LAW COMMISSION BILL, 2022

(Bill No. 10 of 2022)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The object of this Bill is to establish the Seychelles Law Commission which will be responsible for reviewing the laws of Seychelles with a view to propose legislative amendments or new legislation to the Government and the National Assembly. The main tasks of the Commission will be: (1) Law Reform; (2) Law Revision; and (3) Legislative Scrutiny. Further, the Commission will be given the responsibility of compiling the Seychelles Law Reports.

Law Reform

The Commission will be an advisory body to the Republic that will monitor and review the laws of Seychelles. The Commission will recommend new legislation and amendments to existing laws. In conducting its work, the Commission will need to conduct public consultation and in-depth research in respect of the laws of Seychelles for the purposes of providing legislative solutions to societal challenges and ensuring that Seychelles keeps abreast with legislative developments around the world.

Law Revision

The Commission will take up the functions of the Law Revision Commissioner and as such, the Bill proposes the repeal of the Statute Law Revision Act, Cap. 232. The Commission will build on the milestones achieved under the Government's ongoing Law Revision Project which ends in December 2022.

Legislative scrutiny

The Commission will engage in both pre-legislative scrutiny and post-legislative scrutiny. This will be a critical function of the Commission. Legislative scrutiny is usually an exercise undertaken by the Members of the National Assembly. Currently, the National Assembly undertakes pre-legislative scrutiny through its Scrutiny of Bills Committee where the

---

Members of the National Assembly examines and analyses legislative proposal with a view to improving the quality of the proposed law. However, there are significant capacity constraints on the National Assembly to facilitate post-legislative scrutiny (PLS). PLS is an inquiry into laws passed by the National Assembly to determine whether the laws are achieving their intended objectives or consequences and to analyse how the law is working in practice and if there are any changes needed. The Commission is intended to assist the National Assembly as far as possible in undertaking PLS.

Seychelles Law Report

The Commission will be responsible for the compilation of the Seychelles Law Reports subject to the approval of the Chief Justice.

The Commission will be governed by Commissioners which will include the Attorney General, judges and lawyers who will consult the public and key stakeholders on proposals of the Commission. The day-to-day administration and activities will be spearheaded by the person who is appointed as the Director of the Commission. The Director will be supported by other technical staff.
