EXCHANGE OF MESSAGES

Telegram to Governor-General, Federation of Nigeria.
From Secretary of State for the Colonies.
Dated 18th October, 1959.

Following personal from retiring Secretary of State.

For the last five years I have been proud to be Secretary of State for the Colonies.

On giving up this high office I would like you to know how greatly I have valued the help which I have always had from you and all those taking part in the Government of your territory.

I am very grateful to the members of the Overseas Service for their devoted work and to the large numbers of men and women outside the service who are helping forward the progress and happiness of the colonial peoples.

The times that I have spent as Minister and then as Secretary of State for the Colonies have been the happiest and most interesting, and I hope the most worthwhile periods of my life.

I have been proud to play my part in the emergence of independent nations within the Commonwealth and elsewhere to help forward sound constitutional advance.

I have rejoiced in the spectacular social development particularly in health and education and in the massive economic advance on which the progress of the future so much depends.

I have greatly enjoyed my many visits to the territories, the insight that this has given me into their problems and the opportunity to make a multitude of friends of all nations, races and creeds.

As I said in my letter to the Prime Minister, this office is the one which I have always wanted to hold and it is with deep regret that I now leave it.

To all of you, Governors, Ministers, Government Officers, and other friends outside the Administration, I send my warmest thanks and prayers for your future happiness and prosperity.

ALAN LENNOX-BOYD

Telegram to Secretary of State for the Colonies.
From Acting Governor-General, Federation of Nigeria.
Dated 21st October, 1959.

Please pass to Lennox-Boyd the following message from the Prime Minister of the Federation with which I associate myself and members of the Federal Public Service.

"On behalf of the Government and peoples of the Federation I am sending to you our warmest thanks for your friendship, encouragement, and guidance during the five years in which you have held the high office of Secretary of State for the Colonies.

We hope that during your visit to this country earlier this year you felt the measure of the affection and respect which you have earned amongst our people through your sincere and untiring efforts to assist us in our development and welfare and in our constitutional advance towards independence. Our only regret is that having come so far together we shall be denied the opportunity of having you with us as Secretary of State at our independence celebrations. Nevertheless we shall welcome you back then and shall hope to have a further opportunity of expressing to you our gratitude for all you have done for us.

My colleagues in the Council of Ministers join me in sending to you and to your wife our sincere best wishes for long life, happiness, and success in the tasks which you are about to undertake."
