VACANCIES FOR ASSISTANT SECRETARY
AND WELFARE OFFICER

Applications are invited from suitably qualified candidates, preferably Nigerian, for appointment as Assistant Secretary and Welfare Officer in the Students' Department of the Nigeria Office, London.

2. Particulars of the posts are as follows :—

Salary and conditions of appointment.—The appointment will be on contract for an initial period of two years. The salary of the post will be on an incremental scale within the range £570 to £1,290, the commencing salary being according to qualifications and experience. A gratuity at the rate of £25 for each completed period of three months will be payable on satisfactory completion of the contract. Certain of the posts will be open to women.

Qualifications required.—Candidates should preferably be aged between 25 and 50; they must have a wide experience of Nigeria and should possess an Honours degree from a University in the United Kingdom or a good degree from the University College, Ibadan. Alternatively and exceptionally, a good general education with considerable practical welfare experience and some experience of administrative responsibility, particularly in students affairs, may be acceptable.

Duties of the posts.—The candidates selected will be under the immediate control and direction of the Director of Students and responsible to the Commissioner for Nigeria in the United Kingdom. They will be employed either on administrative or welfare duties, as the need arises and circumstances demand. Their duties will include the undertaking of correspondence with United Kingdom educational and training Institutions and Nigerian Departments in connection with Nigerian scholars and private students, their placing, finances and general welfare; their duties may also include the maintenance of close contact with Nigerian students and scholars throughout the United Kingdom, involving visits to their hostels and lodgings, meeting their friends, corresponding with their relatives and guardians in Nigeria and generally acting as their counsellor and friend.

Method of application.—Applications should be addressed to the Civil Service Commissioner, Chief Secretary's Office, Lagos, so as to reach him not later than the 30th of September, 1954.

Applications should be accompanied by a statement setting out clearly and concisely :

- (a) the applicant's age, parentage and place of birth;
- (b) the names of the schools and university at which he was educated with dates, and his educational qualifications;
- (c) an outline of his career and experience;
- (d) the names of two responsible persons to whom the applicant is well known and who can be asked to testify to his character and ability, and enclosing copies of not more than two testimonials from responsible persons with whom the applicant has been connected in the course of this career.
