ADVERTISEMENT FOR SENIOR POSITIONS IN THE AGRICULTURAL PROJECTS MONITORING, EVALUATION AND PLANNING UNIT OF THE FEDERAL DEPARTMENT OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT

The Project Monitoring and Evaluation Unit of the Federal Department of Rural Development was established in 1978 to carry out the economic and social evaluation of integrated Agricultural Development Projects established with World Bank Assistance. It is located in Kaduna but will have a sub-office in Ibadan in the near future.

The specific objectives of the unit are :—

- To guide project management.
- To help the establishment of project goals and scheduling of project activities.
- To measure effectiveness and efficiency of project activities.
- To inform State and the Federal Governments and others of changes stemming from project activities ; and
- To enhance knowledge of the rural development Process for future development planning.
- To permit the continuous reappraisal of project goals, and assumptions underlying project design, particularly those aspects affecting farm credit and input supply, and to allow for progressive modification of project objectives and structures.
- To provide guidance and information in the identification and preparation of new projects.

The Unit engages the services of Agronomists, Agricultural Economics, and Statisticians. At present the Unit monitors the progress of the Funtua Gusau, and Gombe Agricultural Development Projects as well as the Lafia and Ayangba Agricultural Development Projects which have just begun. Five new projects now under preparation will also be looked after by the Unit when they become operational in the near future. Recently the Unit was expanded to include a planning section
