A member shall nominate a person as his or her beneficiary using the format provided in Form B in Schedule 2 to these Regulations to receive pension, lump sum benefits or any other benefit payable under the provisions of the Act or these Regulations.

38. Rights, duties, and responsibilities of members.

(1) The rights of a member of the scheme include a right to—

- (a) pension or a lump sum payment as provided under these Regulations;
- (b) make recommendations for the consideration of the board;
- (c) initiate recall of any member of the board of trustees based upon valid grounds in accordance with the rules outlined in Schedule 3;
- (d) receive information on the financial condition or result of operations of the scheme.

(2) The duties and responsibilities of a member of the scheme include—

- (a) to support, and cooperate where applicable in all activities and undertakings of the scheme;
- (b) to ensure that his or her particulars required under regulation 36 and 37 are correct and updated as and when required;
- (c) to inquire into the status of his or her account; and
- (d) to attend the annual general meeting and other meetings of the scheme when required.

39. Temporary absence from service.

(1) Where a member is temporarily absent from service with permission of the Commission or the Speaker; and during such absence the—

- (a) member's pensionable emolument is neither reduced or suspended, the contributions by and in respect of the member shall continue to be paid;
- (b) member's pensionable emolument is reduced, the contributions by and in respect of the member shall be reduced proportionally; or
- (c) member is not in receipt of a pensionable emolument, the member shall remain a member of the scheme and shall not be liable to make the monthly contributions under the Act, and his or her benefits shall be limited to the accrued benefits.

(2) Subject to sub regulation (1) , the period during which a member is on authorised leave shall be counted as continuous service provided it is not more than one year.

40. Effect on terms of employment.

(1) Nothing in these Regulations shall in any way restrict the right of the Commission to terminate the employment of a member or affect any agreement between the Commission and a member of staff in regard to conditions of service.

(2) No benefit, right or interest to which a member or his or her dependents may claim to be entitled in terms of these Regulations shall be used as a ground for damages in any action brought by such member or his or her dependents against the Commission and or Government.

Contribution and Payment of Benefits

41. Payment of contributions.

(1) Contributions by and in respect of a member shall cease to be payable as from the first day of the month following in which the member ceases to earn a pensionable emolument.

(2) The board shall maintain a record of all contributions made by both the member and the Government.

42. Payment of benefits.

Payment of benefits to a member shall be done in the event of the following circumstances happening—

- (a) on retirement;
- (b) on resignation;
- (c) retirement on health grounds; or
- (d) upon death of a member.

43. Pension to a former member.

(1) Pension shall be paid to a member who retires or ceases to be a member on or after attaining forty-five years of age, subject to service as a member for a continuous period of five years or more.

(2) The pension payable to a former member shall be calculated basing on a formula provided in Schedule 1 of the Act.

(3) The board may by Statutory Instrument and in consultation with the Parliamentary Commission amend Schedule 1 of the Act after an actuarial review being carried out.

(4) The pension payable to a former member on his or her retirement shall be of such amount as can be purchased by his or her scheme credit at the date of retirement by monthly payments.

(5) Notwithstanding sub-regulation (4), a member entitled to a pension shall have an option of receiving a commuted lump sum payment of not more than twenty five percent of his or her scheme credit.

(6) A person receiving pension shall annually submit to the scheme, a confirmation of continuous existence for him or her, which shall be witnessed by the Clerk to Parliament or Local Council, religious leader, priest or magistrate where that person ordinarily resides.

(7) Notwithstanding sub regulation 4 and 5, a former member qualifying for pension under the Act may receive a lump sum payment as trivial pension in accordance with regulation 54.

44. Retirement as a consequence of another Government appointment.

The benefits of a member, who retires or ceases to be a member as a consequence of another Government appointment with a retirement scheme, shall be deferred until the member retires or ceases to hold the new appointment.

45. Refund of scheme credit.

(1) Subject to section 12A of the Act, a member who retires or ceases to be a member whose age is less than forty-five years, or who has had less than five years of pensionable service, shall be entitled to a refund of his or her scheme credit.

(2) For the purposes of sub regulation (1), the proportion of the Government contribution that vests in the member shall be calculated as follows—

- (a) ten percent of the contribution shall vest after service of less than or equal to one year;
- (b) twenty percent of the contribution shall vest after service of one year but less than two years;
- (c) forty percent of the contribution shall vest after service of at least two years but less than three years;
- (d) sixty percent of the contribution shall vest after service of at least three years but less than four years;
- (e) eighty percent of the contribution shall vest after service of at least four years but less than five years;

(f) one hundred percent of the contribution shall vest after service of at least five years.

(3) This Regulation shall not apply to a person who was a member before 2010.

46. Deferment of payment of benefits.

(1) Notwithstanding the provision of regulation 45 (1), a member whose membership ceases before he or she attains the age of forty-five years, but whose pensionable service is five years or more, may leave his or her contribution in the Scheme as deferred benefits until he or she attains the age of forty-five years.

(2) A member whose payment is deferred under sub regulation (1) shall, on attaining the age of forty-five years or more, be paid his or her scheme credit as a pension and shall be entitled to a commuted lump sum payment of not more than twenty five percent of his or her scheme credit.

(3) A member who has opted to defer his or her benefits under this regulation shall not reverse that decision.

47. Death of a member.

Where a member dies while in pensionable service, his or her spouse or dependant, and where applicable, a person nominated by the member before the member's death shall be paid a refund of his or her scheme credit.

48. Death of a person receiving pension.

(1) Where a person dies when he or she is receiving a pension under the Act, his or her spouse, dependant or where applicable, a person nominated by the member before the member's death shall be entitled to receive the deceased member's pension.

(2) The pension payable in sub regulation (1) shall be the difference between the guaranteed pension and pension received.

(3) Pension is guaranteed for fifteen years after death.

49. Suspension of pension on re-election.

(1) Where a person receiving a pension under the Act is elected as a Member of Parliament or appointed as a member of staff of the Commission on permanent and pensionable terms contributing to the fund, the payment of the pension or any part of it shall be suspended during the period he or she is a serving member.

(2) For avoidance of doubt, no pension under these Regulations shall be paid to a serving Member of Parliament.

50. Procedure for payment of benefits.

(1) Where a person ceases to be a member, the Commission shall notify the board of the member's date of retirement and any subsequent change in the retirement date shall be made within thirty days from the date of the notice.

(2) Where the date of birth of a member is in doubt, and if such date is not proved by any written record used for official purposes, the board may, for the purpose of any claim under the Act, accept the date of birth declared at the time of registration of that member or any document produced by the member and verified by the board as proof of the member's age.

(3) The board shall in accordance with the vesting scale provided under regulation 45 pay pension or any other benefit to such a member within 90 days from the effective date of retirement.

(4) Where any contribution by and in respect of a member remains due, the board shall on payment of any benefit under the Act, deduct any payment of contribution due before payment.

(5) Except for cases of termination or death, it shall be the duty of every member to notify the board of his or her intention to leave the scheme within three months to the intended date of retirement.

(6) Where a beneficiary cannot be traced or there is failure to fulfill requirements for payment of benefits, the board shall at the end of twelve months transfer the benefits due to the general reserve account.

51. Duty of the Commission to provide information.

The trustees shall not be required to effect any payment or perform any obligation under the Fund unless the trustees have been notified by the Commission or by the member or the beneficiary concerned of all events giving rise to or affecting the incidence of such liability or obligation.

52. Prohibited payments and benefits.

(1) Payments shall not be made to a member while on pensionable service.

(2) Loans, advances or other similar benefits or payments shall not be provided out of the Fund to a member except that; a prescribed proportion of the benefits accruing to the member may be assigned and used by the member; to secure a mortgage or loan for purchasing a residential house from any institution or pay for medical treatment in respect of the member.

(3) The Board shall develop guidelines to be followed in sub regulation (2).

53. Death of a member.

(1) Upon the death of a member, the Commission shall inform the board on the death of the member.

(2) In accordance with Sections 16 and 16A of the Act, a person applying for the member's benefits shall attach the following documents with the application—

- (a) his or her identity card;
- (b) letters of administration or probate;

- (c) marriage certificate, where applicable;
- (d) birth certificate, where applicable; or
- (e) any other document that may be required for the purpose.

54. Procedure on determination of trivial pension.

(1) The board shall determine trivial pension after consultation with and recommendation of an actuary having regard to the significance and economic viability from time to time.

(2) A member must qualify for pension under regulation 42 before he or she applies for trivial pension under these regulations.

(3) A member who qualifies for trivial pension shall take up the commutation within 12 months from the date of retirement or event enumerated under regulation 42.

(4) Payment of trivial pension shall extinguish all pension rights or payments due to the member from the scheme.

Accounts

55. Bank accounts.

(1) The board shall open and maintain bank accounts necessary for the exercise of the functions of the Scheme and shall pay into them—
