General Principles Guiding the Issue of Certain Licenses.

- 4. (i) (i) This section seeks to streamline local business activity with the provisions of the National Policy on the Development of Small and Medium Enterprises which was adopted by Cabinet in 2005. The review of licensing regulations is a phased approach towards re-aligning economic activity to encourage and accelerate the participation of indigenous Swazis in economic activity. Numerous legislative measures will in the meantime be put in place to support this policy direction.
- (ii) When considering applications for the grant and renewal of trading licenses listed in Items 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 47, 63, 72, and 82 of Schedule B, a Licensing Officer shall, in line with the National Policy on the Development of Small and Medium Enterprises, give preference to applications made by local micro, small and medium entrepreneurs who are Swazi citizens or locally registered companies in which the majority shareholding is held by Swazi citizens or partnerships in which the majority of the partners or those who hold a controlling interest are Swazi citizens.

(2) For purposes of these Regulations micro, small and medium enterprises shall be categorised as follows:-

- (a) A micro enterprise is one whose asset value is under E50, 000, has a staff complement of 1 to 3 people and/or has an annual turnover of up to E60, 0000.
- (b) A small enterprise is one whose asset value is between E50, 001 and E 2 million, has a staff complement of 4 to 10 people and \or has an annual turnover of up to E60, 000.
- (c) A medium enterprise is one whose asset value is between E2 Million and E5 Million, with a staff complement of 11 to 50 people and \or has an annual turnover of up to E8 Million.

(3) The Licensing Officer shall refuse to grant a licence to an applicant who fails to produce such documents as the Licensing Officer requires to prove that the applicant qualifies to be granted a licence under this section:

Provided that the Minister may from time to time by Notice published in the gazette, stipulate the documents required.

(4) A licence granted under this section may be amended, transferred or renewed in the manner prescribed in this Order unless the Licensing Officer has reason to believe that granting such amendment, transfer or renewal shall result in the licence being held by persons who do not meet the criteria stated in this section: provided that the Licensing Officer may grant such application upon such conditions as he deems necessary to ensure compliance with the provisions of this section or the Order.

(5) The provisions of this section shall not affect licences in respect of the items listed in sub section (1) (ii) which have been validly granted prior to the coming into effect of these Regulations.
