OF 2004

Notice in terms of section 52 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 29 of 2004 (POCA)

This notice is addressed to all persons who have:

An interest in the USD9 991.10 held in favour of Karl Andre Celliers in the suspense account number 900-11180005 held in the name of Banco BIC Portuguese at Bank BIC Namibia Limited, herein referred to as "the property"; and

In the event that the USD9 991.10 has been transferred from Bank BIC's suspense account to Mr Celliers' account number 31971312001 held at Bank BIC ("Mr Celliers' Bank BIC account") prior to the granting/service of this order, the positive balance in Mr Celliers' Bank BIC account will also be included in the term 'property'.

Take notice that:

- 1. The Prosecutor General has obtained a preservation of property order (the order), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 51 of POCA in respect of the property.
- 2. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You are advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it;

3. You are notified that the Prosecutor General will, within 120 days of publication of this notice in the Government Gazette, apply to the High Court under section 59 of POCA for an order declaring the properties forfeited to the State. The order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that has been made is satisfied;
4. If you intend to oppose the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend to apply for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the properties, you must enter an appearance in terms of the order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the order and are also dealt with in sections 52 (3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements;
5. Your attention is specifically drawn to the 21 calendar days' time limit prescribed in section 52 (4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 4 above;
6. If you enter an appearance in terms of the order you will be entitled to be given 14 days' notice of the application by the applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the property;
7. If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case, the court may grant a default order forfeiting the property to the State under section 64 of POCA;
8. You may, on good cause shown apply for variation or rescission of the order in terms of section 58 of POCA and or apply for legal and living expenses in terms of section 57 of POCA.
9. You are specifically advised that even if you intend to apply for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must, in addition, comply with paragraph 4 and 5 above if you intend to oppose the forfeiture application at a later date. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the properties by default and without further notice to you.
