SUPPLEMENTAL ROYAL CHARTER

The following Supplemental Royal Charter dated 28th day of March, 1960, altering the title of the Imperial War Graves Commission to "The Commonwealth War Graves Commission" is published for general information:—

Elizabeth the Second by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith. To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting!

WHEREAS His Majesty King George the Fifth by Royal Charter dated the twenty-first day of May in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and seventeen (hereinafter referred to as "the Original Charter") constituted a Body Corporate by the name of The Imperial War Graves Commission (hereinafter referred to as "the Commission") with perpetual succession and a common seal and with capacity to sue and be sued in their Corporate name:

AND WHEREAS by Supplemental Charters dated respectively the twenty-sixth day of August, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, the seventeenth day of January, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, the seventeenth day of March, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, the fifth day of March, One thousand nine hundred and forty, the seventh day of February, One thousand nine hundred and forty-one, the tenth day of February, One thousand nine hundred and forty-four, and the fifth day of October, One thousand nine hundred and forty-eight, such additional powers were granted to the Commission and such further matters provided for as are therein respectively set out:

AND WHEREAS it appears to the Commonwealth Governments represented on the Commission and to the Commission to be requisite for the carrying into effect of the purposes or powers of the Original Charter and the aforesaid Supplemental Charter that We should by a further Supplemental Charter grant and declare that the name of the Commission be altered to "The Commonwealth War Graves Commission":

AND WHEREAS the Commission have represented unto Us that it is expedient that for the purposes of the Original Charter and the aforesaid Supplemental Charters certain variations of and alterations to the provisions of Clause 4 Part VII of the Original Charter should be authorised and that We should by Supplemental Charter provide accordingly:

AND WHEREAS an humble Petition has been presented unto Us in Our Council by the Commission praying Us to grant a further Supplemental Charter to the Commission making such provision for the matters hereinbefore mentioned as is hereinafter set out:

NOW KNOW YE that We of Our Royal Will and Pleasure and moved thereto by Our desire to clarify and define the purposes, powers and responsibility of the Commission, and to promote the efficiency of the Commission, have granted and declared and are graciously pleased for Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors in addition to and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Original Charter and the aforesaid Supplemental Charters to grant and declare as follows:—

1. The name of the Body Corporate established by the Original Charter shall be and is hereby altered to "The Commonwealth War Graves Commission".

2. The Commission shall have and may exercise by its new name all the authorities, powers and privileges conferred and subject to the conditions imposed by the Original Charter, the aforesaid Supplemental Charters and this Our Supplemental Charter.

3. The alteration in the name of the Commission shall not in any wise prejudice or effect any rights or obligations of the Commission or anything done or foreborne to be done or which remains to be done or foreborne to be done under or by virtue of its previous name and any reference to the Commission by its previous name occurring in any deed, instrument, agreement, contract, notice or other document shall subject to any requirement of local law be deemed to include a reference to the Commission by its new name.

4. The alteration in the name of the Commission shall not render defective any legal proceedings by or against the Commission and any legal proceedings that might have been continued or commenced by or against the Commission in its previous name may be continued or commenced by or against the Commission in its new name.

5. As from the date of this Our Supplemental Charter, the Original Charter shall henceforth be read and construed and shall have effect as if the provisions set out hereunder were substituted in place of the provisions appearing in Clause 4 Part VII of the Original Charter, that is to say:—

"4. (i) Any instrument which, if made by a private person would be required to be under seal shall be executed under the Seal of the Commission and signed by the Proper Officer of the Commission. Subject as aforesaid, any appointment made by the Commission and any instrument, agreement, contract or other document to be executed by the Commission or on its behalf, shall be deemed to be duly executed either if sealed with the Seal of the Commission and signed by the Proper Officer, or if signed by an Officer of the Commission duly authorised in that behalf under the terms of a resolution of the Commission.

(ii) The Proper Officer of the Commission shall be any Officer so designated under the terms of a resolution of the Commission and authorised to sign such documents as he is required to sign as aforesaid".

And we do will and ordain that this Our Supplemental Charter shall be construed as one with the Original Charter and the aforesaid Supplemental Charters.

In Witness whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent.

Witness Ourselves at Westminster the Twenty-eight day of March in the ninth year of Our Reign.

By Warrant under the Queen's Sign Manual.
