8. Mandatory reference to mediation.

(1) A party may not opt out of mediation except where allowed by an order of the Court, if the matter is brought to the attention of the Court.

(2) In every new action filed in or referred to the Court after the commencement of these Rules, each party shall indicate in its pleadings, which category of mediator the party prefers to mediate in his or her case.

(3) Notwithstanding any rule in the Civil Procedure Rules to the contrary, appeal, review or other form of challenge shall not be permitted from a referral order of a Registrar or Judge made under these Rules referring a case to the Court for mediation.

(4) Where a matter is referred to mediation the time limits set out in rule 2(2) of Order XII (Scheduling Conference and Alternative Dispute Resolution) of the Civil Procedure Rules, or other relevant rules shall cease to run from the date of the referral order, until after the report of the neutral person has been filed in the Court upon completion of the mediation process.

9. Objection to mandatory mediation reference

(1) Where a party has opposed a reference of the matter to mediation, or the parties cannot agree on the mediator to conduct the mediation, the Registrar shall cause a notice to be issued to the parties within thirty days after the filing of the first defence, inviting the parties to attend a mediation hearing before the Registrar.

11. Time limits.

(1) Mediation proceedings shall be completed within thirty days from the date of the order directing mediation; except that the Registrar may, upon proper cause being shown, extend or abridge the time within which the mediation proceedings may be commenced.

(2) The parties may, upon filing an agreement for extension of time with the Registrar, agree to an extension of the time for an additional period not exceeding thirty days.

(3) The mediator may apply to the Registrar in the prescribed form for further extension of time, at least ten days before the intended hearing.

12. Considerations for extension or abridgement of time.

In considering whether to exercise the power conferred by rule 11, the Registrar shall take into account all relevant circumstances, including—

- (a) the number of parties, the state of the pleadings and the complexity of the issues in the action;
- (b) the provisions of Order XXXV(Proceedings by Agreement of Parties) of the Civil Procedure Rules;
- (c) special case stated under any provision of the law;
- (d) whether the mediation is likely to succeed if the twenty one day period prescribed under rule 2(2) of Order XII (Scheduling Conference and Alternative Dispute Resolution) of the Civil Procedure Rules is extended to allow the parties to obtain evidence under Order XI (Consolidation of Suits) of the Civil Procedure Rules; or
- (e) whether, given the nature of the case or the circumstances of the parties, the mediation is more likely to succeed if the twenty one day period prescribed under rule 2(2) of Order XII (Scheduling Conference and Alternative Dispute Resolution) of the Civil Procedure Rules is extended or abridged.

13. Mediators.

(1) Mediation under these Rules shall be conducted by—

(3) Every person who conducts mediation under these Rules shall submit a mediator's report in accordance with rule 19.

(4) Where mediation is unsuccessful and a Judge was the mediator, the Judge shall immediately cease to take part in any further proceedings arising out of the mediation and shall not give evidence as a witness in any subsequent judicial proceedings arising out of the failed mediation.

(6) Where the parties appoint a mediator who is not referred to in rule 13 (1) (c) and (d), the parties shall pay the fees of the mediator.

14. Assistance to the parties.

The mediator shall make arrangements necessary for the mediation including as may be necessary—

- (b) facts giving rise to the dispute;
- (c) witnesses; and

(3) In addition, each party may send to the mediator, through the court, or bring to the mediation, further documents, which it wishes to disclose in confidence to the mediator but not to any other party, clearly stating in writing that the document is confidential to the mediator.

17. Copy of pleadings.

The mediator may require the parties to provide a copy of the pleadings or a case summary of each party's case.

18. Failure of party to attend and costs.

(1) If it is not practical to conduct a scheduled mediation session because a party fails to attend, the mediator may adjourn the session to another date.

(2) A party that fails to attend the mediation session without good cause is liable to pay to the mediator the adjournment costs specified in the First Schedule to these Rules, which shall be embodied in the order of the Court.

21. Confidentiality.

- (b) all information, whether given orally in writing or otherwise, arising out of or in connection with the mediation, including the fact of any settlement and its terms.

(2) The proceedings of mediation, whether oral or in the form of documents, tapes, computer discs or other media shall be privileged and shall not be admissible as evidence or be disclosed in any current or subsequent litigation or other proceedings.

(3) Sub-rule (2) does not apply to any information, which would in any case have been admissible or disclosable in proceedings in the main suit or an application arising from the suit.

(4) Rules 20 and 21 do not apply insofar as any information referred to in sub-rule (2) is necessary to implement and enforce any settlement agreement arising out of the mediation.

(5) A party to a matter referred to mediation under these Rules shall not compel the mediator or the mediating institution or any employee, officer or representative of CADER as a witness, consultant, or expert in any litigation or other proceedings.

22. Costs.
