THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 85 OF 1988

Parties:

Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers Union.
and Mashambani Industries Limited.

Issue in dispute:

Redundancy of nine employees namely—

Alfred Randa
Enock Sudi
Benjamin Kipruto
Alfred Gade
Joshua Tanui
Joram Kidanya
Luka Libaba
Albert Avasika
Joseph Kinyanjui.

THE Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Mashambani Industries Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 11th April, 1989, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 3rd June, 1988, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 10th October, 1988, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The respondents are a limited liability company. They are situated in Kakamega District of the Western Province of Kenya. The respondents are an agro-based industry engaged in the collection of latex from the pawpaws sold to them by farmers in the region. The latex is processed to make various products.

The respondents employ a permanent workforce of 14 unionizable employees. They, in addition to the permanent labour, engage seasonal employees whose number varies from season to season.

The grievants in this dispute were employed by the respondents on different dates between 1979 and 1981 respectively. The grievants had served the respondents for period ranging from three to five years.

The court notes that each and every grievant in this dispute had signed an agency agreement. Further to that the grievants were not paid monthly salaries but commissions, depending on the job done. This explicitly proves that there was no employer/employee relationship to occasion an issue of redundancy.

After having considered carefully the submissions made by the parties, the court finds that the grievants were independent contractors and were not in any way employees of the respondents.

In view of this the grievants could not have been a subject of redundancy exercise.

The claimants' demands are accordingly rejected.

Dated the 18th May, 1989.

Judge.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 1 OF 1989

Parties:

Transport and Allied Workers' Union (K)
and

Messrs. Murgian Transporters (K) Ltd.

Issues in dispute:

General Wages Increase.
Housing Allowance.
Safari Allowance.

THE Transport and Allied Workers' Union (K) shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Messrs. Murgian Transporters (K) Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 19th April, 1989, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form A dated 23rd September, 1988, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 4th January, 1989, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The respondents are a Nairobi based transport company engaged in the transportation of general cargo as well as petroleum products from either Nairobi or Mombasa to destinations within and outside the country like Uganda, Rwanda and Burundi.

The respondents have a total of 50 trucks out of which 17 are idle. As a result the total labour force of 129 employees has been reduced by 18 workers through redundancy and retirement. This dispute affects about 111 unionizable employees and arose when the parties were negotiating for the renewal of their latest collective agreement which expired on 30th April, 1988.

After careful consideration of the parties' submissions and taking into account the present financial difficulties of the respondents the court awards as follows:

General Wages Increase

Income Bracket	1st year	2nd year
(a) Employees earning up to Sh. 750 p.m.	8%	8%
(b) Employees earning Sh. 751-1,000 p.m.	6%	6%
(c) Employees earning Sh. 1,001 and above	5%	5%

Housing Allowance

The court awards that the workers should get an increase of Sh. 30 per month on individual current house allowance entitlement.

Safari Allowance

The court awards an increase of 4 per cent for drivers and 7 per cent for drivers' mates on the present entitlement of allowance. All other provisions will remain as at present.

Dated the 22nd May, 1989.

Judge.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claim all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
