance of any sick leave given under the current terms and conditions of service and which is unexpired in the year of employment. Any further absence from a total of 12 weeks in respect of childbirth shall be without pay. The aforesaid female employees shall be entitled to this award after completion of one year of unbroken service.

9. Date and period of Agreement.—The Agreement shall be deemed to have commenced on 1st August 1964 and shall be for a period of 12 months to expire on 31st July 1965.
