(Cap. 7, Rev. 1979)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF ELECTION FOR THE KWALE
NORTH PARLIAMENTARY CONSTITUENCY

Between

Mbarak Ndurya Mwatsahu (Petitioner)

and

M. Kamau Kihuria (Returning Officer) (First Respondent)
Robert Stanley Matano (Second Respondent)

In the Election Petition for Kwale North Constituency in which Mbarak Ndurya Mwatsahu is the petitioner and M. Kamau Kihuria is the first respondent and Robert Stanley Matano is the second respondent.

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL

NOTICE is given that the above petitioner did on the 25th November, 1980, lodged at the office of the Registrar of the High Court an application for leave to withdraw the petition, of which application the following is a copy:

The petition of Mbarak Ndurya Mwatsahu presented on the 20th December, 1979. The petitioner applies for leave to withdraw his petition upon the following ground:

"After great deal of deliberation I have reached to a conclusion that by not pursuing my petition and burying the differences and disputes in the spirit of 'Nyayo', I would be able to pave way for restoring unity goodwill and peace amongst the people of Kwale District in general and Kwale North Constituency in particular, which was riddled with bitterness and hatred after the last Parliamentary Election. I further believe that I would be able to work for people in my constituency more freely."

And the petitioner prays that a day may be appointed for hearing his application.

Dated at Nairobi the 25th November, 1980.

And take notice that under the National Assembly Elections (Election Petition) Rules, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the said election, may, within seven days after the date of publication of this notice, give notice in writing to the Registrar of the High Court of his intention on the hearing of the application to be substituted as a petitioner.

Dated at Nairobi the 25th November, 1980.

M. N. MWATSAHU,
Petitioner.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 30 OF 1980

Parties:

Kenya Management Staff Association
and
Esso Standard Kenya Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful termination of Mr. J. M. Mugesani

1. The Kenya Management Staff Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Esso Standard Kenya Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 23rd and 24th September, and 31st October, 1980 and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:

Claimants.—J. M. Mugesani.

Respondents.—F. B. Njuguna.

N. H. A. Shariff.

S. H. Bogani.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 7th January, 1979 duly signed the parties was received by the Court on 20th May, 1980 together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Mr. J. M. Mugesani was employed by the Respondents in June, 1978 as Distribution Analyst at a salary of K.Sh. 2,800 p.m. His services were terminated on 21st February, 1979 and he was offered full salary for February and one month's salary in lieu of notice. He was told that he would be paid for leave for 22 days that he had earned plus a leave allowance of K.Sh. 382/50. The reason for termination was that the management had considered his work performance over the period of his employment and had decided not to confirm him in employment as a regular employee.

The Claimants having reported the dispute to the Ministry of Labour the Ministry's findings and recommendation to the parties on 25th October, 1979 were in the following terms:

"It was found that the company's monthly appraisal report did not record any shortcomings on Mr. Mugesani's work. There was no elaborate training programme that was arranged for him so as to teach him the techniques of distribution work. This failure of communication may have been a way of frustrating Mr. Mugesani on his work.

Finally Mr. Mugesani was not notified of his failures and the manager who recommended the extension of the probation period was also new in the department who needed time to settle down himself. Therefore since the management had no substantive proof of Mr. Mugesani's shortcoming the termination was found to be wrongful.

After a very careful consideration of the facts contained in this report it is recommended that Mr. Mugesani be paid all his terminal benefits plus 10 months' salary as compensation for wrongful termination."

The Respondents rejected the above findings and the dispute is now before the Court.

Mr. Mugesani's letter of appointment was signed by the Respondents' managing director in which letter it is provided as follows:

"This appointment is as a regular staff employee. During the first six months you will be on probation. At the end of six months and provided that your services are satisfactory you will be confirmed to regular staff. Notice period will be one month either way both during and after the probationary period."

In the Respondents' written submission they have given Mr. Mugesani's training programme which commenced on 8th August and finished on 17th August during which he was supposed to have mastered operations department, Nairobi depot and accounting and finance. The Court is not at all satisfied at this sort of training and it appears that this so called training programme was no more than a very cursory familiarization exercise.

Not only was Mr. Mugesani not properly trained but on 12th September, 1978 the operations supervisor informed all departmental managers and others that Mr. Mugesani had now taken over as Distribution Analyst and all matters related to distribution should be directed to him and that he Mr. Mugesani would be reporting to the operations supervisor.

Surprisingly despite this development and the fact that in the appraisal report Mr. Mugesani's performance had been graded as good he was informed by the acting operations manager on 8th December, 1978 that his probation period had been extended by another three months in order to give him an opportunity to bring his performance up to the required standard. The Court finds this letter to be questionable because such an important communication which affects a senior employee's future was not typed on the Respondents' letter head but was on a plain paper and further there is no indication that it was communicated to any top member of the management. Moreover there is no record at all of any shortcomings on the part of Mr. Mugesani having been pointed out to him in writing although the Respondents' witnesses stated that they were communicated to him verbally.

The Court expects that in matters affecting the employment of workers the management should act properly and follow all the laid down procedures scrupulously. Any step which is likely to affect the future employment prospects of an employee should be communicated to him in writing and all the claims and shortcomings alleged against him should be set out precisely so that he can have an opportunity of answering them. This was not done in this case.

Under these circumstances the Court has come to the conclusion that Mr. Mugesani should be deemed to have been confirmed him in his employment on the expiry of six months otherwise either the managing director or someone with his authority should have taken appropriate steps in this matter. There is no evidence that the managing director knew of what transpired in respect of Mr. Mugesani at that time. He was, however, approached by Mr. Mugesani after his termination.

The allegations of incompetence levelled against Mr. Mugesani are during the period of his alleged extended three months probation. The Court has carefully considered all aspects of these complaints and finds that the main reason for these was the non-availability of railway wagons over which obviously Mr. Mugesani, or for that matter any member of management from the Respondents' undertaking or any other party, had no control. They were entirely at the mercy of the railways and when it is realized that at least six other big companies also required the use of these wagons then it become quite obvious that Mr. Mugesani's alleged defaults were not all that serious. The Court fully appreciates that if a company is not able to supply its customers with their products regularly and in time then the customers are likely to leave them but then any failure, if any, on the part of Mr. Mugesani in this regard is mainly attributable to the non-availability of the railway wagons. The Respondents' witnesses did concede this fact and one witness told the Court that he had gone to the railway offices once with Mr. Mugesani to sort out the question of railway wagons.

The other allegation of Mr. Mugesani being insolent and rude to his colleagues did not warrant his termination.

The Court gets a distinct impression that the Respondents did not act properly in this dispute. Even during investigation they did not produce the evidence which they produced in Court which they tried to use as justification for having terminated Mr. Mugesani's employment. The Court wonders why if they had all these documents in their possession and they attached so much importance to them they were not produced to the investigator. This again is very questionable.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that Mr. Mugesani has suffered a wrongful termination in terms of industrial practice but the Court agrees with the Respondents' advocate that the ten months' salary by way of compensation recommended by the Ministry of Labour is very high. The Court awards Mr. Mugesani four months' salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal that he has suffered and that this should be in addition to one month's notice and other benefits which the Respondents have offered him.

Given in Nairobi the 24th November, 1980.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT CAUSE No. 65 OF 1980

Parties—

Specialized Mouldings (K) Ltd.
and
Kenya Chemical Workers' Union

Issue in dispute—

Redundancy of 45 employees.

1. Specialized Mouldings (K) Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Kenya Chemical Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 15th October and 12th November, 1980, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Claimants also called M. G. Vesley to give evidence on oath.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A", dated 7th July, 1980, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 11th August together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The Court heard the parties' opening submissions on 15th October and then adjourned the hearing to 12th November and directed that the Employment Promotion Division should carry out a detailed investigation in the various aspects of this dispute in consultation with the parties and to prepare and present a report to the Court and the parties before the next hearing. The E.P.D. submitted its report on 5th November, 1980.

On 12th November the Claimants' managing director, M. G. Vesley, gave evidence on oath and explained the reasons why they wanted to declare 45 of their employees redundant. While he was being cross examined at length the Court felt that given a chance in view of the information elicited so far in the dispute the parties might be able to resolve this dispute amicably. The Court accordingly adjourned the hearing for a few minutes.

After adjournment the parties informed the Court through the E.P.D. representative that they had settled the dispute and requested the Court to make an award by consent.

The Court accordingly awards by consent of the parties that the Claimants should declare 18 of their employees redundant from their total workforce as at today and that the redundancy exercise should be carried out strictly in accordance with the parties' collective agreement.

Dated the 12th November, 1980.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under Rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

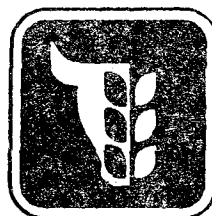

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
