PART I — ESTABLISHMENT AND OBJECTIVES OF CONTRIBUTORY PENSION SCHEME FOR EMPLOYEES IN THE PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SECTORS

1.—(1) There shall be established for any employment in the Federal Republic of Nigeria, a Contributory Pension Scheme (in this Act referred to as "the Scheme") for payment of retirement benefits of employees to whom the Scheme applies under this Act.

Establishment of a Contributory
Pension Scheme for employees
in the Public and Private Sectors.

(2) Subject to Section 8 of this Act, the Scheme shall apply to all employees in the Public Service of the Federation, Federal Capital Territory and the Private Sector —

(a) in the case of the Public Sector, who are in employment ; and

(b) in the case of the Private Sector, who are in employment in an organisation in which there are 5 or more employees.

2. The objectives of the Scheme shall be to —

Objectives of the Scheme.

(a) ensure that every person who worked in either the Public Service of the Federation, Federal Capital Territory or Private Sector receives his retirement benefits as and when due ;

(b) assist improvident individuals by ensuring that they save in order to cater for their livelihood during old age ; and

(c) establish a uniform set of rules, regulations and standards for the administration and payments of retirement benefits for the Public Service of the Federation, Federal Capital Territory and the Private Sector.

3.—(1) Subject to section 3 (2) as from the commencement of this Act, no person shall be entitled to make any withdrawal from his retirement savings account, opened under section 11 of this Act, before attaining the age of 50 years.

Withdrawal from retirement
savings account

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, any employee who —

(a) is retired on the advice of a suitably qualified physician or a properly constituted medical board certifying that the employee is no longer mentally or physically capable of carrying out the functions of his office ;

(b) is retired due to his total or permanent disability either of mind or body ; or

(c) retires before the age of 50 years in accordance with the terms and conditions of his employment, shall be entitled to make withdrawals in accordance with section 4 of this Act.

(3) The Medical Board or suitably qualified physician under subsection (2) of this section may, at the request of the employee be made once in every two years, review the fitness of the employee and where the medical board certifies that he is now mentally and physically capable of carrying out the functions of his office, he may re-enter the scheme upon securing another employment.

(4) For purpose of subsection (1) of this section, the authentic age of an employee entering the public service or any other employment shall be that submitted by him on entering the service or taking up the employment.

Retirement benefits.

4.—(1) A holder of a retirement savings account upon retirement or attaining the age of 50 years, whichever is later, shall utilise the balance standing to the credit of his retirement savings account for the following benefits —

(a) programmed monthly or quarterly withdrawals calculated on the basis of an expected life span ;

(b) annuity for life purchased from a life insurance company licensed by the National Insurance Commission with monthly or quarterly payments ; and

(c) a lump sum from the balance standing to the credit of his retirement savings account : provided that the amount left after that lump sum withdrawal shall be sufficient to procure an annuity or fund programmed withdrawals that will produce an amount not less than 50 per cent of his annual remuneration as at the date of his retirement.

(2) Where an employee retires under paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section 3 of this Act the employee may, on request, withdraw a lump sum of money not more than 25% per cent of the amount standing to the credit of the retirement savings account: provided that such withdrawals shall only be made after six months of such retirement and the retired employee does not secure another employment.

Death of an employee.

5.—(1) Where an employee dies, his entitlements under the life insurance policy maintained under subsection (3) of section 9 of this Act shall be paid to his retirement savings account.

(2) The pension fund administrator shall apply the amount paid under subsection (1) of this section in accordance with section 4 of this Act in favour of the beneficiary under a will or the spouse and children of the deceased or in the absence of a wife and child, to the recorded next-of-kin or any person designated by him during his life time or in the absence of such designation, to any person appointed by the Probate Registry as the administrator of the estate of the deceased.

employees.

6.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, where an employee is missing and is not found within a period of one year from the date he was declared missing, and a board of inquiry set up by the Commission concludes that it is reasonable to presume that he has died, the provisions of section 5 of this Act shall apply.

(2) Where it is confirmed or presumed that the employee is dead, the provision of section 5 of this Act shall apply.

7.—(1) Any amount payable as a retirement benefit under this Act shall not be taxable.

Retirement benefits to be exempted from tax.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, any voluntary contribution made under subsection (5) of section 9 of this Act shall be subject to tax at the point of withdrawal where the withdrawal is made before the end of 5 years from the date the voluntary contribution was made.

8.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of section 1 of this Act, any employee who at the commencement of this Act is entitled to retirement benefits under any pension scheme existing before the commencement of this Act but has 3 or less, years to retire shall be exempted from the scheme.

Exemption from the Scheme.

(2) The categories of person mentioned in section 291 of the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria 1999 shall be exempted from the Scheme.

(3) Any person who falls within the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall continue to derive retirement benefit under such existing pension scheme as provided for in the First Schedule to this Act.

First Schedule.

(4) Nothing in this Act shall preclude the right of any person mentioned in subsection (1) and (2) of this Act to be paid his pension as and when due.

9.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Commission established under section 14 of this Act, the contribution for any employee to which this Act applies shall be made in the following circumstances relating to his monthly emoluments —

Rate of contribution to the Scheme.

(a) in the case of the Public Service of the Federation and Federal Capital Territory —

- (i) a minimum of seven and half per cent by the employer ;

(c) in other cases —

- (i) a minimum of seven and a half per cent by the employer, and
- (ii) a minimum of seven and a half per cent by the employee.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, an employer may agree or elect to bear the full burden of the Scheme, provided that in such a case the employer's contribution shall not be less than 15% of the monthly emoluments of the employee.

(3) In addition to the rates specified in sub-section (1) of this section, employers shall maintain life insurance policy in favour of the employee for a minimum of three times the annual total emolument of the employee.

(4) Subject to such guidelines as may be issued from time to time by the Commission, any person who is not ordinarily covered under section 1 of this Act or any person exempted under sub-section (1) of section 8 of this Act shall be entitled to make voluntary contributions under the Scheme.

(5) Any employee to which this Act applies may, in addition to the total contributions being made by him and his employer, make voluntary contributions to his retirement savings account.

(6) The rates of contribution mentioned in subsection (1) of this section may, upon agreement between any employer and employee, be revised upwards, from time to time, and the Commission shall be notified of such revision.

Contribution under the Scheme to form part of tax deductible expenses.

10. Notwithstanding anything in any enactment or law, contributions by an employee to the Scheme under this Act shall form part of tax deductible expenses in the computation of tax payable by an employer or employee under the relevant income tax law.

Retirement savings account and remittance of contributions, etc.

11.—(1) Every employee shall maintain an account' (in this Act referred to as "retirement savings account") in his name with any pension fund administrator of his choice.

(2) The employee may, not more than once in a year, transfer the retirement savings account maintained under subsection (1) of this section from one pension fund administrator to another without adducing any reason for such transfer.

(3) The employee shall notify his employer of the pension fund administrator chosen and the identity of the retirement savings account opened under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The employee shall not have access to his retirement savings account nor have any dealing with the custodian with respect to the retirement savings account except through the pension fund administrator.

(5) The employer shall —

(a) deduct at source, the monthly contribution of the employee in his employment; and

(b) not later than 7 working days from the day the employee is paid his salary, remit an amount comprising the employee's contribution under paragraph (a) of this subsection and the employer's contribution to the custodian specified by the pension fund administrator of the employee to the exclusive order of such pension fund administrator;

(6) upon receipt of the contributions remitted under subsection (5) (b) of this section, the custodian shall notify the pension fund administrator who shall cause to be credited the retirement savings account of the employee for whom the employer had made the payment.

(7) Any employer who fails to remit the contributions within the time prescribed in subsection (5) (b) of this section shall, in addition to making the remittance already due, be liable to a penalty to be stipulated by the Commission provided that the penalty shall not be less than 2 per cent of the total contribution that remains unpaid for each month or part of each month the default continues and the amount of the penalty shall be recoverable as a debt owing to the employees retirement savings account as the case may be.

SECOND SCHEDULE

Section 16 (5)

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE COMMISSION

Proceedings of the Board

1. Subject to this Act and Section 27 of the Interpretation Act, the Commission shall have power to regulate its proceedings and may make standing orders with respect to the holding of its meetings, and those of its Committees, notices to be given, the keeping of minutes of its proceedings, the custody and production for inspection of such minutes and such other matters as the Commission may, from time to time, determine.

2.—(1) There shall be at least four ordinary meetings of the Commission in every calendar year and subject thereto, the Commission shall meet whenever it is convened by the Chairman, and if the Chairman is requested to do so by notice given to him by not less than 3 other members, he shall convene a meeting of the Commission to be held within 14 days from the date on which the notice is given.

(2) Every meeting of the Commission shall be presided over by the Chairman and if the Chairman is unable to attend a particular meeting, the members present at the meeting shall elect one of their members to preside at the meeting.

3. The quorum of any meeting of the Commission shall consist of the Chairman (or in an appropriate case, the person presiding at the meeting pursuant to paragraph 2 of this Schedule) and six other members.

4. The Commission shall meet for the conduct of its business at such places and on such days as the Chairman may appoint.

5. A question put before the Commission at a meeting shall be decided by consensus and where this is not possible, by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.

6. The Chairman shall, in the case of an equality of votes, have a casting vote in addition to his deliberate vote.

7. Where the Commission seeks the advice of any person on a particular matter, the Commission may invite that person to attend for such period as it thinks fit, but a person who is invited by virtue of this paragraph shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Commission and shall not count towards the quorum.

Committees

8. The Commission may appoint one or more committees to carry out on behalf of the Commission such of its functions as the Board may determine and report on any matter with which the Commission is concerned.

9. A committee appointed under paragraph 8 of this Schedule shall be presided over by a member of the Commission and consist of such number of persons (not necessarily all members of the Commission) as may be determined by the Commission, and a person other than a member of the Commission shall hold office in the committee in accordance with terms of his appointment.

10. A decision of a committee of the Commission shall be of no effect until it is confirmed by the Commission.

Miscellaneous

11. The fixing of the seal of the Commission shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman and the Secretary or Secretary and such other person authorised by the Commission to act for that purpose.

12. A contract or an instrument which, if made or executed by any person not being a body corporate, would be required to be under seal, may be made or executed on behalf of the Commission by the Chairman or the Secretary or by any person generally or specifically authorised to act for that purpose by the Commission.

13. A document purporting to be a contract, an instrument or other document signed or sealed on behalf of the Commission shall be received in evidence and, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed without further proof, to have been properly signed or sealed.

14. The validity of any proceedings of the Commission or its committees shall not be affected by —

- (a) any vacancy in the membership of the Commission or its Committees ; or
- (b) by reason that a person not entitled to do so took part in the proceedings ; or
- (c) any defect in the appointment of a member.

15. Any member of the Commission or committee thereof who has a personal interest in any contract or arrangement entered into or proposed to be considered by the Commission or any Committee thereof —

- (a) shall forthwith disclose his interest to the Commission or committee ; and
- (b) shall not vote on any question relating to the contract or arrangement.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Act repeals the Pensions Act 1990 and establishes a uniform contributory pension scheme for both the public and private sectors in Nigeria with the features of —

- (a) contributions of funds by both the employer and the employee to fund retirement benefits ;
- (b) crediting the employee's retirement savings account with pension fund administrators with any funds so contributed ;
- (c) pension fund assets are to be privately managed and invested by professional pension fund managers ;
- (d) strict regulation of the activities of pension fund administrators and custodians of pension fund assets under uniform laws and regulations for both the public and private sectors ; and
- (e) the establishment of the National Pension Commission charged with the responsibility for matters relating to the regulation, supervision and effective administration of the Scheme, and for matters connected herewith.
