Interpretation

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise indicates, an expression in the Act has a corresponding meaning, and -

“commencement” means the commencement date of these regulations;

“employment” means engagement in any occupation, whether the person concerned is self-employed or employed by another person;

“form” means the appropriate form prescribed for use by the Ministry;
“occupation” means work or any other activity for gain, and includes a profession;

“resident” means any person who is lawfully in Namibia otherwise than for the purpose of-

(a) making a temporary visit; or

(b) journeying through Namibia in direct transit from one country to another;

“returning resident” means a resident of Namibia returning to Namibia after a temporary absence from Namibia and who has not lost his or her domicile in Namibia, and includes the holder of a Namibian passport;

“section” means a section of the Act; and

PART I
ENTRY INTO NAMIBIA

Declaration by persons seeking to enter Namibia

2. (1) A person entering Namibia, including a returning resident, shall make a declaration in the form of Annexure “A” (“Arrival Form”), to be completed in the declarant’s own handwriting and signed by him or her in the presence of an immigration officer.

(2) A person entering Namibia who is suspected of being a prohibited immigrant shall make a declaration in the form of Annexure “B”, to be completed in the declarant’s own handwriting and signed by him or her in the presence of an immigration officer.

(3) If a person is unable to complete the declaration referred to in subregulation (1) or (2), an immigration officer may question such a person, if necessary through an interpreter, and may complete the declaration or cause it to be completed on behalf of such person and shall thereupon require such person to sign or thumbprint it.

(4) A visitor’s entry permit shall be imprinted in the passport of the person entering Namibia, in the form of Annexure “C”.

Order in which persons entering Namibia are to be dealt with

3. An immigration officer in the exercise of his or her functions under section 7 of the Act, may determine the sequence in which he or she will examine persons seeking to enter Namibia, and for that purpose may give directions to such persons.
Evidence by person seeking to enter Namibia

4. Any person other than -

(a) a Namibian citizen;
(b) a returning resident; or
(c) a person who is a holder of a valid permit issued in terms of the Act or any law repealed by the Act which authorises him or her to enter Namibia, shall produce to the immigration officer -

(i) evidence that he or she is on a temporary visit to Namibia for a stated period, including evidence, if the immigration officer so requires, that -

(aa) he or she is permanently resident in any country other than Namibia and intends to return thereto;

(bb) he or she possesses sufficient means available in Namibia for his or her maintenance and the maintenance of any of his or her dependants who accompany him or her for the period of the visit and to meet the cost of returning to his or her country of permanent residence; and

(cc) he or she will be re-admitted to his or her country of domicile or country of last permanent residence at the expiration of his or her visit to Namibia; and

(ii) any other relevant information which the immigration officer may require, including a report by a medical practitioner after a medical examination in accordance with section 8(1)(e), in order to satisfy the immigration officer that such person is not a prohibited immigrant in terms of section 39.

5. (1) Any person who has entered Namibia as a visitor and who for any reason desires to remain in Namibia for a period longer than the period for which his or her visitor's entry permit was granted, shall report in person to an immigration officer and shall, notwithstanding that he or she is already in Namibia, submit to any inquiry, examination or test which the immigration officer concerned may require, including -

(a) the producing of a valid travel document;
(b) the making of an application for the extension of his or her visitor's entry permit in the form of Annexure "D";
(c) the producing of documentary or other evidence relative to his or her claim to enter and remain in Namibia; and
(d) the submitting to a medical examination in accordance with section 8(1)(e).
(2) No visitor shall engage in any employment in Namibia unless he or she has been issued with an employment permit referred to in section 27(1).

Guarantees

6. (1) For the purposes of-

(a) section 11(2)(a);

(b) section 27(4)(a);

(c) section 38(3)(a);

(d) section 29(3)(a); and

(e) section 42(3)(a),

 guarantees shall be in the form of Annexure “E”.

(2) A guarantee referred to in subregulation (1) shall be furnished -

(a) by the employer of the person concerned or by such other person as may be approved by the Chief of Immigration; and

(b) for a period not exceeding two years from the date of entry into Namibia of the person in respect of whom the guarantee is given or if such person is already within Namibia, for a period of two years calculated from the date upon which the guarantee is given.

(3) The Chief of Immigration may, from the date of expiry of a guarantee referred to in subregulation (1), require a further guarantee to be lodged for a period not exceeding two years, calculated from the date of expiry of the previous guarantee.

Requirements for married persons and children

7. (1) In the case of an application by a married person or in respect of a dependent child to enter or remain in Namibia, an immigration officer may require the production of a duly authenticated marriage certificate or birth certificate, as the case may be.

(2) If no copy of a marriage or birth certificate referred to in subregulation (1) can be produced the immigration officer may -

(a) require a certificate under the hand of a person competent to furnish such a certificate stating that to his or her personal knowledge the parties were married on a date or in circumstances stated or that the child was born on a date or at a place set out and of parents named in such certificate, as the case may be; or

(b) require a certificate under the hand of a person competent to furnish such a certificate stating that he or she has taken sworn testimony or other evidence as to the circumstances and date of the marriage or the date of birth or parentage of the child, as the case may be, and that such testimony and evidence is attached to the certificate together with such person's findings thereon.

(3) An immigration officer may require any certificate mentioned in this regulation to be supplemented by satisfactory evidence as to the identity of the person or persons referred to in the certificate or as to the lawful custody of any child, and may in case of doubt require such further evidence as may be necessary to satisfy him or her that the spouse or child who is the subject of the application is the spouse or child referred to in the certificate and is not a prohibited immigrant, or is in the lawful custody of the person referred to in the application, as the case may be.

Medical Examination

8. The medical examination of any person conducted under section 8(1)(e) shall take place as soon as practicable after the arrival or discovery of such person in Namibia, and a report as to the result of such examination shall be submitted to the immigration officer concerned in such form as such immigration officer may determine.

PART II
PERMANENT RESIDENCE AND VISAS

Application for permanent residence permit

9. (1) An application for a permanent residence permit shall be in the form of Annexure “F” or “G”, whichever may be applicable.

(2) A permanent residence permit shall be issued in the form of Annexure “H”.

Cancellation of permits

10. (1) If a permit issued in terms of the Act is cancelled under the provisions of section 36, the board shall cause written notice of the cancellation to be served on the holder of the permit and shall state in such notice the provisions of the Act in terms of which it was cancelled and the date from which the cancellation shall take effect.

(2) The holder of the permit referred to in subregulation (1) shall leave Namibia on or before the date the cancellation shall take effect or such later date as the Chief of Immigration may determine and by notice in writing notify the person concerned.

Application for visa

11. An application for a visa shall be in the form of Annexure “I” and a visa shall be issued in the form of Annexure “J” or shall be entered into the passport of the applicant in the form of Annexure “K”.
Loss or destruction of documents

12. If any permit or document issued under the Act or these regulations is lost or destroyed, the Chief of Immigration or the Board, as the case may be, may upon application by the holder thereof, issue a copy of such document or permit.

PART III
PROHIBITED IMMIGRANTS AND PERMITS

Prescribed Diseases

13. For the purposes of paragraph (e) of subsection (2) of section 39, the following diseases or viruses shall be regarded as contagious -

(a) tuberculosis, or any other contagious lung disease;
(b) trachoma, or any other chronic eye infection;
(c) frambesia, yaws, scabies or any other contagious bacterial or other skin disease;
(d) syphilis, or any other venereal disease;
(e) leprosy; and
(f) acquired immune deficiency syndrome virus (aids virus).

Detention after criminal proceedings

14. If a prohibited immigrant who has arrived in Namibia or person who is being detained in accordance with the provisions of section 42 of the Act is arrested upon a criminal charge, he or she shall be handed over to the custody of an immigration officer at the conclusion of the criminal proceedings or at the expiration of any sentence of imprisonment imposed upon such person, as the case may be, and shall thereafter be detained under and subject in all respects to the provisions of the Act and these regulations.

PART IV

(a) made the regulations set out in the Schedule; and

(b) repealed Government Notice R.827 of 1963.
SCHEDULE

Interpretation

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise indicates, an expression in the Act has a corresponding meaning, and -

"conveyance" includes any vehicle, train, aircraft or ship;

"Immigration Control Act" means the Immigration Control Act, 1993 (Act 7 of 1993);

"immigration officer" means an immigration officer defined in the Immigration Control Act;

"port" means a port defined in the Immigration Control Act; and

"the Act" means the Departure from Namibia Regulation Act, 1955 (Act 34 of 1955).

Departure from Namibia

2. A person wishing to depart from Namibia, excluding a person referred to in paragraph (b) of section 2 of the Act, shall at a port present himself or herself to an immigration officer on duty at such port.

3. A person referred to in regulation 2 shall, when presenting himself or herself to an immigration officer as contemplated in that regulation -

(a) submit his or her passport or permit, as the case may be, to the immigration officer referred to in regulation 2;

(b) at the request of such immigration officer, complete and sign a departure form substantially in the form of the Annexure; and

(c) allow such immigration officer to examine his or her luggage or the conveyance in which he or she is travelling.

Powers of Immigration Officer

4. An immigration officer may -

(a) refuse to allow any person who -

(i) is not in possession of a valid passport or permit issued or endorsed for such purpose; or

(ii) refuses to comply with the provisions of regulation 3, or fails to comply therewith to the satisfaction of such immigration officer, to depart from Namibia; or

(b) seize any passport, permit or other document, if -

(i) he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that such passport, permit or document has been obtained by any fraudulent act or false representation, or is a forgery;

(ii) the passport, permit or document has been defaced or mutilated to such an extent that it, or any part thereof, is illegible;

(iii) any amendment or endorsement has been made to, or inserted in, the passport, permit or document by any person other than an official duly authorized to do so,

and may transmit such passport, permit or document to the authority which issued it or on behalf of which it was so issued.

Penalties

5. Any person who contravenes, or fails to comply with, the provisions of regulation 2 or 3 of these regulations shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to the fines prescribed by section 8(1)(c) of the Act.
