THE TRADE MARKS ACT.

(Cap. 83).

NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that any person who has grounds to oppose the registration of any of the marks advertised herein may within sixty days from the date of this Gazette, lodge a Notice of opposition on Trade Mark Form No. 6 together with a fee of Shs. 4000 in case of National applicants or US$ 250 in case of Foreign applicants. The period of lodging Notice of opposition may be extended in suitable cases by the Registrar as he thinks fit upon such terms as he may direct. Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant so that he may have an opportunity to withdraw his application before the expense of opposition proceedings is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by the opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant. Representations of the marks herein advertised can be inspected at the office of the Registrar of Trade Marks, Parliamentary Buildings, P.O. Box 7151, Kampala.

PART II—THE INSPECTORATE OF GOVERNMENT.

The
Inspectorate.

3. (1) There shall be an Inspectorate of Government.

(2) The Inspectorate shall consist of—

(a) the Inspector-General of Government; and

(b) two Deputy Inspectors-General.

(3) At least one of the persons referred to in subsection (2) of this section shall be a person qualified to be appointed a Judge of the High Court.

(4) A person shall not be eligible for appointment as Inspector-General or Deputy Inspector-General unless that person—

- (a) is a citizen of Uganda;
- (b) is a person of high moral character and proven integrity; and
- (c) possesses considerable experience and demonstrated competence and is of high calibre in the conduct of public affairs.

(5) A person shall resign his or her office on appointment as an Inspector-General or a Deputy Inspector-General if that person is—

- (a) a member of Parliament;
- (b) a member of a local government council; or
- (c) a member of the executive of a political party or organisation.

4. (1) The Inspector-General and a Deputy Inspector-General shall be appointed by the President with the approval of Parliament and shall not, while holding office, hold any other office of emolument in the public service.

Appointment of members of Inspectorate.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the Inspectorate shall, subject to the Constitution be a public office.

(3) The Inspector-General and a Deputy Inspector-General shall hold office for a term of four years but shall be eligible for re-appointment only once.

(4) The remuneration and other conditions of service of members of the Inspectorate shall be determined by Parliament and the salaries and allowances of members of the Inspectorate shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund.

Removal of Inspector-
General and Deputy
Inspector-
General.

5. (1) The Inspector-General or a Deputy Inspector-General may be removed from office by the President on the recommendation of a special tribunal constituted by Parliament only for—

- (a) inability to perform the functions of his or her office arising from infirmity of body or mind; or
- (b) misconduct, misbehaviour or conduct unbecoming of the holder of the office; or
- (c) incompetence.

(2) The special tribunal referred to under sub-section (1) shall consist of a Justice of the Supreme Court, who shall be the Chairperson and two other persons, all of whom shall be appointed by Parliament.

(3) On receiving complaints about the Inspector General or the Deputy Inspector General, the President shall refer the matter to Parliament to constitute the special tribunal to investigate the matter.

(4) The President shall remove the Inspector General or Deputy Inspector General if the special tribunal recommends that the Inspector General or Deputy Inspector General ought to be removed from office on any of the grounds under sub-section (1).

(5) If the question of removing the Inspector General or Deputy Inspector General is referred to the special tribunal, the President shall suspend the Inspector General or Deputy Inspector General from performing the functions of his or her office pending the investigations.

(6) A suspension under sub-section (5) shall cease to have effect if the special tribunal advises the President that the officer should not be removed from office.

6. (1) A person appointed Inspector-General or Deputy Inspector-General shall, before assuming the duties of his or her office, take and subscribe the oath specified in Part A of the Second Schedule to this Act.

Oath of members of Inspectorate.

(2) The oath shall be administered by the President.

7. (1) There is established an Appointments Board consisting of the following—

Appointments
Board.

(b) the appointment of officers and other employees of the Inspectorate in accordance with section 16 of this Act;

(c) the making of regulations for the discipline of officers and other employees of the Inspectorate; and

(d) the performance of any other functions that Parliament may by resolution assign to the Board.

(3) The staff shall be appointed on the basis of their integrity and competence.

PART III—FUNCTIONS OF INSPECTORATE.

Functions of Inspectorate.

8. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution and to this Act, the functions of the Inspectorate are—
- (a) to promote and foster strict adherence to the rule of law and principles of natural justice in administration;
  - (b) to eliminate and foster the elimination of corruption, abuse of authority and of public office;
  - (c) to promote fair, efficient and good governance in public offices;
  - (d) to enforce the Leadership Code of Conduct;
  - (e) to investigate any act, omission, advice, decision or recommendation by a public officer or any other authority to which this section applies, taken, made, given or done in exercise of administrative functions;
  - (f) to stimulate public awareness about the values of constitutionalism in general and the activities of its office, in particular, through any media and other means it considers appropriate;
  - (g) to inquire into the methods by which law enforcing agents and the state security agencies execute their functions, and the extent to which the practices and procedures employed in the execution of such functions uphold, encourage or interfere with the rule of law in Uganda;
  - (h) to investigate the conduct of any public officer which may be connected with or conducive to—
    - (i) the abuse of his or her office or authority;
    - (ii) the neglect of his or her official duties;
    - (iii) economic malpractices by the officer;

- (i) to take necessary measures for the detection and prevention of corruption in public offices and in particular—
- (i) to examine the practices and procedures of those offices in order to facilitate the discovery of corrupt practices and to secure the revision of methods of work or procedure which, in the opinion of the Inspectorate may be conducive to corrupt practices;
  - (ii) to advise those offices on ways and means of preventing corrupt practices and on methods of work or procedure conducive to the effective performance of their duties and which, in the opinion of the Inspector-General, would reduce the incidence of corruption;
  - (iii) to disseminate information on the evil and dangerous effects of corruption on society;
  - (iv) to enlist and foster public complaints of alleged or suspected corrupt practices and injustices and make recommendations for appropriate action on them; and
- (j) to perform any other functions that Parliament may prescribe.

(2) The Inspectorate may investigate any matter referred to in subsection (1) of this section, on its own initiative or upon complaint made to it by any individual or body of persons whether corporate or not and whether or not that individual or body has suffered any injustice by reason of that matter.

(3) The Inspectorate may, in the performance of its duties under this section, investigate into the actions of any person that may have been done while that person was serving in a public office, notwithstanding that at the time of the investigation, that person has ceased to serve in that office.

(4) The Inspectorate may in the performance of its functions under this Act delegate any of its functions to other authorities or persons at district or lower levels including any local government.

Jurisdiction
of
Inspectorate.

9. The jurisdiction of the Inspectorate shall cover officers and leaders serving in the following offices—

- (a) a government department; undertaking or service;
- (b) a statutory corporation or authority;
- (c) the Cabinet;
- (d) Parliament;
- (e) a court of law;
- (f) the Uganda Police Force;
- (g) the Uganda Prison Services;
- (h) a government aided school, college or other institution of learning that accesses public funds;
- (i) the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces;
- (j) the Local Defence Force;
- (k) a local government council or local government unit or a committee of such council or unit;
- (l) a council, boards, society or committee established by law for the control and regulation of any profession;
- (m) a public commission, association or similar body whether corporate or not, established by or under any law;
- (n) national security organisations including Internal Security Organisation ISO;
- (o) any other person, office or body that administers public funds on behalf of the public.

10. The Inspectorate shall be independent in the performance of its functions and shall not be subject to the direction or control of any person or authority and shall only be responsible to Parliament.

Independence of Inspectorate.

11. The Inspectorate may establish branches at district and other administrative levels as it considers fit for the better performance of its functions.

Branches of Inspectorate.

12. For the purposes of performing its functions under this Act, the Inspectorate shall have the following powers—

General powers of Inspectorate.

(a) to authorise in writing any officer under its charge to conduct an inquiry or investigation into an allegation of corruption, abuse of office and neglect of duty, and any other aspect that the Inspectorate is empowered to investigate into;

(b) to require a public officer or any other person to answer questions concerning his or her duties or those of another person;

(c) to require any person in charge of a public office to produce or furnish within a specified time, any document or certified true copy of such document which is in his or her possession or under his or her charge; and

(d) to do any other thing necessary for the performance of the functions of the Inspectorate under this Act.

13. (1) Subject to the provisions of any law, the Inspectorate shall have power to enter and inspect the premises or property of any department of Government, person or of any authority; to call for, examine and where necessary, retain any document or item in connection with the case being investigated, found on the premises; and may, in those premises, carry out any investigation for the purpose of its functions.

Powers of access and search.

(2) Without prejudice to the powers of the Inspectorate specified in section 12 of this Act, the Inspector-General, the Deputy Inspector-General or any other officer or person authorised by the Inspector-General or Deputy Inspector-General for the purpose, shall, in the performance of their functions under this Act—

- (a) search any person and retain any document or item in connection with the matter being investigated found with or on him or her;
- (b) have access to all books, returns, reports and other documents relating to the work in any public office;
- (c) at any time have access to and be able to search the premises of any public office, or of any vessel, aircraft or other vehicle, if there is reason to suspect that property corruptly or otherwise unlawfully acquired has been placed, deposited or concealed in it.

(3) An officer or person conducting a search under subsection (1) of this section shall only do so on the express instruction of the Inspector-General or a Deputy Inspector-General who shall issue a search warrant to that effect, in Form 1 specified in the Third Schedule to this Act.

(4) For the purpose of exercising his or her powers of access and search under subsection (1) of this section, the Inspector-General, Deputy Inspector General or any other officer or person authorised for the purpose may use such reasonable force as may be necessary in the circumstances and may be accompanied or assisted by such other law enforcement officers as he or she considers necessary to assist him or her to enter into or upon the premises, vessel, aircraft or vehicle, as the case may be.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, where the President certifies that the entry upon or inspection of any premises, vessel, aircraft or vehicle—

- (a) might prejudice the security, defence or international relations of Uganda or the investigation or detection of any offence; or
- (b) might involve the disclosure of the deliberations of the Cabinet or committee of the Cabinet relating to matters of a secret or confidential nature and would be injurious to the public interest, the Inspectorate shall not exercise its powers of access and search with respect to the premises, vessel, aircraft or vehicle.

14. (1) The Inspector-General or a Deputy Inspector-General may, by order signed by him or her authorise an officer of the Inspectorate or any other competent person under the control of the Inspectorate to investigate any bank account, purchase account, share account, expense account or any other account, or any safe or deposit box in a bank, or any transaction for the purposes of this Act.

Special powers of Inspectorate.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) of this section shall be sufficient authority for the disclosure or production by any person of information, accounts, documents or articles as may be required by the officer and the collection and taking of any oral and documentary evidence by the authorised officer or person.

(3) An order made under this section may direct the suspension of all operations in respect of the account against the holder of the account or any other person or the stopping of any transaction subject to such conditions as the Inspector-General or Deputy Inspector-General may specify.

(4) Any person who wilfully and unlawfully refuses to comply with an order issued under this section, commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred fifty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding three years or both.

(5) The Inspectorate shall have power to investigate, cause investigation, arrest, cause arrest, prosecute or cause prosecution in respect of cases involving corruption, abuse of authority or of public office.

(6) The Inspector-General may, during the course of his or her duties or as a consequence of his or her findings, make such orders and give such directions as are necessary and appropriate in the circumstances.

(7) The Inspectorate shall, when enforcing the Leadership Code of Conduct, have all the powers conferred on it by this Act in addition to any other powers conferred by law.

(8) Notwithstanding any law, the Inspectorate shall not require the consent or approval of any person or authority to prosecute, or discontinue proceedings instituted by the Inspectorate.

(9) In all cases prosecuted by the Inspector General of Government, he or she shall exercise the same powers of appeal as exercised by the Director of Public Prosecutions.

PART IV—SECRETARY AND OTHER STAFF OF INSPECTORATE.

Secretary to Inspectorate.

15. (1) The Inspectorate shall have a Secretary who shall be appointed by the President acting on the advice of the Public Service Commission and shall hold office upon such terms and conditions as are applicable to a Permanent Secretary.

(2) The Secretary shall be a person qualified to be appointed to the office of Permanent Secretary.

(3) The Secretary shall, subject to subsection (4) of section 31 of this Act and to the general control of the Inspectorate—

- (a) be responsible for giving effect to the policy decisions of the Inspectorate and the day to-day administration and management of the affairs of the Inspectorate and the control of the other staff of the Inspectorate;
- (b) be responsible for arranging the business for and the recording and keeping of the minutes of all decisions and proceedings of the Inspectorate at its meetings; and
- (c) perform any other function assigned to him or her by the Inspector General.

16. (1) The Inspectorate shall have such other officers and employees as may be necessary for the efficient and effective performance of its functions under this Act.

Other staff.

(2) All officers and employees of the Inspectorate other than the Secretary shall be appointed by the Board upon such terms and conditions as the Board may determine.

(3) The Inspectorate may in the performance of its functions under this Act and on such terms and conditions as the Inspectorate may determine, engage the services of or work in consultation with professional or technical experts or consultants whether in the public service or not, to enhance the performance of the Inspectorate.

17. (1) The Secretary and any other officer or employee of the Inspectorate shall, before assuming the duties of his or her office, take and subscribe the oath set out in Part B of the Second Schedule to this Act.

Oath of Secretary and other staff.

(2) The oath shall, in the case of the Secretary, be administered by a judge of the High Court and in the case of any other member of staff, by the Inspector-General or such other person as the Inspector-General may authorise in writing.

PART V—PROCEDURE FOR INVESTIGATIONS.

Rules of procedure.

18. (1) The Inspectorate may, by statutory instrument signed by the Inspector-General prescribe rules of procedure generally for the conduct of investigations and for any matter that is necessary for the efficient performance of the functions of the Inspectorate under this Act.

(2) In particular but without prejudice to the general effect of subsection (1), rules made under this section may prescribe fees in respect of any thing to-be done under this Act and also forms to be used in connection with the functions of the Inspectorate under this Act or under Chapter Thirteen of the Constitution.

Limitation
on investigations by Inspectorate.

19. (1) The Inspectorate shall not have power to question or review any of the following matters—

(a) the decision of any court of law or of any judicial officer in the exercise of his or her judicial functions;

(b) the decision of any tribunal established by law in the exercise of its functions;

(c) any civil matter which is before court at the commencement of the Inspectorate's investigations;

(d) any matter relating to the exercise of the prerogative of mercy; or

(e) any matter the review or investigation of which has been certified by the President as likely to—

(i) be prejudicial to the security, defence or international relations of Uganda; or

(ii) involve the disclosure of proceedings and deliberations of the Cabinet or a Committee of Cabinet relating to matters of a secret or confidential nature and would be injurious to the public interest.

(2) Where the Inspectorate is satisfied that—

(a) the complainant has at any material time had the right or opportunity of obtaining relief or redress by means of—

(i) an application or representation to any executive authority; or

(ii) an application, appeal, reference or review to or before a tribunal established by law; or

(iii) proceedings in a court of law;

(b) the complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious or not made in good faith; or

(c) the investigation would be unnecessary, improper or futile, the Inspectorate may decline to conduct an investigation and accordingly inform the complainant in writing, but the Inspectorate shall not be bound to give any reasons for the decision.

20. (1) The procedure for conducting an investigation shall be such as the Inspectorate considers appropriate in the circumstances of each case, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Inspectorate may obtain information from such person and in such manner, and make such inquiries as it considers necessary.

Conduct of investigations.

(2) An official or other agent of the Inspectorate shall not communicate or divulge to any person any information which has come to his or her knowledge in the course of his or her duties, otherwise than in the performance of his or her duties under this Act.

(3) No person who is not an official or other agent of the Inspectorate shall, communicate or divulge to any person any information referred to in subsection (2) of this section except with the approval of the Inspectorate or when ordered by a court or when otherwise required or authorised by law.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (2) or (3) of this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding twelve months or both.

Effect of findings and recommendations of Inspectorate.

21. Proceedings, findings, recommendations, investigations or inquiries by the Office of the Inspector-General shall not be held null and void by reason only of informality or irregularity in the procedure and shall not be liable to be challenged, reviewed, quashed or called in question in any court of law.

Immunity of officers.

22. (1) No proceedings, whether civil or criminal, shall lie against the Inspector-General, Deputy Inspector-General, an officer or any other person employed or authorised to execute the orders or warrants of the Inspectorate for anything done in good faith and in the course of the performance of his or her duties under this Act.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, no officer or person serving in the Inspectorate shall be compelled to give evidence before any court or tribunal in respect of anything coming to his or her knowledge by virtue of his or her service.

Privilege of information.

23. Subject to any other law which enjoins the disclosure of classified information, anything said, information supplied, document, paper or thing produced in the course of an inquiry under this Act shall be privileged in the same manner as if the inquiry were a proceeding in a court of law, and a report of the Inspectorate shall be privileged in the same manner as if it were a record and judgement of a proceeding in court.

PART VI—INVESTIGATIONS.

Provisions relating to complaints.

24. (1) A complaint or allegation under this Act may be made by an individual or by anybody of persons whether corporate or not, and shall be strictly confidential and addressed to the Inspector-General.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of any written law, where a prisoner, or an employee in a public office, makes an allegation or complaint to the Inspectorate under this Act, the allegation or complaint shall not be made through, or subject to the scrutiny of, the prison officials or the immediate supervisor or employer as the case may be.

(3) A complaint or allegation made under this Act shall be—

(a) made by the complainant or by his or her legal representative;

(b) in writing and addressed to the Inspector-General except where the complainant cannot write, in which case the Inspectorate shall cause the oral complaint to be translated into a written one; and

(c) signed or thumb printed by the complainant.

(4) No complaint or allegation shall be received by the Inspectorate unless it is made within a period of two years from the date on which the facts giving rise to the complaint or allegation arose; except that in exceptional circumstances and in his or her discretion, the Inspector General or Deputy Inspector General may direct that a complaint or allegation lodged after the specified period shall be received.

(5) Subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall not apply to a complaint or allegation relating to a criminal offence.

25. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, no person shall, as of right, be entitled to be heard before the Inspectorate.

Right to be heard.

(2) Where the Inspectorate conducts an investigation as a result of a complaint or allegation under this Act, the Inspectorate shall give the head of the public office concerned and any other person who is the subject of the complaint or allegation, an opportunity to reply to the complaint or allegation made against him or her.

(3) No matter that is adverse to any person, or public office shall be included in a report of the Inspectorate unless the person or head of that office has been given a prior hearing.

Procuring
information
and attendance
of witnesses.

26. (1) Subject to this Act, the Inspectorate may—

(a) summon any person who in the opinion of the Inspectorate is able to give information relating to any matter relevant to the inquiry being conducted by it, to appear before the Inspectorate and to furnish such information and produce any documents, papers or things that may be in the possession or under the control of that person; and

(b) by order in writing, summon that person to attend before the Inspectorate at a specified time and place and to be examined on oath.

(2) The oath referred to in subsection (1) shall be in Form 4 specified in the Third Schedule to this Act.

(3) The summons issued under subsection (1) of this section shall be in Form 5 specified in the Third Schedule to this Act.

(4) Where a person is to be examined on oath under this section, any officer duly authorised by the Inspectorate may administer that oath.

(5) A summons issued under this section shall be served on the person to whom it is directed, by an officer from the Inspectorate or by a police officer, in the manner prescribed for the service of a witness summons in civil proceedings before a court of law.

Failure of witnesses to attend.

27. (1) Where a person on whom a summons under section 26 of this Act has been duly served does not attend at the specified time and place, and the Inspectorate is satisfied that—

(a) the summons was properly and duly served; and

- (b) the person to whom the summons was directed, wilfully and without lawful justification avoided service;

the Inspectorate may issue a warrant of arrest in Form 6 specified in the Third Schedule to this Act, to be executed by an officer of the Inspectorate or a police officer, to apprehend that person and bring him or her before the Inspectorate at a specified time and place.

(2) A person apprehended under subsection (1) shall, within twenty-four hours of his or her arrest or soon thereafter as is practicable, be brought before the Inspectorate.

28. The Inspectorate may pay to any person summoned before it under this Act, such allowances or sums in respect of expenses properly incurred by that person as the Inspectorate may consider appropriate.

Witness allowances.

PART VII—REPORTS.

29. (1) The Inspectorate shall submit to Parliament at least once in every six months, a report on the performance of its functions, making such recommendations as it considers necessary and containing such information as Parliament may require.

Reports of Inspectorate.

(2) A copy of the report referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall be forwarded by the Inspectorate to the President; and where any matter contained in the report relates to the administration of any local authority, an extract of the portion of the report on the matter shall be forwarded to that local authority.

(3) The Speaker shall lay before Parliament any report submitted under subsection (1) of this section within thirty days after it has been submitted, if Parliament is then in session, or if Parliament is not in session, within thirty days after the commencement of its next following session.

30. (1) Upon receipt of a report under section 29 of this Act, Parliament may take or cause to be taken such action on it as it may consider appropriate.

Action on report.

(2) Upon receipt of a copy of a report of the Inspectorate under section 29 the President may take or cause to be taken against the public officer or other person in respect of whom the report is made such action as may be taken under or in accordance with any written law.

PART VIII—GENERAL.

31. (1) Parliament shall ensure that adequate resources and facilities are provided to the Inspectorate to enable it to perform its functions effectively.

(2) Subject to clause (8) of article 223 of the Constitution, the Inspectorate shall have an independent budget appropriated by Parliament, and controlled by the Inspectorate.

(3) The budget of the Inspectorate shall cover the salaries and allowances of the Secretary and other staff of the Inspectorate, the expenses of running the headquarters and branches of the Inspectorate and such other expenses of or connected with the operations of the Inspectorate as Parliament may approve.

(4) The budget shall be prepared annually by the Secretary and upon approval by the Inspectorate, it shall be submitted to Parliament for its approval under article 229 of the Constitution.

(5) Upon approval of the budget by Parliament, the moneys approved in the budget shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund.

(6) The funds of the Inspectorate may with the approval of the Minister responsible for finance, include grants and donations to enable the Inspectorate to discharge its functions effectively.

(7) Subject to article 229 of the Constitution, all funds provided to the Inspectorate under this Act shall be administered and controlled by the Secretary who shall be the accounting officer in accordance with the Public Finance Act.

32. Subject to this Act, where any instrument or document is required or authorised to be issued by the Inspectorate or any act is required or authorized to be done by the Inspectorate in the performance of its functions under this Act, the instrument or document or act may be signed, executed or done by the Inspector-General or a Deputy Inspector-General or by any person authorised in writing by the Inspector-General or by a Deputy Inspector-General.

Signification of acts of
Inspectorate.

14. The Commission shall have a seal which shall be in such form as the Commission may determine and, subject to the provisions of any law, be applied in such circumstances as the Commission may determine.

PART III—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO FUNCTIONS OF THE COMMISSION.

Independence of the Commission.

15. In the exercise of its functions, the Commission shall be independent and shall not be subject to the direction or control of any person or authority; except that it shall take into account Government policy relating to education.

16. Before the Commission advises the President to appoint any person to an office in the Education Service in accordance with article 172 of the Constitution, the Commission may, if it considers it expedient, consult with any other authority, as the case may be.

Consultation.

17. (1) The Commission may require any person to attend and give evidence before it concerning any matter which it may properly consider in exercise of its functions under the Constitution and this Act and may require the production of any document relating to any matter by any person attending before it.

Enforcement of attendance to give evidence.

(2) The Commission may cause a witness to be examined on oath or affirmation which shall be administered by the Secretary or by any other person authorised by the Commission.

18. Any person, other than a person who is notified to appear before the Commission solely in connection with his or her application for appointment to the Education Service, who, without reasonable cause fails to do so, or who wilfully fails to produce any document in his or her possession when required to do so by the Commission under section 17 of this Act, commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or imprisonment not exceeding three months or both.

Failure to appear or produce documents.

19. (1) Any person summoned by and appearing before the Commission as a witness is entitled to be paid by way of reimbursement of his or her expenses, such allowances as are payable to a witness appearing before the High Court as a witness in criminal proceedings.

Attendance allowance.

(2) Any other person invited by the Commission to attend any meeting of the Commission to assist the Commission may be paid by the Commission such allowances as the Commission may consider reasonable.

20. A witness before the Commission shall have the same immunities and privileges as if he or she were a witness before the High Court.

Immunities of witnesses.

Improper influence
and false
information.

21. (1) Any person who otherwise than in the course of his or her duty, directly or indirectly by himself or herself or by any other person in any manner, influences or attempts to influence any decision of the Commission, commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding twelve months or both.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be taken to make unlawful the giving of a reference or testimonial to any applicant or candidate for any public office or the supplying of any information or assistance requested by the Commission.

THE PATENTS (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2002.

An Act to amend the Patents Statute, 1991 to provide for international applications and connected matters by giving effect in Uganda to the provisions of the Patents Co-operation Treaty signed at Washington on 19th June, 1970.

DATE OF ASSENT: 5TH MARCH, 2002.

Date of Commencement: 5th April, 2002.

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Patents (Amendment) Act, 2002. Short title.

2. Section 23 of the Patents Statute, 1991, in this Act referred to as the "Statute" is amended by substituting for paragraph (c), the following paragraphs— Amendment of section
23 of
Statute No.
10 of 1991

"(c) treating an application as if it had not been filed; or

(d) refusing to grant a patent; or

(e) considering a declaration claiming priority not to have been made."

3. Immediately after Part IV of the Statute, the following new Part is inserted—

“PART IVA INTERNATIONAL APPLICATIONS UNDER THE PATENT CO-OPERATION TREATY.

Interpretation

24A. For the purposes of this Part—

“designate”, “designated office”, “elect”, “elected office”, “international application”, “international filing date”, “international preliminary examination” and “receiving office” have the same meanings as in the Patent Cooperation Treaty;

“Patent Cooperation Treaty” means the Patent Cooperation Treaty done at Washington on June 19, 1970.

Filing date
and effects of international application
designating
Uganda

24B. An international application designating Uganda shall, subject to this section, be treated as an application for a patent or, if so indicated in the international application, for a utility certificate, filed under this Statute and having as its filing date the international filing date accorded under the Patent Cooperation Treaty.

Receiving
office

24C. (1) The Registry shall, unless any agreement is in force under subsection (2), act as a receiving office in respect of any international application filed with it by a resident or national of Uganda.

(2) The Registry may make an agreement of the kind referred to in rule 19 1(b) of the Regulations under the Patent Cooperation Treaty by which an intergovernmental organisation or the national office of another Contracting State of the Patent Cooperation Treaty shall act instead of the Registry as receiving office for applicants who are residents or nationals of Uganda.

Filing of international applications with the Registry

24D. An international application filed with the Registry as receiving office shall be filed in English and the prescribed transmittal fee shall be paid to the Registry within one month from the date of receipt of the international application.

The Registry as designated
office

24E. The Registry shall act as a designated office in respect of an international application in which Uganda is designated for the purposes of obtaining a national patent or utility certificate under this Statute.

The Registry as elected
office

24F. The Registry shall act as an elected office in respect of an international application in which Uganda is designated as referred to in section 24E if the applicant elects Uganda for the purposes of international preliminary examination under Chapter II of the Patent Cooperation Treaty.

National
processing

24G. The Registry as a designated office or an elected office shall not commence processing of an international application designating Uganda before the expiration of the time limit referred to in section 24H except where the applicant complies with the requirements of that section and files with the Registry an express request for early commencement of such processing.

Entering
national

24H. The applicant in respect of an international application designating Uganda shall, before the expiration of the time limit applicable under Article 22 or 39 of the Patent Cooperation Treaty or of such later time limit as may be prescribed in the regulations—

- (a) pay the prescribed fee to the Registry; and
- (b) if the international application was not filed in, and has not been published under the Patent Cooperation Treaty as a translation into, a prescribed language, file with the Registry a translation of the international application, containing the prescribed contents, into that language.

Failure to enter national phase

24I. If the applicant does not comply with the requirements of section 24H within the time limit referred to in that section, the international application shall be considered withdrawn for the purposes of this Statute.

Processing international applications in accordance with Treaty.

24J. (1) The Registry shall process international applications in accordance with the provisions of the Patent Cooperation Treaty, the Regulations established under it and the administrative instructions under those Regulations and with the provisions of this Statute and the regulations made under it.

(2) In the case of conflict, the provisions of the Patent Cooperation Treaty, the Regulations under it and the Administrative Instructions under those Regulations shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

(3) Further details concerning the processing of international applications by and other functions of the Registry in connection with the Patent Cooperation Treaty, including fees payable, time limits, prescribed languages and other requirements in relation to international applications, may be provided in regulations made under section 47 of this Statute.

Effect of international publication of international applications

24K. The publication under the Patent Cooperation Treaty of an international application designating Uganda shall by itself confer no rights under this Statute and shall have no effect for the purposes of this Statute other than that of a printed publication.

Subsequent
amendments to Treaty

24L. (1) Where, after the commencement of the Patents (Amendment) Act, 2001 any revision of the Patent Cooperation Treaty is made by a special conference of the Contracting States under Article 60 of the Treaty, the Minister may, by statutory order, with the approval of Parliament, declare that the amendments shall, from a date specified in the statutory order, have the force of law in Uganda.

(2) Where a statutory order is made under subsection (1) in respect of any revision of the Treaty, the revision shall, with effect from the date specified in the statutory order as the commencement date of the revision, have the force of law in Uganda, and accordingly, from that date, this Statute shall apply to it as if it formed part of the Treaty.”
