5. Post.—DEPUTY DIRECTOR, environment assessment service.

Level.—D-1.

Vacancy No.—NA-83-37.

Duty station.—Nairobi.

Entry on duty.—1st June, 1984.

The environment assessment service is responsible for activities aimed at evaluating the extent of selected environmental problems, their causes and the risks involved, in order to provide a sound basis for subsequent environmental management.

Functions.—The deputy director will assist the director of the environment assessment service in the development of the assessment capability of UNEP and its co-ordination through programme and the United Nations system by participating fully in the tasks of the director and fulfilling them with delegated authority in his absence. On the substantive side development and co-ordination involves:

1. Reviewing critically global and regional environmental issues and determining those that require to be assessed and the practical possibilities of so doing.

2. Maintaining a critical record of current activities related to the assessment of global and regional environmental issues that are conducted internationally and, when relevant, by national authorities and institutions, and resulting assessment statements.

3. Collating and reviewing the assessment statements in order to determine their adequacy and their implications for both the short-term and, particularly, the long-term management of the global environment.

4. Deciding which global and regional environment issues can and must be assessed as a matter of priority, and by which bodies.

5. Determining the extent to which UNEP should be involved in the assessment process, including the collection of relevant data, and enlisting the co-operation of United Nations agencies, other organizations, national and private institutions and consultants, as appropriate, in accordance with a timetable to be decided upon in consultation with those involved.

6. Ensuring that appropriate assessment statements are produced according to the agreed timetables.

7. Establishing guidelines for the smooth running of the service.

8. Maintaining operational relations with other parts of UNEP both within and outside the office of the environment programme.

9. Supervising the development and implementation of projects related to environmental assessment, and to this end ensuring close co-operation with appropriate staff in both the environment fund and the co-operating agencies involved.

10. Supervising both professional and general service staff in the environment assessment service.

11. Selecting high-level consultants and directing their work.

Qualifications.—A higher university degree in one of the physical sciences relating to the environment (e.g. climatology) with relevant publications demonstrating a broad knowledge of environmental issues, particularly those of world-wide or regional impact. Long national or international experience in the field of the environment, at least five years at senior level, coupled with a demonstrated familiarity with the United Nations system. Fluency in English essential and working knowledge of French or Spanish required.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—

Kenya Gazette

"D.14.(1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 12 noon, on Tuesday of the week that publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
