THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 26 OF 1979

Parties:—

Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers' and Standard Bank Ltd.

Issue in dispute:—

Dismissal of Miss Marylene M. Amukhele.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers' shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Standard Bank Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 11th and 13th July, 1979, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:—

Claimants:—

Paul A. Aloo.

Miss M. M. Amukhele.

*Respondent:—*F. Muiruri.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 6th September, 1978, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 14th May, 1979, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Miss M. M. Amukhele was employed by the Respondents on 6th September, 1976, as a copy typist initially on probation for six months. Her services were terminated on 3rd March, 1977, after five months' service. She was advised that her services had been terminated in accordance with the provisions of clause 3 (b) of the collective agreement and she was told she would be paid one month's salary in lieu of notice plus any other dues.

The Claimants took up the matter on her behalf and the matter was investigated by the Ministry of Labour. On 28th June, 1978, the Permanent Secretary conveyed the following findings to the parties:—

"The management submitted that Miss Amukhele was dismissed due to the fact that her work was below the required standard, that her social activities were unbecoming and that on the whole she was not a satisfactory worker. The management took action within the six months probationary period.

The union on the other hand stated that Miss Amukhele was dismissed due to pregnancy without providing any evidence to support it. The management in any case have stated that this has never been the problem. The union have not satisfactorily proved that Miss Amukhele had proved during her probationary period to be a good worker. They have merely stated so.

It is my considered opinion that she was not wrongfully dismissed. The management as well as Miss Amukhele had the right to terminate the contract if either did not meet the required expectations."

The Claimants rejected the above findings and the dispute is now before the Court.

The Court notes that the Respondents have frankly admitted that the manager of the Busia branch had recommended Miss Amukhele on 11th January, 1977, for confirmation after the completion of the probationary period. They, however, maintain that Miss Amukhele's performance deteriorated from that date and the manager observed that on occasions she was coming to the office in the morning smelling of alcohol and had on occasions been seen at bars with friends at late hours and her standard of general performance had deteriorated seriously. The manager had brought to her attention these shortcomings and had told her that the standard of her work must improve and that she should restrict her social activities to a certain degree. Unfortunately there was no improvement and they had to terminate her services.

The Claimants told the Court that they were contesting this case on a matter of principle as they were duty bound to protect the interest of their members in accordance with the provisions of clause 3 (b) of the collective agreement. The Claimants pointed out that Miss Amukhele was sent for medical examination five months after the date of the engagement and that once the Respondents came to know that she was pregnant they decided to terminate her services. This submission had also been made by the Claimants to the Investigator appointed by the Ministry of Labour. During the hearing, however, Miss Amukhele while giving evidence stated that the accountant of the Busia branch was also after her and he had sent some people to her house to call her about three times but she had always refused. She also denied that she used to smell of alcohol and stated on oath that she had never taken drinks in all her life. She further stated that her boyfriend who is the father of her daughter belonged to a very respectable family and had an uncle working in the Kenya Embassy in France. She also gave details of her work which she said was always satisfactory and denied that the manager had ever warned her either verbally or otherwise.

In this dispute the Court is faced with the evidence of two witnesses given on oath which is directly contradictory. Mr. Muiruri who was the Busia manager at the time but has since been promoted to the post of supervisor stated that he had personally seen Miss Amukhele drinking in the bars with certain undesirable persons like former customers whose accounts had been closed and those who were not good customers. He stated that although he could see some signs of pregnancy he had recommended her for confirmation on 11th January, 1977, but after the recommendation she had started to deteriorate and he had to caution her on a number of occasions to improve her performance but she did not improve. He added that he did not know what the accountant's intentions were towards her. He emphasized that the decision to terminate Miss Amukhele's services was his own and the accountant had not influenced him in any manner.

The Court finds this to be a very unfortunate case in which it is extremely difficult to find which party is telling the truth. There is, however, the point that the Claimants had not made the allegation that Miss Amukhele had been victimized for resisting the accountant's advances towards her in their submission to the Investigator. If this in fact was the truth then they should have done so at the first opportunity and that was during the investigation of the dispute in the Ministry of Labour. The Court cannot rule out the possibility that this is an afterthought.

The medical certificate bears a couple of alterations which have not been initialled. Miss Amukhele said that she had altered these entries at the doctor's request.

The Court has carefully examined the provisions of clause 3 (b) of the collective agreement which reads as follows:—

"3 (b) Clerical, Technical and Subordinate Staff:

All clerical staff shall, from engagement, serve a probationary period of six months and all technical and subordinate staff shall, from engagement, serve a probationary period of three months.

If, in the opinion of the employer, at the end of such probationary period, the employee's services shall have been satisfactory, he will be confirmed on the employer's clerical, technical or subordinate staff as the case may be.

During the said probationary period the employment of the employee may be terminated at any time by either party giving to the other not less than one month's notice in writing or by the payment by either party of one month's salary in lieu thereof."

The Court notes that in this clause it is clearly stated that if in the opinion of the employer the employee's services shall have been satisfactory he will be confirmed. The Claimants have clearly recognized that during the probationary period the employer alone will have the right to decide if the employee's services had been satisfactory. In view of this clear wording of clause 3 (b) of the collective agreement the Court fails to see how the Claimants can challenge the termination of an employee's services during the probationary period.

The Court would like to add that on the evidence submitted by the Respondents the Court is satisfied that the Respondents do not discriminate against females as far as their employment is concerned.

In view of the above the Court has come to the conclusion that the Claimants' demand must fail and it is accordingly rejected.

Given in Nairobi this 15th day of August, 1979.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 2412

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter, Application for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.

The two applications appearing hereunder are proceeding in the name of INTAPHARM LIMITED, a private limited liability company incorporated in Kenya, of P.O. Box 18517, Nairobi.
