Qualifications :

1. Education.—University degree or equivalent academic qualifications.

2. Experience.—Broad experience regarding ICAO preferably acquired by direct contact with ICAO activities. Failing that, experience in another international organization in the office dealing with other organizations, or in a government department dealing with ICAO.

3. Language.—Command of one of the languages of the Organization (English, French, Russian, Spanish) and a working knowledge of at least one of the other languages desirable.

4. General.—Understanding of the Convention on International Civil Aviation and other relevant international agreements. Knowledge of the history of ICAO, and of its present activities. Knowledge of the organization, administration and working methods of ICAO and of the fields of competence of its organs and subsidiary bodies. Knowledge of the organization, fields of competence and working methods of other international organizations—governmental and non-governmental—and, in particular, the United Nations and the Specialized Agencies. Ability to analyse the activities of other organizations and to present relevant information and proposals for action by ICAO to the Secretary-General and the President of the Council. Thoroughness, accuracy, discretion, maturity of judgment and ability to maintain harmonious working relationships essential.

Occupant responsible to.—Secretary-General.

Duties :

1. Review and provide advice upon the relations between ICAO and States. Conduct missions to States as required for this purpose.

2. Monitor developments within the UN relevant to ICAO's relationship agreement with the UN. In particular, ensure the timely presentation of required reports, as appropriate, to UN bodies and of the relevant resolutions and recommendations of the UN General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council, to the ICAO Council.

3. Review and provide advice upon the activities of inter-agency bodies such as the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination (ACC) and its subordinate bodies and attend meetings as required.

4. In consultation with the Secretary-General and President, make arrangements for consultation with Specialized Agencies and other organizations, including ICAO representation at their meetings, co-ordinate the work needed in preparation for such representation and ensure that the results of participation are duly reported.

5. Prepare working papers as necessary for the Assembly, the Council and other bodies of the Organization.

6. Ensure appropriate action is taken within the Organization on relevant reports of the United Nations Joint Inspection Unit.

7. Collect and disseminate general information on international organizations and States. In particular collect and present information on national Civil Aviation Administrations.

8. Assist the Legal Bureau in matters concerning the exercise of privileges and immunities granted by States to the Organization itself and to national representatives. Co-operate with the Legal Bureau in the negotiations with governments of agreements relating to privileges and immunities.

9. Direct the attention of the President and Secretary-General to political developments which may affect ICAO.

10. Arrange and supervise the annual ICAO familiarization course.

11. Perform other duties as assigned.

Terms of appointment.—The appointment may be offered initially for a period of two years on a renewable basis intended to lead to a permanent career or on a non-renewable non-career basis for a period of up to three years (in the latter case the incumbent may, however, apply for reappointment when the vacancy in the post is announced on expiry of his term of appointment). Applicants should state their preference, but if their preference is for a career appointment, they should indicate also whether they would be prepared to accept a non-career appointment.

Applications.—Applications must be made on the ICAO Application Form in strict accordance with all instructions on the form. The form, if not available locally, may be obtained by writing to the address below. When completed it should be sent to Chief, Personnel Branch, International Civil Aviation Organization, P.O.
