GUIDELINES FOR THE SETTING OF FINES.

(In relation to the imposition of fines pursuant to s. 5(f) of the Uganda Communications Act, Cap. 106)

In accordance with section 5(1)(f) of the Uganda Communications Act, the Commission has power to impose a fine on any person who unlawfully possesses, installs, connects or operates any communications equipment or apparatus or unlawfully provides or performs and communications services. The power to impose fines is a means of enforcing compliance with the Act.

Section 36 of the Uganda Communications Act proposes a fine not exceeding the equivalent of 10% of the Operators gross annual revenue, for serious and repeated breach of licence conditions.

In every case of infringement, the Commission will take into account the following:

- The seriousness of the infringement
- The duration of the infringement
- A fine must be sufficiently dissuasive to discourage offences and repeat offences.
- A fine must be higher than the cost of complying with the law, particularly with respect to economic regulation.
- Repeat offenders must be severely punished.

Below is the schedule of the proposed fines, which may be varied by the Commission from time to time.

Schedule for section 5(1)(f) fines

Violation	Amount
False Advertisement	Shs. 500,000
Operation without a licence issued under the Uganda Communications Act	Shs. 2,000,000
Failure to furnish to the Commission required information	Shs. 500,000
Failure to maintain required records	Shs. 500,000
Unauthorised discontinuance of service (Ceasing operations without notice to the Commission)	Shs. 1,000,000
Importation or marketing of unauthorised communications equipment	Shs. 5,000,000
Construction or operation at unauthorised location	Shs. 1,000,000
Sending false distress signals	Shs. 1,000,000
Use of unauthorised equipment (For each piece of equipment seized)	Shs. 2,000,000
Exceeding power limits	Shs. 10,000,000
Exceeding of authorised antenna height	Shs. 2,500,000
Using unauthorised frequency	Shs. 10,000,000
Failure to engage in required frequency coordination	Shs. 10,000,000
Interference	Shs. 10,000,000
Failure to respond to commission communications	Shs. 500,000

N.B In cases of continuous offences, the offender is liable to pay a further fine of Shs. 100,000 for each day or part of a day during which the offence continues after the first fine.

MANAGEMENT.

General Notice No. 242 of 2004.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT.

(Cap. 83).

NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that any person who has opposed the registration of any of the marks advertised may within sixty days from the date of this Gazette, lodge Notice of opposition on Trade Mark Form No. 6 together with fee of Shs. 4000 in case of National applicants or US$ 25 in case of Foreign applicants. The period of lodging Notice of opposition may be extended in suitable cases by the Registrar, he thinks fit upon such terms as he may direct. For opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant so that he may be given opportunity to withdraw his application before the expense of opposition proceedings is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application for an order for costs if the opposition is unsuccessful by the applicant. Representations of the marks herein advertised can be inspected at the office of the Registrar of Trade Marks, Crane Chambers, P.O. Box 6848, Kampala.

2004 No. 41.

The Uganda Communications (Enforcement Procedures) Regulations, 2004.

(Under sections 5(1) (f) and 94 (1) of the Uganda Communications Act Cap. 106)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on the Uganda Communications Commission by sections 5(1) (f) and 94 (1) of the Uganda Communications Act, these Regulations are made this 17th day of May, 2004.

PRELIMINARY.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Uganda Communications (Enforcement Procedures) Regulations, 2004. Citation.

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires— Inter-pretation.

“Act” means the Uganda Communications Act;

“Commission” means the Uganda Communications Commission established by the Act;

“Court” means a court of competent jurisdiction;

“Executive Director” means the Executive Director of the Commission;

“guidelines” means guidelines published from time to time by the Commission in the Gazette;

“licence” means a licence issued under the Act;

“licensee” means a holder of a licence issued under the Act;

“regulations” means regulations made under the Act.

Purpose.

3. The purpose of these Regulations is to ensure compliance in the communications sector by all people in Uganda, to spell out the tools for investigations of violations and to prescribe the penalties for non-compliance with these Regulations.

INVESTIGATION OF VIOLATIONS.

Duty of Commission to ensure compliance.

4. It is the duty of the Commission to use the best practicable means to ensure that the provisions of the Act, regulations and licences are complied with.

Investigations.

5. (1) In carrying out investigations in respect of non-compliance under the Act, regulations and licences, the Commission shall employ the following tools—

(a) letters of inquiry to initiate an investigation into a matter or to gather more information during the course of an ongoing investigation;

(b) initiated surveillance, field inspection and investigations by the Commission which shall be carried out in response to a complaint or at the Commission's own motion.

(2) The recipient of a letter of inquiry under subregulation (1) (a) shall be required to respond to the inquiry within ten working days after receipt of that letter.

(3) The results of an investigation under subregulation (1) (b) shall lead to any of the following actions—

(a) no further action but advice to the owner of the inspected facilities;

(b) issuing a further letter of inquiry requesting for additional information;

(c) issuing a notice of violation requiring an explanation in respect of the violation; or

(d) imposition of monetary fines under section 5(1) of the Act.

ENFORCEMENT.

6. (1) Any person may lodge a complaint with the Executive Director on grounds that a licensee, competitor, consumer or other interested party has violated the provisions of the Act, the regulations or a licence. Complaints.

(2) When lodging a complaint under subregulation (1), it shall not be necessary for the complainant to show or prove any personal loss or injury or discomfort caused by the violation.

(3) On receiving a complaint under subregulation (1), the Executive Director shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the violation is abated or controlled, and that these Regulations are complied.

7. Where the Commission has established that a violation of the provisions of the Act, regulations or a licence has occurred, the Commission shall do all or any of the following— Action by Commission.

(a) issue a warning where the violation warrants a warning, informing the party to take steps to ensure compliance in future, failure of which may lead to a more severe enforcement action;

(b) impose monetary fines under section 5(1) (f) of the Act for violations according to the guidelines and the party concerned shall be notified of the fine and be required to pay the fine within thirty days from the date of the order requiring the party to pay the fine;

(c) enter into a consent agreement in lieu of a fine, under which the offending party shall take steps to ensure compliance;

(d) issue an order requiring a party to cease any act of non-compliance with the Act, regulations and licence provisions.

Revocation of licence.

8. The Executive Director may at any time, commence proceedings to revoke the licence of a licensee that has violated the provisions of the Act, regulations or a licence if he or she is satisfied that those provisions have not been complied with, or where, despite warnings, the offending licensee continues to violate the Act, regulations or relevant provision of the licence.

Confiscation
of equipment,
etc.

9. (1) The Executive Director may seize, impound or confiscate any property, tool, equipment or other instrument that is unlawfully possessed, installed, connected or operated in accordance with the Act.

(2) The owner of any property seized, impounded or confiscated under these Regulations shall be responsible for the costs incurred in the confiscation.

Return of seized
equipment.

10. (1) Where any property, tool, equipment or other instrument is seized, impounded or confiscated under regulation 9, the owner or person using that property, tool, equipment or other instrument may at any time, in writing, apply to the Executive Director requesting for the return of the property, tool, equipment or other instrument to him or her.

(2) Upon receipt of an application under subregulation (1), the Executive Director may return the property, tool, equipment or other instrument or part of it upon being satisfied that the prescribed fine has been paid to the Commission and the return of the equipment is not likely to lead to a further violation of the provisions of the Act, regulations or licence.

(3) Nothing in this regulation prevents the Executive Director from returning the property, tool, equipment or other instrument to which this regulation applies without being requested to do so.

PENALTIES.

Minor violations.

11. For the purposes of imposing fines under section 5(1) (f) of the Act and the guidelines, the following constitute minor violations—

- (a) failing to furnish the Commission with the required records or information;
- (b) failing to keep proper accounting records;
- (c) ceasing operations without notice to the Commission.

12. For the purposes of imposing fines under section 5(1) (f) of the Act and the guidelines, the following constitute major violations—

Major violations.

- (a) exceeding the authorized antennae height;
- (b) exceeding the authorized power limits;
- (c) failing to engage in the required frequency coordination.

13. For the purposes of imposing fines under section 5(1) (f), of the Act and the guidelines, the following constitute serious violations—

Serious violations.

- (a) operating any communications services without a licence;
- (b) advertising or placing a notice, mark or word which may reasonably lead the public to believe that the advertiser is the holder of a licence;
- (c) violating the provisions of the Act relating to equality of treatment and non denial of service;
- (d) using unauthorized frequencies or equipment; and
- (e) importing or marketing unauthorized communications equipment.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation (1), the Authority may require such other form of financial statements as it may from time to time specify.

PART III—CONDUCT OF FUND MANAGEMENT BUSINESS.

Conduct of fund
management
business.

7. (1) No fund manager shall—

- (a) recommend to a client to whom investment, supervisory, management or consulting services are provided, the purchase or sale of any security without reasonable grounds to believe that the recommendation is suitable for the client on the basis of information furnished by the client after reasonable inquiry concerning the client's investment objectives, financial situation and needs, and any other information known or acquired by the fund manager after reasonable examination of the client's financial records;
- (b) place an order to purchase or sell a security for the account of a client without written authority to do so;
- (c) place an order to purchase or sell a security for the account of a client upon instruction of a third party without first having obtained a written third-party authorization from the client;
- (d) exercise any discretionary power in placing an order for the purchase or sale of securities for a client without obtaining written discretionary authority from the client;
- (e) induce trading in a client's account that is excessive in size or frequency in view of the financial resources, investment objectives and character of the account;
- (f) misrepresent to any client, or prospective client, its qualifications or misrepresent the nature of the advisory services being offered or fees to be charged for such service, or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements regarding qualifications, services or fees, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading;

- (g) provide a report or recommendation to any client prepared by someone other than the fund manager without disclosing that fact;
- (h) fail to disclose to clients in writing before any advice is rendered, any material conflict of interest relating to the fund manager or any of the fund manager's employees that could reasonably be expected to impair the rendering of unbiased and objective advice, including—
 - (i) compensation arrangements connected with advisory services to clients that are in addition to compensation from those clients for such services; or
 - (ii) charging a client an advisory fee for rendering advice where a commission for executing securities transactions pursuant to such advice will be received by the fund manager or his or her employees;
- (i) guarantee a client that a specific result will be achieved arising from the advice that will be rendered, except in the case of fixed income securities;
- (j) publish, circulate or distribute any advertisement which does not comply with the Act;
- (k) disclose the identity, affairs or investment of any client to any third party unless required by any written law, a court order or the authority to do so, or unless consented to by the client;
- (l) enter into, extend or renew any fund management contract unless the contract contains the information set out in the Second Schedule to these Regulations and discloses in substance, the services to be provided, the term or duration of the contract, the advisory fee, the formula for computing the fee, the amount of the prepaid fee to be returned in the event of contract termination or non-performance, whether the contract grants discretionary power to the fund manager and that no assignment of the contract shall be made to the fund manager without the consent of the other party to the contract;

(m) fail to register all securities marketed and offered to clients by the fund manager or otherwise inform the client that the securities offered to them have not been approved by the Authority.

(2) Any information provided by fund managers to clients through newsletters and advertisements shall be factual and accurate.

(3) No fund manager shall loan money to a client unless the client is an affiliate of the fund manager.

(4) A fund manager may not contract or engage any advisory or management services on behalf of an investment portfolio without prior written approval of the client concerned; and fund manager shall remain liable for—

(a) any act or omission of the sub-contracted fund manager;

(b) the fees and expenses of any such person, which expenses shall not be payable out of the fund of the portfolio investments; and

(c) any expenses incurred by any such person, which if incurred by the fund manager, would have been payable out of the fund of the investment portfolio.

(5) When accepting an order from a client, the fund manager shall inform the client of all constituent parts of the relevant service agreement prior to executing the order, and shall cause the client to give the fund manager a written declaration to confirm the order.

(6) The fund manager shall be fair and equitable in the event of any conflict of interest that may arise in the course of the fund manager's duties.

Custodian
of investment funds.

8. (1) A fund manager that manages funds, over which its client has not appointed a custodian, shall appoint a custodian approved by the Authority for the assets of the fund.

(2) A custodian of an investment portfolio may, in relation to a fund manager, be a holding company or a subsidiary company within the meaning of those terms as defined in the Companies Act, Cap 110, or be an entity deemed by the Authority to be otherwise under the control of substantially the same persons or consist substantially of the same shareholders; except that the investment in a related company shall be limited to ten percent of the total funds managed by the fund manager.

(3) The Authority may direct a fund manager to revoke the appointment of a custodian if the custodian at any time after its appointment ceases to carry out its functions honestly, efficiently or fairly.

Duties of a
custodian

9. (1) A custodian shall render custodial services to the investment portfolio managed by the fund manager in accordance with a written service agreement between the custodian and the fund manager; and the custodial services shall include—

(a) taking into its custody or under its control all the property of the clients of the fund manager and holding the property in trust for the clients in accordance with the provisions of the written service agreement; except that cash and registerable assets shall be registered in the name of or to the order of the clients by the custodian;

(b) receiving and keeping in safe custody, title documents, securities and cash amounts of the investment portfolio;

- (c) opening an account in the name of each client for the exclusive benefit of the relevant investment portfolio;
- (d) transferring, exchanging or delivering in the required form and manner, securities held by the custodian upon receipt of proper instructions from the fund manager;
- (e) requiring from the fund manager, such information as the custodian deems necessary for the performance of its functions as a custodian;
- (f) promptly delivering to the fund manager or to such other persons as the fund manager may authorise, copies of all notices, proxies, proxy soliciting materials received by the custodian in relation to the securities held in the fund account, all public information, financial reports and investor communications the custodian may receive from the issuers of securities and all other information the custodian may receive, as may be agreed between the custodian and the fund manager;
- (g) exercising subscription, purchase or other similar rights represented by the securities subject to receipt of proper instructions from the fund manager;
- (h) exercising the same standard of care that it exercises over its own assets in holding, maintaining, servicing and disposing of property and in fulfilling obligations in the agreement;
- (i) where title to investments are recorded electronically, ensuring that entitlements of the clients of the fund manager are separately identified in the records of entitlement maintained by the custodian.

(2) A custodian shall, in executing its duties under subregulation (1), exercise the degree of care expected of a prudent professional custodian for hire.

(3) A custodian discharging its contractual duties to a fund manager shall not contract agents to discharge those functions except where a portion of the investment portfolio is invested in offshore investments, in which case the custodian may engage the services of an overseas sub-custodian approved by the fund manager with notification of the appointment to the Authority.

(4) The agreement referred to in subregulation (1) between the custodian and the fund manager shall provide for the computation of the fee in respect of custodial services and such provision shall be disclosed to the clients by the fund manager in the annual report.

Retirement
custodian.

10. (1) A custodian shall not retire voluntarily except upon the appointment of a successor approved by the Authority.

(2) Where a custodian desires to retire or ceases to be approved as a custodian by the Authority, the fund manager may, with the approval of the Authority, appoint another eligible person to be a custodian in its place.

Removal of a custodian.

11. (1) A custodian may be removed by the fund manager by notice in writing addressed to the custodian where -

- (a) the custodian goes into liquidation, other than a voluntary liquidation, for the purpose of reconstruction or amalgamation or where a statutory manager or a receiver is appointed over any of its assets;
- (b) the custodian ceases to carry on the business of a custodian;
- (c) the custodian fails or neglects, after reasonable notice from the fund manager, to carry out or satisfy any duty imposed on the custodian in accordance with the service agreement; or

- (d) the directors of the fund manager, by resolution, duly resolve that such notice be given, and the fund manager with the approval of the Authority appoints as custodian some other approved custodian.

(2) On receipt by the custodian of the notice referred to in subregulation (1), the service agreement between the fund manager and the custodian shall be deemed to have been terminated.

(3) Upon the termination of a service agreement under subregulation (2), or from the date of a winding up order issued by a court against the custodian, the custodian shall hand over all assets, documents and funds, including funds from bank accounts of the fund manager held by the custodian, to the custodian appointed in writing by the fund manager and approved by the Authority within thirty days from the date of such termination.

(4) The custodian shall submit to the Authority an audit report indicating the assets and liabilities and an inventory of the investment portfolio, securities and title documents of the assets which have been handed over, transferred and delivered to the newly appointed custodian within twenty days from the termination of the service agreement in accordance with subregulation (2).

to The Uganda Gazette No. 36 Volume XCVII dated 23rd July, 2004

Printed by UPPC, Entebbe, by Order of the Government.

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2004 No. 44.

The Water Statute (General Rates) Instrument, 2004

(Under the Water Statute, Statute 9, 1995)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Minister by section 107(2)(q) of the Water Statute, this instrument is made this 8th day of July, 2004.

Statute 9 of 1995.

1. This instrument may be cited as the Water Statute (General Rates) Instrument, 2004 and shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of July, 2004

Title and commencement date.

2. The rates specified in the second column of the First Schedule hereto shall be the rates payable in respect of consumers specified in the first column thereof, in the towns in which National Water and Sewerage Corporation supplies water and provides sewerage services as specified in the Second Schedule hereto.

3. The above mentioned rates will be subject to annual indexation against the domestic price index, exchange rate, foreign price index and the electricity tariff.

Indexation of the NWSC Tariff.

The indexation will be carried out on a financial year basis and will apply on the 1st July of each year. The indexation will be based upon the following formular.

$$T_0 (a\Delta I + b\Delta F I \Delta F X + c\Delta K) = T_1$$

Whereby

- T_0 = Tariff level at end of year zero.
a = Proportion of tariff associated with local salaries, and locally sourced goods based on the previous years audited financial Accounts.
 Δ = Change.
I = Domestic retail price index as published by the Bureau of Statistics and based on the underlying inflation rate.
b = the proportion of the tariff associated with foreign costs, i.e. foreign inputs in the production process based on the previous years audited financial accounts.
FI = Foreign retail price index based on the US Bureau of Labour Statistics.
FX = US Dollar to shilling exchange rate based on the Bank of Uganda mid exchange rate as at the 30th June of each financial year.
c = Proportion of tariff associated with electrical power based on % of electricity cost to total cost as a proxy. (Audited financial Accounts).
K = Price of electrical power per unit.
 T_1 = Indexed Tariff at beginning of year one.

Service Lines.

4. Effective July 2004, the NWSC will provide and maintain all water service lines to its customers. To enable the Corporation do this, all service lines shall belong to the NWSC. Accordingly, in order to defray the costs of this additional service to customers, the rates will be adjusted by an average of 10% for all customer categories except those consuming over 500 cu.m of water per month.

S.I. No. 23
