Government Notice No. 401*UNIVERSITY COLLEGE HOSPITAL, IBADAN RESIDENCY TRAINING PROGRAMME

Applications are invited from qualified Nigerian Nationals for a full Residency Training Programme in University College Hospital, Ibadan, leading to the Fellowship of the National Post graduate Medical College of Nigeria or the Fellowship of West African College of Surgeons/Physicians.

Positions are available in the following Departments :—

Medicine, Otorhinolaryngology, Paediatrics, Obstetrics, and Gynaecology, Anaesthesia, Preventive and Social Medicine, Psychiatry, Chemical Pathology, Haematology, Medical Microbiology and Clinical Pharmacology.

The duration of the programme is six years with the exception of Neuro-Surgery which is seven years.

Qualifications.—Prospective candidates are expected to—

(a) be qualified Medical Practitioners ;

(b) be fully registered with the Nigeria Medical Council ;

(c) have satisfactorily completed the National Youth Service Corps programme ;

(d) have passed the Primary examination of either the National Post-Graduate Medical College of Nigeria or the West African College of Surgeons/Physicians or have distinguished themselves in their disciplines at the MB ; BS level.

Candidates applying for training in the Divisions of Laboratory Medicine shall be required to rotate through Pathology, Haematology, Medical Microbiology and Chemical Pathology, and such candidates could only decide on area of Speciality at the end of the first year of rotation.

Successful candidates will be expected to commence residency training in accordance with the laid down regulations of the hospital. Continued retention in the Hospital service will be dependent on satisfactory progress on the training programme and candidates whose work and progress are not satisfactory in accordance with the laid down rules will be asked to withdraw from the programme.

A successful candidate at the Part I examination qualifies for appointment as Senior Registrar in the Speciality subject to vacancy and satisfactory work and conduct. Such a candidate would have acquired three years experience in the relevant speciality.

Applicants should note that :

(a) the one year clinical attachment overseas for residents who pass Part I of the Fellowship examination has been abolished. However, residents on the programme could be granted study leave without pay for one year only for clinical attachment at their own expense and with no foreign exchange implications for government ;

(b) residents who check out of the residency programme on account of failure or on successful completion of the training course would find jobs for themselves but the period of training will be credited to them for pension purposes should they find jobs in the public service ;

(c) residents on the programme are deemed to be on probation for the entire period of the residency ;

(d) residents who fail the prescribed examination within the stipulated guidelines shall automatically withdraw from the programme and upon such withdrawal their probationary appointment shall be terminated.

Salary.—The salary and other benefits are as approved by the Federal Government and point of entry will depend on experience.

Method of Application.—Candidates should send six copies of their detailed curriculum vitae stating previous appointments held with dates, if any, and names of three referees one of whom must be the Dean of the Medical School where the candidates qualified and two Consultants under whom the candidates had worked. Candidates are required to give details of any scholarship award including any bond they may have entered into. The envelope which should be marked "UCH Residency Training Programme" on the top left hand corner, should be addressed to the Chief Medical Director, University College Hospital, Ibadan, to reach him not later than 3rd July, 1987.

Candidates should also request their referees to forward their references in confidence to the Chief Medical Director, University College Hospital, P.M.B. 5116, Ibadan. Only applications of candidates selected for interview will be acknowledged.
