COMPETITION FOR ENTRY INTO THE ADMINISTRATIVE AND SPECIAL DEPARTMENTAL CLASSES IN THE EAST-CENTRAL STATE PUBLIC SERVICE

The 1974 competition for entry into the Administrative and the Special Departmental Classes in the East-Central State of Nigeria Public Service will be held on 18th and 19th January, 1974. The Special Departmental Classes comprise the Scale A posts of Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies, Produce Officer, Inspector of Taxes, Accountant, Auditor, Industrial Promotions Officer, Commercial Officer, Information Officer and Loan Administrator.

2. The Competition will consist of :—

(a) a qualifying written examination conducted by the West African Examination Council ;

(b) a series of tests and interviews conducted by the Public Service Selection Board ; and

(c) an interview by the Public Service Commission.

Only candidates who attain the qualifying standard in the written examination will be invited for the tests and interviews to be conducted by the Public Service Selection Board. The Public Service Commission will subsequently select, in the light of the performances of such candidates, those who will be interviewed by the Commission.

3. QUALIFICATIONS :

(a) Officers not yet in East-Central State Service—

To be eligible to enter for the competition a candidate who is not already in the Public Service of the East-Central State of Nigeria, should either possess the following qualifications or be sitting for them in the course of the year, viz :—

(i) Administrative Class.—(a) First or Second-Class Honours Degree, or a higher Degree, preferably in Arts, Economics, or other Social Sciences from a recognised University ;

(b) Honours Degree (Pass or Third-class), First or Second-class General Degree from a recognised University, in addition to a Diploma in Public Administration from a recognised Institution.

(ii) Auditor and Accountant.—(a) Final Certificates of one of the following professional bodies ;

(i) Chartered Accountants.

(ii) Society of Incorporated Accountants and Auditors.

(iii) Association of Certified and Corporate Accountants.

(iv) Institute of Municipal Treasurers and Accountants.

(v) Institute of Cost and Works Accountants.

(b) Honours Degree in Accountancy, or Economics or related subjects with Accountancy as a Special Subject, from a recognised University.

(iii) Inspector of Taxes :

(a) Any of the accounting qualifications listed in sub-paragraph (ii) (a) and (b) above.

(b) A Degree in Law from a recognised University.

(c) A call to the Bar.

(iv) Produce Officer.—An Honours Degree in Agriculture, Commerce or Economics from a recognised University.

(v) Other "Scale A" Posts.—For the posts of Industrial Promotions Officer, Commercial Officer, Loans Administrator and Information Officers, a candidate should either possess the following qualifications, or be sitting for them in course of the year :—

First or Second-class Honours Degree in Arts, Economics, Statistics, Sociology, Business Administration, Commerce from a recognised University.

"Recognised" in the above contexts means "recognised by the Government of East-Central State of Nigeria".

(b) Serving Officers.—Serving Officers in the East-Central State Public Service who are in possession of any of the qualifications listed in paragraph 3 (a) above, but who have not previously passed the Competitive Examination for entry into the relevant class, are also eligible to enter for the competition.

(c) General Executive and Secretarial Classes.—The following serving officers in the General Executive and Secretarial Classes are also eligible to enter for the Competitive Examination.

(a) Graduate officers or officers with appropriate Diploma in Public Administration or Management who have served for at least three years.

(b) Other officers in the Executive and Secretarial Classes who not being graduates or possessing appropriate Diploma in Public Administration or Management have served at least five years in the General Executive or Secretarial grade.

The purpose of the written examination is not to test the candidates in the subjects which they studied for their degrees, but to test their ability to think clearly, to understand and write English and also to test their knowledge of current affairs, particularly West African Affairs. Notes for the guidance of candidates, drawn up by the West African Examinations Council will be issued to all candidates by the Council in due course.

5. The written examination will consist of the following papers :—

(i) English (Precis and Critical Appreciation).—This will consist of a fairly long and complex passage and candidates will be required to comment on its central idea ;

(ii) Current Affairs.—This will comprise two separate papers one of which will be a paper of three compulsory questions of the traditional easy type and the other an objective test of fifty questions. The questions are designed to test the candidates' intelligent awareness of current affairs which any educated person may be presumed to possess.

(iii) General.—This will consist of two questions. The first, known as the "Logical Force Passage", will test the candidates' ability to detect dubious thinking and the second known as "Statistical Inference Question", will test their ability to draw correct inferences from a table of numerical data.

6. The written examination will be held at the following centres:—

Lagos, Ibadan, Enugu, Benin City, Onitsha, Zaria, Accra, Freetown, London, Washington and at such other centres as may be determined later.

The dates and centres of the sitting of the Public Service Selection Board will be announced later.

7. Candidates will be responsible for arranging and meeting the cost of the accommodation and transport.

8. Each candidate will be required to pay a fee of ₦10.50 (£5-5s-0d) which will not be refundable. No responsibility will be accepted for money sent in any manner other than the one prescribed in paragraph 9 below.

9. Method of application.—Candidates who have already applied for appointment to any of the classes mentioned in paragraph 1 above should, if in Nigeria send to the Secretary, Public Service Commission, Enugu, crossed Postal or Money Order for the Examination fee of ₦10.50 each. If outside Nigeria, the candidates should send the fee of ₦10.50 each by crossed Money Order or crossed Postal Order to the authority to whom he addressed his application. The name of the applicant should be inscribed on the reverse side of the Money or Postal Order and the serial number(s) of such Postal or Money Orders should be recorded in the accompanying application form or letter.

10. Candidates who have not yet applied, but who wish to do so, should send their fees in the manner described above, together with their applications on the official forms, to the Secretary, Public Service Commission, Enugu, if they are in West Africa or to the Nigeria High Commission (Recruitment Section), 9 Northumberland Avenue, London, W.C.2, if they are in Europe, or to the Chancery, Embassy of Nigeria, 1333, Sixteenth Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20036, if they are in the United States of America or Canada.

11. Candidates who entered for the 1973 Examination.—Candidates who entered for the 1973 examination which did not take place, and who have indicated in writing to the Secretary, Public Service Commission, Enugu, that they are willing to keep their 1973 entry open until the 1974 examination need not re-enter, since they, having enlisted already, are deemed eligible to take the examination.

12. Closing date.—In all cases, applications and fees will be accepted up to, and including 31st July, 1973, but not after. Intending candidates who had earlier submitted applications, but who for some reason may be in doubt about whether or not they will be accepted on the basis of such applications on the payment of the prescribed examination fee of ₦10.50 are advised to submit fresh applications along with their fees.

13. Instructions as to the date, time and place of the examination will be sent direct to candidates by the West African Examinations Council.
