SEYCHELLES MARITIME SAFETY AUTHORITY ACT, 2019

(Act 2 of 2020)

Seychelles Maritime Safety Authority (Appeals Rules of Procedure)
Regulation 2022

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 26(h) of the Seychelles Maritime Safety Authority Act, the Minister responsible for Maritime Affairs hereby makes the following Regulations —

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Seychelles Maritime Safety Authority (Appeals Rules of Procedure) Regulation 2022.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations —

“Appeals Board” means the Appeals Board established by section 11 of the Act;

“Secretary” means the Secretary to the Appeals Board appointed under regulation 5;

“standard scale” means the standard scale of fines for offences established under the Criminal Offences (Standard Scale of Fines) Act, 2021;

Appeals

3. A person aggrieved by a decision of the Authority may lodge a notice of appeal to the Appeals Board within one month from receipt of the decision of the Authority.

Lodgement of appeals

4.(1) A notice of appeal under regulation 3 shall as far as practicable be made in the form specified in the First Schedule.

(2) The appellant shall upon filing his or her notice of appeal pay a non-refundable fee as specified in Schedule 2.

(3) The application under subregulation (2) shall be filed with the Secretary.

(4) The Secretary shall register the appeal and forthwith without delay deliver the notice of appeal to the Chairperson of the Appeals Board.

(5) The Secretary shall cause a copy of the notice of appeal to be served on the Authority and shall notify the Authority to compile the record and to send a copy of the record to the Appellant.

Secretary to the Appeals Board

5. The Authority shall appoint a Secretary to the Appeals Board who shall be responsible for —

- (a) ensuring the overall smooth running of the Appeals Board;
- (b) convening the sittings of the Appeals Board after consultation with the Chairperson and members;
- (c) the implementation of decisions made by the Appeals Board; and
- (d) such other duties as the Chairperson may from time to time direct.

Commencement of proceedings

6.(1) The Chairperson shall, upon examination of the application cause the Secretary to issue to the parties in the application a Notice of Mention in the form specified in Schedule 3.

(2) At the hearing of the mention the parties shall make appropriate disclosure of documents they wish to rely upon at the hearing.

(3) The Secretary shall record the date set for hearing and shall ensure that all parties have notice of the date set for hearing.

Hearings before the Appeals Board

7.(1) At a hearing before the Appeals Board, the Chairperson shall take evidence on oath and for that purpose shall administer oaths.

(2) A hearing before the Appeals Board shall be open to the public but, may be heard in private if —

- (a) the circumstances so warrant; or
- (b) the Appeals Board considers it appropriate.

Evidence rules and Natural Justice

8.(1) The rules of evidence which apply in civil cases before the Supreme Court shall apply in all matters before the Appeals Board.

(2) Whilst hearing an appeal, the Appeals Board shall ensure that the rules of Natural Justice are observed.

Arguments or submissions before the Appeals Board

9.(1) Any party to proceedings before the Appeals Board, or the authorised representative of that party shall declare to the Appeals Board at the earliest opportunity whether he or she intends to make oral or written submissions during the course of the proceedings.

(2) Where a party to the proceedings or his or her authorised representatives has chosen to file written submissions, he or she shall arrange to submit copies thereof to the Secretary of the Appeals Board at least 14 working days before the date fixed for consideration of the matter by the Appeals Board.

Proceedings in absence of a party

10. Where on a date fixed for any particular matter before the Appeals Board, any party to the proceedings who was present when the date was fixed does not appear, the proceedings may be continued in the absence of that party or the Chairperson may issue an Order, Direction or Notice as he or she shall consider appropriate.

Minutes and records of proceedings

11.(1) The Secretary shall keep a record of any oral evidence given at the hearing before the Appeals Board and the record shall be signed by the Chairperson.

Decisions of the Appeals Board

12.(1) Section 12(3) shall apply to a decision of the Appeals Board.

(2) Three members of the Appeals Board shall constitute a quorum at any sitting of the Appeals Board.

(3) In the event that there is no quorum for a sitting of the Appeals Board in circumstances of members being absent or members being secluded pursuant to regulation 13, the Minister shall appoint suitable members necessary to constitute a quorum for the hearing of a matter before the Board.

(4) Every decision of the Appeals Board shall be signed and dated by the Chairperson and two other members.

(5) The Appeals Board shall treat an application with the urgency that it requires, and as far as practicable a decision shall be issued within 21 days from the date of conclusion of the final arguments.

(6) A certified copy of the decision shall be served on the parties to the proceedings within 14 days from date that the decision is made.

Offences

13. A person who —

- (a) willfully insults or obstructs a member or any officer of the Appeals Board in the course of any proceedings of the Board;
- (b) willfully insults or obstructs a witness or other person in attendance at any proceedings of the Appeals Board;

- (c) willfully interrupts or disrupts, or otherwise misbehaves at, any proceedings of the Appeals Board, commits an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine of level 3 on the standard scale.

Disclosure of interest

14. Where a member is present at proceedings before the Appeals Board and that member or a close relative of that member, has direct or indirect interest in a matter being dealt with in those proceedings, the member shall, before or as soon as practicable after the commencement of the proceedings, disclose that interest and shall not take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question relating to, the matter under consideration.

EMPLOYMENT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2022

(Bill No. 21 of 2022)

A BILL FOR

AN ACT TO AMEND THE EMPLOYMENT ACT, (CAP. 69) TO PROVIDE FOR SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR THE PAYMENT OF THIRTEENTH MONTH PAY TO WORKERS FOR THE YEAR 2022; AND TO PROVIDE FOR MATTERS CONNECTED THEREWITH OR INCIDENTAL THERETO.

ENACTED by the President and the National Assembly.

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Employment (Amendment) Act, 2022, amending the Employment Act, (Cap 69) (hereinafter the “principal Act”).

Applicability of Section 46C

2.(1) Notwithstanding section 46C(4) of the principal Act, the amount of thirteenth month pay payable by an employer under section 46C of the principal Act in respect of the period from 1st January 2022 to 31st December 2022, due on the 31st December 2022 and payable on or before 31st January 2023 shall be payable to a worker in accordance with the provisions of sections 3, 4, 5 and 6.

(2) Except for the calculation of thirteenth month pay under section 3, section 46C shall apply to thirteenth month pay under this Act.

Calculation of thirteenth month pay

3. For the purpose of calculating the amount of the thirteenth month pay payable under section 2, an employer —

- (a) shall make all applicable deductions set out under section 46C of the principal Act from the worker's monthly salary referred to in section 46C(4) of the principal Act;
- (b) after the deductions under paragraph (a) have been made —
 - (i) shall pay 50% of such amount to the worker; and
 - (ii) may make deductions from the remaining 50% of such amount but any such deductions shall be based on the performance appraisal of the worker.

Performance Appraisal System

4.(1) In section 3 and this section —

“performance appraisal” means the assessment, appraisal or evaluation of the performance or productivity of a worker by the worker's employer in accordance with the employer's performance appraisal system; and

“performance appraisal system” means a system that is put in place by an employer to measure a worker's performance during the year 2022 against previously-agreed objectives, targets and ratings.

(2) An employer shall assess the sum due and payable to the worker 3 (b)(ii) in accordance with the worker's performance appraisal.

(3) Absence of a worker from work in respect of any leave to which entitled under the principal Act shall not be used as a criterion or a factor in assessing performance or productivity under a performance appraisal system.

(4) Except where an employer agrees in writing to pay or pays a worker thirteenth month pay equal to the monthly salary of the worker referred to in section 46C of the principal Act, an employer shall in writing notify the worker of the amount due and payable to the worker under section 3(b)(ii).

(5) An employer who does not have a performance appraisal system in place before the 31st December, 2022, or who fails to conduct performance appraisal of the worker on or before the 31st January, 2023, shall be liable to pay the worker thirteenth month pay equal to the monthly salary of the worker referred to in section 46C of the principal Act.

(6) Notwithstanding section 3 and anything to the contrary under this section, an employer may pay a worker thirteenth month pay equal to the monthly salary of the worker referred to under section 46C (4) of the principal Act without conducting a performance appraisal.

Employer may pay thirteenth month pay to a worker otherwise disqualified

5. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act, an employer may pay to his or her Seychellois worker whose monthly salary is less than the amount prescribed by the Minister under Employment (Thirteenth month pay fixing of eligibility limit) Regulations, 2017 (S.I. 3 of 2017) and who does not qualify for a thirteenth month pay under this Act, a thirteenth month pay in respect of the year 2022 in accordance with sections 2, 3 and 4 of this Act.

Exemption from Tax

6. The thirteenth month pay payable under this Act shall be an exempt emolument under the Income and Non-Monetary Benefits Tax Act (Cap 273).
