THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE No. 42 OF 1983

Parties:

Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union
and
Kenya Rayon Mills Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful dismissal of Stephen Omondi and Stephen Ochieng.

THE Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Kenya Rayon Mills Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 21st March, 1984, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses:

Claimants:

S. Omondi.
S. Ochieng.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 3rd December, 1982, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 3rd June, 1983, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The two grievants in this dispute worked for the respondents as follows:

S. Ochieng.—11th October, 1964, to 15th August, 1981.

S. Omondi.—Worked for the respondents previously for five years when he was declared redundant and was re-employed in March, 1972, and worked for them until 7th August, 1981.

Both of them were dismissed for alleged conspiracy to defraud and obtaining money by false pretences. Both of them were prosecuted in the criminal court and were subsequently acquitted on 2nd and 25th January, 1982. They were, however, dismissed when they reported for work on 12th August, 1981, when they were told to go home and come back on 15th when they were served with dismissal letters.

The dispute was investigated by the Ministry of Labour whose report was released on 16th November, 1982, in which the finding was that the two employees were charged in a court of law on grounds that they had claimed and had been paid money for overtime which they had not actually worked and the management had failed to produce any evidence on the offences alleged to have been committed. It recommended that they be paid their terminal benefits plus three months' salary each as compensation for wrongful dismissal.

The respondents have alleged that Mr. Omondi had falsely claimed and was paid KSh. 221.45 as overtime which he had not actually worked and Mr. Ochieng was paid KSh. 32.95 which he had falsely claimed to have worked as overtime.

During the hearing the claimants alleged that the respondents had taken a hasty decision in dismissing them as both the grievants had been handed over to the police to be charged in the criminal court. They felt that the respondents should have waited for the outcome of the criminal proceedings. As it turned out both of them were acquitted in the criminal court with Mr. Ochieng having no case to answer at the end of the trial.

The respondents stated that both the grievants with four other colleagues were arrested and charged with the offence of conspiring to defraud the respondents. Four others were found guilty of charges of conspiracy but the two grievants were acquitted by the court. The respondents maintained that their acquittal did not clear them on the charge of obtaining money by fraudulent pretences had they been charged of that offence. In any case they submitted that they had reasonable and sufficient grounds for suspecting the two persons of having committed a criminal offence.

The court heard the evidence given by the two grievants and the respondents' witness and the court is satisfied that the respondents may have suspected these two employees of having claimed overtime when they had not worked but the fact remains that it is highly unlikely that they could have got away with these false claims if they had not been part and parcel of a big conspiracy involving some senior employees in the company. The fact that the respondents' records got lost at the police station and the respondents' witness conceding in cross-examination that something is missing somewhere does not help the respondents' case. In these circumstances the acquittal of the two grievants in the criminal case when four of their colleagues were convicted plays an important part in this dispute. The court finds itself in agreement with the ministry's findings that they have suffered a wrongful dismissal. However, the court is of the view that they do not deserve reinstatement and awards that Mr. Ochieng be paid six months' salary by way of compensation for two wrongful dismissal that he has suffered in addition to his terminal benefits and Mr. Omondi should be paid three months' salary by way of compensation again in addition to his terminal benefits.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE No. 66 OF 1983

Parties:

Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers
and Sembi Motors Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Aggrey Apolo and Jairus Namunyu.

THE Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Sembi Motors Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were invited to a mention on 23rd August, 1983, for finalizing the arrangements for the mention and for fixing a hearing date. The respondents failed to appear. The court ordered the claimants to submit their memorandum on 22nd September, 1983, and the respondents were ordered to submit theirs on 24th October, 1983. The hearing was fixed for 3rd November, 1983.

The claimants submitted their memo as ordered and appeared in court for hearing on 3rd November. The respondents, however, did not file their replying memo and again failed to appear in court. The court decided to give them one more chance and invited the parties to a further mention on 9th January, 1984, when the respondents again failed to attend and the court fixed the hearing for 10th April. The respondents were duly informed of the hearing date.

On 10th April the respondents again failed to attend and the court then decided to proceed with the hearing ex parte.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 30th May, 1983, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 7th July that year together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The two grievants, Messrs. Apolo and Namunyu, started working for the respondents on 6th January, 1965 and August, 1975, respectively. They were summarily dismissed on 21st April, 1981, when each one of them was earning a monthly wage of KSh. 1,200.

The allegation against them which led to their summary dismissal was that they were seen repairing a vehicle outside their place of work on 17th April, 1981. The respondents had alleged that they had persuaded a customer to remove a vehicle from the workshop so that they could repair it privately out of the official business. The claimants denied this allegation insisting that neither the management nor their agents saw them working on that vehicle. The claimants alleged that this was confirmed by the owner of the vehicle who stated that he never made any private deal with these workers and that his vehicle had been repaired at Kakamega Vehicle Body Repairs where charges quoted to him were lower than the respondents'.

Unfortunately for the respondents they failed to either submit a memo or appear in person in court and the court is left only with the claimants' written and verbal submissions. The claimants have submitted that their members suffered a wrongful dismissal as the respondents violated the procedure laid down in the existing collective agreement in dismissing them and demanded that they be reinstated to their jobs unconditionally and the respondents should be ordered to pay them salary for all the time they had been out of employment.

The court has decided in this dispute to rely on the findings and recommendation of the Ministry of Labour which were in favour of the claimants in that the grievants had suffered a wrongful dismissal because on 17th April, 1981, the day the respondents claimed they found them working on the said vehicle privately was a public holiday, i.e. Good Friday. The investigator rejected the accounts given by the respondents' watchman and the managing director. The ministry recommended that the summary dismissal should be reduced to normal termination and they should be paid their terminal benefits in accordance with the parties' collective agreement and in addition to respondents should pay them three months' wages for dismissing them wrongfully.

The court finds the ministry's recommendation to be reasonable under the circumstances and the court awards that the respondents should pay the two grievants their dues and compensation as recommended by the ministry as stated hereinabove.

Given in Nairobi the 6th June, 1984.

CAUSE No. 98 OF 1983

Parties:

Kenya Union of Domestic, Hotels, Educational Institutions, Hospitals and Allied Workers
and

Cheshire Homes Kenya

Issue in dispute:

Redundancy of Dorothy Deya.

THE Kenya Union of Domestic, Hotels, Educational Institutions, Hospitals and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Cheshire Homes Kenya shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties appeared before the court on 3rd April and made preliminary submissions during which the respondents submitted that certain parts of the claimants' demand were beyond the scope of the dispute before the court which was strictly that of redundancy of Mrs. Deya. The respondents, however, offered a further sum of KSh. 4,960 to Mrs. Deya.

The claimants indicated that while they had no objection to pursuing their entitlements through the provincial labour office they queried the deductions which the respondents had made by way of taxes from the amount offered to her. The court then proceeded to make an award by consent.

AWARD

3. The Court awards that the respondents should pay a further sum of KSh. 4,960 to Mrs. Deya in addition to KSh. 7,855 which they have already paid her provided that tax deduction would be verified and if necessary any adjustments will be made with the assistance of the Chief Industrial Relations Officer.

The claimants' other demands are beyond the scope of this dispute and they should seek their redress on Mrs. Deya's statutory entitlements through the provincial labour officer and the Labour Commissioner. The court would like to record that the cheque for KSh. 4,960 was handed over to the claimants by the respondents.

Issue in dispute:

Termination of A. A. Odondi.

THE Kenya Management Staff Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Jamnadas Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The dispute came up for hearing before the court on 24th May, 1984, and after the claimants had made their opening submissions it appeared to the court that there was a possibility that the parties could settle the dispute at their own level if they were given another opportunity. The court accordingly granted an adjournment after which the parties requested the court to make an award by consent.

AWARD

3. By consent of the parties the court awards that the respondents should pay KSh. 4,500 to Miss Odondi in full and final settlement of all her claims. It is further recorded that she has already received KSh. 500 leaving a balance of KSh. 4,000 to be paid to her.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2246

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

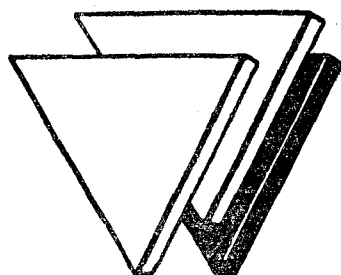

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—Kenya Gazette

"D.14.(1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 12 noon, on Tuesday of the week that publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette."

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
