Government Notice No. 1500

UNESCO VACANCY

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE APPOINTMENT

1. Title of post.—Adviser in Teacher Training.

2. Location.—Apia, Western Samoa.

3. Background and functions.—Since independence in 1962, the government of Western Samoa has continued its policy of developing education, through its Department of Education. By 1968, the number of primary schools has risen to the total of 153 (127 government and 26 mission schools) with approximately 25,000 pupils and 39 intermediate schools with over 6,000 students. There are 3 government and 3 mission secondary schools for the age range of 16-20, the graduates of which take the New Zealand School Certificate Examination. A Teacher Training College provides training for all primary school teachers, while secondary and some intermediate school teachers are trained abroad.

Unesco assisted the country with the aid of UNDP and UNICEF in the field of science education since 1965 and the project will come to completion at the end of 1970. The project has introduced new school science curriculum and the in-service training of science teachers in the new curriculum has also been undertaken. Science teaching equipment has been provided to schools and the science equipment supply centre and workshop have been established with the aid of UNICEF. The University of South Pacific in Fiji, being assisted by Unesco and UNDP, will follow up the continued technical assistance to the curriculum development work.

The adviser in teacher training will be attached to the Office of the Director of Education and will be required to perform the following functions:

(a) to advise and assist the Director of Education, in developing and implementing a comprehensive system of pre-service and in-service training for school teachers in accordance with the 1971-75 Educational Development Plan. In this connection the adviser will be expected to assist in the formulation of a teacher training programme and to participate in and guide its implementation as well as providing where possible the co-ordination of resource persons and materials from other Government and non-Government institutions such as the Health, Agriculture and Public Works Departments and the religious missions;

(b) to co-operate with the Principal and staff of the Teacher Training College in its instructional programme in teaching techniques and methods suited to Samoan environment;

(c) Under the direction of the Director of Education, to develop the in-service training programmes already started under the UNESCO/UNICEF-assisted project in elementary science teaching and in other curriculum subjects, e.g. Modern Mathematics, English, etc.;

(d) to undertake such other functions as may be entrusted to him by the Director of Education.

4. Qualifications:

(a) Good academic qualifications and professional background in teacher training, with administrative experience in a teacher training institution.

(b) University degree in science or science education preferred, so that the Adviser can give professional guidance and direction to the existing UNESCO/UNICEF assisted project in elementary science education.

(c) Previous successful experience in working on a developing country; previous knowledge and experience of the South Pacific region would be advantage.

5. Language qualifications.—English.

6. Duration of appointment.—Two years, starting January 1971.

7. International salary and allowances.—(Net of national income tax—payable partly in the currency of the staff member's home or of the duty station).
