VACANCIES OFFERED BY UNESCO

APPLICANTS should contact the Kenya National Commission for Unesco, Ministry of Education, Science and Technology, Commerce House, P.O. Box 30040, Nairobi, for official application forms and any necessary information they may require as soon as possible.

1. Title.—Unesco REPRESENTATIVE Mexico and the Dominican Republic.

Post No.—LA/RP/MEX/CPX/043.

Category and level.—Professional category (P-5).

VACANCIES OFFERED BY UNESCO—(Contd.)

Duty station.—Mexico and Dominican Republic.

Duty station.—Mexico, Mexico.

Duties and responsibilities.—The functions of the Unesco representative are essentially of an advisory and organizational but also of a representative nature. In accordance with the policy or decentralization, those functions which could be carried out in the field and not falling under the competence of Chief Technical Advisers (C.T.A.s) of other field units are performed by the Unesco representative. They are determined in each case according to the conditions prevailing in the countries of assignment and in agreement with their governments.

Under the authority of the assistant director-general for co-operation for development and external relations and the supervision of director C.P.X./LAC, the incumbent will, subject to the agreement of the government concerned, assume the functions and responsibilities of Unesco representative to the following countries: Mexico and Dominican Republic. He will—

(1) assist and advise and provide information to the appropriate government concerning the whole range of Unesco's programme capabilities (financed from regular budget as well as from extra-budgetary resources) and keep headquarters informed of the needs of the countries he covers;

(2) participate in the organization's responsibility for the conceptualization, formulation and implementation of programmes and projects, irrespective of their funding sources;

(3) assist the resident representatives of the United Nations development programme in performing their overall functions concerning programme-planning negotiations and advise them on all questions related to Unesco activities in their countries of assignment, in particular on Unesco's contribution to the country programming process, and participate in tripartite reviews of U.N.D.P. projects;

(4) co-operate with representatives of United Nations programmes, organizations and specialized agencies and, if requested by the government, maintain contracts with agents of bilateral and regional forms of assistance, in order to help the governments and resident representatives to ensure co-ordination with Unesco activities;

(5) maintain liaison, on behalf of the organization, with the technical ministries, the central co-ordinating authority for international assistance and the Unesco national commissions as well as with representatives of other international governmental organizations associated with Unesco's programmes;

(6) arrange for such field activities as seminars, meetings, training courses, etc.;

(7) undertake, upon request from headquarters, programme support activities such as interviews, establishment of dossiers for personnel or fellows, follow-up on equipment matters or reports;

(8) provide administrative oversight for all Unesco activities in the countries of assignment, using the administrative services of the offices of the resident representatives to the full;

(9) report periodically to headquarters on unesco activities in the countries of assignment in accordance with Unesco secretariat procedures;

(10) undertake, in co-operation with the United Nations information centre, public information activities and assist in the Unesco coupon scheme;

(11) act, as appropriate, on instructions from Unesco's bureau of personnel, keeping the governments informed of such activities;

(12) deal with problems concerning regional institutions based in the countries in so far as they affect the relations between Unesco and the government concerned;

(13) act as local public information officer and as such distribute press releases issued by headquarters, forward to headquarters press review and clippings of interest to Unesco, participate in radio and television programmes, show Unesco films to selected groups and organize visits by local media representatives to Unesco projects;

(14) carry out such other assignments as may be directed by headquarters in accordance with the general framework outlined above.

Qualifications and experience required:

(a) University degree and experience in the fields of education, science, culture or any other field of activity within Unesco's field of competence.

(b) Wide knowledge of the culture, educational system and the administrative and political organizations of the country of assignment.

(c) Exercise of responsibilities in a national or international service specializing in one of the above-mentioned fields.

(d) Excellent knowledge of Spanish and English or French with ability to draft in these languages.

Duration of contract.—Initial period of two years starting as soon as possible after the closing date for the receipt of applications.

Salary and allowances.—Initial appointment will be at P-5 grade with a net annual salary equivalent to US$33,318 per annum ($30,776 if without dependants), plus annual family allowances of $700 for each dependent child (if there is no dependent spouse, this indemnity is not payable in respect of the first dependent child). At least 30 per cent of the total net annual salary plus the prescribed allowances is to be paid in the currency of the duty station, the balance being paid in one other currency. These emoluments are normally exempt from all direct taxation. Income tax on such remuneration, if levied, is reimbursed in accordance with staff regulations and rules. Travel is provided for the staff member and his family (spouse and recognized dependants). In addition, Unesco contributes towards the cost of installation at the duty station and to the education of dependent children. On separation from Unesco, a repatriation grant is paid.

Closing date.—8th January, 1985.

2. Title.—PROGRAMME SPECIALIST in marine sciences and deputy secretary of the intergovernmental oceanographic commission for Latin America.

Post No.—LA/RP/URU/SC/006.

Category and level.—Professional category (P-4).

Duty station.—Regional office for science and technology for Latin America and the Caribbean, Montevideo, Uruguay.

Duties and responsibilities.—Under the authority and general supervision of the director of the Unesco regional office for science and technology for Latin America and the Caribbean, and under the technical supervision of the secretary of the Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission (I.O.C.) or that of the director of the marine sciences division, whichever applies, the incumbent will be involved in developing and implementing Unesco's programme in marine sciences and related disciplines. In particular, the incumbent will perform the following tasks—

(1) co-operate with governmental services and scientific institutions concerned with the preparation, promotion and development of regional and national technical assistance programmes for developing marine sciences and oceanographic services in the region, whether such programmes be financed under the regular budget or from extra-budgetary sources;

(2) maintain close liaison on the development and implementation of Unesco's marine sciences programme with counterpart professional divisions at Unesco headquarters and particularly with the marine science division;

(3) contribute to the promotion and development of research programmes and ocean services of the intergovernmental oceanographic commission in Latin America, to the preparation and organization of such meetings of its subsidiary organs as are scheduled to be held there, and to such activities within the framework of the I.O.C. programme on training, education and mutual assistance (TEMA);

(4) establish contacts and maintain working relations with—

(i) competent governmental authorities; and

(ii) governmental and non-governmental national and regional scientific and technological organizations, research institutions, universities, learned societies, individual research workers, teachers and students;

VACANCIES OFFERED BY UNESCO—(Contd.)

(5) assist in the organization and implementation of courses, seminars, symposia and other meetings on questions relating to marine sciences which are of interest to the region;

(6) assist in the collection and dissemination in the region of information and literature on marine sciences and related disciplines, as necessary, and promote the exchange of data and other information on oceanography;

(7) assist in the U.N.D.P. country programming exercise in the region;

(8) carry out other assignments as may be required from time to time.

Qualifications and experience required:

(a) University degree in a marine science discipline, preferably at Ph.D. level.

(b) Experience in university teaching and in research in one or more branches of the marine sciences at the graduate level; interdisciplinary interests are highly desirable.

(c) Some experience in the administration of scientific programmes, preferably acquired at the international level, and a genuine willingness to work with and for nationals of the region.

(d) Excellent knowledge of Spanish and a good knowledge of English and/or French.

Duration of contract.—Period of two years, starting as soon as possible after the closing date for the receipt of applications.

Salary and allowances.—Initial appointment will be at P-4 grade with a net annual salary equivalent to US$27,612 per annum ($25,672 if without dependants), plus the prescribed allowances, e.g. post adjustment, at present $3,886 for staff members with dependants ($3,610 for staff members without dependants), family allowances of $700 for each dependent child (if there is no dependent spouse, this indemnity is not payable in respect of the first dependent child). At least 30 per cent of the total net annual salary plus the prescribed allowances is to be paid in the currency of the duty station, the balance being paid in one other currency. These emoluments are normally exempt from all direct taxation. Income tax on such remuneration, if levied, is reimbursed in accordance with staff regulations and rules. Travel is provided for the staff member and his family (spouse and recognized dependants). In addition, Unesco contributes towards the cost of installation at the duty station and to the education of dependent children. On separation from Unesco, repatriation grant is paid.

Closing date.—18th January, 1985.

3. Title.—PROGRAMME ASSISSANT for culture.

Post No.—LG/RP/CUB/CLT/004.

Category and level.—Professional category (P-1/P-2).

Organizational location.—Regional office for culture in Latin America and the Caribbean, Havana, Cuba.

Duties and responsibilities.—Under the authority of the chief of the regional office, the incumbent will perform the following duties:

(1) To assist in the preparation and implementation of cultural programmes of Unesco in Latin America and the Caribbean.

(2) To assist in the preparation of documents required for meetings dealing with cultural activities in the region.

(3) To contribute to the preparation of reports and publications on these activities.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—

Kenya Gazette

"D.14.(1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 12 noon, on Tuesday of the week that publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready.

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
