VACANCY FOR INDUSTRIAL PROMOTIONS COMMISSIONER FOR WESTERN NIGERIA

The Government of the Western Region of Nigeria invites application for the post of Industrial Promotions Commissioner. The holder will be required to advise the Government on industrialisation, to organise and run a Division for the promotion of industries big and small, and to expand and maintain contacts on Government's behalf with industrialists local as well as overseas. In short the Commissioner will have a continuing responsibility to ensure that the Government is fully briefed and adequately serviced on existing and potential industrialisation of the Region.

2. The salary attached to the appointment is subject to negotiation. Leave will be at the rate of seven days for every month of service and free passages are provided once every tour for the officer and his wife. In addition, assistance towards children's passages is provided up to the cost of two adult return fares for children below eighteen years of age. A tour may last from twelve to fifteen months, part of which may have to be spent on travels outside Nigeria on the Government's behalf. The contract will be subject to six months notice on either side.

3. Considering the level of this appointment, the Government has not prescribed specific minimum qualifications but rather invites applications setting forth as full a record as possible of the candidate's experience and background, together with an indication of the minimum salary and the minimum and maximum periods of service that would be acceptable to him. Applications will not be considered from people who lack practical industrial experience or who would be unable to furnish impeccable references.

4. Applications should be submitted either to the Director of Recruitment, Western Region of Nigeria, Ibadan, or to the Office of the Commissioner for Western Nigeria, 178-202, Great Portland Street, London, W.1., not later than the 10th of January, 1959. Information about the general conditions attaching to service under the Western Nigeria Government, and about the cost of living in the Region is also obtainable from those addresses.
