The report of the County Public Service Board of Elgeyo Marakwet submitted to the County Assembly on the execution of its functions and on the status of promotion of values and principles as stipulated in Article 10 and 232 of the constitution.

CHAPTER I—INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background

The Constitution of Kenya, 2010 divides the territory of Kenya into forty-seven counties as specified in the First Schedule, one of which is Elgeyo Marakwet County. The Constitution further vests sovereign power in the people of Kenya. This sovereign power is exercised at two levels:

- (a) National level; and
- (b) County level.

The objectives of devolution under Article 174 of the Constitution include:

1. To promote democratic governance and accountable exercise of power.
2. To foster national unity by recognizing diversity.
3. For self governance and the participation of people in decision making on matters that affect them including development.
4. To protect interests and rights of marginalized groups.
5. To promote social and Economic development and bring services closer to the people.
6. To ensure equitable sharing of resources.
7. To enhance checks and balances and separation of powers.

The Constitution has conferred on county governments various executive, legislative and oversight functions intended to achieve these objectives. In addition, the county governments have the power to manage and co-ordinate county administration and its departments so as to ensure effective and efficient public service delivery. In doing this, they are enjoined to reflect the guiding principles of devolution as set out in Article 175 of the Constitution which include:

1. That county governments shall have reliable sources of revenue to enable them to govern and deliver services effectively.
2. That the county governments shall be based on the democratic principles and separation of powers to enhance and promote democracy and accountability in the exercise of power.

3. Ensure gender representation

Whether or not the county governments fully realize the objectives of devolution much will depend on the existence in the counties of legal and institutional frameworks to effectively and efficiently deliver services to the people. Some of the frameworks have been established by the Constitution itself while others are to be created through legislative measures at the county and national levels. Among these is the institutional framework to establish and maintain in each county, in accordance with section 56 of the County Governments Act, a professional and efficient Public Service that will ensure responsive, prompt, accountable, effective and economic use of resources.

1.2 Establishment of the County Public Service Board

Article 235 of the Constitution requires every county to be responsible for the establishment of a County Public Service in accordance with uniform norms and standards prescribed by an Act of Parliament. Accordingly, section 57 of the County Governments Act establishes a County Public Service Board for every county. The board comprises a chairperson, not less than three and not more than five members and board secretary, all of whom are nominated and appointed by the Governor with the approval of the County Assembly.

County Public Service Boards (CPSB) are devolved governance units established for the purpose of establishing and managing professional, effective and efficient public service to enable the county governments achieve the objectives of devolution.

1.3 The powers and functions of a County Public Service Board

The powers and functions of a County Public Service Board are set out in section 59 of the County Governments Act and relate to public officers in the county public service. Broadly, a County Public Service Board is, responsible for—

- (a) establishing and abolishing offices in the county public service;
- (b) appointing persons to hold or act in those offices, and confirming appointments;
- (c) providing for the organization, staffing and functioning of the county public service in ways that ensure efficient, quality and productive services for the people of the county;
- (d) advising the county government on human resource development and management and utilization that best enhances service delivery by county public service institutions;
- (e) providing for human resource management and career development practices to address staff shortages and barriers to staff mobility;
- (f) facilitating the development of coherent, integrated human resource planning and budgeting for personnel emoluments in counties;
- (g) making recommendations to the Salaries and Remuneration Commission, on behalf of the county governments, on the remuneration, pensions and gratuities for county public service employees; and
- (h) exercising disciplinary control over and removing persons holding or acting in those offices;

The County Public Service Boards responsibility is also to promote, in the County Public Service, the values and principles set out in Articles 10 and 232 of the Constitution. They evaluate and report to the county assemblies on the extent to which the values and principles are complied with in the County Public Service and provide standards to promote ethical conduct and professionalism in county public service. Further, CPSBs advise county governments on implementation and monitoring of the county performance management systems and prepare regular reports for submission to the county assemblies on the execution of the functions of the boards.

2.2 Disciplinary Actions

In the year under review, two disciplinary cases were reported which culminated in issuance of warning letters. The two are still being handled at the departmental levels.

2.3 Board Internal Projects

2.3.1 Roll out of County Human Resource Information System

To improve efficiency in the recruitment process, the board rolled out the County Human Resource Information System. This marked the beginning of online recruitment, selection and management of staff in the county. The system has improved the board's efficiency by reducing turn-around time, and the amount of paper work in its operations, especially recruitment.

2.3.2 Roll out of County Document Management System

To improve efficiency in the management of records and information sharing, the board procured a document management system which is being used to manage all information from stakeholders and staff records.

2.3.3 Office Space

In the month of January, 2014, the board sourced for space from the office of the Sub-county Administrator, K. N. Currently, the office accommodates the Board, Sub-county Administration and Department of Physical Planning.

Glass partitioning of the offices has been undertaken and is yet to be completed. The board requires a total space of 4200 sq ft, and currently has 100 sq ft. Plans are in place to build an ablution block with modernized lavatory facilities for both males and females.

2.3.4 Board Strategic Plan

A Strategic Plan is a tool used by the management of institutions to achieve both short term and long term objectives. It enables an institution to bring the future closer by planning for it and clearly spelling out the risks that may hinder the achievement of its objectives.

Measures are then put in place to ensure that the risks are managed well.

The County Public Service Board, in consultation with its stakeholders (Executive, County Assembly Committee on ICT and Public Service, Unions, Professional Bodies and PSC) is in the process of formulating its Strategic Plan 2015-2019 which is expected to be launched early 2015.

During the year, the board attended five day training on Corporate Governance at the centre for Corporate Governance. The course content included but was not limited to:

1. Boards and their Functions.
2. Role of Board Chair, Members and Secretary/CEO.
3. Board Dynamics.
4. Management of Boards.
5. Company Social Responsibility.
6. Board Reporting.

2.4 Regularization of Staff on Secondment

The county inherited staff from the National Government and the three Local Authorities of Tambach /Iten, Keiyo and Marakwet. To harmonize them, the board designed a staff regularization process where positions are advertised internally and staff are encouraged to apply. The process involved the Board visiting staff in the sub-counties to sensitize them on taking up positions competitively.

This process aims at achieving three major objectives:

1. Motivating staff who wish to serve in positions other than their current posting.
2. Reducing excesses in departments by lateral movement of staff (Removing excesses and filling deficits).
3. Reducing the County Wage bill by sourcing from within.

2.5 Advisories to the Executive

The board established the HR advisory and management committees. The HR Advisory Committee comprises the County secretary as the Chair and director of HR as the secretary. All chief officers are members.

The committee will be responsible for approving promotions, discipline management and administration of schemes of service in consultation with the board as and when the need arise.

In the same meeting, the board delegated some of its functions to the chief officers as provided for by the section 86 of the County Government Act, 2012.

2.6 Training

The board recommended to heads of department to set aside 30 per cent of their administration budgets for training and induction of staff. Newly appointed staff are inducted within three months of employment to enable them discharge their duties well. Further, the board delegated the management of training of staff to chief officers. All departments send employees for training and capacity building.

2.7 Sensitizations for regularization with the support of PSC

The board conducted sensitization exercise in all the four sub-counties. The exercise was supported by the two major unions in the county and PSC, and was attended by PSC commissioner Veronica Birgen.

The emphasis of the sensitization was to encourage all employees to show interest by applying for advertised positions in the county.

2.8 Staff Motivation Initiatives

The board rolled out staff motivation initiatives such as review of terms, rolling out the process of procuring for medical cover for all employees, and working on the pensions. It has also spearheaded the process of ensuring there is promotions and trainings.

2.9 Performance Contracting

Performance contracting was rolled out starting with the County Governor and the Executive, and the same is being cascaded downwards.

2.10 Housing of Staff

Salaries and Remuneration Commission has provided for a policy on provision of mortgage for all staff. The board will work with the treasury and other entities to ensure that county staff are facilitated to take advantage of the facility which will provide housing for all county staff.

3.3 Challenges experienced in the year 2014

In the year under review the Board faced the following challenges

- (a) Conflicting mandates on human resource management areas such as responsibility for performance management, pensions, and development of organization structure left grey areas in execution of the mandates. The role of the County Assembly, the Executive Committee, the board, the offices of county secretary, CEC, HR and the line departments need to be clarified.

- (b) Preference for manual access to information and processes by stakeholders including staff reduced efficiencies of existing ICT platforms. Low ICT network coverage in the county leading to limited access to information including application of jobs. Huge training needs of county staff were exacerbated by inadequate funding. Late introduction of performance management system delayed achievement of key objectives.
- (c) Resistance to change delayed release of funds to the board. The board will open its own operational bank account and establish a procurement unit to enable requisitioning and execution of its procurement needs.
- (d) Resource Allocation. The resources allocated to the board are not sufficient to actualize the roles of the CPSB. The board will work closely with the Executive Committee and County Assembly Committee to ensure sufficiency of resource allocation.

CONCLUSION

The board is unwavering in its commitment to execution of its functions and powers as provided in both the County Government Act, 2012 and the Constitution of Kenya, 2010. It is only through this commitment that the Vision of an excellent County Public Service will become a reality.

Each contractor will be required to develop a local EHS management system specific to their activities at the project site.
Impacts associated with traffic safety	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All project related traffic (construction and operational phases) will be managed in accordance with the Tullow's Land Transport Policy and its associated documentation, and relevant sections of the Traffic Act. Safety requirements shall be complied with at all times.
Improper setup and operation of contractor's work area	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Each contractor shall minimize the size of their construction camp and provide adequate drainage around it. Tullow and its contractors shall ensure that all wastewater discharged from the project site during its lifetime, complies with the requirements of L.N. 120: Environment Management and Co-ordination (Water Quality) Regulations, 2006. All types of wastes generated by the project shall be handled in accordance with the applicable requirements of L.N. 121: Environment Management and Co-ordination (Waste Management) Regulations, 2006.

- Tullow and its contractors shall develop and implement a formal Emergency Response Plan (ERP) based on anticipated risk scenarios.

Impacts on biodiversity

- Tullow should ensure that their contractors excavate only those areas required by the project footprint. Tullow, through their contractors should provide biodiversity offsets wherever flora is cut down.
- Tullow will implement its Alien Invasive Species Plan for the project.

Impacts on health and safety

- Tullow and its contractors shall comply as a minimum with the requirements of the Occupational Safety and Health Act, 2007 (OSHA) and its applicable subsidiary legislation throughout the pre-construction, construction, operational and decommissioning phases respectively.
- Tullow and its contractors will implement their internal health and safety management systems to eliminate or reduce to As Low As Reasonably Practical (ALARP) potential health and safety risks throughout the life cycle of the project.

Social impacts associated with the project

- Tullow will implement a formal Stakeholder Engagement Plan (SEP) for the project. Tullow should develop, roll-out and implement a documented Communication Plan for continual engagement with the community.
- Tullow will develop and implement a formal Grievance Mechanism for the project with timely resolution of all grievances.
- Tullow and its contractors should give first priority for all jobs to the local community.
- Tullow and its contractors should make a conscious effort to provide vocational training by offering technical training required for various work activities to be carried out within the Kapese Integrated Support Base.

Impacts associated with Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)

- Tullow and its contractors should implement their respective CSR programs in order to get a "social license to operate". The CSR program

Impacts on cultural heritage

- should be based on thematic needs of the local community such as water, health, sanitation, education, etc.
- All workers whether from within the project area or any other part of Kenya or outside of it must always comply with the cultural heritage of the host community.
- For the construction phase, Tullow and its contractors will develop a "Chance Finds Procedure" for any potential archaeological or paleontological finds.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1660

THE ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT AND CO-ORDINATION ACT

(No. 8 of 1999)

THE NATIONAL ENVIRONMENT MANAGEMENT AUTHORITY

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT STUDY REPORT FOR THE PROPOSED CONSTRUCTION OF A 10" (TEN INCH) 122KM OIL PIPELINE FROM SINENDET (PS-26) TO KISUMU (PS-28) BY CHINA PETROLEUM PIPELINE BUREAU FOR KENYA PIPELINE COMPANY LIMITED TRAVERSING THROUGH 3 COUNTIES NAMELY; NAKURU, KERICHO AND KISUMU

INVITATION OF PUBLIC COMMENTS

PURSUANT to regulation 21 of the Environmental Management and Coordination (Impact Assessment and Audit) Regulations, 2003, the National Environment Management Authority (NEMA) has received an Environmental Impact Assessment Study Report for the above proposed project.

The Proponent (Kenya Pipeline Company Limited) is proposing to a 10" (Ten Inch) 122KM Oil Pipeline from Sinendet (PS-26) to Kisumu (PS-28) traversing through 3 Counties Namely; Nakuru, Kericho and Kisumu.

The proposed 10" (ten inch) pipeline construction covers a distance of 122km and is intended to be tied from PS-26 and flow to PS-28. The general route of the proposed pipeline shall follow that of the existing 6 inch pipeline's Right of way with a centre displacement of about 5m to the right downstream in most of the sections.

The following are the anticipated impacts and proposed mitigation measures:

Environmental and social impacts

Mitigation measures

Physiography and geology

- Maintain drainage course flows during excavations.
- Ensure trenching/excavations are only done along the proposed pipeline route and where necessary as per the project description.
- Ensure backfilling of excavations, reinstatement of disturbed ground and general restoration of site.
- Clear all waste from site.

Soils

- Maintain proper handling of solid and liquid waste throughout the project rollout.
- Avoid deep excavations in areas sensitive to erosion;
- Carry out construction works in the dry season.
- Limit the circulation or access of heavy machines to minimal areas.
- Avoid clearance or establishment of access roads along steep slopes; instead locate them perpendicular or diagonally to the slope.
- Stabilise the soils in order to reduce potential erosion after project construction phase is over.
- At the end of construction works, level off the soils and facilitate vegetation regeneration.
- Excavations along the right of way should only be undertaken where it must be otherwise the same should be kept to a minimum; In cases where the excavations are undertaken in close proximity to the existing oil pipeline then the following will be taken in considerations.
- All excavations in open cut should be the minimum necessary for the construction of the Works.

Terrestrial environment (habitats, flora, and fauna)

- Ensure that equipment are in perfect working order and cause minimal, if any, noise/air pollution nuisance to fauna.
- Adopt a proper waste management system to avoid attracting scavenging animals and environmental pollution.
- There should be very minimal vegetation removal with root-stock being maintained where vegetation will be cleared outside the Right of way and for setting up the base camp.
- Excavations and vegetation clearing should only follow the pre-surveyed routes and that only few access routes should be opened up.
- Hunting/trapping and fishing of fauna and gathering of edible plants by workers, when on and off duty, should be strictly prohibited. This prohibition should extend to the purchase of these items from the indigenous population by workers.

Surface and Groundwater Resources

- Sustainable sourcing of water for contractors site camp.
- Waste management should be done according to standards set by legislation and guidelines.

Solid and Liquid Wastes

- A waste management plan documenting the waste strategy, storage (including facilities and locations), handling procedures and means of disposal, should be developed and should include a clear waste-tracking mechanism to track waste consignments from the originating location to the final waste treatment and disposal location.
- It is recommended that segregation of solid wastes at source is appropriately carried out and consideration given to re-use, recycling, or disposal as appropriate.

Air quality

- Hygienic sanitation and disposal of grey and black water should be covered in the waste management plan in order to protect the general health of the workers and the general public.
- Ensure that solid waste is removed from site for recycling/disposal only by a NEMA-authorized waste handler.
- Fuel and other liquid storage areas should be collected and handled appropriately.
- Servicing of equipment should be carried out in a designated garage area which has regularly maintained oil drainage traps and readily available spill-kits.
- Workers be trained and equipped to prevent and/or manage fuel/oil spills.

Occupational Health and safety

- Limit traffic speed and restrict movement of vehicles as to minimize dust generation.
- Field vehicles, trucks and any other machinery should be regularly serviced, well maintained, and switched off when not in use.
- Use low sulphur fuels.
- Employees working in dusty conditions must use appropriate PPE.

- All operations will be conducted in compliance with KPC's and contractor EHS policies, international best practices and Kenya Government requirements (as set out in the Occupational Health and Safety Act and the Public Health Act).
- Job-specific personal protective equipment to be provided to the workers, training should be given, and their use made mandatory in designated areas.

- Environmental, safety and health regulations and policies/plans must be adhered to Health Policy, Energy Act, Public Health Act, Local Government Act, Physical Planning Act, NEMA Regulations.

- A standby ambulance to be provided to take care of emergencies.

- Appropriate and well-stocked first aid kits and firefighting equipment should be available to all crew, and specific crew members should be trained on first aid administration and handling of firefighting equipment.

- Adequate warning or cautionary signage will be posted as required.

- All electrical equipment shall be properly installed, grounded

- Only properly trained and authorized employees shall operate equipment or machinery.

- The EPC contractor to develop a driving policy that must be adhered to and all other project-specific driving policies and journey management plans to be strictly adhered to and enforced.

- Provision of an Emergency Response Plan, Evacuation Plan, Medevac Plan, Malaria Management Plan and a communicable diseases education programme to be put in place.

- Journey management policy and monitoring to be enforced.

Security and public safety

- No cooking on site and no fires other than at camp site; smoking will only be permitted in designated areas; no litter will be left along the ROW or neighbouring lands; and vehicle speed will not exceed 40 km/h in residential areas.
- Barrier tapes to be placed as necessary to protect employees, residents and livestock from falling into the trenches, especially where the trench cross roads/paths.

(b) Principal Secretary, Ministry of Environment and Mineral Resources, NHIF Building, Community, P.O. Box 30521, Nairobi.

(c) County Directors of Environment, Nakuru, Kericho and Kisumu Counties.

The National Environment Management Authority invites members of the public to submit oral or written comments within thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this notice to the Director-General, NEMA, to assist the Authority in the decision making process of the plan.
