PART II

THE ENERGY ACT (No. 12 of 2006)

THE ENERGY (COMPLAINTS AND DISPUTES RESOLUTION) REGULATIONS, 2010

- These Regulations may be cited as the Energy (Complaints and Disputes Resolution) Regulations, 2010.

2. These Regulations shall apply to any person who has a complaint or a dispute regarding any matter regulated under the Act, or any licence, permit, contract, code, conduct, practice or operation of any party thereunder.

3. (1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires-

"Act" means the Energy Act, 2006, and includes any order, rules or regulations made under any Act;

"Commission" means the Energy Regulatory Commission established under section 119 of the Act;

"complaint" includes a dissatisfaction with the service rendered by, or a practice of, any person carrying out any undertaking or activity pursuant to a licence, permit or registration issued or granted by the Commission or under the Act;

"complainant" means any person affected by a respondent's undertaking, activity or practice regulated under the Act;

"day" means calendar day;

"dispute" is deemed to exist where, the parties acting in good faith have failed to reach an amicable resolution of complaint and after all due efforts have been made;

"licensee" means a public or local authority, company, person or body of persons to whom a licence or permit is granted;

"mediation" means a without-prejudice non-binding process in which an independent neutral third party, referred to as a mediator, assists parties to settle their dispute;

"plaintiff" means any person referring a dispute to the Commission for determination;

"respondent" means any person against whom another person has a complaint or a dispute relating to a matter regulated under the Act;

"website" of the Commission means www.erc.go.ke.

(2) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires-

(a) words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and

(b) words importing a gender include any gender.

4. These regulations shall apply to complaints and disputes in the following areas:-

(a) billing, damages, disconnection, health and safety, installations, interruptions, licensee practices and procedures, metering, new connections and extensions, reconnections, quality of service, quality of supply, tariffs, way leaves, easements or rights-of-way in relation to the generation, transmission, distribution, supply and use of electrical energy.

(b) damages, adulteration and underdispensing of products, licensee practices and procedures, health and safety in relation to the refining, transportation, distribution and supply of petroleum products, and

(c) any other activity and/or matter regulated under the Act.

5. (1) Every person carrying out any undertaking or activity under the Act shall -

(a) prepare and submit for approval by the Commission procedures for dealing with complaints relating to his undertaking or activity;

(b) produce information material in simple language explaining:-

(i) how other persons can gain access to the procedures;

(ii) how the procedures work;

(iii) the timeframes within which the procedures may be carried out;

(iv) the complainant's right to access the Commission if dissatisfied with the respondent's decision or the way it has been reached; and

(v) any other matter of relevant importance;

(c) promptly, fully, and fairly deal with every complaint with the objective of ensuring satisfaction of the complainant;

(d) ensure that their staff, representatives, agents, sales people or independent contractors are aware of the approved procedures and their obligations under them, and

(d) in the event that any complaint is not resolved to the complainant's satisfaction, the respondent shall inform the complainant of their right to have their complaint referred to the Commission as a dispute between the two parties

(2) In preparing the procedures contemplated in sub-regulation (1), the guiding principles are that those procedures shall to the extent possible:-

(a) be simple, quick and inexpensive;

(a) preserve or enhance the relationship between the parties;

(c) take account of the skills and knowledge that are required for the relevant procedures;

(d) observe the rules of natural justice;

(e) place emphasis on conflict avoidance; and

(f) encourage resolution of complaints without formal legal representation or reliance on legal procedures.

(3) Without prejudice to sub-regulation (2), these regulations shall not prevent a party from seeking an urgent interlocutory injunction from a court of competent jurisdiction.

6. In the event that any complaint is not resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant even after exhausting the complaints handling procedures of the licensee or permit holder, the parties may declare a dispute, and any party may refer it to the Commission for recourse.

7. Every person carrying out any undertaking or activity under a licence or permit issued or granted under the Act shall submit periodic reports to the Commission regarding the complaints received and dealt with in Form S-1 as set out in the First Schedule.

8. (1) A person desiring to file a dispute with the Commission ("the plaintiff") shall:-

(a) inform the respondent of his intention to so file the dispute, and,

(b) furnish to the respondent copies of all pleadings and supporting documents filed with the Commission.

(2) All disputes filed before the Commission shall be typewritten, photocopied or printed neatly and legibly on one side of white paper and every page shall be consecutively numbered.

(3) The Commission may accept disputes filed with a computer disk or through electronic media on such terms and conditions as the Commission may specify.

(4) The contents of the dispute shall be divided appropriately into separate paragraphs, which shall be numbered serially.

(5) The dispute shall be accompanied by such documents, supporting data and statements as the Commission may specify.

9. (1) A person may authorise an advocate to represent him and to act and plead on his behalf before the Commission.

(2) The person may also appear himself or may authorise any of his employees or agents to appear before the Commission and to act and plead on his behalf.

(3) Authorisation shall be in form S-2 as set out in the Second Schedule.

(4) For the purposes of this Regulation and Regulation 12, the Commission includes the mediators and arbitrators contemplated in Regulation 14.

10. The following information shall be included in the dispute:

- (a) plaintiff's address;
- (b) plaintiff's or respondent's account number (where applicable);
- (c) copies of relevant correspondence between the plaintiff and respondent,
- (d) reasons, from the plaintiff's viewpoint, why the complaint was not resolved, and
- (e) evidence of service of the pleadings to the respondent.

11. The Commission shall acknowledge to the plaintiff receipt of the pleadings and may seek further information from the plaintiff within 7 days from the date of such receipt:

Provided that in both cases, the Commission shall forward copies of the acknowledgement and request for further information to the subject respondent for information and comments or rejoinder.

12. (1) The Commission may seek further information from the plaintiff or respondent at any time.

(2) The party submitting further information to the Commission shall furnish copies of the information to the other party.

(3) The party from whom further information is sought under subsection (1) above shall respond within 14 days from the date of such request, failing which, in the case of the plaintiff, the dispute shall be deemed to have been withdrawn, and in the case of the respondent, the Commission shall give such orders against the respondent as it may deem fit.

(4) If the Commission is satisfied that there is sufficient information on the dispute, the dispute shall be determined in accordance with the processes set out in Regulations 13 to 15.

13. The plaintiff may, at any time before the Commission takes action, withdraw the dispute by notice in writing to the Commission.

Provided that the plaintiff shall forward a copy of the notice of withdrawal of the dispute to the respondent.

14. The Commission shall identify and maintain a data base of persons who are skilled in alternative dispute resolution and who are experts in energy matters from among whom the Commission may propose to the parties to select suitable persons to assist them resolve their disputes through mediation or arbitration.

15. (1) Every dispute shall be referred to a mediator, chosen by the parties from the data base maintained by the Commission, to help the parties negotiate and agree on a settlement of their dispute within thirty days from the date of such reference.

(2) Before commencement of the mediation process, the parties shall sign the mediation agreement set out in the Third Schedule.

(3) Where the dispute is resolved through mediation in accordance with sub-regulation (1), the parties shall file their settlement agreement with the Commission within five days, and the agreement shall be final and binding on both parties.

16. (1) If any dispute is not resolved through mediation in accordance with Regulation 15, the Commission shall refer it to an arbitrator or a panel of three arbitrators, chosen by the parties in consultation with the Commission:

Provided that if no party objects with reasons acceptable to the Commission, the person who acted as mediator under Regulation 15 shall not be disqualified from being chosen as the arbitrator or as a member of the panel of arbitrators.

(2) The costs of the arbitration processes shall, unless the Commission decides otherwise, be borne equally by the parties.

(3) The arbitrator or panel of arbitrators and the parties shall:-

- (a) agree on the manner, process and place of conduct of the arbitration, and

(b) use their best endeavours to conclude the arbitration within thirty days from the date of commencement of the process.

(3) The arbitrator or panel of arbitrators shall communicate the award in writing to the parties and the Commission within fifteen days from the end of the arbitration process.

(4) The award by the arbitrator or panel of arbitrators shall be binding on both parties.

17. (1) Where the arbitrator or panel of arbitrators resolves a dispute, details of the resolution of the dispute shall be recorded and forwarded to the Commission.

(2) Records of every proceedings, except those parts which for reasons specified by the Commission are confidential or privileged or otherwise not to be disclosed to any person, shall be open to inspection after conclusion of the arbitration, subject to such person complying with such terms as the Commission may prescribe from time to time, in regard to place and manner of inspection and payment of fees.

(3) The arbitrator or panel of arbitrators shall produce a summary of the determinations or awards and forward these to the Commission which shall publish the summary in the Kenya Gazette.

18. To the extent permitted by law, the Commission, the mediators or arbitrators, shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered or incurred by a party to a dispute or any other person as a consequence of any act or omission of those persons which was done in good faith.

19. (1) The Commission shall file all correspondence regarding every dispute and the decisions, settlements and awards thereof, together with the dates, in the Commission's register of disputes.

20. Any party aggrieved by:-

- (a) an award by the arbitrator or panel of arbitrators, or
- (b) a decision or an order of the Commission,

may, within thirty days of communication to him of the award, order or decision appeal to the Energy Tribunal established under 107 of the Act.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, an executed written settlement agreement shall be considered binding upon the Parties and may be enforced by any Party to the settlement agreement, and provided further that information disclosed to or known by a Party through a source other than the Mediation, or that is otherwise discoverable or admissible, shall not be rendered confidential, privileged, inadmissible, or not discoverable solely as a result of its use in the Mediation.

3 Pre-Mediation Submission

(1) The Parties agree that a submission of each Party's understanding of the facts and theory of liability and damages ("Submissions") presented to the Mediator prior to the Mediation would facilitate the Mediator's ability to conduct a more expeditious and effective Mediation.

(2) The Submission should be delivered to the Mediator and may be exchanged between the Parties not less than 14 (fourteen) days prior to the Mediation. If a Party deems a Submission to be confidential and to be read by the Mediator only, that Party must indicate as such in the Submission. The Submission may include the following (to the extent applicable):

- (a) Statement of facts, including a description of the injury and a list of special damages and expenses incurred and expected to be incurred;
- (b) Theory of liability and damages and authorities in support thereof;
- (c) Summary of opinion witnesses (including "expert witnesses") and non-opinion fact witnesses;
- (d) Status of the case, and if in suit, expected trial date;
- (e) Last demand and offer, if any;
- (f) Photographs;
- (g) Police reports;
- (h) Any other document not specifically referenced by any of the foregoing provisions that would assist the Mediator in understanding any claim and/or defence.

(3) Each Party submitting a Submission must deliver it to the Mediator and/or all other parties no later than Day, Date Month, 20XX at each of the following addresses:

Insert Name of Mediator (Mediator)
Physical Address and/or Street Name
P O Box Number and Code
Town.

Insert Name of (Counsel for, if applicable) Plaintiff
Physical Address and/or Street Name
P O Box Number and Code
Town.

Insert Name of (Counsel for, if applicable) Respondent
Physical Address and/or Street Name
P O Box Number and Code
Town,

(4) The submission is considered delivered as of the date that one of the following events occur:

- (a) If mailed, by the date of the postmark;
- (b) If delivered by a courier or a messenger, the date the item is received by the courier or messenger;
- and
- (c) The date transmitted by facsimile or email.

4 Mediation Costs

(1) ERC Fee Schedule

- (a) A deposit is required for the Mediator's estimated review, session, and follow-up time. Mediation session time, including review time, is billed at a three hour minimum. The required deposit amount is KShs 10,000/= per party and is due by Day, Date Month, 20XX. Any unused portion of the deposit will be refunded based on the three hour minimum.
- (b) ERC and the Mediator shall make their best endeavors to ensure that all mediations shall last no more than three cumulative days.
- (c) For sessions requiring multiple, consecutive days, parties must reserve and deposit fees to cover all days. Any unused days will be billed at the three hour minimum, unless the Mediator's time can be rescheduled. (Example: If a session is scheduled for two consecutive days, and it concludes on day one, parties are still responsible for the three hour minimum charge for day two, unless the Mediator's time can be rescheduled.)
- (d) Session fees are usually divided equally among all parties, unless otherwise agreed upon by the Parties. The Commission must be notified of special fee arrangements.
- (e) All deposits are due seven days prior to the session. The Commission reserves the right to cancel a session if fees are not received from all Parties five days prior to the session.
- (f) ERC requires 14-day notice of cancellation or continuance. For Mediations cancelled within 14 days of the session, the Party causing the cancellation will be billed for the fees of all the Parties involved, including the three hour per day minimum and any additional review time. If the cancellation is by agreement of all parties, the cancellation fee will be split equally among all parties, unless the Commission is instructed otherwise. The minimum fee may be waived if the Mediator's time can be rescheduled for another matter. For Mediations continued within 14 days of a session, the Party causing the continuance will be charged a flat fee of KSh. 5,000.

Administrative Fee	KSh. 1,000 per Party (Non-refundable)
Mediator's Review Time	KSh. 2,000 per hour, split equally between Parties.
Session Time	KSh. 2,000 per hour, split equally between Parties.
Mediator's Follow Up Time (if any)	KSh. 1,000 per hour, split equally between Parties.
Mediator's Travel Time (if any)	KSh. 1,000 per hour, split equally between Parties.

(2) Responsibility for Payment

- (a) Each Party and its counsel (including that counsel's firm) shall be jointly and severally responsible for the payment of that Party's allocated share of the Costs as set forth above.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 14020

(b) All expenses and disbursements made by the Commission in connection with the Mediation, including but not limited to outside room rental fee, meals, express mail and messenger charges and any other charges associated with the Mediation, will be billed equally to the Parties, at the time of the invoice.

(c) In the event that a Party and/or its counsel fails to pay the Commission in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, then that Party and/or its counsel shall be responsible for all costs, including Counsel's fees, incurred by the Commission in connection with the collection of any amount due and owing. Payment of additional costs incurred by the Commission in connection with the collection of any amount due and owing shall be made within 15 days of invoice.

5 Acknowledgment of Agreement

- (1) By signing this Agreement, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to all the provisions as set forth above.
- (2) Each Party is responsible for only his/her own signature where indicated, and will submit this signed Agreement and deposit to the Commission within 10 days of receipt of the Agreement. Counsel may sign on behalf of the Party.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains Notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this, they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the Notice is, each page being numbered and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain no alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signature must be supported by rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signatory in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to Notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—

Kenya Gazette

"D 34. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 9 a.m. on Friday of the week before publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) Ministries will be required to pay for the Kenya Gazette and to meet the cost of advertising in it.

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
