Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(c) the chairpersons of the professional boards who are ex officio members.

(2) For purposes of appointing members of the Council under subsection (1)(a)(ii) and (iv), the Minister must in at least two daily newspapers circulating widely through Namibia invite interested persons who meet the requirements of that subsection to apply for appointment as members of the Council within a period specified in the invitation.

(3) Before assuming office, a member of the Council must subscribe to the following oath or solemn affirmation before the Minister:

“ I,, do swear or solemnly affirm that, at all times during my term of office as a member of the Health Professions Council of Namibia, I will be faithful to the Republic of Namibia and uphold its Constitution and laws, and exercise and perform my powers and functions and further the aims and objects of the Council to the best of my ability without fear, favour or prejudice. So help me God / I solemnly affirm ”.

(4) The registrar must, as soon as possible after the appointment of members of the Council in terms of subsection (1), notify in the Gazette –

- (a) the name of every person appointed as a member of the Council;
- (b) the period for which the appointment is made; and
- (c) the date from which the appointment takes effect.

Term of office

6. (1) Subject to section 7, a member of the Council, except for an ex officio member, holds office for a term of five years and is eligible for re-appointment at the expiry of that term.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Minister may extend by notice in the Gazette the term of office of any member of the Council for a period not exceeding two years at a time as he or she may determine and specify in the notice.

Disqualification for appointment as members of Council

7. A person is disqualified from appointment as a member of the Council, if the person –

- (k) is a student, a graduate or an intern; or
- (l) is the president, chairperson, deputy president or deputy chairperson of an association or society consisting, or established for the benefit, of any group of registered persons.

Vacation of office, removal and suspension of members and filling of vacancies

8. (1) A member of the Council vacates his or her office, if the member –

- (a) becomes subject to any of the disqualifications referred to in section 7;
- (b) resigns from office by giving not less than 30 days written notice to the Minister;
- (c) no longer holds the qualifications, or occupies the position, that made him or her eligible for membership of the Council at the time of his or her appointment as a member;
- (d) has been absent from three consecutive meetings of the Council without leave of the Council; or
- (e) is removed from office under subsection (2).

(2) The Minister may, after having afforded the member an opportunity to be heard, remove a member of the Council from office before the expiry of his or her term, if the Minister is satisfied that the member –

- (a) is physically or mentally unfit or unable to effectively perform his or her functions as a member of the Council;
- (b) neglects his or her functions as a member of the Council;
- (c) acts in a manner that prejudices or is in conflict with the interests of the Council or any profession;
- (d) has failed to disclose his or her financial or other interest in a matter before the Council as required by section 10(12)(a) and (13);
- (e) has contrary to section 10(12)(b), divulged confidential information; or

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(f) fails to vacate office as required by subsection (1).

(3) If a member of the Council dies or vacates office before the expiration of his or her term of office, the Minister may, within 30 days of the occurrence of the vacancy, appoint another qualified person as member for the remainder of that term in accordance with section 5.

(4) Despite any provision of this section to the contrary, the Minister, pending investigation of an alleged misconduct, may suspend a member of the Council from office for the period and subject to the conditions that the Minister determines and specifies in the notice of suspension pending investigation of any alleged misconduct.

(5) If a member of the Council is suspended under this section, the member may not during the suspension –

- (a) be regarded as a member of the Council;
- (b) attend any meeting of the Council; or
- (c) receive any benefit relating to the membership of the Council.

President and deputy president of Council

9. (1) The Minister must appoint a member from among the members of the Council appointed under section 5(1)(a)(ii) as president.

(2) At the first meeting of a new Council convened under section 10(1), the members of the Council must elect from their number a registered person as the deputy president of the Council in accordance with the prescribed procedure.

(3) Subject to subsection (6), the president or deputy president holds office as president or deputy president for the duration of the term of office as member of the Council, unless the president or deputy president –

- (a) resigns as president or deputy president after giving 30 days written notice of his or her intention to resign to the Minister or the Council, respectively;
 - (b) cease to be a member of the Council; or
 - (c) is removed from office as president or deputy president under subsection (4) or (5), respectively.
- (4) The Minister –
- (a) on the recommendation of the Council made in accordance with the prescribed requirements; or
 - (b) on his or her own initiative based on any valid reason, may, after having afforded the president an opportunity to be heard, remove the president from office and replace him or her with another member.

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(5) The Council on any valid reason may, after having afforded the deputy president an opportunity to be heard, remove the deputy president from office and replace him or her with another member by election in accordance with the procedure contemplated in subsection (2).

(6) If the president or deputy president –

- (a) resigns as the president or deputy president under subsection (3)(a);
- (b) is removed from office under subsection (4) or (5), respectively, the president or deputy president retains his or her membership in the Council.

(7) If for any reason the president is absent or unable to act as president, the deputy president must perform the functions and exercise the powers of the president.

(8) If both the president and the deputy president are for any reason absent or unable to perform their functions or exercise their powers, the president or deputy president must in writing designate a member of the executive committee of the Council to act as president during that period of inability to act.

(9) If the president or the deputy president is unable or fails to designate a member of the executive committee of the Council under subsection (8) to act as president, the registrar may designate in writing a member of the executive committee of the Council to act as president during the period of inability.

(10) If the president, the deputy president and the person designated under subsection (8) or (9) are absent from a meeting of the Council, the members present at that meeting must elect a member from their number to preside at that meeting.

(11) The person –

- (a) designated under subsection (8) or (9) to act as president may, in general or at any meeting, exercise or perform the powers or functions of the president; or
- (b) elected under subsection (10) to preside at a meeting of the Council may, at the meeting, exercise the powers or perform the functions of the president.

(12) If the office of president or deputy president becomes vacant –

- (a) the Minister must appoint another member as president; or
- (b) members of the Council must at the first meeting after the vacancy occurred, elect from their number a deputy president.

(13) The president or deputy president appointed or elected under subsection (12) holds office for the remainder of the term of office of his or her predecessor.

(14) Subject to subsection (15), a person may not hold the office of president or deputy president for more than two consecutive terms of office.

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(15) A term of office referred to in subsection (14) does not include the remainder of a term of office referred to in subsection (13).

Meetings and decisions of Council

10. (1) The registrar after having consulted with the Minister, or if the registrar is not available for any reason, the deputy registrar authorised in writing by the registrar for that purpose must convene the first meeting of a new Council constituted in terms of section 5.

(2) For purposes of the meeting referred to in subsection (1), the registrar or the deputy registrar under that subsection must –

- (a) determine the date, time, venue and the agenda to be discussed at the meeting;
- (b) notify the members of the Council of the date, time and venue of meeting in the manner that he or she considers appropriate;
- (c) furnish every member of the Council with a copy of the agenda, at least 14 days, before the commencement of the meeting; and
- (d) preside at the meeting.

(3) Subsequent to the first meeting contemplated in subsection (1), the president must –

- (a) determine the date, time, venue and the agenda for meetings of the Council;
- (b) convene all meetings of the Council; and
- (c) determine in writing, unless prescribed, the procedure to be followed at all meetings of the Council.

(4) The president must convene a special meeting of the Council after receipt of a written request by –

- (a) the Minister;
- (b) not less than four members of the Council; or
- (c) not less than one-third of the persons registered for any of the professions.

(5) A request made under subsection (4) must clearly state the purpose for which the meeting is to be convened.

(6) The Council must hold not less than three ordinary meetings during each year.

(7) The majority of all the members of the Council present at a meeting of the Council form a quorum at every meeting but at least three chairpersons of professional boards must be present at the meeting, and a decision taken in respect of a professional board is not valid unless the chairperson of that professional board is present at that meeting.

(8) Subject to subsection (7), a decision made by the majority of the members of the Council present and voting at a meeting of the Council constitutes a decision of the Council.

(9) A person presiding at a meeting of the Council –

(a) has a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote, in the event of an equality of votes; and

(b) must cause minutes of the proceedings of the meeting to be kept.

(10) Despite other provisions of this section, the Council may discuss a matter of urgent nature which cannot be kept pending until the next meeting of the Council by circulating, in a manner determined by the Council, the matter together with a proposed resolution, if any, among all members and –

(a) any resolution so circulated and approved by the majority of the members of the Council is as effective and binding as if the resolution had been passed at a meeting of the Council;

(b) a member of the Council who has interest as contemplated in subsection (12) –

(i) must, as soon as possible but before the approval of the matter and the resolution, if any, is made, disclose the nature of the interest, in writing, to other members of the Council, and the disclosure must be made in the manner determined by the Council; and

(ii) may not partake in the approval of the matter and the resolution, if any, unless the Council directs otherwise as contemplated in subsection (15); and

(c) the matter so discussed and the resolution so circulated and approved is reported and recorded in the minutes of the next meeting of the Council.

(11) A decision by the Council or an act performed on the authority of the Council is not invalid only by reason of –

(a) a vacancy in the membership of the Council; or

(b) the fact that a person who is not entitled to attend a meeting of the Council was in attendance when the decision was taken or the act was authorised, if the decision or act was taken or authorised by the required majority of the members of the Council present and entitled to sit and vote as members of the Council.

(12) A member of the Council –

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (a) who has a direct or indirect financial or other interest in a matter which the Council must consider or take a decision on, must disclose the nature of the interest –
- (i) to the Council, if the member is present at a meeting of the Council at which the matter is to be considered as soon as possible before the matter is considered; or
 - (ii) to the president before the meeting commences, if the member is aware that the matter is to be considered at the meeting of the Council or if the member is not going to be present at the meeting; and
- (b) must preserve confidentiality in relation to all matters that have come to his or her knowledge as a result of being a member, except in so far as the making known of that matter is required by, or may be made under, this Act or any other law or is required by an order of a court.

(13) If the member referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (12) is the president, for the purposes of subparagraph (ii) of that paragraph, he or she must disclose the nature of the interest to the deputy president or to a member of the executive committee of the Council.

(14) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (10)(b), (12) or (13) commits an offence and is liable to the penalties specified in section 57(a).

(15) A member referred to in subsection (12)(a) or (13) who has disclosed his or her interest in a matter under that subsection may not partake in the meeting or deliberations or decision-making process in relation to the matter, unless the Council directs otherwise after having considered the matter and found the conflict of interest to be of trivial nature or consequences.

(16) For the purposes of this section, the interests of a member of the Council includes an interest of his or her spouse, child, parent, sibling, business partner or associate or any organisation, business or association that he or she is a member, a director, a shareholder or has any interest in.

(17) The Council may allow a member to partake in a meeting without being present at that meeting by employing or using technology that allows a member to follow and partake in discussions and vote on a matter before the meeting.

(18) Subject to the prescribed conditions, a member referred to in subsection (17) is regarded as being present at the meeting in which he or she partakes in accordance with that subsection.

- (19) The Minister may prescribe –
- (a) the procedure that is followed at meetings of the Council in addition to the procedures specified in this section; and
 - (b) the technology and the manner in which the technology referred to in subsection (17) may be used.

- (b) evidence of compliance with the courses of education, training and examinations or assessment methodologies approved by the Council before a qualification is granted;
- (c) results of the examinations conducted by the educational institution and any other particulars relating to the education offered by the educational institution;
- (d) evidence of compliance with the admission requirements of students for admission to the course or field of study;
- (e) evidence of the education and examination provided to the student before a qualification may be granted to that student; and
- (f) additional particulars relating to a qualification that may be obtained at the educational institution, including the transcript or curriculum pertaining to the qualification for purpose of this Act.

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(2) If an educational institution referred to in subsection (1) fails to furnish the particulars required by the Council under that subsection or if it appears to the Council that –

- (a) a provision of this Act; or
- (b) a condition prescribed or determined under this Act, pertaining to the educational institution or education is not complied with, and the improper compliance may adversely affect the standard of the education that is maintained at the educational institution, the Council may, after having afforded the educational institution or the holder of the certificate an opportunity to be heard, by notice in the Gazette –

- (i) determine that the qualification specified in the notice and granted by the educational institution after a date specified does not entitle a holder of the qualification to registration under this Act; or
- (ii) withdraw a certificate of approval or certificate of provisional approval issued under section 27(4) or 28(4) if it is satisfied that the holder has failed to furnish the particulars, fails to comply with the provision of this Act or a condition prescribed or determined under this Act or the conditions or requirements applicable to the certificate of approval or provisional approval.

(3) The registrar must, by notice in writing, inform –

- (a) the educational institution of the determination made under subsection (2); or
- (b) the holder of the certificate of approval or certificate of provisional approval of the withdrawal of the certificate made under subsection (2).

(4) The holder of a certificate of approval or certificate of provisional approval must return the certificate to the Council within 10 days after receipt of the notice under subsection (3).

(5) The registrar must cancel the certificate of approval or certificate of provisional approval and enter the cancellation particulars into the register.

(6) An educational institution may not employ a registered person as a clinical lecturer, clinical instructor, clinical tutor or other similar position or permit the registered person to deliver or present any lecture on subjects of clinical matters at the educational institution, unless that person is licensed in terms of this Act.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (1) and to ensure compliance with this section, the Council may in writing appoint a person, subject to section 53 –

- (a) to assess, investigate and inspect whether an educational institution is complying with this section, prescribed conditions and requirements; and
- (b) to report to the Council on the finding of the assessment, investigation and inspection conducted under paragraph (a) within the period and in a manner determined by the Council and specified in the letter of appointment.

Act No. 16, 2024

HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (8) The Minister may prescribe –
- (a) the qualifications and other requirements relating to the person designated as the head of the program of education offered or provided by an educational institution, including the requirement relating to his or her registration with the Council;
 - (b) the requirements relating to the program of education provided by an educational institution and the approval requirements, criteria and standards that the program of education must meet;
 - (c) the agreement that a training institution must enter into with any person providing a healthcare service at a hospital or health facility, the requirements that the hospital or health facility must comply with and the training opportunities the person must provide;
 - (d) the infrastructure and resources applicable to an educational institution;
 - (e) the requirements for application that must be submitted to the Council for the extension of the approval granted, including additional education program, relocation of the educational institution, increase in student numbers or the extension of the scope of the approval, and any other matter or issue relating to the approval;
 - (f) the review by the Council of an approval granted to an educational institution and the procedures relating to the review of such approval;
 - (g) the assessments and inspections that are conducted relating to an approved educational institution or an application for approval of the educational institution;
 - (h) the granting of provisional approval of an educational institution under this Act and the conditions applicable to the granting of the provisional approval;
 - (i) the renewal and withdrawal of a certificate of approval granted and issued under this section;
 - (j) the investigation by the Council of complaints lodged against an educational institution or education and the procedures relating to the investigation against the educational institution or education; or
 - (k) any other matters relating to the approval of an educational institution or education that the Minister considers necessary and expedient to prescribe in order to achieve the objects of this section.

(9) The Council may determine, by notice in the Gazette, whether any other qualification, other than a qualification referred to in subsection (2) and granted by the educational institution referred to in that subsection subsequent to the date specified by that notice, entitles the holder of the qualification to registration under this Act.

Act No. 16, 2024

HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

PART 8

REGISTRATION AND LICENCE TO PRACTISE, MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS
OF STUDY AND REGISTRATIONRegistration and licence to practise

30. (1) In so far as this Part provides for a limitation on the fundamental rights of a person contemplated in Article 10(2) of the Namibian Constitution, in that the provisions authorise that a distinction may be made between persons who are Namibian citizens and persons who are not Namibian citizens, that limitation is enacted on the authority of Article 22 of the Namibian Constitution.

(2) In subsection (3), “profession” includes a sub-speciality, speciality, additional qualification, subject and course relating to the profession prescribed under section 38(1).

(3) Unless otherwise provided in this Act, a person may not practise a profession unless the person is registered and licensed in terms of this Act.

(4) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable to the penalties specified in section 57(b).

(5) This section does not apply to a person registered as a student, a graduate or an intern under this Act.

Minimum requirements of study for registration

31. (1) Subject to subsection (5), the Minister, in respect of every profession, may prescribe –

- (a) the minimum qualification that a person must hold, singly or conjointly with any other prescribed qualification provided by an educational institution, including qualifications obtained by virtue of education provided, or examinations conducted, by other examining authorities; and
- (b) the conditions and requirements, in addition to the qualifications referred to in paragraph (a), that a person must comply with, before, during or after obtaining a prescribed qualification, for the purpose of registration under this Act to practise a profession.

(2) When the Minister under subsection (1) prescribes a qualification that a person must hold to qualify for registration under this Act, the Minister may prescribe –

- (a) the main domains, subjects or courses, both theoretical and practical, that must be included in the curriculum of the qualification; and
- (b) the period of the education pertaining to the qualification.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the Minister, for the purposes of subsection (1), by notice in the Gazette, may recognise as a minimum qualification for the registration of a person under this Act, a qualification obtained at an educational institution or other examining authority in a country other than Namibia.

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(4) The Minister may not under subsection (3) recognise a qualification obtained at an educational institution or other examining authority situated in a country other than Namibia as a minimum qualification for the registration of a person under this Act, unless –

- (a) the registration authority responsible for the registration of a person to practise the corresponding profession in that country recognises the qualification as a minimum qualification for registration to practise the profession in that country; and
- (b) the Council is satisfied that the qualification is of a standard of professional education not lower than any of the other qualifications prescribed under subsection (1) in respect of the profession.

(5) When the Minister prescribes the minimum qualifications and requirements for registration under this section, the Minister may prescribe –

- (a) different qualifications, conditions and requirements in respect of different professions; and
- (b) different conditions and restrictions applicable to a profession subject to which a person may practise in respect of persons who are Namibian citizens and who are not Namibian citizens.

Recognition of other examining authorities

32. The Minister may –

- (a) by notice in the Gazette, recognise an examining authority whether in Namibia or outside Namibia for the purposes of examining students, graduates, interns or any other person; and
- (b) prescribe the requirements that an examining authority recognised under paragraph (a) must comply with in order to examine the students, graduates, interns or any other person under that paragraph.

Application for registration

33. (1) A person who intends to be registered to practise a profession must submit to the registrar an application for registration in the prescribed form and manner.

(2) An application referred to in subsection (1) must be accompanied by –

- (a) a certified copy of the qualification referred to in section 31;
- (b) written proof to the satisfaction of the registrar that the applicant has satisfactorily completed –
 - (i) the prescribed internship, if any, applicable to him or her; and
 - (ii) that he or she has met the prescribed requirements in respect of the internship or practical training;

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(c) if the applicant at the time of the application is registered in a country other than Namibia, or was registered in such country, to practise –

(i) a profession in respect of which registration is applied for; or

(ii) any other profession to which this Act applies,

a letter of good standing from the registration authority of each country in which the applicant is registered or was registered, during the period of five years immediately preceding the date of the application, which letter is issued not more than 120 days before the date of the submission of the application;

(d) the prescribed documents and information;

(e) the additional documents and information that the registrar may require; and

(f) proof of payment of the application fees.

(3) Despite subsection (2)(a), the registrar may require the applicant to submit to the registrar an original transcript issued by the educational institution or other examining authority at which he or she obtained the qualification referred to in that subsection specifying particulars of the education received and completed by the applicant.

(4) The Minister may prescribe the requirements and the procedures relating to an application for registration under this section in addition to the requirements and procedures specified by this section.

(5) Unless otherwise provided for in this Act, this section does not apply to –

(a) the registration of a –

(i) person as a student, a graduate or intern;

(ii) sub-speciality, speciality or additional qualification; or

(b) the listing of any course or subject.

Registration

34. (1) If an application for registration complies with section 33, the registrar must refer the application, together with –

(a) the documents and additional information submitted to him or her; and

(b) his or her recommendations or comments relating to the application, to the Council for consideration.

(2) The Council may require an applicant to pass to the satisfaction of the Council a prescribed evaluation, whether in Namibia or outside Namibia, to determine whether the applicant –

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (a) possesses adequate professional knowledge, skills and competence in the profession for which registration is applied for; and
- (b) is proficient in the official language of Namibia.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Council must –
 - (a) determine the main domains that must be included in the evaluation;
 - (b) determine the nature and requirements for the evaluation; and
 - (c) appoint the person who must conduct the evaluation.
- (4) The Council may, under subsection (3), determine different evaluations in respect of the different professions.
- (5) Before an applicant sits for the evaluation, the applicant must pay to the Council the evaluation fees.
- (6) The Council after having considered –
 - (a) the application for registration referred to the Council under subsection (1);
 - (b) the documents and other information specified or referred to in section 33; and
 - (c) the results of the evaluation contemplated in subsection (2), if applicable,may grant the application if it is satisfied that the applicant –
 - (i) complies with the minimum requirements of study for registration;
 - (ii) has passed to the satisfaction of the Council an evaluation under subsection (2), if applicable;
 - (iii) has paid to the Council the application fees; and
 - (iv) has paid to the Council the evaluation fees, if applicable.
- (7) The Council may refuse the application for registration if the Council is satisfied that the applicant has not complied with all the requirements of this section.
- (8) If the Council refuses the application, the registrar must, as soon as practicable, inform the applicant in writing, of the refusal and the grounds for the refusal.
- (9) If the Council grants the application, the registrar must –
 - (a) issue the applicant with a certificate of registration in the prescribed form; and
 - (b) enter the name and other particulars of the applicant into the register.

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(10) A certificate of registration issued under subsection (9) must specify –

- (a) the profession in which the applicant is registered; and
- (b) the particulars of Public Service, if any, applicable to the applicant.

(11) For the purposes of performing public service in the category: Public Service, the Council may approve an application for a licence in terms of section 43 concurrently with an application for registration under this section.

Conditional registration

35. (1) If an applicant applies for registration under section 33 but such applicant –

- (a) is not a holder of a qualification prescribed under section 31 but is a holder of a qualification that the Council is satisfied that the qualification is of a standard of professional education not lower than a qualification so prescribed;
- (b) has passed the prescribed evaluation contemplated in section 34(2); and
- (c) has complied with other provisions of this Act applicable to the registration of such applicant, the Council may register the applicant conditionally.

(2) Before the Council registers an applicant conditionally under subsection (1), the Council may require the applicant to undergo, to its satisfaction, an evaluation to determine whether the applicant –

- (a) possesses adequate professional knowledge, skills and competence to practise his or her profession; and
 - (b) is proficient in the official language of Namibia.
- (3) For the purpose of an evaluation under subsection (2), the Council must –
- (a) determine the nature and requirements for the evaluation;
 - (b) determine the main domains that must be included in the evaluation; and
 - (c) appoint the person who must conduct the evaluation.

(4) Before an applicant sits for the evaluation, the applicant must pay the evaluation fees to the Council.

(5) If an applicant fails to pass the evaluation conducted by the Council contemplated by subsection (2), the Council may not register the applicant conditionally.

(6) If the Council decides to register a person conditionally under subsection (1), the Council must determine –

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (a) the conditions and restrictions subject to which the person must practise his or her profession;
 - (b) the period that the conditions and restrictions determined under paragraph (a) applies to the person;
 - (c) the education or training that the person must complete during the period determined under paragraph (b);
 - (d) the additional examinations the person must pass; and
 - (e) the other conditions that the person must comply with.
- (7) If the person is registered conditionally, the registrar must issue to the person a certificate of conditional registration in the prescribed form that specifies –
- (a) the condition, restrictions, period, particulars of education and additional examination that the person must pass; and
 - (b) other conditions that the person must comply with determined under subsection (6).
- (8) Despite any provision of this Act to the contrary, the Council may determine that the applicant, in addition to a condition determined under subsection (6) (a), must complete the internship prescribed under this Act in respect of such profession.
- (9) A person registered conditionally under subsection (1) may practise a profession in respect of which he or she is so conditionally registered, subject to the conditions and restrictions and for the period of time as specified in the certificate of conditional registration.
- (10) The Council, after having afforded the holder of the certificate an opportunity to be heard, may cancel a certificate of conditional registration and remove the name of the person from the register, if the Council is satisfied that the person has failed to comply with the conditions and requirements of the certificate of conditional registration.
- (11) A person who is a holder of a certificate of conditional registration and who performs an act in contravention of a condition or requirement of the certificate of conditional registration commits an offence and is liable to the penalties specified by section 57(b).
- (12) The conditional registration of a person under this section is valid until –
- (a) the expiry date specified on the certificate of conditional registration; or
 - (b) the date of the cancellation of the certificate of conditional registration under subsection (10).
- (13) Despite subsection (12)(a), the Council may –
- (a) on its own initiative and after having afforded a person registered conditionally under this section the opportunity to be heard; or

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (b) on an application made, in the form and manner determined by the Council, by a person registered conditionally, and on good cause shown, extend the period of the conditional registration of the person for the period of time, and subject to the conditions, that the Council may determine.

(14) The Minister may prescribe further requirements and procedures relating to the conditional registration of a person in addition to the requirements and procedures specified by this section.

Registration of persons registered conditionally

36. (1) A person registered conditionally under section 35 and who has complied with the conditions subject to which he or she is conditionally registered may, not less than 30 days before the expiry of –

- (a) the certificate of conditional registration issued to him or her under subsection (7) of that section; or
- (b) an extension of the period as contemplated in subsection (13) of that section, apply to the registrar to be registered under section 34.

(2) A person registered conditionally under section 35 is regarded as an unregistered person from the date of the expiry of the conditional registration, unless such person is registered under section 34.

(3) The Minister may prescribe further requirements and the procedures relating to the registration of a person in addition to the requirements specified by this section.

Authorisation to practise professions in employment of State and temporary registration

37. (1) In this section –

- (a) “service provider” means a hospital or health facility providing healthcare service; and
- (b) “training institution” means a university, college, technical college, technikon, training facility or other similar or related institutions in Namibia where education relating to a profession is provided.

(2) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act or any other law but subject to this Act, the Minister may grant written authorisation to practise a profession in the employment of the State to a person who complies with the conditions and requirements prescribed in terms of this section and who –

- (a) is registered in any other country or State, but who is not registered in Namibia;
- (b) is entitled in terms of the laws of any other country or State to practise the profession concerned in such country or State; or

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (c) if the person is not entitled to practise the profession concerned, has –
 - (i) obtained at an educational institution situated outside Namibia a qualification; or
 - (ii) received education, tuition or training,

in or relating to such profession which in the opinion of the Minister indicates a satisfactory standard of professional education which enables the person to practise such profession.

(3) The person referred to in subsection (2) must make an application to the Minister in the prescribed form and manner for the granting of written authorisation to practise a profession in the employment of the State.

(4) An application referred to in subsection (3) must be accompanied by –

- (a) a certified copy of the national identity card of the person;
- (b) a certified copy of the qualification upon which the person relies to be granted the written authorisation;
- (c) written proof that the person is entitled in terms of the laws of any other country or State to practise the profession concerned, or if the person is not entitled to practise the profession concerned in such country or State –
 - (i) certified copy of the qualification obtained at an educational institution situated outside Namibia; or
 - (ii) written proof that the person has received education, tuition or training,

in or relating to such profession which in the opinion of the Minister indicates a satisfactory standard of professional education which enables the person to practise such profession;

- (d) a certificate of good standing, in respect of a person who is entitled in terms of the laws of any other country or State to practise a profession in a country or State, issued by the registering authority in respect of each country in which the person has practised the profession during the period of five years immediately preceding the date of such application to the satisfaction of the Minister.

(5) The Minister, after consultation with the Council, may grant to the person referred to in subsection (2) written authorisation to practise a profession in the employment of the State if the person complies with the applicable conditions and requirements of this section, and the Minister may impose restrictions and conditions to the written authorisation.

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(6) A person to whom written authorisation has been granted in terms of subsection (5) must only practise the profession in respect of which he or she has been so authorised and for the period of time allowed –

- (a) at a hospital, clinic or similar institution controlled, managed or subsidised by the State; and
- (b) subject to such restrictions and conditions in respect of his or her professional activities, including that he or she may only practise his or her profession subject to such supervision, as the Minister may determine and specify in the written authorisation.

(7) The Minister must submit to the Council, as soon as practicable, a copy of the written authorisation granted in terms of subsection (5).

(8) The Minister may amend or revoke, at any time, any written authorisation granted under subsection (5), including the extension of the period of time for which such authorisation has been granted or condition or restriction imposed on the written authorisation.

(9) Despite any provision of this Act to the contrary in this Act or any other law but subject to this section, the Council may temporarily register a person not permanently resident in Namibia at the written request of –

- (a) the Minister to enable the person to practise a profession in the public service;
- (b) a service provider to enable the person to practise a profession in the employment of the service provider; or
- (c) a training institution to enable the person to provide teaching, training, educational demonstrations or to promote education in respect of a profession.

(10) A person who has requested for temporary registration must submit to the registrar an application for temporary registration in the prescribed form and manner.

(11) An application referred to in subsection (10) must be accompanied by –

- (a) written proof, to the satisfaction of the Council, that the person is registered to practise a profession in the country in which he or she is permanently resident or obtained the educational qualification which entitles him or her to practise the profession;
- (b) a certificate of good standing from the registration authority of each country in which the applicant is registered or was registered during the period of five years immediately preceding the date of the application, which certificate is issued not more than 120 days before the date of the submission of the application;

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (c) the original written request referred to in subsection (10);
- (d) the prescribed documents and information; and
- (e) proof of payment of the application fees.

(12) The Council, after having considered the application for temporary registration and the documents and other information referred to in subsection (11), may grant or refuse the application.

(13) If the application for temporary registration is granted, the registrar must –

- (a) register the applicant and issue the applicant with a certificate of temporary registration in the prescribed form; and
- (b) enter the name of the applicant into the register.

(14) A person may be registered under subsection (13) for the period and subject to the restrictions and conditions that the Council determines and specifies in the certificate of temporary registration.

(15) The registrar may not register a person under subsection (13) to temporarily practise a profession in Namibia, unless the person is registered to practise the profession in the country in which he or she –

- (a) is permanently resident; or
- (b) obtained the educational qualification which entitles him or her to registration to practise the profession under this Act.

(16) Before granting written authorisation or temporary register a person under this section, the Minister or Council may require the person to sit for an examination or evaluation by an examiner or evaluator appointed by the Minister or Council, in writing, for the purposes of ascertaining whether the person –

- (a) possesses sufficient professional competence, knowledge and skills pertaining to the profession to which such application relates; and
- (b) is proficient in the official language of Namibia.

(17) If the application for written authorisation or temporary registration is refused, the Minister or registrar must, in writing, inform the person of the refusal and the grounds for the refusal.

(18) This section does not apply to a person registered under section 34.

(19) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, determine –

- (a) the circumstances and conditions under which a written authorisation may be granted or person may be temporary registered to practise a profession under this section;

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (b) the conditions and requirements that a person must comply with in order to qualify for –
 - (i) written authorisation to practise in the employment of the State; or
 - (ii) temporary registration,
under this section in order to practise a profession;
- (c) the service providers and similar institutions where a person temporary registered under this section may practise a profession; or
- (d) the procedures and the requirements for an application for temporary registration under this section.

(20) Part 16 applies with the necessary changes to a person authorised or temporarily registered in terms of this section to practise a profession to which this Act applies as if that person was registered in terms of section 34.

(21) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of this section or any restriction or condition imposed on the written authorisation or temporary registration commits an offence and is liable to the penalties specified in section 57(b).

Sub-specialities, specialities, additional qualifications and listing of subjects and courses

- 38. (1) The Minister may prescribe the –
- (a) sub-specialities, specialities and additional qualifications that may be registered and the professions and categories of registration in respect of which the sub-specialities, specialities and additional qualifications may be registered;
 - (b) subjects and courses that may be listed against the name of a registered person in the register and the professions and categories of registration in respect of which the subjects and courses may be listed; or
 - (c) requirements and procedures for registering a sub-speciality, speciality or additional qualification and for listing of a subject or course.

(2) The Minister may not under subsection (1) prescribe a sub-speciality, speciality, additional qualification, subject or course obtained at an educational institution or examining authority situated in a country other than Namibia, unless –

- (a) the registration authority responsible for the registration of a person to practise a profession referred to in that subsection in the country where that educational institution or examining authority is situated recognises that sub-speciality, speciality, additional qualification, subject or course for registration or listing in that country; and

- (b) the Council is satisfied that the sub-speciality, speciality, additional qualification, subject or course is of a standard of professional education not lower than any of the other sub-specialities, specialities, additional qualifications, subjects or courses prescribed under that subsection in respect of that profession.
- (3) A person registered to practise a profession prescribed under subsection (1) and who, in addition to the qualification in respect of which the person is registered, wishes to have –
- (a) a sub-speciality, speciality or additional qualification prescribed under that subsection registered in his or her name; or
- (b) a subject or course listed in his or her name,
- must apply to the Council in the prescribed form.
- (4) An application in terms of subsection (3) must be submitted to the registrar and must be accompanied by –
- (a) documentary proof, to the satisfaction of the Council, that the applicant is entitled to the registration or listing and holds the specified qualification;
- (b) the prescribed documents and information;
- (c) the additional documents or information that the Council may require; and
- (d) proof of payment of the application fees.
- (5) Despite any provision of this section to the contrary, the Council may require the applicant to pass, to the satisfaction of the Council, a prescribed evaluation in order to determine whether the applicant possesses sufficient professional knowledge, skills and competence to practise the speciality, additional qualification, subject or course for which registration or listing is applied for.
- (6) The Council may grant the application for registration if it is satisfied that –
- (a) the sub-speciality, speciality, additional qualification, subject or course for which registration and listing is applied meet the requirements of the sub-speciality, speciality, additional qualification, subject or course prescribed under subsection (1);
- (b) subsection (4) and the prescribed requirements relating to the registration, listing or recognition of the speciality, additional qualification, subject or course have been complied with; and
- (c) the applicant has passed the evaluation under subsection (5) if the Council required the applicant to pass the evaluation.
- (7) The Council must refuse the application if it is satisfied that subsection (6) is not complied with by the applicant.

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(8) The Council must inform an applicant in writing of its decision under subsection (6) or (7), and if the application is refused inform the applicant of the reasons for the refusal.

- (9) If the application is granted under subsection (6), the registrar must –
- (a) register the sub-speciality, speciality, additional qualification or list the subject or course against the name of the applicant in the register;
 - (b) issue to the applicant a certificate of registration or listing in the prescribed form; and
 - (c) enter the speciality, additional qualification, subject or course against the name of the applicant in the register.

(10) For the purposes of an evaluation specified under subsection (5), the Council may identify and appoint in writing a person, institution or organisation, whether in or outside Namibia, to conduct the evaluation.

(11) Before sitting for an evaluation under subsection (5), an applicant referred to in that subsection must pay to the Council the evaluation fees.

- (12) The Minister may prescribe the –
- (a) requirements that are to be complied with, including –
 - (i) the practical training and experience, the nature and the duration of the training that are to be completed;
 - (ii) the qualifications that are to be held by a person registered in any profession before the registered person may be registered as a sub-specialist or specialist; and
 - (iii) the categories of specialities that may be so registered in addition to the requirements specified by this section;
 - (b) evaluation referred to in subsection (5), and the person, institution or organisation, whether in or outside Namibia, who or which must conduct the evaluation;
 - (c) circumstances in which an applicant for registration as a sub-specialist or specialist may be exempted from any of the requirements of paragraph (a) and the procedures relating to the application and granting of exemption; and
 - (d) conditions subject to which a sub-specialist or specialist may practise his or her profession and the practising of additional qualifications, including the scope of practise of sub-speciality and speciality.
- (13) A person who –
- (a) holds himself or herself out to be a sub-specialist, specialist or a holder of an additional qualification, subject or course while the person is not registered as a sub-specialist or specialist or does not hold the additional qualification or the subject or course is not listed in his or her name;

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (b) practises a sub-speciality, speciality, additional qualification, subject or course while the person is not registered as a sub-speciality, speciality or does not hold additional qualification or the subject or course is not listed in his or her name; or
- (c) assumes, uses or publishes in a way a name, title, description or symbol indicating or calculated to lead a person to infer or believe, that the person is a holder of, or is qualified to practise, a sub-speciality, speciality or holds the additional qualification or subject or course is listed in his or her name, commits an offence and is liable to the penalties specified in section 57(b).

(14) A registered person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this section, whether he or she is found guilty or not of an offence specified by subsection (13), commits unprofessional conduct.

PART 9PROFESSIONS AND CATEGORIES OF REGISTRATION*Professions and categories of registration

39. (1) For the purposes of this Part –

“employment” includes full time employment, temporary employment and employment as an independent contractor;

“category: independent practise” means a category of registration that entitles a licensed person to freely practise either in the Public Service or outside the Public Service;

- (b) a mobile health facility found on the premises and which is the property or used by the educational institution, registered person, State hospital, private hospital or health facility; and “search warrant” means a search warrant issued under Chapter 2 of the Criminal Procedure Act.

(2) For the purposes of compliance with this Act, the registrar, on the instructions of the Council and subject to the terms and conditions that the Council may determine, may appoint a registered person as inspector to –

- (a) inspect a matter relating to an education received by a person for the purpose of qualifying the person to practise a profession, speciality or sub-speciality and the premises where the person is receiving the education; or
- (b) inspect the practice of a registered person, including the manner in which the practice is being conducted.

(3) The registrar must issue to the inspector a letter of appointment in the form that the registrar determines, and the letter must specify –

- (a) full names and identity number of the inspector;
- (b) the purpose of his or her appointment; and
- (c) the period for which he or she is appointed.

(4) The inspector, at the request of a person at or in the practice that is to be inspected and before conducting an inspection under this section, must produce –

- (a) his or her letter of appointment issued under subsection (3); and
- (b) his or her identity document.

(5) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), an inspector may, for the purposes of conducting an inspection under this section, enter a practice without a search warrant.

(6) In exercising the powers conferred by subsection (2), an inspector may not enter and search a private home of a person unless –

Act No. 16, 2024

HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (a) such entry and search have been authorised by a search warrant issued in accordance with section 21 of the Criminal Procedure Act; or
- (b) the circumstances in which an article may be seized without a search warrant in terms of section 22 of the Criminal Procedure Act are met.
- (7) The search of the practice or private home of a person under this section must, where applicable, comply with Chapter 2 of the Criminal Procedure Act.
- (8) An entry and inspection under this section is conducted between sunrise and sunset, unless the entry and inspection between sunset and sunrise is essential, justifiable and urgent.
- (9) During an inspection under this section, an inspector may require a person –
- (a) found on the premises to –
- (i) produce a book, record, document or thing which relates to the matter under inspection or which on reasonable grounds is believed to relate to his or her practice and which is or was on the premises or in the possession or custody or control of the person or his or her employer, employee or agent; and
- (ii) give an explanation to the inspector in respect of the contents of a book, record, document or thing referred to in subparagraph (i); or
- (b) who has or is suspected on reasonable grounds to have, in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control, a book, record, document or thing referred to in paragraph (a), or which on reasonable grounds is believed to relate to his or her practice to –
- (i) produce such book, record, document or thing immediately or at any reasonable time and place determined by the inspector for the purpose of the examination or to make copies or extracts of such book, record, document or thing; and
- (ii) give an explanation to the inspector in respect of the contents or any entry of a book, record, document or thing.
- (10) An inspector who conducts an inspection under this section –
- (a) must preserve secrecy in respect of a fact which comes to his or her knowledge in the performance of his or her functions; and
- (b) may not disclose a fact referred to in paragraph (a) to a person other than –
- (i) the registrar;
- (ii) the pro forma complainant;
- (iii) the Council;

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(iv) a member of the Namibian Police as defined in the Police Act, 1990 (Act No. 19 of 1990) investigating a criminal matter specified by this Act; or

(v) a court of law.

(11) Despite subsection (10)(b), an inspector may not disclose to a person any personal particulars relating to a patient unless –

(a) in terms of an order of a competent court;

(b) to the Council;

(c) to the pro forma complainant on the instructions of the person presiding at an inquiry; or

(d) when testifying at an inquiry or in any court of law.

(12) A person who –

(a) hinders or obstructs an inspector in the exercise of his or her powers or the performance of his or her functions under this Act;

(b) prevents an inspector from entering a practice;

(c) fails to produce a book, record, document or thing referred to in this section;

(d) presents himself or herself as an inspector when he or she has not been appointed as such under subsection (2); or

(e) contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this section, commits an offence and is liable to the penalties specified in section 57(a).

(13) In so far as this section provides for a limitation on the fundamental rights contemplated by Article 13 of the Namibian Constitution in that it authorises interference with the privacy of a person relating to his or her correspondence or communication, that limitation is enacted upon the authority of that Article.

(14) This section does not –

(a) prevent a person or authority from investigating an alleged contravention or failure to comply with a provision of this Act or any other law;

(b) prejudice the right of a person to institute civil proceedings in terms of this Act or any other law; or

(c) prevent the Namibian Police as defined in the Police Act, 1990 (Act No. 19 of 1990) to investigate an allegation of the contravention or failure to comply with a provision of this Act or any other law.

(15) On the completion of an inspection or investigation under this section –

- (a) the inspector must submit to the registrar, in the form and manner that the registrar determines, a written report on the inspection and findings by the inspector; and
- (b) the registrar on receipt of the report must transmit the report to the Council to assess if there is any non-compliance with this Act and if there is non-compliance with this Act, the Council must order that a registered person, educational institution, hospital or health facility providing healthcare service complies within a specified period and if the registered person, educational institution, hospital or health facility fails to comply, the Council may, after having afforded the educational institution, hospital or health facility an opportunity to be heard –
 - (i) suspend the licence of the registered person;
 - (ii) suspend the approval granted to an educational institution, hospital or health facility; or
 - (iii) charge a registered person with unprofessional conduct.

PART 16
DISCIPLINARY POWERS OF COUNCIL

Professional conduct rules

58. (1) In this Part “legal practitioner”, includes a retired judge, a magistrate and a retired magistrate.

(2) The Council, with the approval of the Minister, may, in addition to the acts or omissions specified by this Act as unprofessional conduct, make professional conduct rules –

- (a) specifying the acts or omissions by registered persons that constitute unprofessional conduct; and
- (b) regulating the practising of a profession by a registered person.

(3) Without derogating from the generality of subsection (2), the rules made under that subsection may include –

- (a) the conditions subject to, and the name under, which a registered person may practise his or her profession, and the conducting of a practice by a sole owner or in partnership;

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (b) the profession which a registered person may or may not practise in a partnership;
 - (c) the requirements relating to the conducting of a practice, the name under which a registered person may practise or the name of a partnership, including restrictions on the use of names or categories of names when practising;
 - (d) the manner in which a registered person may advertise his or her practice, including different kinds of advertisement allowed, restrictions on advertisement and name at premises where the practice is conducted; and
 - (e) any other matter relating to the practising of a profession by a registered person that the Council may consider necessary or expedient but not inconsistent with this Act.
- (4) Despite a provision of this section to the contrary, a registered person commits unprofessional conduct, if the person –
- (a) fails to comply with the professional conduct rules made under subsection (2); or
 - (b) is found guilty by a court of an offence –
 - (i) under this Act or any law that regulates national health, hospitals or health facilities in relation to the provision of healthcare service; or
 - (ii) under the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act.
- (5) The powers of the Council to inquire into and deal with complaints relating to registered persons are not limited to the acts or omissions specified by the rules made under subsection (2).

Lodging of complaints of unprofessional conduct

59. (1) A person having a complaint of unprofessional conduct against a registered person may, in writing, lodge such complaint with the Council.

(2) The lodging of the complaint of unprofessional conduct under subsection (1) must be submitted to the registrar and must be made in the prescribed form and manner.

(3) The Council must refer the complaint of unprofessional conduct submitted to it under subsection (1) to the preliminary investigation committee for preliminary investigation.

(4) Despite subsection (1), the Council may on its own accord instruct the preliminary investigation committee to conduct an investigation against a registered person if the Council is of the opinion that the registered person may have committed unprofessional conduct.

(5) The Council may suspend a licence of a registered person in respect of whom –

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (a) a complaint of unprofessional conduct is made; or
- (b) the Council on its own accord under subsection (4) instructed the preliminary investigation committee to conduct a preliminary investigation, pending the outcome of the investigation.

(6) If an employer of a registered person or any other person complains to the Council in writing that a registered person appears to be incompetent or not capable of practising the profession in respect of which he or she is registered, the Council must refer that report to the preliminary investigation committee with instructions to conduct a preliminary investigation into the complaints.

Preliminary investigation committee

- 60. (1) The Council must compile a list consisting of –
- (a) registered persons from different professions; and
 - (b) other persons that are not registered persons, including a legal practitioner having at least 10 years relevant experience, from which the Council must constitute a preliminary investigation committee in terms of subsection (4).

(2) The Council may constitute more than one preliminary investigation committee during the same period as the circumstances may require, but a person may not be appointed to more than one preliminary investigation committee conducting investigation during the same period.

(3) A preliminary investigation committee conducts the preliminary investigation –

- (a) of complaints of unprofessional conducts against registered persons lodged with the Council; or
- (b) as the Council may on its own accord instruct the committee to conduct the preliminary investigation if the Council is of the opinion that a registered person may have committed unprofessional conduct.

(4) Depending on the nature of the matter to be investigated and the profession concerned, the Council must, from the list of persons referred to in subsection (1), appoint –

- (a) a number of persons to constitute a preliminary investigation committee; and
 - (b) a legal practitioner or any registered person as chairperson of the preliminary investigation committee.
- (5) A member of the Council or professional board concerned may not –
- (a) be a member of the preliminary investigation committee; or

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (b) attend any meeting or partake in any activity of the committee, unless he or she is a witness in the matter being investigated.
- (6) The preliminary investigation committee –
 - (a) must, when conducting a preliminary investigation, follow the prescribed procedure and manner of conducting the investigation;
 - (b) depending on the nature of the matter to be investigated and the profession concerned, may co-opt one or more registered persons as members of the preliminary investigation committee, but with no right to vote;
 - (c) must conduct a preliminary investigation into complaints of unprofessional conduct perpetrated by a registered person and referred to the committee by the Council under section 59;
 - (d) may –
 - (i) obtain statements from any person, including from a registered person whose conduct is being investigated subject to paragraph (e) and the person who laid the complaint against the registered person;
 - (ii) collect documents and other evidence relating to the matter being inquired into as the committee may consider expedient and necessary; or
 - (iii) exercise and perform other powers and functions relating to preliminary investigation; and
 - (e) may not question the registered person whose conduct is being investigated, unless the preliminary investigation committee before questioning the registered person, informs the registered person –
 - (i) of the nature of the matter being investigated and the complaints made against the person;
 - (ii) of his or her right to be represented or assisted by any other person;
 - (iii) that he or she is not obliged to make any statement or to answer any question put to him or her by the committee; and
 - (iv) that any statement that he or she makes to the committee is taken down in writing or voice recording and that it may be used as evidence against him or her at an inquiry.
- (7) A registered person who is being investigated for a complaint of unprofessional conduct under subsection (6) may at any time before the commencement or during the investigation submit to the preliminary investigation committee a written admission of guilt of unprofessional conduct.
- (8) An admission of guilt submitted under subsection (7) –

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (a) must be made in the form of an affidavit or solemn declaration duly attested to by the registered person referred to in that subsection before a commissioner of oaths;
- (b) must set out in full the facts relating to the complaint of unprofessional conduct that the registered person admits being guilty of; and
- (c) may include arguments in mitigation of the penalty.

(9) After having conducted a preliminary investigation and considered any other documents or information available before the preliminary investigation committee, and after having given an opportunity to the registered person to state his or her case, the committee must determine whether –

- (a) the evidence, documents and information appear to support the alleged unprofessional conduct; or
- (b) the evidence, documents and information appear not to support the alleged unprofessional conduct, against the registered person and must make an appropriate recommendation to the Council.

(10) If a registered person has made an admission of guilt under subsection (7), the preliminary investigation committee must recommend to the Council to impose one or more of the penalties under section 65, if the Council is satisfied with the admission of guilt.

(11) Upon receipt of the recommendation of the preliminary investigation committee, the registrar must, in the form and manner determined by him or her, notify the registered person and the complainant that the matter has been referred to the Council to conduct an inquiry or to make a finding and impose a penalty.

(12) The preliminary investigation committee may not divulge evidence or information gathered by the committee during the investigation under this section to any person other than the Council, the registrar or pro forma complainant or a court of law.

(13) The membership of a registered person as a member of the Council, professional board or any committee who –

- (a) has admitted guilt to unprofessional conduct; or
- (b) in the opinion of the preliminary investigation committee, may have committed unprofessional conduct, is suspended from the date on which the registrar informs the registered person that the matter is referred to the Council in terms of subsection (11) until such time –

- (i) the Council accepts the admission of guilt and imposes the appropriate penalty;
- (ii) an inquiry into the alleged unprofessional conduct is finalised; or
- (iii) the Council rescinds the suspension while continuing with the inquiry.

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(14) The registrar must give written notice to a member of the Council, professional board or committee referred to in subsection (12) of the suspension of his or her membership.

- (15) A notice under subsection (14) is delivered –
- (a) by hand to the member; or
 - (b) by prepaid registered post at his or her address as specified in the register in which the name of the member appears.

Consideration of recommendation of preliminary investigation committee

61. (1) The Council must consider any recommendation made to it by the preliminary investigation committee.

(2) If the recommendation by the preliminary investigation committee to the Council is that evidence, documents and information appear –

- (a) to support the complaints of unprofessional conduct or the nature of the alleged unprofessional conduct is of such a nature that an inquiry must be conducted or the Council is not satisfied with a plea of guilt by the registered person charged, the Council must refer the matter for an inquiry in accordance with section 64; or
- (b) not to support the complaints of unprofessional conduct, the Council may –
 - (i) close the matter; or
 - (ii) instruct the preliminary investigation committee to conduct further investigation on certain aspects of the matter.

(3) If the preliminary investigation committee recommends to the Council that the registered person has admitted guilt to unprofessional conduct and the Council –

- (a) is satisfied with the plea of guilt; or
- (b) is of the opinion that a penalty may be imposed without conducting an inquiry, the Council may, after it has considered any argument in mitigation of penalty as contemplated in section 60(8)(c), find the person guilty and impose one or more penalties in terms of section 65, but if the Council is of the opinion that further investigation into the alleged unprofessional conduct is necessary, it may refer the matter to the preliminary investigation committee with instructions for the committee to conduct further investigation on certain aspects of the matter.

(4) The registrar must inform the complainant and the registered person against whom a complaint of unprofessional conduct has been lodged of the decision of the Council made in terms of subsection (2) or (3).

- (5) If –

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (a) the Council, under subsection (2)(b) or under section 64(21)(b), finds a registered person not guilty of unprofessional conduct; and
- (b) the complainant who lodged a complaint of unprofessional conduct with the Council resulting in the preliminary investigation so request, the registrar may, with the concurrence of the Council, appoint a person to –

- (i) explain to the complainant grounds for the findings of the Council;
 - (ii) reply to the best of his or her ability to any question by the complainant relating to the matter; and
 - (iii) furnish the registrar with a written report in the form and manner that the registrar determines relating to the explanation of the matter.
- (6) The person appointed under subsection (5) –
- (a) must be a registered person who –
 - (i) has been practising his or her profession for a period of not less than 10 years; or
 - (ii) has retired from practise and who had not less than 10 years' experience in the practising of his or her profession;
 - (b) may not be a member of the Council, a professional board or any committee; and
 - (c) is appointed for a specified period and on such terms and conditions as the registrar and that person may agree.

Pro forma complainant

62. (1) When the Council exercises any of its disciplinary powers under this Part, it may appoint a competent person as a pro forma complainant to exercise the powers and perform the functions conferred or imposed by or under this section.

(2) A member of the Council, professional board or committee may not be appointed as a pro forma complainant under subsection (1).

(3) The pro forma complainant appointed under subsection (1) leads disciplinary proceedings against a registered person at an inquiry.

- (4) The pro forma complainant may at an inquiry –
- (a) lead evidence and call witnesses to testify against the registered person;
 - (b) submit a document, book, record or any other thing relevant to the inquiry;
 - (c) cross-examine a registered person and witnesses testifying for the registered person; or

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (d) withdraw or amend the charges against a registered person or add further charges against the registered person during the inquiry.

(5) If the pro forma complainant is for any reason unable to exercise or perform his or her powers or functions, the Council may appoint any other person to exercise or perform the powers or functions of the pro forma complainant.

Admission of guilt by registered persons

63. (1) If a registered person is served with a notice of inquiry in accordance with section 64, the registered person may submit to the Council a written admission of guilt to the charge of unprofessional conduct specified in the notice.

- (2) An admission of guilt under subsection (1) –
- (a) must be made in the form of an affidavit or a solemn declaration duly sworn to or affirmed and signed by the registered person before a commissioner of oaths;
- (b) must set out in full the facts supporting the charge of unprofessional conduct that the registered person admits of being guilty;
- (c) may include arguments in mitigation of penalty; and
- (d) must be submitted to the registrar not less than seven days before the date of commencement of the inquiry proceedings specified in the notice referred to in section 64.

(3) The Council may accept, on good cause shown, an admission of guilt submitted to the registrar a date before the date referred to in subsection (2)(d).

Disciplinary committee and inquiry into charges of unprofessional conduct

- 64. (1) The Council must compile a list consisting of –
- (a) registered persons from different professions, including registered persons who are members of the Council or professional boards; and
- (b) persons who are not registered persons, including a legal practitioner having at least 10 years of relevant experience, from which the Council must constitute a disciplinary committee in terms of subsection (3), and the Council may constitute more than one disciplinary committee during the same period as the circumstances may require.

(2) A disciplinary committee conducts inquiries into charges of unprofessional conduct against registered persons in accordance with this section.

(3) Depending on the nature of the matter to be inquired and the profession concerned, the Council must, from the list of persons referred to in subsection (1), appoint –

- (a) a number of persons to constitute a disciplinary committee; and

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (b) the president, the deputy president or the legal practitioner as the chairperson of the committee, but the members of the committee may not be more than five members in total.

(4) When conducting an inquiry and depending on the nature of the matter to be inquired and the profession concerned, the disciplinary committee may co-opt –

- (a) one or two registered persons as members of the committee; or
- (b) one or two persons as assessors, but with no right to vote.

(5) A decision by the majority of the members of the disciplinary committee appointed in terms of subsection (3) constitutes a decision of the committee, and in the event of an equality of votes the chairperson has a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.

(6) The Council must, not less than 21 days before the commencement of the inquiry against a registered person, give notice of the inquiry to the registered person in the prescribed form informing the registered person –

- (a) of the date, time and venue of the inquiry;
- (b) of the particulars of the charges made against the registered person; and
- (c) that in case of an admission of guilt to the charge he or she must submit an admission of guilt to the Council in accordance with section 63.

(7) The registrar or a person designated by him or her in writing for that purpose must –

- (a) deliver the notice referred to in subsection (6) personally to the registered person referred to in that subsection; and
- (b) obtain from the registered person a written acknowledgement of receipt of the notice stating the date, time and place of the service of the notice, and if the person who is to be served with the notice –

- (i) refuses to accept service of the notice; or
- (ii) refuses to sign the required acknowledgement of receipt relating to the service of the notice, the notice is considered to have been served on the person and the registrar or the person so designated must in writing report that the person is served with the notice but he or she refuses to accept the notice or refuses to sign the required acknowledgment of receipt.

(8) If the registrar or the person designated under subsection (7) certifies in writing that the registered person on whom the notice is to be served under that subsection cannot be traced, the registrar must send the notice by prepaid registered post, not less than 21 days before the date of commencement of the intended inquiry, addressed to the registered person at his or her postal address as it appears in the register in which his or her name appears.

(9) If the registered person served with a notice under subsection (7) or to whom a notice has been sent under subsection (8) is –

- (a) not present at the commencement of the inquiry; or
- (b) absent from the inquiry at any time after the commencement of the inquiry, the disciplinary committee may conduct the inquiry or may continue with the inquiry in the absence of the registered person.

(10) For the purposes of an inquiry under this section, the Council may subpoena a witness to appear at a specified date, time and venue –

- (a) to give evidence at the inquiry; or
- (b) to submit to the Council a document, book, record or other thing relevant to the inquiry or as may be specified in the subpoena.

(11) A subpoena referred to in subsection (10) is –

- (a) in the prescribed form; and
- (b) served on the witness in the prescribed manner.

(12) The disciplinary committee may accept an admission of guilt made by the registered person under subsection (1) of section 63, and submitted to the registrar in terms of subsection (2)(d) of that section, as a plea of guilty for the purposes of subsection (13), irrespective of whether the registered person is present at the inquiry or not.

(13) If a registered person charged admits guilt as contemplated in subsection (12) to a charge of unprofessional conduct, whether or not the registered person is present at the inquiry, the disciplinary committee, without leading evidence, may –

- (a) after it has considered any argument in mitigation of penalty as contemplated in section 63(2)(c), find the person guilty of unprofessional conduct and may impose one or more penalties specified in section 65;
- (b) refer the matter to the preliminary investigation committee for further investigation on certain aspects of the matter, if the disciplinary committee is not satisfied with the plea of guilt; or
- (c) refuse the admission of guilt and proceed with the inquiry.

(14) Despite anything to the contrary, the Council may institute and conduct an inquiry in respect of a person –

- (a) whose name has been removed from the register under section 49 and a complaint of unprofessional conduct is made against him or her or is alleged to have committed unprofessional conduct while registered; or

Act No. 16, 2024

HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (b) temporary or conditional registered under section 35 or 37, but no longer registered and a complaint of unprofessional conduct is made against him or her or is alleged to have committed unprofessional conduct while temporary or conditional registered.
- (15) For the purposes of an inquiry, a person referred to in subsection (14) is considered as a registered person.
- (16) The disciplinary committee must cause the proceedings of an inquiry to be –
- (a) recorded and safely kept; and
- (b) certified by the person presiding at the inquiry as being a true and accurate account of the evidence and exhibits presented and of the decision made at the inquiry.
- (17) The record referred to in subsection (16) –
- (a) is kept by the registrar for a period of five years; and
- (b) is, for the purpose of an appeal or review under section 73 or 74, proof, until the contrary is proven, of the proceedings and decisions made at the inquiry.
- (18) A person giving evidence at an inquiry before the disciplinary committee is entitled to all the privileges to which a witness giving evidence before a court of law is entitled.
- (19) Despite any provision of this section to the contrary, a registered person charged and who is present at the inquiry may at the inquiry plead guilty to a charge of unprofessional conduct against him or her as specified in the notice delivered to him or her under subsection (7) or sent to him or her under subsection (8).
- (20) A registered person charged may –
- (a) be heard in his or her defence;
- (b) give evidence under oath or affirmation in his or her defence;
- (c) call witnesses to testify in his or her defence;
- (d) submit a document, book, record or other thing in his or her defence;
- (e) examine witnesses testifying against him or her; or
- (f) represent himself or herself or request any other person to represent him or her.
- (21) After having heard the concluding statements of the pro forma complainant and the registered person charged, the disciplinary committee may find the registered person –
- (a) guilty of unprofessional conduct; or

Act No. 16, 2024

- (b) not guilty of unprofessional conduct.
- (22) If a registered person charged –
 - (a) is found guilty of unprofessional conduct under subsection (21); or
 - (b) pleaded guilty to a charge of unprofessional conduct under subsection (19), he or she may address the disciplinary committee, and may call witnesses to give evidence, in mitigation of penalty, and the pro forma complainant may do the same in aggravating factors.

(23) The disciplinary committee must set out fully in writing its findings, the penalties or other orders made by the committee.

(24) The chairperson of the disciplinary committee must, as soon as practicable after the completion of the inquiry, submit to the Council a copy of the written record of the proceedings of the inquiry, its findings and the penalty imposed to the Council for ratification, and the Council may confirm or vary the decision of the committee.

(25) Within seven days from the date of the confirmation or varying of the decision of the disciplinary committee by the Council as contemplated in subsection (24), the registrar must, in writing, inform the registered person charged –

- (a) that he or she is found guilty of unprofessional conduct;
- (b) of the penalties imposed in terms of section 65; and
- (c) that he or she may lodge an appeal in accordance with section 73.

(26) For the purposes of subsection (25), the registrar must notify the registered person charged in the case of a penalty imposed –

- (a) under section 65(1)(a), by delivering to the registered person a copy of the findings and particulars of the penalty, duly certified by the person who presided at the inquiry, in person or by prepaid registered post to his or her address as it appears in the register; or
- (b) under section 65(1)(b) to (e) or an order made under section 65(3), by delivering to the registered person a copy of the findings and particulars of the penalty or order, duly certified by the person who presided at the inquiry, in person or at his or her place of business or employment to a partner, employer or employee of the registered person.

(27) The Council must determine the manner in which any of the findings made against the registered person charged under this section is made known to the public and the particulars of the findings that are made known.

(28) The registered person charged or the person referred to in subsection (26) (b) must acknowledge in writing receipt of the delivery of the copy of the findings, penalty and order and specify his or her capacity, and if the registered person charged or person –

- (a) refuses to accept service of the copy of the finding of the Council; or

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (b) refuses to sign an acknowledgement of receipt of the copy of the findings, the notice is considered to have been served on the person and the registrar must in writing report that the registered person charged or the person refuses to accept service of the copy or refuses to sign an acknowledgment of receipt.

(29) If the registered person charged or a person referred to in subsection (26) (b) cannot be traced or found, the registrar must deliver the copy of the findings and particulars of the penalties to the registered person charged by sending the copy of the finding by registered post to his or her address as specified in the register.

(30) If a registered person charged is found not guilty of unprofessional conduct at an inquiry, the registrar must inform the registered person that he or she is found not guilty by notifying the registered person in writing and forward the notice by registered post to the registered person.

(31) Despite this section, if an appeal under section 73 is lodged against a finding, penalty or order of the Council, the Council may suspend, on the conditions that it may determine, the execution of the penalty or order until the appeal has been finalised.

(32) An inquiry is open to the public, but the disciplinary committee may exclude a member of the public from attending the inquiry in the circumstances where it is just and fair to do so.

(33) The Minister may prescribe –

- (a) the procedure applicable to an inquiry referred to in this section in addition to the procedures prescribed by this section;
- (b) the procedures and requirements relating to the lodging of a complaint of unprofessional conduct against a registered person;
- (c) the manner of instituting and conducting of an inquiry;
- (d) the form of a subpoena for the purpose of securing the attendance of a witness or for the production of any book, record, document or thing by the witness at an inquiry;
- (e) the form of a notice and the manner in which a notice, subpoena or other notice by the Council is served on a person;
- (f) the manner of leading evidence, making closing argument and the recording of the proceedings at an inquiry;
- (g) the institution of inquiry proceedings de novo in the event of the number of members prescribed not available where inquiry proceedings have commenced; or
- (h) any other matter relating to the instituting, conducting and finalising of an inquiry.

(34) A person –

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (a) who disrupts the proceedings of an inquiry or behaves himself or herself disorderly at an inquiry under this section; or
- (b) who is duly subpoenaed under this section to appear before the disciplinary committee as a witness to give evidence at an inquiry and who –
 - (i) refuses or, without sufficient cause, fails to –
 - (aa) attend the inquiry on the date, time and venue specified in the subpoena;
 - (bb) take the prescribed oath or to make an affirmation when required by the person presiding at the inquiry;
 - (cc) give evidence before the disciplinary committee;
 - (dd) answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his or her knowledge and belief a question lawfully put to him or her; or
 - (ee) produce a document, book, record or thing which the person has in terms of the subpoena been required to produce; or
 - (ii) leaves the inquiry without the permission of the person presiding at the inquiry, whether or not the person has given evidence, commits an offence and is liable to the penalties specified in section 57(a).

Penalties for unprofessional conduct

65. (1) If a registered person is found guilty of unprofessional conduct, one or more of the following penalties may be imposed –

- (a) a reprimand or caution;
- (b) a suspension for a specified period of –
 - (i) the licence of a licensed person; or
 - (ii) the certificate of registration of a registered person, from practising or performing acts pertaining to the profession for which the registered person is registered or licensed;
- (c) removal of the name of the registered person from the register;
- (d) payment of a fine not exceeding the prescribed amount; or
- (e) a refund by the registered person of any financial loss suffered by a person as a result of unprofessional conduct.

(2) A licensed person whose name is removed from the register under subsection (1)(c) must return the licence to the Council and the licence is deemed to have been cancelled until his or her name is restored to the register.

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(3) When a penalty under subsection (1)(b) or (c) is imposed, the Council may order the registered person to safeguard the interests of his or her patients, including the manner in which and the period within which he or she must safeguard the interests.

(4) A person who fails to comply with an order of the Council under subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable to the penalties specified by section 57(a).

(5) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act –

(a) the Council may recover a fine imposed under subsection (1)(d); and

(b) a person in whose favour a refund order is made under subsection (1)(e) may enforce the order, by means of proceedings in a competent court.

Suspension of penalties

66. (1) If a registered person charged is found guilty of unprofessional conduct and his or her licence is suspended under section 65(1)(b), the Council may suspend the suspension of licence for a specified period and on such conditions as the Council may determine.

(2) If after the expiry of the period specified in respect of subsection (1), the Council is satisfied that a registered person has –

(a) observed the conditions subject to which the suspension of licence is suspended, the Council must give notice to the registered person that the Council does not intend to suspend the licence; or

(b) not observed the conditions subject to which the suspension of licence is suspended, the Council must give notice to the registered person that the Council intends to suspend the licence.

(3) Before the Council suspend the licence under subsection (2)(b), the Council must, in the notice referred to in that subsection, inform the registered person that he or she may make written representations to the Council within the period specified in the notice, putting forward grounds why the Council should not suspend his or her licence.

(4) After having considered the representations made under subsection (3), the Council must inform the registered person of its decision.

(5) Despite a provision of this section to the contrary, the Council may terminate the suspension period granted under subsection (1) before the expiry of that period, if the Council considers it appropriate to do so.

(6) Before the Council terminates the suspension period under subsection (5), the Council must –

(a) give notice to the registered person of its intention to terminate the suspension period; and

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

- (b) inform the registered person, in the notice under paragraph (a), that he or she may make written representations to the Council within the period specified in the notice, putting forward grounds why the Council should not terminate the suspension period.

(7) The Council must give notice to the registered person of its decision after having considered written representations made under subsection (6)(b).

(8) A notice by the Council under this section to a registered person is made in writing and delivered to the person in the prescribed manner.

(9) The Minister must prescribe the circumstances, conditions or qualifications under which the Council may suspend the suspension of the licence.

Inquiry not to prejudice civil or criminal liability

- 67. (1) The institution of –
- (a) an inquiry against a registered person does not prejudice the right of –
- (i) any other person to institute civil proceedings or criminal proceedings against the registered person; or
- (ii) an employer of the registered person to take disciplinary action against the registered person; or
- (b) civil or criminal proceedings against a registered person or the fact that an employer has taken disciplinary action against the registered person under paragraph (a) does not prejudice the right of the Council –
- (i) to conduct an inquiry into a charge of unprofessional conduct against the registered person; or
- (ii) to impose penalties for unprofessional conduct, arising from or based on the same facts.

(2) Any incriminating information or evidence obtained directly or indirectly during the proceedings of an inquiry is not admissible as evidence against a registered person in criminal or civil proceedings in a court of law, except in criminal proceedings where a registered person stands trial for contravening section 54, 56 or 68.

False evidence

68. A person who gives false evidence under oath or affirmation at an inquiry knowing the evidence to be false commits an offence and is liable to a penalty for the crime of perjury.

Effect of suspension or removal from register

- 69. (1) A registered person whose –
- (a) licence is suspended; or

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

(b) name is removed from the register, is regarded as unregistered and, is disqualified from practising the profession or performing any act pertaining to the profession during the period of suspension or removal.

(2) The –

(a) certificate of registration of a registered person is regarded as cancelled until the period of suspension has expired or until the name of the person is restored to the register; and

(b) the licence of a registered person referred to in subsection (1) is automatically restored after the period of suspension has expired, or after the name of the person is restored to the register.

(3) A registered person whose –

(a) name has been removed from a register; or

(b) licence has been cancelled, is disqualified from practising his or her profession until his or her name has been restored to the register or he or she is issued with a new licence.

(4) A person who practises his or her profession while –

(a) his or her name is removed from the register; or

(b) his or her licence is suspended or cancelled, commits an offence and is liable to the penalties specified in section 57(b).

Cognisance by Council of conduct of registered persons

70. (1) If a registered person is convicted of an offence by a court of law, either before or after his or her registration under this Act, the Council may conduct an inquiry, if the Council is of the opinion that the commission of the offence may constitute unprofessional conduct.

(2) If in the course of proceedings before a court of law it appears to the court that there is proof, until the contrary is proven, of unprofessional conduct on the part of a registered person, the court must direct the clerk of the court to submit to the registrar a copy of the record of the proceedings or the portion of the proceedings that is material to unprofessional conduct.

(3) Despite subsection (2), the registrar may request from the clerk of a court a transcript of court proceedings in respect of a matter which is finalised by the court and that has relevance to an inquiry.

(4) The clerk of the court contemplated in subsection (3) must make the transcript referred to in that subsection available to the registrar as soon as practicable.

(5) A court record of a conviction referred to in subsection (1) and a transcript referred to in subsection (4) may be used as evidence at an inquiry.

Act No. 16, 2024

HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024

Impaired registered persons

71. (1) In this section –

(a) “impaired” means –

(i) a mental or physical condition; or

(ii) the abuse of, or the dependence on, a medicine, scheduled substance, dependence-producing substance, chemical substance or any other substance, which negatively affects the competence, attitude, judgement or performance of a registered person or renders him or her incapable of practising his or her profession with reasonable skill or safety; and

(b) “dependence-producing substance” means a dependence-producing substance as defined in section 1 of the Abuse of Dependence-producing Substances and Rehabilitation Centres Act, 1971 (Act No. 41 of 1971).

(2) If it appears to the Council, after an investigation, assessment or inquiry made under subsection (4), that a registered person has become impaired to the extent that –

(a) it would be against the public interest to allow that person to continue to practise the profession;

(b) he or she is unable to practise his or her profession with reasonable skills or safety to his or her patients; or

(c) he or she has become unfit to purchase, acquire, keep, use, administer, prescribe, order, supply or possess a medicine, scheduled substance or dependence-producing substance, the Council must deal with the person in the prescribed manner, including the manner of removing the name of the person from the register.

(3) The Council may appoint a person or committee to conduct an investigation, assessment or inquiry for the purposes of this section, and the powers of that person or committee are as prescribed.

PART 17
APPEALS AND REVIEWS

Appeal committee

72. (1) The Minister must establish a standing appeal committee consisting of five members appointed by the Minister for a term of five years as follows –

(a) a magistrate or a retired magistrate having not less than 10 years experience, who is the chairperson of the appeal committee, selected from three names nominated by the Magistrate Commission, established by section 2 of the Magistrates Act, 2003 (Act No. 3 of 2003);

Act No. 16, 2024HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT, 2024
