(a) University Pass Degree.

(b) Diploma in Public Administration.

(c) The Final Examination of the Chartered Institute of Secretaries.

(b) Consular duties. Routine consular work at large overseas Missions and also sole charge of consulates supervised by an Embassy. Clearly the two classes of duties will require different sorts of men. One who would be good at running a single handed consular post might be a different man from one who would never get beyond "machine minding". Both are absolutely essential. Without good "machinery" a Foreign Service cannot work. Personnel matters are of vital importance and become more difficult owing to remoteness and differing local conditions. For consulates in Arabic speaking countries (particularly the Sudan) a corps of Arabic Speakers would be needed.

4. Other conditions of service.—While serving overseas an officer will receive the following allowances which are non-pensionable:—

(1) A Clothing Allowance on three occasions during his career. The rate of this allowance is £180 for a married officer and £120 for a single officer.

(2) A Disturbance and Resettlement Allowance on posting from Nigeria to an overseas post, on transfer from one overseas post to another and on final return to Nigeria. The rate of this allowance is 10 per cent of basic salary up to a limit of £150 for married officers, and 5 per cent of basic salary up to a limit of £100 for single officers.

(3) An Overseas Allowance. This allowance is paid to officers to compensate them for the local cost of living and for expenditure which they must of necessity incur as representatives of Nigeria serving overseas. The rates of the allowance vary according to an officer's rank and the overseas post in which he is serving.

4. Rent Supplement.—If an officer is not occupying accommodation owned or leased by Government, he is granted a Rent Supplement to assist him to rent suitable accommodation.

5. (i) Applications from candidates in Government Service should be submitted through the applicant's Head of Department and the Secretary of the Public Service Commission concerned and be accompanied by a full confidential report on the suitability of the candidate.

(ii) Applications from candidates not in Government Service should be completed in duplicate on the prescribed forms which may be obtained from the Secretary, Federal Public Service Commission, Private Mail Bag No. 2586, Lagos.
