Application

3. This order shall apply to all persons employed in any undertaking or part of an undertaking comprising the carriage, for hire or reward, of passengers and goods or either of them, by motor vehicle, required to be licensed under the Road Transportation Act, 1963.

Wages and Gradings

4. (1) the basic minimum wage to be paid to employees specified in the First Schedule to this Order shall be calculated at a rate not less favourable than that specified in that Schedule in relation to the employee's grade and length of continuous service:

Provided that no casual worker shall be paid less than one-and-one-third times the basic minimum wage for the occupation and grade in which he is employed.

(2) An employee who is required to perform work in a lower grade than that in which he is normally employed shall be paid the wage applicable to the grade in which he is normally employed.

(3) An employee who is required temporarily to perform work in a higher grade than that in which he is normally employed shall be paid the wage applicable to such higher grade on and after third day of working in that higher grade.

(4) No employer shall reduce the wage of an employee if the employee was able and willing to work and was present at his place of work but the employer was unable or unwilling to furnish him with work.

Hours of work

5. (1) The ordinary weekly hours of work for employees shall be decided by the employer but shall not exceed:-

- (a) sixty hours for watchmen;
- (b) forty-eight hours for employees in grade I to VI;
Provided that the ordinary hours of work in grades I and II shall not exceed eleven per day.
- (c) forty-five hours for employees in grades XI, XII and XIII;
- (d) seventy-two hours for taxi-drivers and hire-car drivers.

(2) Except in the case of emergency work, no employer shall require or permit any employee, other than watchman, taxi driver, hire-car or vehicle crew member (other than a driver) to work more than sixty six hours including overtime, in any one week or for more than five continuous hours without a break of at least thirty minutes.

(3) Every employee shall receive one day off in each week and no employee, other than a watchman, shall be required to work on his day off in successive weeks:-

Provided that in an emergency an employee may be required to work on his day off, in which case he will be given another day off in lieu of that day.

(4) Where two drivers are employed on a vehicle the total driving hours for both drivers shall not exceed sixteen hours and each driver shall be paid for driving time only.

(5) an omnibus driver shall be allowed breaks amounting in aggregate to not less than forty minutes during a period of eight consecutive hours driving time and in the event of him working for more than eight consecutive hours, he shall, in addition to the forty aggregate minutes, be given a thirty minute rest period at the end of eight hours.

(6) A driver shall not be permitted to drive for more than eleven hours in one day except in the case of an emergency when the permissible driving hours may be increased to a maximum of fifteen hours in any one day:

Provided that where a driver drives for more than eleven hours in an emergency he shall be given a period of rest of twenty-four consecutive hours before he starts work again.

Short time

6. (1) If an employer wishes to work short time he may do so provided he is satisfied that:-

- (a) it is economically necessary for the establishment to work short time;
- (b) the establishment will be able to resume normal working hours within the foreseeable future; and
- (c) it would not be in the best interest of the employees to be discharged.

(2) When an employee works a period of time equivalent to or more than twenty-five percent of his normal weekly hours of work he shall be paid his full wages for that week.

Conversion rates.

7. (1) For the purpose of converting a weekly wage to:-

- (a) an hourly rate, the weekly wages shall be divided by the number of hours ordinarily worked in a week;
- (b) a daily rate, the weekly wage shall be divided by the number of days ordinarily worked in a week;
- (c) a monthly rate, the weekly wage shall be multiplied by four and one-third.

(2) For the purpose of converting a monthly wage to:-

- (a) an hourly rate, the monthly wage shall be divided by the number of hours ordinarily worked in a month;
- (b) a daily rate, the monthly wage shall be divided by the number of days ordinarily worked in a month;
- (c) a weekly rate, the monthly wage shall be divided by four and one-third.

Payment for overtime.

8. (1) an employer may require any employee to work overtime and shall wherever possible give twenty-four hours notice of such requirement.

(2) An employee shall be paid for overtime in excess of his ordinary weekly hours of work for each hour, or part of an hour in excess of thirty minutes, at one-and-one half times his basic hourly rate:

Provided that:-

- (a) overtime worked on a day off shall be paid for at double the basic minimum wage rate of the employee;
- (b) overtime worked on an industrial holiday shall be paid for at twice the basic hourly wage rate of the employee.

(3) This regulation shall not apply to employees in grades VII, XI, XII and XIII.

Payment of wages

9. (1) An employer shall pay the remuneration due to the employee within four days of the date when such remuneration is due to him.

(2) If the services of an employee are terminated, payment of all remuneration due shall be made at the time of termination:

Provided payment may be made on the first working day following such termination.

(3) Any employee whose services are terminated for any cause whatsoever shall be paid the cash equivalent of any vacation leave due to him at the time of such termination.

Allowances.

10. (1) Any driver (other than a taxi driver) who is required to drive at night shall be paid at one-and-one-quarter times his current wage rate, provided that when two drivers are employed on the same vehicle only one driver may be paid at that rate.

(2) A taxi driver shall be paid, in addition to his normal wages, a commission of not less than two percentum of his takings during any month in respect of which such wages are due and paid to him.

(3) A driver who has been in the continuous employment of the same employer for a period in excess of six months and who is required to obtain an annual public driver's licence, shall be reimbursed by his employer the cost of any medical examination required as a condition for the issue of that licence.

(4) Any employee in grades I to IX who is required to perform work away from his principal place of employment shall be eligible for the following subsistence allowances in respect of:

- (a) each continuous period of not less than eleven hours of absence:-
 - (i) if the employer provides suitable accommodation and food - 80 cents.
 - (ii) if the employer provides neither food nor accommodation - E1.50.
 - (iii) if accommodation is available on the vehicle on which the employee is employed - E1.00.
- (b) periods of more than six but less than thirty days absence for each twenty-four hour period or part thereof -
 - (i) if the employer provides accommodation and food - 95 cents.
 - (ii) if the employer provides neither food nor accommodation - E1.80.

Provided that the payment of subsistence allowance shall be limited in respect of any single period, to a maximum of thirty days.

(5) If an employee is required to undertake a journey outside Swaziland and such journey entails an absence of eight hours or more from his principal place of employment he shall be paid in addition to the allowance payable in terms of sub-paragraph (4) an allowance of E1.50 for each period of twenty-four hours or part thereof he is occupied in that journey.

(6) Any employee in grades X to XIII who is required to travel on duty shall be reimbursed reasonable out of pocket expenses, subject to the production of receipts supporting his claim for such reimbursement.

Vacation Leave:

11. (1) During his first five years of continuous service with the employer an employee in grades I to IX shall accumulate vacation leave at the rate of one working day for each completed month of service; thereafter he will accumulate vacation leave at the rate of one-and-a-quarter working days for each completed month of continuous service:

Provided that no employee may accumulate more than thirty-six working days vacation leave without the agreement of his employer.

(2) An employee in grades X to XIII shall accumulate vacation leave at the rate of one-and-one half working days for each completed month of continuous service:

Provided that no such employee may accumulate more than fifty-four working days vacation leave without the agreement of his employer.

(3) No employee shall be entitled to take vacation leave during his first year of continuous service, but thereafter, unless mutually agreed otherwise, he shall be permitted to proceed on vacation leave within one calendar month of his application therefor and shall be paid prior to proceeding on leave, all remuneration and allowances due to him in respect of the period of that leave.

(4) An employee who has accumulated vacation leave may, with the consent of the employer, elect to be paid cash equivalent to such leave or portion thereof instead of proceeding on vacation leave.

(5) Any period of leave taken by an employee including sick leave, whether paid or not, shall not be counted for the purpose of calculating further leave.

(6) Should any employer observe a holiday other than an industrial holiday the holiday shall not be off set against an employee's accumulation of vacation leave.

Industrial Holidays

12. (1) The following days shall be Industrial Holidays with full pay:-

New Year's Day
Good Friday
Christmas Day
Boxing Day
Incwala Day
Independence Day and
King's Birthday

Provided that when an Industrial Holiday falls on a Sunday the day following shall be deemed to be an Industrial Holiday.

(2) Any employee who is absent without leave on the working day before or the working day after an Industrial Holiday, shall not be entitled to any payment in terms of this sub-regulation.

Benefits during sickness

13. After six consecutive months service with an employer and subject to the production of a medical certificate signed by a medical practitioner, an employee shall be entitled to sick leave up to a maximum of fourteen days on full wages and thereafter, to a maximum of fourteen days on half wages, in each period of twelve months continuous service.

Provided that:-

- (a) an employee shall not be entitled to the benefits provided herein if his sickness or accident was occasioned through his own neglect or misconduct;
- (b) that a certificate issued by a District Commissioner or a registered nurse shall be accepted in place of a medical certificate if a medical practitioner is not available.

14. An employer shall provide every employee on engagement with a document bearing the following information:-

- (a) his grade
- (b) his wage rate
- (c) periodicity of wage payments

- (d) provisions for accommodation (where applicable);
- (e) provisions for the termination of employment;
- (f) the hours of work;
- (g) the details of any bonus or incentive production scheme in operation; and
- (h) sick benefits.

Termination of Service

15. (1) Continuous service is service broken only by death, retirement or discharge of the employee concerned.

Provided that an employee who is discharged and re-engaged within two months of his discharge shall not be deemed to have broken his continuous service.

(2) When, following upon a change of ownership of an establishment, an employee enters the service of the new owner, his service with the previous owner shall be reckoned as continuous service with the new owner and shall be deemed not to have been broken by such change of ownership.

Protective Clothing

16. (1) The employer shall supply, free of charge and without payment of a deposit by the employee, the following items:-

- (a) to employees habitually exposed to inclement weather, a waterproof cape, overcoat or other suitable protective clothing.
- (b) to drivers and conductors, two dust-coats, two overalls or two uniforms per annum; and
- (c) to journeyman's assistants and employees engaged in the loading, unloading and delivery of goods to or from vehicles, adequate protective clothing.

(2) Any clothing supplied to an employee in terms of this regulation shall remain the property of the employer and shall, subject to fair wear and tear, be returned to him in good condition on the resignation, retirement or discharge of the employee.

(3) If the employee either fails to return or loses the clothing provided in terms of this regulation the employer may recover the cost thereof from the money due to the employee:

Provided that in the event of the employee being dissatisfied with the decision of the employer, he may submit his case to the Labour Commissioner.

Ration Allowance

17. An employer shall, as a condition of employment, supply to each employee earning less than E1080 per annum, or a weekly equivalent of E20.70, weekly rations of the scale prescribed in the Second Schedule to this Order.

Provided that with the consent of the employee and after notifying the Labour Commissioner, an employer may pay in lieu thereof an amount not less than that specified by the Labour Commissioner from time to time.

Revocation of L.N. 15 of 1979

18. The Regulation of Wages (Road Transportation) Order, 1979 (Legal Notice No. 15 of 1979) is hereby revoked.

LEGAL NOTICE NO. 103 OF 1979

MAGISTRATE'S COURTS ACT, 1938

(Act No. 66 of 1938)

THE MAGISTRATE'S COURT (AMENDMENT) RULES, 1979

(Under section 95)

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 95 of the Magistrate's Courts Act, 1938, I, CHARLES JOSEPH MANFRED NATHAN, Chief Justice of Swaziland, hereby make the following Rules:

Citation

1. These Rules may be cited as the Magistrate's Courts (Amendment) Rules, 1979, shall be read as one with the Magistrates' Courts Rules and shall come into force on the 15th December, 1979.

Amendment of Second Annexure

2. The Second Annexure to the Magistrates' Courts Rules is amended by replacing Table "A" with the following -

"Computation of Costs"

1. For the purposes of computing costs, the following provisions shall apply, namely -

(1) "Amount in dispute" shall mean -

- (a) if costs are awarded to the applicant or plaintiff, the amount or value of the judgement and if more than one claim is involved, the total of the amounts involved in the judgement;
- (b) if costs are awarded to the respondent or defendant, the amount or value of the claim and where more than one claim is involved the total amounts of all the claims.

Provided that the amount or value of the claim or judgement, as the case may be, shall be inclusive of interest, but exclusive of costs.

(2) In the event of a matter being settled at any time the cost shall be taxed on the scale agreed upon between the parties to the agreement of settlement:

Provided that in the absence of any agreement as to the scale to be applied any one of the parties to the dispute may within 14 days after the settlement of such dispute apply to a Magistrate to determine the scale of fees to be applied on taxation.

- (3) All costs in undefended actions or applications shall be in accordance with the scale as set out under the heading "undefended actions".
- (4) Save as otherwise provided in this Annexure all costs in defended applications or actions shall be taxed on scale A.
- (5) If the amount in dispute exceeds E400.00 the costs shall be taxed on scale B.

- (6) If the amount in dispute is not apparent on the face of the proceedings, the Court may on the application of any party thereto assess the amount in dispute and the costs shall then be computed on the scale applicable to such amount:

Provided that in actions for divorce or judicial separation costs shall be computed in accordance with scale B;
And provided further that claims for ejectment shall be computed at two months rent of the leased premises.

- (7) Any amount specified in this Annexure in respect of any item as allowable shall be inclusive of all necessary copies, attendances, and service (other than service through a messenger) in connection therewith.
- (8) If the allowable amount on any item in this Annexure is left blank the following provisions shall apply –
- (a) the drawing of documents shall be allowed at E1.00 per folio;
 - (b) copies for filing and service shall be allowed at E0.50 for the first copy and E0.25 per copy for all other necessary copies;
 - (c) if printed forms of documents are used, the fees for copying shall be limited to the necessary matters inserted in such printed documents;
 - (d) if any document appears to the Court to be unnecessarily prolix it may disallow all or part of the fees therefor.
 - (e) service of any document shall be allowed at E0.50 for each necessary service. A document shall be deemed to include any annexures thereto or other documents served therewith; and no additional fee for the service of such annexures or other documents shall be allowed.
- (9) A folio shall be 100 written or typed words or figures; in the case of figures four figures shall be equivalent to one word.
- (10) The rate at which costs are computed shall not be increased by reason of any claim for confirmation of an interdict or other interlocutory order.

2. If judgement payable by instalments

- (1) If a judgement debt is payable by instalments in terms of a Court Order, the fees shall be taxable immediately the judgement is given, but the collection fee in respect of any instalment shall be recoverable only on payment of such instalment.
- (2) A collection fee of 10% shall be allowed in respect of the first E100 paid in instalments in reduction of the capital and costs of the action; thereafter the collection fee shall be reduced to 5% in respect of further instalments so paid.

3. Demand

For the purpose of this Annexure, "demand" means a notice in writing to the debtor from the creditor's attorney, sent to the debtor in one or other of the manners provided for service of process (including registered post, without restriction as to locality or postal address), demanding payment of the debt within a reasonable time thereafter, whether or not such demand was required by law to be made before the institution of proceedings.

4. Totality of hours allowed

If any fee is calculated on an hourly basis, the total number of hours on any one day shall be added together and the fee calculated on such total.

5. Unnecessary charges

The Clerk of the Court shall disallow any charges which have been unnecessarily incurred.
