Application.

3. This Order shall apply to all persons employed in any undertaking comprising the carriage, for hire or reward, of passengers and of goods by a motor vehicle required to be licensed under the Road Transportation Act, 1963.

Basic minimum wage.

4. (1) The basic minimum wage to be paid to the employees specified in the First Schedule shall be calculated at a rate not less favourable than that specified therein in relation to the employee's grade;

(2) A casual employee shall not be paid less than one and one third times the basic minimum wage for the occupation and grade in he is employed.

(3) An employee who is required to perform duties in a lower grade than that in which he is normally employed, shall be paid the wages applicable to the grade in which he is normally employed.

(4) Any employee who is required to temporarily perform duties in a higher grade than that in which he is normally employed, shall be paid the wage applicable to such higher grade on and after the third day of such work.

(5) Except in the case of short time, no employer shall reduce the wages of any employee who is able and willing to work and who presents himself for work at the appointed time and place but for whom the employer is unwilling or unable to provide work.

Hours of work.

5. (1) The ordinary hours of work subject to the provisions of section 7 shall not exceed forty eight hours per week, spread over 6 days.

(2) Except in case of emergency, no employer shall require or permit an employee other than a watchman or taxi-driver to work more than sixty hours, including overtime, in any week or for more than five continuous hours without a break of at least thirty minutes.

(3) Every employee shall receive one day off-work in each week and no employee shall be required to work on his day off in successive weeks.

(4) Where two drivers are engaged in driving a vehicle, the total driving hours per day for both drivers shall not exceed sixteen hours and each driver shall be paid for driving time only.

(5) A Driver of a Public Transport vehicle shall be allowed breaks amounting in aggregate to not less than forty minutes in a period of Eight consecutive hours working time, and in the event of him working more than Eight consecutive hours, he shall, in addition to aggregated break of forty minutes, be given a thirty minutes rest period at the end of Eight hours.

(6) No driver shall be required or permitted to drive for eleven or more hours in one day except in the case of an emergency.

Conversion rates.

6. For the purpose of converting a weekly wage to—

- (a) an hourly rate, the weekly wages shall be divided by the number of hours ordinarily worked in a week;
- (b) a daily rate, the weekly wage shall be divided by the number of days ordinarily worked in a week;
- (c) a monthly rate, the weekly wage shall be multiplied by four and one third.

Payment of overtime.

7. (1) Subject to provisions of Section 5 an employer may require an employee to work overtime and, whenever possible, shall give twenty-four hours notice of such requirement.

(2) The first thirty minutes of overtime worked on any day shall qualify for payment at the employee's normal rate of wage applicable to that day.

(3) Overtime in excess of thirty minutes on any normal working day shall qualify for payment at the rate of time and one half the employee's Normal rate of wages.

(4) Overtime worked by an employee on his day off or on a public holiday shall qualify for payment at double the employee's normal wage.

(5) This section shall not apply to a taxi-driver, Hire-car, Junior clerk and a book-keeper/cashier, who shall not qualify for overtime payments.

Allowances.

8. (1) A driver (other than a Taxi-Driver) who is required to drive at night on a night shift shall be paid at one and one quarter times his normal wage rate;

Provided that where two drivers are employed on the same vehicle only one driver may be paid at that rate.

(2) A taxi-driver shall be paid, in addition to his normal wage, commission of not less than two percent, of his takings during any month in respect of which wages are due to him.

(3) A driver who has been in the continuous employment of the same employer for more than six months and who is required to obtain an annual public driver's Licence, shall be re-imbursed by his employer the cost of any medical examination required as a condition for the issue of that Licence.

(4) An employee shall be paid the following subsistence allowance in respect of each continuous period of twelve hours absence on duty away from his principal place of employment up to a maximum of six days—

- (a) where the employer provides suitable accommodation and food— E12.00
- (b) where the employer does not provide food, but provides suitable accommodation or where the accommodation is available on the vehicle— E17.25
- (c) Where the employer provides neither food nor accommodation — E30.00

(5) An employee who is absent on duty away from his principal place of employment for more than seven days but not exceeding thirty days, shall be paid the following subsistence allowance in respect of each absence—

- (a) if the employer provides suitable accommodation and food — E24.00.
- (b) if the employer provides neither food nor accommodation — E36.00.

(6) The payment of a subsistence shall be limited to a maximum of thirty days, following which the employee shall be regarded as permanently transferred.

Annual leave.

9. (1) During the first two years of continuous service with an employer, an employee shall earn leave at the rate of one and a quarter working days for each completed month of service.

(2) After the completion of two years service but not exceeding seven years continuous service with an employer, an employee shall earn leave at the rate of two working days for each completed month.

(3) An employee with more than seven years continuous service with an employer shall earn leave at the rate of two and a half working days for each completed month.

(4) Where the employment of an employee is terminated after a period exceeding three months but not amounting to one year from the date of its commencement the employer shall pay to the employee a sum equal to not less than one day's wages for each completed month of such period.

(5) Period of leave or sick leave whether paid or not taken by an employee, shall not be counted as leave earning employment.

(6) An employer who observes a holiday other than a public holiday in section 10, shall not off-set such holiday against an employee's leave.

Public Holiday.

10. (1) The following shall be public holidays with full pay—

New Yeays' Day
 Good Friday
 Easter Monday
 National Flag Day
 Ascension Day
 Public Holiday
 King's Birth Day
 Umhlanga (Reed dance) Day
 Somhlolo Day
 Incwala Day
 Christmas Day
 Boxing Day

(2) Where a public holiday falls on a Sunday, the following day shall be deemed to be a public holiday.

(3) An employee who is absent without leave on the working day before or the working day after a public holiday, shall not be entitled to any payment in respect of that public holiday in terms of this section.

Sick leave.

11. (1) After three months of consecutive service with an employer and subject to the production of a medical certificate signed by a Medical Practitioner, registered under the Medical and Dental Practitioners Act, 1970, an employee shall be entitled to sick leave up to a maximum of fourteen days on full wages and thereafter to a maximum of fourteen days on half wages in each period of twelve months continuous service.

(2) Notwithstanding Sub-Section (1)—

- (i) An employee shall not be entitled to the benefits if the sickness or accident causing his absence was caused by his own negligence or misconduct;
- (ii) A certificate issued by a Regional Secretary or registered nurse shall be accepted in place of a medical certificate if a Medical Practitioner is not available.

12. An employer shall provide an employee on engagement with a document bearing particulars as provided for at the Second Schedule of the Employment Act, 1980.

Continuous service.

13. (1) Continuous service is service in the employment of the employer interrupted only by the death, retirement or discharge of the employee concerned:

Provided that an employee who is re-engaged within two months of his discharge shall be deemed to be in the continuous service of that employer.

(2) Where, following upon a change of ownership of an establishment or undertaking an employee enters the service of the new owner without interruption, his service shall be deemed to be continuous service in the employment of the new owner.

Protective clothing.

14. (1) Subject to sub-section (2) an employer shall supply, free of charge and without payment of a deposit by the employee, the following items—

- (a) To employees who are normally exposed in their employment to inclement weather, a waterproof cap, overcoat or other suitable protective clothing;
- (b) To drivers and conductors – two dust coats, two overalls or two uniforms per annum; and
- (c) To journeyman/Mechanics, assistant mechanics and employees engaged in the loading, unloading and delivery of goods to or from vehicles, suitable overalls or other protective clothing.

(2) Any clothing supplied to an employee in terms of this section shall remain the property of the employer and shall subject to fair wear and tear, be returned to him in good condition on the resignation, retirement or discharge of an employee.

Short time.

15. (1) If an employer finds it necessary, for reasons beyond his control to employ an employee on short time, he may do so subject to the Labour Commissioner consenting in writing to such an arrangement, and on the understanding that the employer intends resuming full time working within three weeks.

(2) Where an employee has been placed on short time under sub-section (1) he shall be paid not less than fifty percent of his weekly wages where he is employed for periods which, in aggregate, are equivalent to or less than fifty percent of his normal weekly hours of work.

(3) No reduction shall be made in an employee's earnings where the employee has been placed on short time, and works, in aggregate, more than fifty percent of his normal weekly hours of work during any week he has been placed on short time.

Revocation of Legal Notice No. 10 of 1990.
