COUNCIL OF LEGAL EDUCATION
NIGERIAN LAW SCHOOL

The Council of Legal Education has announced the following information concerning courses for persons who wish to qualify for enrolment as Barristers and Solicitors of the Federal Supreme Court.

THREE MONTHS COURSES

During 1963 two further courses will be held for students who have passed the final examination qualifying for call or admission as barristers, advocates or solicitors in any part of Great Britain or Ireland and who wish to take advantage of the concessions set out in Regulation 1 (i) (d) of the Legal Practitioners Qualification Regulations, 1963. The courses will commence on 16th April and on 8th October.

The fee for each course is £25, payable in advance.

ONE YEAR COURSE

Students who have obtained a Law Degree from a recognised University or have passed a final examination qualifying for call or admission as barristers, advocates or solicitors in any part of Great Britain or Ireland and who do not qualify under the Legal Practitioners Qualification Regulations, 1963, for complete or partial exemption from attendance at the Nigerian Law School are required to complete a year's course. The course for such students will commence on 16th October, 1963.

The fee for the course is £100, payable in advance.

RESIDENTIAL ACCOMMODATION

Residential accommodation is available for a limited number of students. A charge of £20 a month is made for such accommodation and will cover the cost of the food and the accommodation only. Additional charges will be made for students' personal laundry. Accommodation will be allocated to students in the order in which their applications are received. No variation of this method will be considered.

For more detailed information about the courses and the residential accommodation students should write to the Secretary to the Council of Legal Education, The Nigerian Law School, Private Mail Bag 12604, Lagos.

NIGER DELTA DEVELOPMENT BOARD

VACANCY FOR FISHERIES OFFICER

Applications are invited from suitably qualified Nigerian candidates for the post of Fisheries Officer in the service of the Niger Delta Development Board. The Board is charged under the constitution of the Federation with undertaking a survey of the Niger Delta Area in order to ascertain what measures are required to promote its physical development and with the preparation of schemes designed to promote that development. The Constitution also provides that the life of the Board shall expire on the 1st July, 1969, unless extended by Parliament. The headquarters of the Board are sited at Port Harcourt.

Duties.—The Fisheries Officer will be required to undertake research and investigation, including the carrying out of a series of pilot projects throughout the Niger Delta area. Investigations will thus cover off-shore, fresh water and brackish water fishery. During the first three years of his appointment the officer would be required to work under the guidance of a Fisheries Expert appointed under technical assistance. At the end of that time, the Fisheries Officer may be required to take over full responsibility for this work.

Qualifications.—Applicants must possess a university honours degree in biology and preferably some experience in this field. It is desirable that they should be able to speak the Ijaw language fluently.

Conditions of service.—The salary of the post is at present in Scale A of the Federal Government (£720 to £1,584 per annum), the point of entry to be decided in relation to the age and experience of the successful applicant. The Board might be prepared to consider the payment of a higher starting salary in exceptional cases. Revision of the salary structure of the Board is at present under consideration.

The post will not be pensionable but the person appointed will be eligible to participate in a non-contributory provident fund scheme which the Board is in the process of establishing.

The other conditions of service are at present similar to those of members of the Federal Public Service of equivalent rank.

Method of application.—Intending applicants are invited to write to, The Secretary, Niger Delta Development Board, Private Mail Bag 67, Port Harcourt, Eastern Nigeria, setting out briefly their personal particulars, including qualifications and experience. If they are considered to be prima facie suitable, application forms for the post will then be despatched to them.
